GUIDE TO GENEALOGY

THE BLAUER FAMILY

Frederick Blauer

Born September 27, 1806 in Canton Berne, Switzerland.

Died on May 4, 1896 at Columbus Junction, Iowa.

Anna Rubi

Born April 8, 1815

Died Nov. 28, 1889

They were married June 12, 1834 in Grindelwald, Switzerland

They had eleven children:

Frederick-----	Jan. 1836-----	Died---April 1906
Anna-----	May 1838-----	Aug. 1925
Johannes-----	June 1840-----	Oct. 1909
Christian-----	Mar. 1842-----	Feb. 1929
Elisabetha-----	May 1844-----	Dec. 1882
Margaretha-----	June 1846-----	Jan. 1915
Ulrich-----	Sept 1848-----	July 1850 in Switzerland
Marianna-----	Apr. 1851-----	Dec. 1914
Susanna-----	July 1852-----	April 1891
Rosina-----	Oct. 1853-----	Sept. 1934
Kathryn-----	June 1858-----	March 1936

They were cheese makers, taking the cattle up into the mountains in the summer with the lead cow having a bell around her neck. Some of the family stayed up with them making cheese. This they carried down on their backs. The bell was brought to America and was first kept by the head of the house Frederick Blauer. Upon his death the Bell passed to his eldest son Frederick. When Frederick died in 1906 the bell then passed to his eldest son William. Shortly after Will's death in 1953, the Bell was brought out to California and given to Will's brother Frederick Blauer of 1317 Spurgeon St. in Santa Ana. It was brought out by the wife of Fred's younger brother John, Dolly Blauer. The Bell remained in Santa Ana until Fred's death in 1959. The possession of the Bell was to pass to Fred's oldest son, Frederick Blauer, Jr., but neither he nor his children wanted it. So, it was passed on to Fred Jr's younger brother, John W. Blauer. John offered it to his eldest son, John Jr, but he declined. It was though, with great pride accepted by John's younger son James Freeman Blauer who had wanted it after his grandfather passed away in 1959. So, the bell now resides with Jim and his family at 418 Pirate Road, Newport Beach, California 92663

In March 1861, Chris, John, Anna and a cousin Elry Bowen came to America to Louisa County, Iowa. The parents and the other seven children came over in Dec. 1862 to Port Louisa, Grandview TWP (Township) in Louisa County, Iowa, by way of New York and St. Louis. Along with the Bell Jim has a copy of the passport of Frederick Blauer (1806-1896) which is dated Oct. 28, 1862. In other words, they arrived during the Civil War.

The Blauer Family reunion was first held in 1939. Each year having officers elected to serve as President, Vice-President, Secretary-Treasurer and Publicity Chairperson. Apparently in 1942 those officers which were elected did not function. The minutes from the July 29, 1952 reunion read; "It was the first reunion held since July 29, 1942. Because of restrictions on traveling and rationing of various commodities due to the War at the time, it was thought best to discontinue the 1942 meeting. Then several years passed. Now, due to the efforts of Vice-Pres. John D. Blauer and wife Dolly of Tingley, Iowa and Fred, Walter and his wife of Letts, Iowa, this reunion was successfully proved successful." (Sec. notes Mrs John Daniel Blauer was completed a family history.

GENEALOGY OF THE AMES FAMILY IN

BRUTON, SOMERSET, ENGLAND

C. A. 1520 - 1635

- I. JOHN AMES. All that is known of this earliest ancestor from whom the Ames Family can trace direct descent is that he was born about 1520 and he was buried in Bruton, Somerset, England, February 21, 1560, and that he had at least one son.

Issue

1. John Ames - C. A. 1540 - 1583.

- II. JOHN AMES, son of John Ames (I). Born, Bruton, England about 1540, died there in 1583. Married, September 25, 1559, Margery Crome (or Brome).

Issue (All born in Bruton, England)

1. John Ames - 1560 - 1629. Christened May 1, 1560.
2. Launcelot Ames, born about 1562.
3. William Ames, born about 1564.

- III. JOHN AMES, eldest son of John Ames (II). Christened, Bruton, England, May 1, 1560; died there in 1629. Married, October 12, 1601, Cyprian (or Xpian) Browne. She died in 1624.

Issue (All born in Bruton, England)

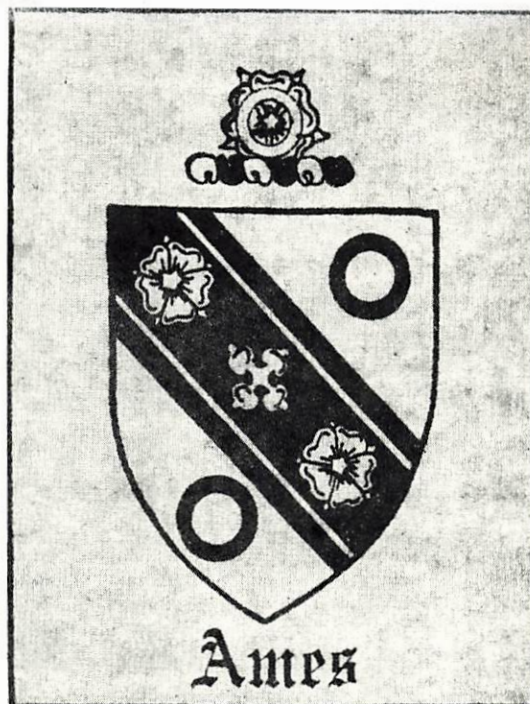

1. Thomas Ames, died in infancy - (1602)
2. Henry Ames, christened July 25, 1603.
- 3. William Ames, christened October 6, 1605 - died January 11, 1654.
- 4. John Ames, christened December 2, 1610 - died C. A. 1698.
5. Mary Ames, christened April 1, 1613.

*(Note: In Naham Mitchell's 'History of Bridgewater' (1840), which contained the first American account of the family, this John Ames of Bruton is called Richard -- an error copied in several subsequent records.)

William Ames and his brother, John Ames, came to America in 1635.

THE AMES COAT OF ARMS

During the reign of Edward I the Herald's College in England granted a coat of arms to the descendants of John Amyas of Yorkshire. It is thus described: "Argent, on a Bend sable, three Roses of the field"; which, translated out of the heraldic jargon, means a silver or white shield, crossed from upper right to lower left by a broad black band with three silver or white roses displayed on it. A later version (reissued to and now used by the family in England) makes the bend "cot-tised" - that is flanked by two narrower black bands. The crest is a single silver or white rose; and the motto "Fama candida rosa dulcior" or "Fair fame is sweeter than the rose".

FABER K. AMES

the compiler of the Ames story is a 10th generation member in direct descent from Wm. Ames who came to this country from Bruton, England in 1635 with his brother John. They settled first in Boston and then moved to Braintree & Duxbury, Mass. From there the family of Wm. Ames moved across the United States and has settled in practically every state in the United States.

"We have found it to be generally true that the person who makes fun of the family historian knows little or nothing about his family. People are not interested in things they know nothing about.

"History, whether it be family history, local history, or church history, is important and a knowledge of all history must be had to appreciate the present and to help us plan the future. History is a tool which we must have to do our work as good citizens and human beings."

The Name AMES

The foremost authority on British surnames, Henry Harrison, believes that the Ames Family came to England from Amiens, France and took the name of their native city for an English surname d'Amiens and later shortened to Amyas and later into Ames. The early English form of the name was unquestionably Amyas, clipped into pronouncing it first Amis and then into Ames. It is written Amyas in the text of a number of old wills and deeds, and though they may be signed either Amyas, or Amyce, Amys, Amis, Aimes or Ames. Respect for spelling is however a quite modern annoyance and our forefathers were entirely careless about how they spelled their surnames provided they indicated the sound. In America, Ames became the established spelling only during the second generation.

The first recorded reference to the name occurs in England in 1200. A Richard Ames or Amyas was enrolled as a member of Parliament held at Worcester by King John, a forerunner of the Assembly, which 15 years later forced the Magna Carta. The second is a list of the heirs of a certain John Amyas who dwelt in Yorkshire in the realm of King Edward the First (1272-1307). His descendants were granted a coat of Arms and he may have been the ancestor of the various Amyas and Ames we find listed as holding land in Norfolk, Suffolk, Kent, Lincolnshire, Shropshire and Somerset when written records became more common. There is also an Amyas mentioned on the Battle Abbey scroll as a soldier with William the Conqueror in 1066.

Three Ames of Bruton, Somerset, England

The information that I will give in the next few pages is taken almost entirely from the book by Winthrop Ames. He states: "The unbroken line of descent for our branch of the family only goes back to a certain John Ames who died in the village of Bruton in Somerset, England in the year 1560. He was undoubtedly akin to the Amyas family just mentioned but how related we do not know, nor do we know how long his forebears may have dwelt in Bruton before him, for the Parish records were begun six years prior to his death and give only the date of his burial. Our line follows his son, grandson, and great grandson, all of Bruton. If we assume he lived a life of the average length for his day, he was born about 1520. Our continuous family record from then until 1969 spans about four and a half centuries and 15 generations. I like to imagine that this first John Ames was born in 1520 for that year was one of great happenings in the world. Magellan was sailing the first voyage around the globe.

More important, as events turned, Henry VIII soon cast sheep's-eyes at a calculating little maid named Anne Boleyn, and when the Pope refused him a divorce that he might marry her, Henry roared out, "Pope! What do I care for the Pope?" and proclaimed England independent of the rule of Rome. Now release from this age-long authority meant liberty to reinterpret religion, and lead England first to revise her Catholicism, then to turn Protestant and finally resulted in that Puritan revolt against the newly established Anglican Church which sped the 'Mayflower' to America and brought our forebears in her wake. All these things would doubtless have come to pass eventually, but it is probable that they were set forward at least a century by Henry's chance infatuation for a girl of nineteen when our first John Ames was a growing lad in Bruton.

Bruton is still a secluded little hamlet about one hundred miles southwest of London and halfway between Bristol and the English Channel. Transatlantic travellers who land at Plymouth pass near it on their way to London. Its population today is less than two thousand, and never seems to have been much more.

It lies in a region of historic interest. The Roman conquerors of Britain discovered mineral springs at Bath, twenty five miles away, and built a town there with temples and villas. When the Roman legions were recalled to fight the Goths and Vandals who were invading Italy, pirates from Denmark found the Bristol Channel a convenient landing place, and the Saxons waged many battles with them near Bruton. The first Christian missionary to Britain, St. Joseph of Arimathaea, is supposed to have brought the Holy Grail with him and to have buried it at Glastonbury, thirteen miles away, and marked the spot with his staff which blossomed and became a tree. Glastonbury, then called Avalon, is also the legendary burial place of King Arthur of the Round Table.

After William the Conqueror had subjugated England he rewarded his henchmen by apportioning the best lands among them, and gave the demesnes of Bruton to a Norman baron. If, as Harrison supposes, the Ames name was originally d'Amiens, and so signifies our forebears came from that city, it may be that they followed William the Conqueror out of France in 1066.

The first historical account of Bruton dates from 1533, when Henry VII commissioned one John Leland as 'King's Antiquary' to travel through England and record his observations. Leland visited Bruton during the lifetime of our first John Ames, and describes the village as Johnknew it. Here is the report:

"Brewton lyeth at this side of the Brywe River. There is a street in it from north to south, and another from east to west. All of the town now standeth by the making of clothe. The abbey stands beyond the river hard over a bridge of stone. The Abbay there was afore the Conquest, a place of monkes founded by Algarus, Erle of Cornewal. One William Gilbert of later time, beyng prior of Brewton, went to Rome and there procured that the priory might be chaungid ynto an Abbey, and did at great cost yn building almost re-edify it. There is yn the market place a new Crosse of 6 arches and a pillar yn the middle for market folkes to stand on, begon by Ely, laste abbate of Brewton."

The ancient Abbey--a monastery of the Augustine Order--was then, of course, the town's principal edifice. Though William the Conqueror confisca-

Dear James

Thanks for writing and purchasing the book. I have added to my material the date of 22 Nov 1656 as the wedding date for the marriage of Abigail Byram and Thomas Whitman. Do you have other information on Abigail and Thomas and the Byram line?

As you have seen the book it is kind of plain. I was at the point that it was ready to publish and yet did not have many photographs or documents to add. I published to establish creditability and to make contact, with family members such as yourself.

After the printing of the book there has been quite a bit of new data come in. A booklet from Alabama called "KITH-N-KIN" Artie Byram Rushing has several hundred new family members. There has been some information on the other Byram line which started in Virginia.

Mrs. Kay Neeley of Dallas, TX sent me the files of Eunice Byram Roberts she wrote BYRAM-CRAWFORD and ALLIED FAMILIES GENEALOGY. It contained several letters that came in after her books were published. There is new data but the addresses are old. She had been corresponding with Artie Rushing and many many more.

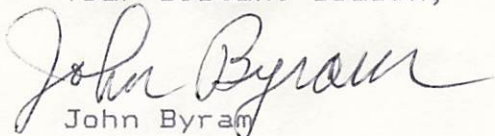

Also found a Byram who went to up state New York and changed his name to Byrum. Contact has been made with this branch.

My family is all well and happy I guess. The oldest girl, well it is in the book and not much has changed. The second girl did marry and Steve Anderson is a good son in law. The boys are still in college.

I do want to thank you for the data you sent and would appreciate addresses of others who may have more family data and/or would be interested in purchasing a book.

Take care, and thanks in advance.

Your distant cousin,

John Byram

GUIDE TO GENEALOGY

THE KALBUS FAMILY TREE

KARL KALBUS was born in Germany on December 9, 1805 and died in Oshkosh, Wisconsin on February 8, 1875.

WILHELMINA MUELLER, who became Mrs. Karl Kalbus, was the daughter of Louisa Bauman and Christian Mueller, was born on October 13, 1819 in the Province of Pomerania, Germany and died on February 10, 1899 in Oshkosh, Wisconsin.

When Karl and Wilhelmina were married they lived in Posen, in the Kingdom of Prussia. To them were born ten children, five boys and five girls. The boys when they reached the proper age would be inducted into the military service of the King. This though did not happen to the Kalbus boys as in 1864 the family embarked on a sailing vessel and came to the United States.

The voyage took from three to seven weeks and they finally landed in Baltimore, Maryland. From Baltimore they traveled to Oshkosh, Wisconsin and settled on a little farm on the shores of Lake Winnebago in Winnebago County.

After Charles, one of the five boys, died his son Lawrence continued to run the place. He has cottages to rent, which are rented year round to the fisherman. He also sells gas for the boats and has a place to launch the boats. There is a great deal of activity around there on weekends and during the summer.

There is a cemetery located about five miles south of Oshkosh where many members of the family are buried. It is the Wilhelmina Cemetery. It was not named after Wilhelmina Kalbus, but after a young girl named Wilhelmina who was the first buried there.

The Ten children of Karl and Wilhelmina Kalbus were;

AUGUST.....	MAR. 21, 1862.....	DEC. 16, 1950
BERTHA A.....	SEPT. 13, 1865.....	OCT. 11, 1936

Bertha was the only one of the ten children that was born in the United States in Wisconsin.

Frederick was born in the little village of "GRUN WALDER BUSH" which means "GREEN FOREST" on May 11, 1853. He was only eleven years old when he came to America. While he was still a young man he traveled westward to a lumber camp in Northern Minnesota. A little later he went to Fargo, North Dakota and worked on the Railroad westward out of Fargo, Dakota Territory. Abraham Lincoln had passed the Homestead Law that allowed a young man to take up a preemption on a quarter section (160 acres of land) which really was a challenge to stay on and improve it and with a small payment was his. This he did, though it was hard work plowing with oxen and one plow share and putting in the crop.

Frederick's wife, PAULINE BINKE, was born in the little village of "GUTE HOFFNUNG" meaning "GOOD HOPE" also located in the Province of POSEN. POSEN was a part of PRUSSIA, but is now a part of POLAND under the rule of the communists. At the age of twenty-two Pauline came to the U.S. and went to St. Paul Minnesota to live with her half brother, Fred Reiman, who had a book bindery business. While in St. Paul, Pauline worked in a restaurant as a cook. It was here that FREDERICK KALBUS and PAULINE BINKE met. Fred had bought a farm in Ellendale, North Dakota and asked Pauline to come and see it.

She liked it there, decided to stay and on May 23, 1886, Frederick Kalbus and Pauline Binke were married. To this union was born eight children; Carl Daniel, Julius, Alma, Emma, Martha, Frederick, Alfred and Elsie.

Frederick died on his farm in 1929 and Pauline died at Groton South Dakota while she was visiting her daughter Emma in 1940.

Gullick

THE GULLICK FAMILY TREE

Christian Gullick was born on October 3, 1813 in Dreichausen, Prussia. He died on June 9, 1880 in Jefferson Township, Lee County, Iowa.

Henrietta, his wife was born on November 24, 1814 and died on November 3, 1897.

They had the following children:

FREDERICK.....	APRIL 30, 1840.....	July 28, 1905
CAROLINE.....	Oct. 2, 1850.....	Feb. 20, 1928
HENRY.....	June 17, 1855.....	Aug. 26, 1880

There is clear evidence that the name Gullick was spelled Gullich until about 1900. There is no "K" in the old German Language. Tombstones in Everheart Cemetary (East of Donnelson, Iowa) bear this out. Francis Gullick, son of Cleo and Martha Gullick was in Germany for several Years. He could find the name Gullich in old church records, but no Gullick's.

There was a Frederick Gullick born in Prussia about 1785. He was conscripted into the army at the age of Eleven and remained in the service until he was thirty-five. By that time he was married and the father of two sons, one of which was Christian. They lived in what is today known as Saxony, Germany. The Gullick family along with the Millmeir family (they intermarried) left Prussia, traveled to England and then came to America by way of New Orleans. They traveled up the Mississippi River to Keokuk, Iowa and then bought a farm along Sugar Creek.

It was on this farm that Frederick, the first child of Christian and Henrietta Gullick was born. On January 16, 1870 Frederick Gullick married Mary Musich (Musick). To this union ten children were born. Fred died in 1905 and Mary in 1924.

Caroline was married to William Kuddebeh on February 9, 1870 in the Kuddebeh home in Lee County, Iowa. To this union two children were born. Caroline died in 1928. Since it is not known where William Kuddebeh is buried or died at this time there is no record of his birth or death for these records. When this information is found it will then be properly included for the family record of the Gullick's.

Henry married Eliza Eigel on October 14, 1879 at Fort Madison, Iowa. They had taken out a license on June 10, 1879, but due to unknown circumstances they were required to get a new license in October. It was probably due to the fact that Miss Eigel was only seventeen and had to obtain written permission from her mother, since her father had died. This written permission is on file with the marriage licenses in Lee County Court House. Henry died less than ten months after he and Eliza had been wed. At this point it is not known what happened to Eliza or whether she had a child by Henry. Hopefully with the help of relatives we may find out where she died and is buried. From her age at the time of marriage we can ascertain that she was born in the fall of 1862, but that is all.

Since coming to America the Gullick family has grown with time which is a living monument to those pioneers who came to settle in America.

THE OLD WASHBOURNE FAMILY TREE

In her book 'The Washburn Family' Mabel Thacher Rosemary Washburn indicates a probable line of descent of the Washbournes from Tancred, a Viking in Normandy, as follows:

Tancred lived in a castle in Tancarville, near the mouth of the Seine. His son was called Rabel. 'Rabel's Isle' in the Seine and 'Rabel's Foss' (a moat around the castle) were named for him. Rabel's son was Gerald de Tancarville, who was the father of Rabel II de Tancarville. Rabel II lived at the time of Robert the Devil, who was the father of William the Conqueror.

Rabel II had two sons - Ralph de Tancarville and Almeric d'Abitot. Ralph was one of the guardians of William the Conqueror, and from this duty his descendants bear the name Chamberlain. Almeric was lord of the fief of Saint Jean d'Abitot. Almeric had two sons - Robert and Urse - who went to England after William's victory. An unverified story is that Urse was knighted by William during the Battle of Hastings. Both Robert and Urse held titles in England - Robert as Le Despenser to William (whence the family name Spencer) and Urse as Earl of Worcester.

Urse infuriated the monks of Worcester Abbey by building the ditch of his castle through their cemetery. He helped put down a rebellion against William by the Earl of Hereford. Urse died about 1110 leaving a son, Roger d'Abitot, and a daughter, Emeline. Meanwhile William the Conqueror died 1087. His son, William II, died 1100 and Henry I was on the throne.

Roger was Viscount of Worcester. One day he killed a servant or officer of King Henry. Henry stripped him of his lands and title. Roger was able to give the lands to his sister Emeline who had married Walter de Beauchamp, but Roger was out. He moved to Wales where Urse had property in Powis, and changed his name to Ernalous. He became a feudal under-lord. Out of this incident derives the family crest - a coil of flax surmounted by flames. It is taken from Isaiah 42.3 - A bruised reed shall He not break, and the smoking flax shall He not quench - referring to the compassion of the Lord to those afflicted and all but destroyed.

When Roger died he was able to give his son William de Estham some property near Orleton, about 25 miles west of Worcester. William de Estham had a son Sampson. Sampson's son was Sir Roger de Washbourne.

Sir Roger had the lands and manors of Little Washbourne and Great Washbourne, about 10 miles southwest of Evesham. The name may have come from the river Isbourne which flows nearby. In any event the first recorded Washbourne is:

Sir Roger of Washbourne -1280
m. Joan --

The subsequent family tree is indented two spaces for each succeeding generation:

THE OLD WASHBOURNE FAMILY TREE

DESCENT FROM SAXON KINGS, SCOTTISH KINGS, AND CHARLEMAGNE

The genealogy which follows purports to show our noble lineage, most often through the female line. It starts with John Washbourne, the father of John and William who came to this country in the 1600's, and proceeds backwards, one generation per indent space. It does help to explain some of the portions of the family shields noted in the English tombs. It is taken from a book on the Willett family, who married into the Washburns.
