Pastor of the first Church in New Ha.

Death of Mr. Brock.

DIED—On Monday, May 16th, at 5:01 p. m., after a brief illness—Ephriam Brock, aged 68 years.

Mr. Brock was born near Rochester, New Hampshire, on the 31st day of March, 1825. In April 1846, he was married to Miss Diana C. Ames. Seven children blessed the union, four of whom are still living, the only surviving son being Mr. A. L. Brock of Perris with whom the deceased has resided for four years past, during which time he has endeared himself to all who knew and admired him for his uprightness and manly traits of character. His occupation was that of carpentry, at which trade he labored until a few days before his death, and he was known to be a skillful, conscientious craftsman. In 1875 his beloved helpmate passed to the other life.

Funeral services were held at the M. E. Church on Tuesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Rev. Rogers made a short address, taking for his text the beautiful words in the 14th chapter of St. John: "Let not your heart be troubled; neither let it be afraid;" etc. At the close of the address the remains were taken to the Perris cemetery, being followed by a large number of personal friends of the deceased.

Obituary.

The following obituary notice on the death of one of Albuquerque's pioneer citizens is contained in the Perris, California, New Era of May 19:

DIED—On Monday, May 16, at 5 p. m., after a brief illness, Ephriam Brock, aged 68 years.

Mr. Brock was born near Rochester, N. H., on the 31st day of March, 1825. In April, 1846, he was married to Diana C. Ames. Seven children blessed the union, four of whom are still living, the only surviving son being Mr. A. L. His occupation was that of carpentry, at which trade he labored until a few days before his death, and he was known to be a skillful, conscientious craftsman. In 1875 his beloved helpmate passed to the other life.

Mr. Ephriam Brock was one of the earliest of Albuquerque's pioneers and enjoyed the distinction of having built the first house ever erected in the new town. Among his surviving relatives are two well-known residents of the Duke city, they being his daughter, Mrs. J. P. Gutwaler, and granddaughter, Mrs. D. A. Moss, wife of the popular superintendent of the Albuquerque steam laundry. During his residence here the deceased enjoyed the reputation of a good citizen and an honorable gentleman and THE CITIZEN takes pleasure in adding its tribute of respect to that which the New Era has voiced so feelingly.

Obituary

Nashville - Saturday June 28, 1873

BROCK. Died in Nashville, Tenn. on Saturday June 21, 1873, after a short illness Mrs. Diana C. Brock, wife of Eschaim Brock, in the 48th year of her age.

Mrs. Brock was an exemplary Christian and a devoted wife and mother. She was beloved by all who knew her and many there are who sympathize with the bereaved family. But while we mourn her departure from among us, and have sorrowfully laid her down to rest, we look forward in best anticipation of a glorious DISSOLUTION OF PARTNERSHIP. THE PARTNERSHIP OF NOEL & PLATER.

NASHVILLE REAL ESTATE AUCTIONEER. No. 20, Cedar Street, Nashville.

The News Extra of the 4th inst. reports the following intelligence from the Army of Occupation brought by the U. S. Revenue cutter Woodbury, Capt. Foster, from the Brazos St. Jago, which place she left on the 30th ult. She was to sail for this port as soon as the weather would permit.

The Army of Occupation, numbering in all 3500 men, arrived and encamped on the 25th ult., opposite Matamoros. Gen. Taylor, with a company of dragoons, under the command of Col. Twigg, having left the main body, arrived at Point Isabel simultaneously with the fleet of transports from Annapolis, on the 24th ult., there not being half an hour's difference in the arrivals by land and water.

On the appearance of the fleet the captain of the port, Rodriguez, set fire to the custom house and several other buildings at Point Isabel, and made his retreat good to the river, although pursued by the Mexican forces by order of General Taylor. The buildings destroyed were of little value.

The appearance of the fleet brought the American troops to the river, where they were met by about 150 mounted men, who were ordered to march through to the rear, and then to the front. When near Point Isabel, a detachment of about forty men waited upon him, bearing a message and message from Gen. Mejia, with threats, in the usual style of gascogne, which the Mexicans are so partial. At this moment the flames caused by the burning of the custom house were discovered, and Gen. T. immediately dismissed the deputation, directing Gen. Mejia that he would reply to the message opposite Matamoros, on the 25th ult.

The vessel was got over the bar without any accident and without pilots. Capt. Foster reports that the Belle del Mar was driven on the south side, and after beating heavily on the bar, a great deal of water, lay hard and fast. It is feared that she cannot be saved. The Louisiana, Capt. Kelly, had her rudder unshipped, but was not damaged.

The U. S. brig Lawrence, Commander Merriam, remained at anchor off the bar. The brig Enterprise, Commander Hunt, sailed for Pensacola on the 25th ult.

Four wagons, with supplies for the army, left Point Isabel on the morning of the 26th, in fine weather, and on the morning after, Gen. Taylor moved, leaving a company of artillery at Point Isabel, under command of Maj. Monroe.

The News understands that Gen. Taylor's orders are to cross the Rio Grande and attack Matamoros, should he be fired on from the town.

Lieut. Folli, U. S. N., who was bearer of despatches to Gen. Taylor, arrived at Galveston on the morning of the 4th inst. in the Woodbury, and came to this city in the Alabama.

On the 8th inst. the steamship New York arrived at New Orleans, bringing two days later news from Gen. Taylor's army.

We learn, says the Picayune extra of the 8th inst., from an extra of the Galveston News, issued on the afternoon of the 4th inst., that the pilot boat L. M. Hitchcock, Capt. Wright, arrived at Galveston about 4 o'clock, P. M. of that day, from the Brazos St. Jago, which place she left on Wednesday, the 1st inst.

She brought the intelligence that upon the arrival of the army of occupation, in front of Matamoros, the Mexican forces were drawn out on the opposite bank of the river, making a great display of martial music, with trumpets, bugles, &c., which was duly reciprocated in kind by a similar sounding of trumpets and drums in the American lines.

Thus ended the first day's rencontre between the two armies on the opposite banks of the Rio Grande, and within two or three hundred yards of each other. On the next morning, 29th, the American troops discovered the Mexican artillery of eighteen pounders, lining the opposite bank, and pointing directly into their camp, whereupon the American army moved their encampment four miles below.

This step was doubtless taken by Gen. Taylor, in order to avoid every appearance of any disposition to commit aggressions upon the west bank of the river, and to maintain strictly the defensive character of his operations. The most reliable statements represent the regular army in Matamoros to consist of 2000 soldiers, & 500 rancheros.

The Mexican citizens of the Rio Grande are said to be quite disaffected towards their own government, and secretly friendly to the Americans.

On the 21st, the House introduced by Mr. Crittenden, for the House resolution, relative to the Oregon notice. The suggested resolution, being somewhat modified in its form, finally passed the Senate 40 to 14. It leaves the issue of notice entirely at the discretion of the President; and one of the objects of giving the notice is stated in the preamble to be, "that the attention of the governments of both countries may be more earnestly and immediately directed to renewed efforts for the amicable settlement of all their differences and disputes in respect to said territory."

The following is the resolution as it passed:—
Resolved—That the President of the United States be and he is hereby authorized, at his discretion, to give to the British government the notice required by its said second article for the abrogation of the said convention of the sixth of August, eighteen hundred and twenty-seven.

The following are the yeas & nays on its passage:
Yeas—Archer, Ashley, Atherton, Bagby, Barrow, Benton, Bowen, Calhoun, Cameron, Chalmers, J. M. Clayton, Corwin, Crittenden, Davis, Dayton, Dix, Green, Haywood, Houston, Huntington, Jarnagin, Johnson of Md., Johnson of La., Lewis, McDuffie, Mangum, Miller, Morehead, Niles, Pearce, Pennybacker, Phelps, Rusk, Sevier, Simmons, Spright, Taylor, Tappan, Walker, Wood—40.
Nays—None.

The House passed a resolution, relative to the Oregon notice, which was introduced by Mr. Crittenden, for the House resolution, relative to the Oregon notice. The suggested resolution, being somewhat modified in its form, finally passed the Senate 40 to 14. It leaves the issue of notice entirely at the discretion of the President; and one of the objects of giving the notice is stated in the preamble to be, "that the attention of the governments of both countries may be more earnestly and immediately directed to renewed efforts for the amicable settlement of all their differences and disputes in respect to said territory."

News from Europe.
Steamboat Hero, Saturday, April 13, 1846.
Gentlemen—The Steamship Unicorn arrived at Boston from Liverpool, at about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She left Liverpool on the 19th March, and brings news 9 days later. From an Extra Boston Mail, I learn the following:

The Polish Revolution appears to have been completely crushed. The commercial and monetary affairs of the country are in a state hardly less satisfactory than at the signing of the packet of the 13th. The Russian system has fastened its claws upon the Polish money market. The English newspapers have a great deal to say against the measures of the British Government. The general complexion of the news is rather peaceful than otherwise; the British press having somewhat recovered from the effervescence of feeling caused by the intelligence of the refusal of our government to arbitrate on the Oregon question.

We find, however, no evidence of a disposition on the part of the British Government to recede from the position it has assumed in this controversy; on the contrary, the Military preparations are going on with increased energy, and show a determination to be armed for any emergency.

The Steamer Oregon went on Flood Rock this morning at 4 o'clock, in the Gate, and it is feared she will be a total loss. Hopes are entertained, however, that she may be got off. The passengers were taken off by the steamer Traveler from New Haven, on her passage down this morning.

Sugar Coated Indian Vegetable Pills.
THIS is a medicine of advantages of which will strike the senses of every discerning man and woman. It is recommended by the New York College of Health and numerous practising physicians in New York. The prevailing repugnance felt by many individuals at the sight of "Pills," is entirely obviated in these, as they are smoothly coated with refined sugar, by a newly invented process, so that they resemble nice sugar plums. Ladies do not hesitate to take them, and children even take them with delight, on the promise of more sugar plums. For sale by
