Comments

Family trees indicate that several of the children listed as being born in Texas on census and death records may have actually been born in New Mexico Territory and New Mexico based on a family bible birth records. 1870 and 1880 census records have not been found for the family. Searches were made on last and first names and also using just date and place of birth. The family comes to California around 1883 settling in Trabuco Canyon where they farmed.
