Slaves and Free Men of Color of Washington County, Arkansas, 1829-1865

Compiled by
Anthony J. Wappel
with Judy Drummond and Angela Holcomb*

While indexing the numerous records housed in the Archives of Washington County, the Archives Staff (consisting of Tony Wappel, Judy Drummond and Angela Holcomb) realized that numerous documents included information about slaves. We decided to note these entries as a way to record information about slaves in our county. Although we did our best to be thorough, there is no guarantee that we noticed every single slave entry, as that was usually of secondary import to the actual types of records being indexed. As most slaves did not have last names and often took the name of their owner, we have arranged this index alphabetically by the last name of the last known owner, then by the previous owner, and then by the name of the slave. This, in turn, has helped keep potential slave families together. When given, the age of the slave and any family relationships are noted.

We hope this list offers researchers of Washington County history and genealogy a better insight into the numerous slaves and communities that existed in the county.
