 With four other men (Mr. John Ross, Mr. Vawter, Mr. Jacob Cook, and Mr. Humphreys) built the Methodist Church in Greenville, West Virginia.
 The homestead was on Han's Creek, about 4 miles from Greenville [then Centerville]. By 1928 the separate kitchen + slave quarters were gone. Large rooms with their large carved mantels were little changed. Sulphur spring in front of home was still used for many purposes.
