covery from death itself. Miss Taber was far from well when she came back to Ottawa, last February, but she had hope, and her friends hoped with her. She improved slightly, grew worse again, and for months the history of her case has been a slow decline, which neither courage nor medical treatment nor surgical operation could arrest. Death has been merciful in that it has ended a long, hopeless struggle.

Miss Taber's death removes a young woman who was universally loved and esteemed for her excellent womanly qualities. Her heroic struggle for life, and her death appeal to the sentiment of Ottawa people as have few incidents in that record of sufferings, deaths and partings, which the daily life from year to year supplies.

Miss Taber was the only daughter of Mrs. Jenny Taber. She was a half sister of Mrs. Louise Chapman.

The funeral was held from the residence Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Nusbaum. Interment will be in Hope cemetery.

IS AGIN' CARNEGIE LIBRARIES.

CAPTAIN JOE WATERS, OF TOPEKA, HAS PRONOUNCED IDEAS.

The Captain Thinks Sir Thomas Lipton Is a Bigger Man Than Carnegie.

Captain Joe Waters, of Topeka, was here last night on his way to the Gas Belt reunion at Iola, where he spoke today. Captain Waters said that he had not been in the habit of attending the reunions very much but that would speak at four this year.

The captain thinks a great deal of Sir Thomas Lipton. He says "Lipton is very much a gentleman both in the way he takes defeat and the way he takes victory. He has made a reputation for himself, and when he gets through he will have as much money as he started with. From a grocer he has become a gentleman—a world gentleman. The yacht racing has done a great deal toward strengthening the friendly feeling between the two countries. It is a great deal better for him to spend his money that way than to build libraries and make towns promise to keep his name parafined so it won't rust.

"Have you a Carnegie library here?"
inquired Captain Waters. On being

Save the Children.

Ninety-nine of every one hundred diseases that children have are due to disorders of the stomach, and these disorders are all caused by indigestion. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is just as good for children as it is for adults. Children thrive on it. It keeps their little stomachs sweet and encourages their growth and development. Mrs. Henry Carter, 705 Central St., Nashville, Tenn., says: "My little boy is now three years old and has been suffering from indigestion ever since he was born. I have had the best doctors in Nashville, but failed to do him any good. After using one bottle of Kodol he is a well baby. I recommend it to all sufferers." Johnson, another negro, about 11 o'clock Thursday night. Johnson was killed in front of the Gilliss theatre about an hour after the attack. The movements of the Webster woman were traced until finally she was located on lower Walnut street. A knife she had used was found in a box in the Omaha house at 25 East 12th street. Dora Brown, another negro woman, also was arrested and held for investigation. She was with Kittie Webster a short time before the killing.

The Webster woman said last night that she formerly lived at Ottawa, Kas., and there, she said, she first met Johnson. She told the police that he frequently kicked and struck her and that he attacked her on lower Walnut street Thursday night. It was a short time later when they again met that she drew a knife and stabbed him.

The woman said she knew neither Johnson's previous address nor his occupation. She told Assistant Prosecuting Attorney A. S. Lyman that she meant merely to frighten Johnson, not to kill him.

Officers here received word yesterday to look for the Webster woman. They were later notified that she had been arrested in Kansas City. Kittie Webster is officially remembered in Ottawa. She formerly lived on South Walnut street and it was upon her that young Matt Wright was calling, a year or so ago, on the night when his mangled body was found on the railroad track. THE PICNIC WAGON UPSET.

EXCITING TIME FOR RETURNING PARTY FRIDAY NIGHT.

Mark Forester and Crowd Drove Off a Culvert—No Serious Injuries.

A party of picnickers returning home from Woodlief Friday night upset off the edge of a culvert and only escaped serious accident by the most remarkable good fortune.

The crowd in the wagon, comprised Mark Forester, Mrs. Ella Hanes, Mrs. Frank Claypool, Mrs. C. L. Cowdery, Miss Mary Fiske, the Misses Davenport, the two children of Mrs. Lathrop, and Messrs. Clifford Cowdery, D. M. Parrick and J. W. Reed. The party drove a big picnic wagon and started home about 11 o'clock.

The team was hitched up in the dark and it is supposed the lines were not securely fastened. When near the Green Dell schoolhouse the team, driven by Mark Forester, swerved to the side of the road and one wheel of the wagon dropped off the edge of a culvert, a distance of eighteen inches or more. The wagon turned over without a moment's warning, piling the occupants in a heap on the down-side. Mrs. Claypool and a little child and Mark Forester, who
