

From The Past . . .

This looks like the home of
MINTON Amanda Mitten Home Eliza Bartley Haynes

This photo from the past shows the old log home of Amanda <sup>MINTON</sup>Mitten, who lived to be more than 100 years old. She was the grandmother of Cornie Shipley Lovens, a teacher at the former Mt. Davidson School, located up Blue Hollow from the log home. The school was located south of Rose Hill, near the Tennessee line, and near the VanHuss Grove Baptist Church and cemetery and the Speak's Chapel Church.

1996 Photo courtesy of Irene DePew Bowen of Westminster, Maryland.