Dear Mr. Blauer;

    I am researching ancestral grandparents Elizabeth Gousell who married Sir Robert Wingfield c 1420.

Would this be the same line that you are researching?

I am hitting a snag with Elizabeths parent Elizabeth FitzAlan, one source has her the daughter of Sir John FitzAlan\ Eleanor Mantravers while another has her the daughter of Sir Richard FitzAlan \Elizabeth Bohun.

For Gousell--Goushill and other combinations of the name I have them of Hoveringham N. England

Robert Goushill 1373-1403 = Elizabeth FitzAlan

Nicholas Goushill 1343 = ? = ?

Nicholas Goushill 1313 - 1393 =   ?

Thomas Goushill   = Agnes ?

 Sir Robert Wingfield is shown in the Tickencote Portrait along with his sons Sir Henry and Sir John Wingfield with his wife Lady

Elizabeth FitzLewis and their 12 sons and 4 daughters.

Sir Robert is shown with the Gousell coat of arms in the portrait.

    If this is the same line you are researching, you probably have seen the portrait

I was out to Cal. in April, we landed at Long Beach Airport.
I was just there overnight, and flew back to Canada next morning, we have our son at Casa Colinas T.L.C. in Pomona. He sustained a severe head injury in 1980, and he will be there on the program for the next few weeks.

    I would be interested to hear from you, I hope you get a good response to your entry in the G.R.D.

Happy Hunting

Sincerely
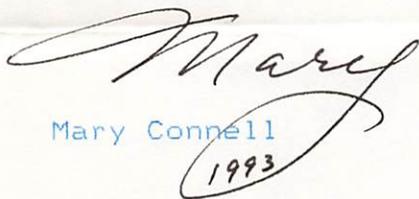

Mary Connell

To-day in my search I came across the 1841 for your Oswaldo 1118- Wenfsenham Line
He info was submitted by her relative Earl 6. Wiseman

My line:

Sir Ralph Wingfield
= Eliz Bourville
Sir John Wingfield
= Elizabeth Fitzlewis
Sir Humphrey Wingfield
= Ann Wiseman

Ann - widow of Gregory Colgar (Colgar) Designs-as-Law.
daughter of Sir John Wiseman Knt.

Are your families with Earl Wiseman?
could there be a connection to my Ann Wiseman died before 24
Henry VIII Bur at Brentham?

These was talk of a double connection to the Lancasters & received another Religion to-day which shows from Plantagenet connected to the line. This is probably the second connection.

Thank you for your letter and print outs.

I passed on the name of the book you mentioned to John King of Maryland. He will probably find it an excellent source of his ancestors. prev - 1700.

I must try to get into Toronto to the reference library and spend the day searching.

Thanks Again

Mary Connell

P.S.
Interesting you mentioned book. on Charlemagne

To-day I was offered a copy of some descendants. apparently there are about 245 pages. right now it is on disc. and would need word perfect. program on computer to see it.
