Additional Information

Ezra Benedict Kellogg's Pension Applications notes service performed in September and October of 1814. He served with his brother Price French Kellogg. Ezra was awarded 160 acres of land for his service.

Ezra Benedict Kellogg, after serving the church for many years in Ohio, Connecticut, New York, Illinois and other states, moved to San Diego in 1870 and ended his pastoral career in Anaheim. He is said to have helped establish St. Michael's Episcopal Church in Anaheim in 1876. The church is on the National Register of Historic Places.

Ezra Benedict Kellogg's father, Jason Benedict, served in the Revolutionary War.
