Reece, James Scaby, James Hobbs, James Newbry and John Caplinger. The first corn-mill erected in the county was built by Samuel Caplinger some time in 1798. It was a small horse-power affair, the horse being hitched to a pole or shaft and driven around in a circle. The building was a small, unhewn-log house, and stood on the farm now owned by Roland Newby, in the Eighth Civil District. Very good corn meal is said to have been ground by this mill, and the patronage was drawn from a large scope of country. Subsequently the mill was removed to a site on Jennings Fork, and converted into a water-power. The first water-mill is supposed to have been built by Thomas Conger, some time in the same year, on Barton's Creek, about three miles northwest of Lebanon. A horse-power mill was also erected about that time by one of the Donnells, near Doak's Cross Roads, eight miles south of Lebanon.

Before these mills were erected the settlers went to Davidson County for their grinding, or converted the corn into meal by means of the old-fashioned mortar and pestle. In 1799 Mathew Figures built a water-power grist-mill on Cedar Creek, to which he afterward added a saw. In 1800 William Trigg and Joseph Hendricks built a water-power grist-mill on Spencer Creek. Other mills of the early days were those of Isham and Larkin Davis, on Cedar Creek; William Wilson's, on Spring Creek; Jesse Holt's, on Barton Creek; John Scott's on Spring Creek, and John T. Hays', on Smith Fork. Later on William Wharton built a water-mill on Spring Creek, in the Tenth District; Williams & Kirkpatrick built one on Spencer Creek, in the Fourth District; Alex Simmons built one on Fall Creek, in the Seventeenth District; James C. Winford built one on Spring Creek, in the Ninth District, and about the same time a paper-mill was built on the Cumberland River, twelve miles from Lebanon, at which a good article of paper, both news and commercial, was manufactured. The machinery was inadequate, however, and the enterprised was short lived.

With the increase in population there was an increase in the number and facilities of the mills in this county, and at the present W. P. M. Smith, C. H. Cook, J. N. Adams and J. W. Williamson & Bros. have steam saw and grist-mills; Jacob Earhart has a water-power grist-mill on Stone Creek, and W. C. Gillian has a water-power grist-mill on Cedar Creek, in the First Civil District; John Brown and William McFarland have steam saw and grist-mills, and Washington Moore has a water-power grist-mill on Spring Creek, in the Fifth District; B. D. Hager has a steam saw and grist-mill, and William Colquit and William Tomlinson have steam grist-mills, in the Seventh District; J. C. Logue has a steam grist-mill, and J. L. Hubbard a steam saw and grist-mill, in the Twenty-fourth District; Coon Lannon has a steam saw and grist-mill, and William Rice a water grist-mill on Sinking Creek, in the Twenty-third District; John D. Gains has a steam saw-mill, James Johnson a water-power grist, and W. D. S. Smith a steam and water-power saw and grist-mill on Cedar Creek, in the Sixth District; J. N. Cowen has a steam corn-mill and wool factory in the Twenty-second District; Mrs. Pendleton has a steam saw, grist and carding-mill in the Second District; Gains Leach and Hugh & David have water-power grist-mills on Sanders and Smith Forks, respectively, in the Fourteenth District; Dr. James McFarland has a steam saw and grist-mill in the Third District; J. B. Baird has a steam saw and grist-mill in the Twenty-first District; G. W. Wright has a steam saw and grist-mill in the Twenty-fifth District; — Etherly has a steam saw and grist-mill, and Bailey Hall and William Barrow water-power grist-mills on Barton Creek, in the Fourth District; John Patterson and Patton & Harvey have water-power grist-mills on Smith Fork, in the Fifteenth District; Thomas Mitchell has a carding machine in the Ninth District; John Bryant has a steam saw-mill in the Nineteenth District; John W.

SOME NOTES ON THE LOGAN FAMILY OF WILLIAMSON COUNTY

JAMES HENDERSON, a brother of SAMUEL HENDERSON (father of Judge Richard Henderson) made his will in LINCOLN COUNTY, North Carolina in 1793 and is buried at McAdenville. His wife was VIOLET LAWSON, daughter of HUGH LAWSON and the sister of MARY LAWSON, the mother of HUGH LAWSON WHITE, of Tennessee history & fame. He had the following children, given here for ready reference, though attention is directed to his account in the Lost Tribes of North Carolina pp. 226, 487, and also to the charts of the Henderson family elsewhere in these notes. He and his wife had the following children:

1. John Henderson
2. James Henderson m. Margaret DICKSON.
3. William Henderson m. Eliz. Abernathy
4. Lawson Henderson m. Eliz. Carruth
5. Logan Henderson m. Johnston
6. Katherine Henderson m. William LOGAN
7. Mary Henderson
8. Martha Henderson.

LAWSON HENDERSON and his wife ELIZA CARRUTH were the parents of HON. JAMES PINCKNEY HENDERSON, the first Governor of Texas.

JAMES HENDERSON and his wife MARGARET DICKSON, the daughter of COL. JOSEPH DICKSON, a member of Congress from North Carolina, and who died in Fayetteville, Tennessee, in 1825, moved to Williamson County and settled near Franklin.

These Hendersons were related to the LOGAN FAMILY of Franklin, who came to Williamson County from North Carolina with the Hendersons and McKissicks, & the JAMES HENDERSON (son) was the father of the VIOLET HENDERSON mentioned below.

In regard to the LOGAN FAMILY of WILLIAMSON COUNTY, the following letter, dated April 15, 1937, will be of general interest:

From Nashville Tenn.

Dear Cousin:

I had time to make a trip over to Franklin, in Williamson County, Tennessee, on yesterday and spent many hours at the court house, looking up old records; but was only fortunate in finding one item, of especial interest, which was the will of WILLIAM LOGAN, which was probated there, October 1825. The estate amounted to eight hundred and ninety acres and two hundred acres, slaves, etc. There were two pages of the inventory. All divided between six sons and two daughters, named in the will. One son WILSON NEWTON LOGAN was left the library. The two daughters named in the will were VIOLET BARRY LOGAN (from whom the COBBES, of Shelbyville, Tennessee were descended); and MARY PATTERSON LOGAN, who married WILLIAM F. LITTLE, my grandfather. The will was signed by WILLIAM LOGAN, and his wife CATHERINE was named Executrix, together with JOHN HENDERSON. In the marriage records I found any number of PATTERSON marriages, dated from 1805 up to 1809.

ROBERT HENDERSON to PEGGY SHEPHERD on June 30, 1807.

ROBERT HENDERSON to MARY WOOTEN on June 5, 1809.

WILLIAM PATTERSON to ELIZABETH MAYFIELD, October 1, 1805.

JAMES PATTERSON to ANNA GORDON, October 1, 1805.

LUKE FULLEN to HANNAH WESTEROCK, Oct. 19, 1807.

In my home town, Murfreesboro, I have picked up this information:

LOGAN HENDERSON, son of JAMES HENDERSON married Margaret Ewart Johnston, daughter of COL. JAMES JOHNSTON and JANE EWART, daughter of ROBERT EWART, of Scotch-Irish descent.

In 1818 LOGAN HENDERSON came to Tennessee and purchased much valuable land near Murfreesboro, in HUNTER-FORD COUNTY. He died in 1846. His wife died August 15, 1843. He and his wife had the following children:

1. JAMES F. HENDERSON married Amanda M. Voorhees.
2. VIOLET HENDERSON married WILLIAM F. LITTLE, as his first wife.
3. JANE HENDERSON married WILLIAM S. MOORE.
4. FRANK HENDERSON.

FRANK HENDERSON must have been a son of JAMES HENDERSON, for he was the brother of VIOLET, who married WILLIAM LITTLE. Evidently LOGAN HENDERSON'S mother was a LOGAN, for WILLIAM LITTLE'S second wife was MARY PATTERSON LOGAN, a first cousin of VIOLET. BOB LOGAN was a brother of MARY PATTERSON LOGAN, who married WILLIAM F. LITTLE. (Wrong: MARY PATTERSON LOGAN was a widow, probably of a brother of BOB LOGAN).

CATHERINE LOGAN, who married WILLIAM LITTLE (or LITTLE) was the daughter of JAMES HENDERSON and the sister of LOGAN HENDERSON, who is mentioned.

FAMILIES BURIED IN THE OLD FRANKLIN CEMETERY, WILLIAMSON COUNTY

In the town of FRANKLIN, WILLIAMSON COUNTY, TENNESSEE, there is an old cemetery, located at the corner of Fourth Avenue and North Margin St., which is said to have been established about 1811, or about 140 yrs ago. Many of the graves are absolutely unmarked and many that have been marked cannot be deciphered on account of various reasons. Some of the names are readable and some are so dim that dates are uncertain and even names. But the local D. A. R. Chapter many years ago made a list of those that it was possible to read, with some dates of burial. From that list the following are copied; without giving each name and generally only the family name, with the oldest date of burial:
