SURNAME WORKMAN
 Relationship of _____ to _____ Husband _____ Wife

B I O G R A P H I C A L D A T A

Couple moved from New York to Somerville, Somerset County, New Jersey. *

At April session of Assembly of 1784, when military land in Maryland was apportioned, he was granted title to fifty acres of land, Military lot # 3656, in Fort Cumberland, Maryland — presumably for Revolutionary War services. Ten years later, on 14 April 1794, he transferred title of this land to Isaac, etc. *
 It is doubtful that he ever lived in Maryland *

 B I O G R A P H I C A L D A T A
 With brothers, first settler of Logan County, W. Va. ca. 1794 *
 Minister of Methodist Episcopal Church, instrumental in founding church *
 Joseph WORKMAN + Joseph ELKINS were neighbors in Boone Co., Va. when the war of 1812 broke out. They went down the canyon together to join the army. ELKINS was mortally wounded during the conflict, and as he was dying he turned to WORKMAN and said "Now, don't let my family suffer." When WORKMAN returned home, he said he did not know any better way to take care of them than to marry the lady. He raised the ELKINS children and ten of his own. *

B I O G R A P H I C A L D A T A
 Said by descendants to have served in Revolutionary War *
 He + his two sons Joseph + James Workman were the first white settlers in Boone County, W.Va. They took up the land for many miles up + down the major river there.
 They + their descendants settled on the tributaries of the Big Coal River. Prior to 1829 a large one-story log building was built to house the family. A porch extended the entire length of the home with many doors leading to the various rooms.
 James Workman, Sr. member of Olive Branch Baptist Church in 1835 + 1836.
