CHRISTIAN

John Coleman Christian Sr., age 76, a native of Charles City County, died June 6, 1983. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Virginia Wood Christian; two sons, John Coleman Christian Jr. and William Edward Christian, both of Charles City County; five sisters, Mrs. Catherine C. Darnall of Gulf Port, Miss. and Mrs. Nannie C. English of Ormond Beach, Fla., Mrs. Clara C. Murchison of Concord, N.C., Mrs. Betty C. Arnold of Virginia Beach, Va., Mrs. Evelyn C. Hill of Richmond; one brother, Mr. Louis Coleman Christian of Baton Rouge, La.; and three grandchildren. Funeral services will be held 3 P.M. Wednesday in Westover Parish Church with interment in church cemetery.

Charles City revenue for Charles City County, a post he held for 34 years, died yesterday.

The state medical examiner said the death was caused by a self-inflicted gunshot wound in the head. Mr. Christian had been ill for about two months, a family member said.

Mr. Christian was Charles City County's commissioner of revenue from 1942, when he succeeded his father in the post, until 1976 when his wife, Virginia Wood Christian, became the commissioner. She served until 1980.

The Christian family's ties to Charles City are as old as the county itself. Mr. Christian's great-great-grandfather, Joseph, fought in Virginia in the Revolutionary War. His grandfather, Isaac, who died in 1904, apparently began the history of the Christian family participation in county government that spanned more than a century when he served for 24 years as Circuit Court judge for Charles City and New Kent counties.

Mr. Christian, who was also a farmer, belonged to Bethany Presbyterian Church in Charles City County. He was a charter member of the Charles City Ruritan Club.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, John C. Christian Jr. of Chesterfield County and William Edward Christian of Charles City; a brother, Louis Coleman Christian Jr. of Baton Rouge, La.; and five sisters, Mrs. Catherine C. Darnall of Gulf Port, Miss., Mrs. Nannie C. English of Ormond Beach, Fla., Mrs. Clara C. Murchison of Concord, N.C., Mrs. Betty C. Arnold of Virginia Beach and Mrs. Evelyn C. Hill of Richmond.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 3 p.m. at Westover Episcopal Church in Charles City. Burial will be in the church cemetery.
