Dear Jim,

Hi! I was delighted to get your letter as usual. I'm involved in a big project - bought a house to resell + am so busy, it's close to impossible to find a moment's time.

Enclosed is a disc - of the computer info. Hope this will work! - I have not had time to add info I got in Germany off the chart that Margerite did for me.

But that's not too many people - If I get to it before you I'll just record another disc & send it so you can pick it up of that.

I would really appreciate your help on George Koch - heres what I have:

- 1) George Koch in bible says "Germany" only
- 2) His denunciation of Germany to become a U.S. Citizen - says "Prussia" or rather he denounces the "King of Prussia. He did ^{apply} this in Lee Co. -

Fort Madison - the persons in line

before + after him were Michael Koch

& Jacob

Koch

(tape # 0959168

record 5 page #16)

This was index tape

& did not have the record #5 on it - I have not...

3. These names were not found in the Census before or after that date, ^(1870 or 1880)

Might be in Iowa Census? ^{he married Carolyn Muschick 24 Aug 1871 - Don't}

4. In the Muschick stuff I sent ^{2nd} - ^{Know when they moves to St. Anthony but think almost immediately}
At the Christening of their ^{2nd} ~~first~~ child Liese, there was a ^{Martin} Koch listed in the last column. Which is the column for Godparents. Could George be a relative to these Drachausen Koch's?

5. Wendish is believed to be his spoken language ^{according to my mom} the same as the other Muschicks - so is probably from Drachausen or surrounding area ^{maybe his origin wasn't listed because it was the same?}

6. Can find other Koch's living in Lee Co - near the Muschicks - but no George.

7. No obituary - he's buried in Clemens Cemetery, like the rest. - lived in St Anthony. If obituary exists - may have been in the Marshalltown Newspaper - may not have been?!

10. Wrote for probate + will + death certificate got back only the will - no clues there -
Have no death certificate or probate papers.

11. Don't know when he entered country -

12. Marriage Certificate shows no Koch's as witnesses - but does give church which may be a clue.

13. When in Drachhausen, Margarete + Evi told me "Koch" was a very common name for the area -

I would love your help on this!

Concerning the Mayers → spent four of our days in the Gommersheim area - went to church there, etc. Another whole story - have both side back to 1700's, one side to 1600's! - it is not all on your disc - because of time - but will get it on there eventually.

Concerning Grant & Ahrens - we went to Grabow in Mecklenberg - cute but wrong town - seems there are 5 Grabow's in Mecklenberg. Recently got a letter from - Church researchers there - that I must get translated - but think it says they can't figure it out. Will send more if I can - though I'm presently at dead end. on Grants & Ahrens.

{ Obviously black ink ^{is} a few days later - still just as rushed. -
Your trip to Salt Lake sounds sensational. I'll be thrilled to ~~hear~~ hear what you find out. --

George Koch has eluded me completely - Since Fort Madison was a prison town and several Koch's found their way into that prison in 1860 - 1870 - wondered if he had nothing to do with his family cuz they were outlaws or something? -

In the hundreds of letters my Grandma Koch saved - she was obviously really attached to the Muschick; ~~Ham~~ Hammisch, Mehlisch family groups - there are no letters or references to any Kochs - almost as though Geo. + Caroline moved to St. Anthony + never had another communication with any of the Koch's - Course that bullheaded German personality was such that maybe he severed all ties with them? -

His denunciation of Prussia occurred
June 7th - 1872 - in Lee Co.

Which would make it appear that 1st Son - John Koch, who later married Mary Hammisch - was probably born in Fort Madison area + the move to St Anthony was later -

Ramble, Ramble -

Have fun on your trip!

The Koch family is from Niederstotzingen, Germany????Did I not send you a new chart????I have done the family there back to 1760 or so, but I have not been able to complete 14 specific branches of it, because I did the research by paying for the xeroxes to be sent to me from the archives.....because the LDS church did not have the tapes, while the German Archives said, yes indeed the LDS did have them....

I eventually discovered the the LDS claimed they had them, but misplaced them and that they would have them available to the public in 6 months....that was about 1 year ago.....

What I am looking for are Niederstotzingen, Germany.....the Evagelical Church only.....

Our card catalogue showed only Catholic and these are not correct.....

The evangelical info I got from the German archives was proof that the books exists, however, they are very uncooperative about sending any more information, because they insist it is duplicated at the LDS, so they don't want to mess with me.....

Of course, the LDS, did not show it in the card catalogue.

IS that any help?

Appreciate your help, Thanks, Cathy

BLAUERT, Paul born in Posen Aug. 2, 1885. He was son of Wilhelm Blauert and Teresa Sophia Lindemann. He had a sister Clara and brother Wilhelm, perhaps more siblings. Family moved to Berlin in his childhood. He migrated to Milwaukee in about 1905. I have pictures of family and Wilhelm in uniform of Prussian army. Other family members may have used last name of KOTZA. Does anyone connect with this line? Would like any information on family. Nancy Callan Mauger

Dear Jim,

Thanks so much for the offer. I really appreciate it! I will give it some thought and see if I can think of something...one thing that comes to mind is locating the Niederstotzingen tapes....these are the city in German that the Koch's come from, about 9 miles from Ulm.

The library claimed, back when Marv and Cheryl were going to Niederstotzingen that these tapes were lost and then found and that they would be added to the collection within six months.

I was to be on a list of people that would receive notification when they had been made available. Of course, I never have. When I did the Koch family research I did all the sheets that I received from the archives in Stuttgart, but they "missed" 14 families, or links that would have completed and ID'ed even more families in Niederstotzingen as ours, but I did not want to pay them another $80-120 to get those families.

Niederstotzingen tapes did not show on the LDS card catalogue at that time, but I would love to know that the tape is now there, or at least have you remind them that I am looking for them still.....

These are the Niederstotzingen, Evangelical Church Records.....the Catholic one that have previously been available are not correct and there are in fact separate Evangelical tapes.....I am wanting the "church index" and this definately exists.....LDS said they had been misplaced in a box and then rediscovered.

Also on that subject is Pauline Koch of Ulm, who is the mother of Albert Einstein.....he was of course a non practicing Jewish person.....but because this is so close to Niederstotzingen, (about 9 miles away) I have hunted without success to find her lineage, which I am sure someone has done it already.....because I wanted to follow her lineage a few generations back and find if it leads to Ulm....I don't really want to do the research involved, beyond I was hoping to find someone elses reasearch already completed.....I would be able to follow it pretty easilly and see if it takes us into our Koch's....but have never been able to find it....Albert was born, March 14, 1879.....I have hunted on line, and also registered on several "Einstein" notice boards, but never had results.

Also, while you are there, perhaps you would want to see Cindy Eaton? She is just outside Salt Lake City.....maybe 30 minutes from the library? or so.You two might enjoy meeting up for lunch or something?

We had a really nice visit with her this summer and had a lovely dinner at a "way cool" resturant that was previously owned by "Rockwell" a morman, gun slinger, protector of early Morman leaders, Smith and Brigam Young, I think, and it was really fun and historically interesting.....Just a thought.

Thanks for asking and I will give the rest some thought....

Love, Cathy

Dear James:

I hope everything is going well in sunny Southern California. I continue to work on genealogy in my spare time and lately I have been trying to add pictures to my family tree. I scan the photos and then import them into Family Tree Maker for Windows; I can then print out family trees like the one I am enclosing...I scanned in your grandfather and great-grandmother from photocopies you sent a few years ago. You also enclosed a photocopy of my great-great-grandmother Wilhelmina Mueller Kalbus, but the quality is poor...do you have the original photo?...if you do, would you get a 35mm photo taken of the original?...I would like to get a few prints and a negative...I would reimburse you for the expenses. Do you have any photos of Wilhelmina's husband, Carl Ludwig Kalbus?

I have a number of photos from Stella Kalbus' estate. Dorothy Unger has identified quite a few of them for me...I am trying to get the ones that have been identified into scrapbooks...this may take awhile as it depends on how much spare time is available...work at Bechtel has been hectic with quite a few proposals being prepared...our office in Norwalk has shrunk over the last couple years...evidently, all the California refiners spent all their money complying with the California Clean Air Act and are now trying to recover from the expense.

Thanks,

How about photos of your family?

Dear James:

Thank you for your recent letters and photographs. It sounds like you are staying very busy with your work and extracurricular activities.

I have been working in San Francisco since November and have now returned home (I hope) to Houston. Bechtel has a large offshore oil field development project in Mexico and I have been helping ~~get~~ ^{getting} it started. I had the opportunity to visit our customer's offices in Mexico a couple times so I was literally living out of suitcase. My wife Kris is in her senior year at the University of Houston and is keeping busy with her studies. Our son Jonathan just had his twentieth birthday... no longer a teenager. I gave Kris a cockatiel for Christmas so we now have fish, a dog and a bird living with us... it makes leaving home a major undertaking with having to find housesitters or petsitters.

I continue to collect genealogy information as I run into it but I haven't had much time for any research. I have purchased a photo editing software program in which I can organize all the electronic photos that I have collected... it seems much more interesting when you can place a picture with the name.

I have managed to forget what information that you are looking for... your letter mentions the "other" Kalbus families... can you refresh my memory? Perhaps you are referring to the "rumored fact" that Franz Georg Kalbus was the brother of our 3rd great grandfather Gottfried Calbus

Would you have a photo of Carl (Karl) Ludwig Kalbus (our 2nd great grandfather)?

Very truly yours,

Subject: Kalbas Family Surname

I am also researching a Karl Kalbas. I have very little about him, but will share the following:

- . +Clara Perelman b: October 15, 1889 in Minsk, Russia, Europe d: January 07, 1980 in Los Angeles, Ca.
- 2 Lida Myra Kalbas b: 1922 in New York City, New York married Earl [Israel] Fox b: 1918 in Bronx, New York City, New York
- 3 Edward Fox b: 1947
- 2 Sophie Kalbas b: Bef. 1922 in New York
- +Ray Waters b: Abt. 1915

- 2 Evelyn Kalbas b: in Bronx, New York , New York
- +Herrick
- 3 Seth Michael Herrick b: January 30, 1945

I have a few more details. Please let me know if you are related or have any thoughts; the name spelling is rather difficult and I am unsure what it may have been prior to migrating to America.

Thank you,

Tara

Hi:

The story about Karl: He was supposed to have been born in Poland or Germany sometime abt 1880, but for some reason ended up in Minsk, Russia in his late teens. He left Minsk for America with the family of the woman he was to be marry abt 1895 to New York. There he married Clara Perelman who was born October 15, 1889 in Minsk Russia.

I think he was in Minsk alone, having left his family in Poland or Germany. So I have no idea who his parents may have been.

He had three girls; maybe the naming of his children may be a clue!: Lida Myra, Sophie, and Evelyn.

His daughter Lida said that Kalbas had something to do with a town named Kalbassa. That's all we know.

Any thoughts..

Tara

Dear Tara,

My Kalbus(Calbus) family came over in the 1860s and settled in Wisconsin. Have you been able to trace your Karl back to Prussia/Poland? Mine came from the North West corner near the Oder River on what is the polish side today. We have found records that go back to 1721 in my Karl's line. Kalbus and Kalbas are not that far off. Any background on the parentage of your Karl would be of greta help to check church records as that is where we found mine. Do you have a ships record? I would like to see if we can make a connection as i am trying to get all the information I can on the Kalbus Clan.

I will look forward to hearing from you on this.

Hi James,

I'm sorry, I haven't been home much lately, so I got your email, but hadn't checked it yet. However, I'm afraid the attachment didn't come through. Let me see what I can put together for you on the descendants that I have. Some of the spellings may be different from what you have, but I'm writing them just as I copied them. I've often found many spelling differences in my research, especially dealing with recent immigrant ancestors.

Wilhelmenia Kalbus, daughter of Gottfried Kalbus and Ernestine Luebke, married Charles or Carl (seen him listed both ways) Frederich August Pofahl (also seen the name as Pofeil). Kids: Charles, Amilia, Augusta, Johanna (b. Jan 16, 1845), Henrietta (b 1847), and Charles Frederich August, Jr. (b 1853). I'm not sure why there are two sons listed w/name of Charles, if one was supposed to be listed as Carl or if this was some sort of typo on the part of the person from whom I got the research, or what. At any rate, I descend through Augusta. I have nothing further on her siblings. Charles/Carl Pofahl, Sr, was the son of Frederick Pofahl (b abt 1790) and H. Schmisler.

Augusta married Charles W. Pomrening, son of Ludwig Pomrening and ????. Their kids were Bertha, Hannah, Albert, Minnie, Matilda, Paulina, Charles, Herman (b Jun 11, 1875), William A. (twin to Herman), and August.

William A. Pomrening m Mary Thiel, daughter of Christian Friedrich Thiel/Theil and Ernestina "Tina" Bacchaus. Mary was b in 1878, and she and William married Mar 31, 1902. Not sure when William died, but he was a widower when Mary died Dec 31, 1914. They had kids Irvin, Irma, and Viola. William remarried to Delia.

Irma was b Oct 16, 1905, and d Sep 15, 1992. She m on April 26, 1924, to Claude Nicholas Sweetalla, son of Nicholas Sweetalla and Lillian ?. Claude was b Dec 30, 1902, d Jun 22, 1963. Their kids:

Darwin Claude (my stepgrandfather), b Aug 2, 1925, d Jun 2, 2001; Marriett; Delvin; Claude Nicholas, Jr.; Veloise; Gary; Gerald; Betty; and Eugene "Spade" (b abt 1941).

Dar, or "PawPaw," as I always called him, married Thelma Juanita "Nita" Brewer after a whirlwind courtship that lasted about 2 or 3 weeks. He, a native of Wisconsin, was in the military; he met Nita ("MawMaw" to me) in her home state of Alabama on a double date. They each had other dates, but during the date, everyone decided to swap. As he was about to be shipped out, he and Nita married and began a family, ending up back in Wisconsin, where they lived until about 1971, when they moved to Georgia. Nita was born Jan 31, 1927, daughter of James Reid Brewer and Willie Lou Bowens. Dar & Nita married Oct 13, 1945; they had 8 kids (6 sons & 2 daughters):

Richard Reid "Rick," b Sep 2, 1947. Garret Claude "Pete," b Oct 22, 1949.

Gail Louise, b Oct 19, 1950. Carey Gene, b Jul 27, 1952. Debra Luann

"Debby," b Oct 3, 1954 (my stepmother). Lonny Darwin, b Nov 17, 1957. Kim Nicholas, b Dec 30, 1960. Todd Lee, b Sep 24, 1962.

Each of the kids has 1 or 2 kids of their own, except for Debby, who had 2 stepchildren by her second husband, my Dad (me and my twin sister Adrian), and now has 4 stepchildren by her third husband. She and my dad divorced in 1989. Debby's brother Rick has a grandson, her sister Gail has a grandson, and Debby has 5 stepgrandchildren (granddaughter Natalie by my sister, and the rest through her current husband).

At any rate, if you're interested in the children of the Sweetalla kids, let me know and I'll put something together for you. PawPaw died last summer; the exact cause was not certain. He'd had heart problems for several years, and it's not known if he suffered a heart attack and then a brain aneurism, or vice versa, but one or the other (or perhaps both at the same time?) took his life. He was a larger-than-life character, and is sorely missed.

Please try resending your information, I'd love to get it from you. Thanks so much for being patient with me, I'm so sorry to keep you waiting! I should be around the house for the next couple of days before I'm gone again (I work out of town and spend a lot of time away from home).

Thanks again,
Heather Selph

Dear Mr. Blauer

Thank you for getting back to me so quickly. I am greatly appreciative. I learned of you from a conversation my husband had with Betty in the genealogical at the Huntington Beach Library. She gave us your e-mail address as she thought you could help us.

The current information that I have is as follows:

- 1. Lewis Leander Cooke (father)
Born 8-1-1905 Ulen, Minnesota (Becker County)
Died 5-23-1981 Sun City, Arizona (Maricopa County)
Married Myrtie Mae McKay 8-6-1934
Born 1-6-1908 Soldier, Iowa (Monona County)
Died 10-30-1993 Peoria, Arizona (Maricopa County)

Check 1910 Census

- 2. William Wilber Cooke (grandfather)
Born 12-16-1879 Decorah, Iowa
Died 4-29-1952 Lincolnshire (?), Illinois
Married Elizabeth Nei
Born 3-23-1875 ?, Minnesota
Died 11-27-1962 Fargo, North Dakota (Cass County)

Winneshiek Co. Check 1880 Census

- 3. Frank Jerome Cooke (great grandfather)
Born ?
Died ?
Married Emma Poppe

*Check 1870 Census
Frank Cook Winneshiek Co.
P. 284 - Springfield Twp.*

- 4. Lewis Leander Cooke (great, great grandfather)
Born Lewiston, New York
According to the letter I mentioned in the first e-mail, their homestead was Lewiston, New York near Niagra Falls

We researched many books and the best source we found was the "Francis Cooke of the Mayflower (Mayflower Families through Five Generations, Volume 12)" by Ralph V. Wood. As I am profoundly interested in tracing the name Cooke from my father back to the Mayflower I only checked the males due to the name.

The letter I mentioned was from my great grandfather's sister. She was Molly E. Cooke Hart and mentioned her sister Sylvia was 82 in 1937. Their father was Lewis Leander Cooke. The cane to them from their great grandfather (name not mentioned) to their father. They then gave it to my father who was their father's namesake.

This is as far as I have been able to go. Perhaps you can help.

My husband and I live in Long Beach (Belmont Shore).

Thank you very much for your efforts on my behalf.

Hi Jim,

Just got home today from a week in SLC. Got some new info for me at least but will share incase you haven't got it.

I got Nicholas Brock probate, inventory and etc., but no will. Was hoping for a will naming children. Not real sure this is the Nicholas I am hunting as one place refers to his wife as Nancy. I only know of his marriage to Sobriety Hall, but it could be her middle or nick name. Possible 2nd marr.

Did you give me the name of Warren as one of Ephraim & Elizabeth's children? He was b. abt 1801. Also one of Bezer's & Lucy's children was named, Elizabeth Warren Hall. Being there was not too many Goodnoughs in New Haven I would bet all the Goodnough's are their children. I also ran across an Elbert E.(Ephraim??)Goodnough.

Pauline

This is info I found, you may have it already.

1. Marriage date for Lucy R. Ames & George N. Porter, New Haven 16 Jul 1848.
2. Bezer Ames death, age 69, 10 sep 1861, New Haven CT, bur. Evergreen Cem.
3. Elizabeth Goodnough, age 85, died of cancer 24 Jun 1862, New Haven CT, bur. Evergreen Cem.
4. death dates of Bezer's children John Willis 1st d. 27 Jun 1841 2yrs.; John Willis 2nd 4 mos. d.23 Jul 1843; Abigail 2 yrs.d. 2 Aug 1836.
5. Elizabeth H. Brock b.21 Jul 1849. Elizabeth Hall Brock age 1yr 28 dys, d. 19 Aug 1850 of Cholera, York, New Haven Co. CT.
6. Lydia F. Ames age 34 d. 18 Feb 1866 at Hamilton, New Haven Co., buried Evergreen Cem.

Hi Jim,

Hope you are feeling better after that surgery. What did they do exactly?

You didn't answer me about the Warren Goodnough name. I have it in my data base, but don't remember if you gave it to me or not. I am thinking he is ours, and maybe this Elbert E. is also. There are so few Goodnough's in the New Haven area that I would say they are all related.

Here is another tidbit I found and would like to know what you think.

The marriage of Lucy Ames to Ephraim Goodnough. It threw me when I read it.

The Lucy is same age as our Lucy Goodnough, wife of Bezer, so believe it is ours.

Ephraim Goodnough 72 & Lucy Ames 62 married 30 Apr 1866, place of resid. when m. he Bristol, CT, she New Haven, CT. Birthplace of Ephraim was Peacham, VT, birthpalce of Lucy was MA.

Ephraim at 72 wouldn't be her father????, as he isn't quite old enough. We figured her father to be born abt 1775, and this Ephraim was b. abt 1784. If this is Ephraim Lucy's father than he would only been abt age 16 as her father.

This marriage took place after Elizabeth Herring Goodnough died. This was info I got late on Sat. night so didn't check the census. We need to look at the census for 1860 and 1870 to see where they all show up. Ephraim was b. in VT, same as ours. This has me baffled to say the least. Let me know what you think and also about the Warren Goodnough.

Love your cuz, Pauline

Hi again Jim,

On a 1849 birth record showing Warren Goodnough and Esther being the parents and showing their ages of 48 and her as 36, would make this Warren born about 1801, more inline of the time frame of the Goodnoughs having children. Also what do you think of this Elbert as a possible brother to Lucy and Warren or a son of Warren's?

Hi Jim,

I just have the copies of the two girls birth in Roxbury. I wonder if the records are on line, do you know? The "Genealogical Dictionary of the First Settlers of New England" by Savage is on line, do you have the URL? I have been slowly printing it out for my use only.

Is it possible to check to see if Ephraim is in the 1810 MA, 1820 CT and 1820 MA census, if so just write out the people in his house hold, also 1830 CT or MA, 1840 CT and 1850 CT and 1860 CT, want to trace out his family members if I can.

The Elbert had a son Elbert E., E. could be for Ephraim, that died at 10 years, on 28 Jan 1868, which brings the fathers age down to 1857-8, if there is more children then his birth year would probably be in the 1840's, so think he is son of Warren. Get the 1850 New Haven CT census on Elbert. You don't have to photo copy just write the pertinent data down.

I have sent an Email to the Warren descendant to get more info. So will let you know when I get an answer.

Did you get a chance to look up that info on Goodnough?

I found on the Rev. War and pension list, Ephraim Goodnow - Mass. land grant. Is this our Ephraim Goodnough/Goodnow? You can go to this list and check out a lot of Rev. soldiers.

Dear Cindy, Connie, and Group:

Cindy has picked up 2 additional kids.....in parts of the chur books, I have not gotten to.....

I am working through births forward in time to back in time, so hav come to none of these actual births yet, I have picked them up in their marriages and the children that they have..... and have not even considered looking into deaths yet....

I am sure Cindy's additional work on this family is more accurate t mine...she is well into records I have not looked at yet.....so I sure you'll want to make these corrections, Connie.....!!!!!!

the 2 extra kids on Cindy's list are #3 Anna Schmellick, who dies a child and #6 Mathes, who also dies as a child.....

Thanks Cindy!

Which reminds me.....Have you bought your ticket?????????????Have ordered your shirt?????????Eloda is ordering and making shirts as we speak!

Brock / Hall

Sept. 13, 1997

Hi Jim,

Thought I would pass this on. In those copies I sent last Jan. or Feb. "The Quiet Adventures in North America" on page 137. When I told you about Nicholas Brock marrying Sobriety Hall and thought that maybe he was John's father. In looking at that page today I discover that a Nicholas Brock was in New Castle. NH in 1714 and he married a Elizabeth Holden bef. 1730-34, New Castle being only about 30 miles from Barrington on today's roads, he is listed also in "Early Marriages of Strafford Co." which a copy you sent me. Now this Nicholas, according to Quiet Adventures book, "BROCK, Nicholas, a joiner in Newcastle, NH 1714, mar. Eliz. Holden, dau of John. Nicholas from J (Jersey) fam.?" This Nicholas and Eliz. could be parents of Nicholas of Barrington who is John's father. As far as I can see or find is that there wasn't a Stephen in that time period to be John's grandfather. But there was something I read that you gave me and be darned if I can find it, I thought it was a Stephen who was from an island off New Jersey. I have looked and looked and I can't find it in my file. I will probably find it after I post this. But at the time I saw that, I thought to myself, if that is the Jersey that Tutttles were referring to?

You might want to see if there is a book on "Portsmouth, NH" as it might give us more detail. Listed in the Quiet Advent. in Portsmouth were: Andrew Brock, mariner, m. Anna. had a son William (who shows up in Barrington), bought land in Portsmouth 1697; a Francis Brock res. Portsmouth 1686; then Nicholas in Newcastle which is next to Portsmouth. in the early marriages of Strafford there is a Stephen who married in 1782 that is right time period for John's father, but doubt that as I can't find any of his children born that early. So here is how I am thinking this lineage goes, may be wrong, have to prove first.

Nicholas Brock b. abt 1680-90 Jersey C.I. m. bef 1730-34 Elizabeth Holden
Nicholas Brock b. 6 Jan 1745 Barrington m. 19 Jun 1777 Sobriety Hall of Dover
John Brock b. 21 Aug 1783 Barrington m. Lydia Tuttle

Sgt. John Hall of Dover (will dated 29 Aug 1677), m. Elizabeth _?_
John Hall Jr. b. 1617, m. abt 1648/9 Elizabeth Laighton (Layton)
Ralph Hall d. 1706?, m. Mary Cresley/Chesley
Ralph Hall b. abt 1704 m. Elizabeth Willey of Lee Sobriety Hall b. abt 1751, d. 4 Apr 1834, m. 19 Jun 1777 to Nicholas Brock

I wish I had the research source as close by as you do, you have the source and I have the time. I just think we may have taken too much stock in the Stephen from the Isle of Jersey. Logically my idea sounds good---but will it work out that way. I have been fairly lucky at picking these lines out so far. I took middle name of one of Gene's ancestors and figured it probably was a maiden name of a family member, which turns out to be the grandmother. I guess I told you I have linked the Hallett line back to the Barnstable Hallett's, which you sent me a copy of. Well this is all for now, just wanted you to know what I think I have found. Oh yes, check that copy on Quiet Advent. as it gives a few sources you can look up, look on bottom of page 136 & top of 137.

Love, your shirt-tail cuz

Pauline

Stephen BROCK b. <1750> m. 11/28/1782 Elizabeth Berry both of Barrington (You looked at wrong year
Children: Stephen Brock Jr. b. 1780's as I have same copy you (doubtful as father of John b. 8/21/1783, shy of 9 mos.) sent to me 1782 not 1781)

Stephen BROCK Jr. of Durham, b. <1780's> Isles of Shoals, Rockingham, NH, m. 12/9/1791 Abigail Bunker of Bradbury b.
1780 Dover

Children: Henry Brock b. 1806 Pittsfield, Merrimack, NH
Stephen Brock b. 1808 Pittsfield, Merrimack, NH
Paul Brock
Tamson Brock
Hannah Brock

Nicholas BROCK, a joiner in Newcastle, NH 1714, m. bef. 1730 Elizabeth Holden. Nicholas from Jersey family? OUTC.
(Noyes) (Newcastle isn't that far from Barrington)
Possible children: Nicholas Brock b.ca. 1760
Nicholas Brock b. 1/6/45

Nicholas BROCK of Barrington, b. 1/6/1745, d. 12/5/1828 ; m. 6/19/77 Sobriety Hall of Dover

Children: Ezra Brock b.abt. 1778, m. 12/25/1800 Isaac Brock
Nicholas Brock Betsey Brock
JOHN BROCK (if ours) b. 1783 Ralph Brock b.abt. 1790

(I pick this Nicholas as father for these reasons: 1) the only family I find so far with a son named John.
2) his wife's last name of HALL as she had a sister named Elizabeth Hall and Ephriam named one of his dau.
Elizabeth Hall. 3) if he is son of Nicholas who was from Jersey. 4)The only ref. to a Stephen is from Tuttle's book, it is possible Stephen could be a middle name. 5) The Stephen m. to Berry looks like first child was a Stephen Jr.
have not found his birth date yet, surmising he was first born being named after father. 6) no where is it carved in stone John's grandfather was a Stephen, maybe he was a great grandfather.)

SOME OTHER BROCKS MARRIED BEFORE JOHN WAS BORN.

Simeon BROCK, of Berwick, m. 12/2/1776 Judith Bunker
William BROCK of Somersworth, m.6/15/1772 Elizabeth Bunker Mason
Francis BROCK, m. 3/30/1779 Sarah Hodsdon
JOHN BROCK, m. 11/23/1772 Bridget Horsom

There was only a Nicholas Brock listed in 1776 NH census, Stephen shows up in 1790 census.

Of Ephraim's children there are three surnames used as middle names, WILMOT, LINCOLN & HALL, I am sure Hall is from Sobriety Hall, would have to search family of AMES (but see nothing) to see is the other two might be in that line, usually a woman's maiden name, it is curious as to where those names came from unless John isn't Ephraim's father, now that is a thought.
There were only two points in favor that John & Lydia were Ephraim's parents, birth date and will, we have found no evidence to be absolutely sure of it. John, Nicholas & Stephen seem to be names used in several generations. I can see that many points that Nicholas and Sobierty Hall are John's parents, time frame that they had a son John and the Hall name used by Ephraim to name a child. If you look at John and Lydia's sons there doesn't seem to be the traditional naming pattern of those years, if so Daniel first son born to John should be named after John's father, second son Stephen could be name of grandfather or an uncle, third son Elijah was name of Lydia's father, fourth son John is after him and also Lydia's brother's name besides being a family name.
Fifth son Ephraim, I have no idea where it came from unless a brother of John or favorite uncle etc. Also if Ephraim's middle name is Arthur, which we haven't proved, just that NM city directory gives his middle as A., so where did name of Arthur come from? There are a lot of loose ends in this genealogy. Did you check on Ralph Hall in SAR or DAR books to see if he is listed as a Rev. war soldier? I will leave all this information for you to ponder over.

If you recheck that marriage date of Stephen and Berry you will see 3rd line down from Hanniel Clark it says AD 1782 not 1781. It is also listed in copy you sent me of "Early Marriages of Strafford Co" as 11/28/1782.

Yes you have sent me all the stuff on Otis, Allen, Dame, Nute and etc. I have found a lady on the net who is working those lines as they are hers. You are really missing out by not being on the net. I have found only female LeBrocq's just their names, no parents etc. But they are: Marie Lebrocq from St-Ouen/Quen m. 2/5/1769 Amice Luce; Jeanne LeBrocq
St. Peter m.abt 1790-93 Edouard Mauger; Elizabeth LeBrocq m. Thomas Balleine of St. Peter; Anne Elizabeth LeBrocq m.
1/9/1812 Aaron Asplet of St. Balade/Belade; Rachel LeBrocq St.Quen/Ouen Parish m Daniel Grandin b. 1656;
Catherine LeBrocq d/o William m. 4/18/1763 Guillaume Cabeldu/Gabeldu St. Mary; all Jersey, CI. So you can see I am hunting. Thought these parish might give you a place to look in books.

Hi Jim,

Thought I would let you know maybe I finally hit pay dirt on Brocks in Jersey. But will have to wait and see if it comes through, I am trying to get this guy to do something now not a year or two from now.

Anyhow I have been putting queries out on the Channel Island List and this guy answered that he has seen the Le Brocq family tree that someone else has and he will try and get a copy. Le Brocq's tree goes back to 1480 in St. Ouens Jersey. This guy said there were notes on it in French, do you suppose our Brock's are French descent? This guy may be in the Channel Islands as his name sounds French, I asked him where he was in email this morning. He wanted my address, hopefully to send this info to, I gave my PO box in Laughlin as I just don't want to hand out my street address to anyone, specially if I don't know them, think it is safer.

Have you found out anything on that Hall line or found anything new on Nicholas Brock? I think we still need to pursue this as Ephraim got the Hall name from some where and this is the most logical place and naming trends I have found is that grandchildren use grandmothers maiden name as middle name on their own children, have even seen it on Gene's lines, that is how I found some of the wives lines.

Anyhow this is just a short note so you can do research in St. Ouen, Jersey, the name he spelled was Le Brocq, so that is name used over there I guess. Boy this internet is great. If you decide to go on-line let me know and I will make you a list of places with addresses you can go to and etc.

What are the names and addresses of "our" cousins in MA? I would like to have a list of our cousins in the east so I can check to see if they are on-line, would be neat to get in touch with them through e-mail. Would they do lookups locally? Do we have family buried in MA that have headstones? Who and where are they buried? I was hoping I could get one of our cousins to take pictures of the headstones for me, of course I will reimburse them any cost of it. Let me know their addresses and names.

Keep your fingers crossed that this guy Trevor comes through with that Le Brocq Tree. Take care and write soon. Will keep you posted on this new lead.

Love, your shirt-tail cuz,

Pauline

June 19, 1997

Dear Jim;

We must of been on same wave length, I was thinking the other day just before I got your letter that I had better write Jim as it's been a long time. Then here comes your letter.

Thanks for the Hallett info. haven't found John Hallett in NY yet, but have been so busy with other lines. This internet is great, I have been on so many genealogy pages and have gotten answer so many queries I put out in the different counties in different states. If all prove out I have found my Wheeler line in NY and have gotten a lot of info, the internet has done that for me. Also on internet I have found someone who has filled me in on the Edwards line maternal side a few generations plus locality. Did I tell you I also found the parents of Cassandra Middleton, learned her middle name Ruth and her sister Elizabeth Ann and that James George Middleton and Alief Farrar are her parents. Now I am trying to find James parents who I think is Stephen J. Middleton b. SC I think, wife Leodicy Jane Middleton. I have gotten plat info on land he owned on PeeDee River SC.

Did I tell you I am now a DAR member? Made it. Did you go in on Tuttle line? Send me copies of new ones you joined. I have Sylvanis Ames, Isaac Johnson, Mayflower desc., the Pilgrims Soc., the Plymouth Hereditary Soc., and app. for Huguenot Soc. any more??

Sounds like you have had a busy month so far. Boy wish we had you as a member here with all those books you are donating. I am donating some quarterlies and some books to our Family History center in Needles, as they have to buy every thing on their own the Mormon church does not give them moot. Being it is the best place to donate genealogy, rather than where first started our genealogy collection at the college here. They are doing our collection in with all other books putting them in sections all over the place, instead of listing them in the genealogy section and putting them there. The gen. soc. bought a book on cemeteries and the college put it in reference section. I don't like that, if I want to look up genealogy I want to go to that section only not run around the whole library. Our Needles library is desperate for genealogy books and etc. If you ever have duplicates, throw them our way.

Have a great time at your reunion. Sounds like fun, seeing all the cousins and all.

If you are going to the library I would like some things if you have time. I would like a copy of 1840 Blakely, Luzerne Co. PA census - surnames - Wheeler; Miller; Coon; Decker.

If they have original film I would like that if you can take the time, that way I can see how close these people live to one another.

Census index for COMSTOCK 1870 & 1880 MO, and 1870 & 1880 CA. no

1790 census index or census Columbia Co. NY, Andreas WHEALER/WHEELER. index only - Need name of County

Census index 1790, 1800, 1810, 1820, 1830, 1840 NC, NORVELL/E - NORVILL/E also same on EDWARDS.

1840 & 1850 PA, HAINES. ✓

Those will help me a lot, I get tired of ordering film and have it be so costly, ordered $26.25 worth of film and had one with anything on it. I would rather wait till next Jan. when I go to Salt Lake City to do all that film researching.

Well I have rattled on long enough so will close for now. Don't spend all your time on my stuff at the Library, what ever you have time for will be great. Thanks a lot.

P.S. Could you look up Samuel Tobias Wheeler in civil war. He lives in Nicholson Wyoming Co. PA B-4 Apr 1823/or 23 Apr

Mary Edwards

Hi Jim;

Haven't heard from you in a coons age it seems. I owe you $3.70, but was waiting to get more copies so I could write a bigger check.

I am on-line on the internet and am doing great on genealogy, have gotten about three different lines and gained three more shirt-tail cousins in the Wheeler line. I am still trying to find more proof that the one line is mine. The church bapt. say a "Sammy" was b. 4 April 1823, my Samuel's dc says b.date 23 Apr 1823, which could be in error by accidentally writing the 23 same as year. It also states his father was John & mother Eleanor, but bpt. records say mother is Lena, so would like to get these two items cleared up. I also found Samuel's wife's family, the Miller's, line goes back to 1400's. After sending a letter 5 years ago I got an answer last month which gave me more Hallett information. So now I have John E. Hallett b. 2/14/1835 Waverly, Tioga Co. NY, although he doesn't show in the Waverly History book, I found him and more children in the 1850 census. His father was a Gilbert Hatfield Hallett m. Emily Philipine Tissot, which John uses Hatfield, Tissot & Philipine in names of his children, so I have no doubt about that connection. This line does go back to the Barnstable Hallett's, which you sent me copies of out of the book.

I only do genealogy on the net and have found a BROCK list I joined and get copies of all Brock queries. Just recently there was a new one added on CHANNEL-ISLANDS. So sent a query out on it too on Stephen, but heard nothing. How are you doing in trying to trace John Brock back? In the NH 1776 census there is only a Nicholas Brock listed, and in 1800 in Barrington a Nicholas and a Stephen. If you can think of a good query with more info to send to Brock and Channel Islands lists send it to me and I will put it on the net, anything you might want to put out on the net send to me. Enclosing a message that came through the other day on Brock's thought you might like it for reference. Also it talked about a family news letter "Brock Babblings", think I will see if I can get some info on it. Have you seen the book "Brock Family Records" by Maude (Cawthra) Brock, 1927?

Would you do me a favor the next time you are at the library that has the index books on census names? I would like to get index copies of HALLETT's in Chicago Ill., need Federal 1860,70, & 80 and mainly the IL 1855 & 1865 Terr. Cen. I am trying to locate the Gilbert Hallett family there and see if John went with the family to Chicago or stayed in Waverly, NY. If I can find where John is in civil war era then maybe I can see if he was in that war. Can you check the Civil War books and see if John E. (Edward/Emory?) Hallett is listed for either Waverly NY or Chicago IL? Also Samuel Tobias Wheeler b. NY but living in Nicholas, Wyoming Co. PA in that time period and I know he served as some family member said he had the discharge. I won't be able to see that series of books till I go to SLC in Jan.

Have you been having a busy summer and did you get a relaxing vacation in or a genealogy research vacation? We are staying here, can't get Gene to go up north to our daughters in Spokane. Been about 110 average this summer so far. As long as it doesn't get like last year when it was up to 125 plus. Hope to hear from you soon.

*Love you cuz
Pauline*

In the Oct. 1996 issue of Brock Babblings, James G. Faulconer gave us information on a number of Brocks in early Virginia, some from England, one family from Wales, and the Rudolph Brock family from Germany.

In June 1997, J.W. Doyle, Jr. provided us with variations of the name Brock and advised us to look to Brooks, Brookes, and Broach, especially in tracing one's Brock ancestry in Virginia.

I thought I would provide a little of the English origins of the Brock name as uncovered from a number of sources.

Many alternate spellings of the Brock name are to be found and are typically linked to a common root, usually one of the Norman nobles at the Battle of Hastings (1066). Some of the variations are: Broc, Brock, Brocke, Brockes, Brocks, Brockx, Broch, and Broche.

The family name is believed to be traced back to the Normans, who in turn were of Viking origin. The Vikings landed in the Orkneys and Northern Scotland about 870 A.D., under their chief, Sturgud the Stout. Later, under their jarl, Thorfinn Rollo, they invaded France about 940. The French king, Charles the Simple, after Rollo laid siege to Paris, finally conceded defeat and granted northern France to Rollo. Rollo became the first duke of Normandy. Duke William, who invaded England and defeated the Anglo-Saxons in 1066, was descended from the First Duke Rollo of Normandy.

The first record of the name Brock is found in Essex where Ralph Broc was granted lands in Colchester, in 1119; it is thought he was invited to England to support the need for industrialists and trades people.

Meanwhile, there was a Norman warrior or chieftain, Oyn Porcell/Purcell, who probably married an heiress by the name of Broc, as his son, was known as Radulphus Purcell/Ranulph (or Ranulf) de Brock. Ranulph married in 1166. He had lands in both Kent and Sussex counties. He was of the family who hated Thomas Becket and it was said that it was at one of Ranulph's castles that the conspiracy to murder the Archbishop of Canterbury was planned. Ranulph himself died about 1187.

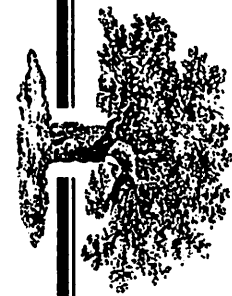

One of Ranulph's children was Robert de Broc. It is said that branches of his family settled in Shropshire, Cheshire, and Somersetshire and were progenitors of the Broke families.

As for Somersetshire, it is stated that beyond the walls of Ilchester (or Ilchester), towards Montacute, there was an ancient village called Brook, or the Brook, from where a family of great antiquity derived the name at At-Brook and de la Brooke, the being the place of their usual residence.

The earliest reference I have to this family is William de la Broke/Brooke/Brook, lord of Broke/Brooke Manor near Ilchester in either the reign of King John (1199-1216) or his son, Henry III (1216-1272). This manor continued in the possession of his direct male descendants until the attainder of Henry Broke, Lord Cobham, in 1603.

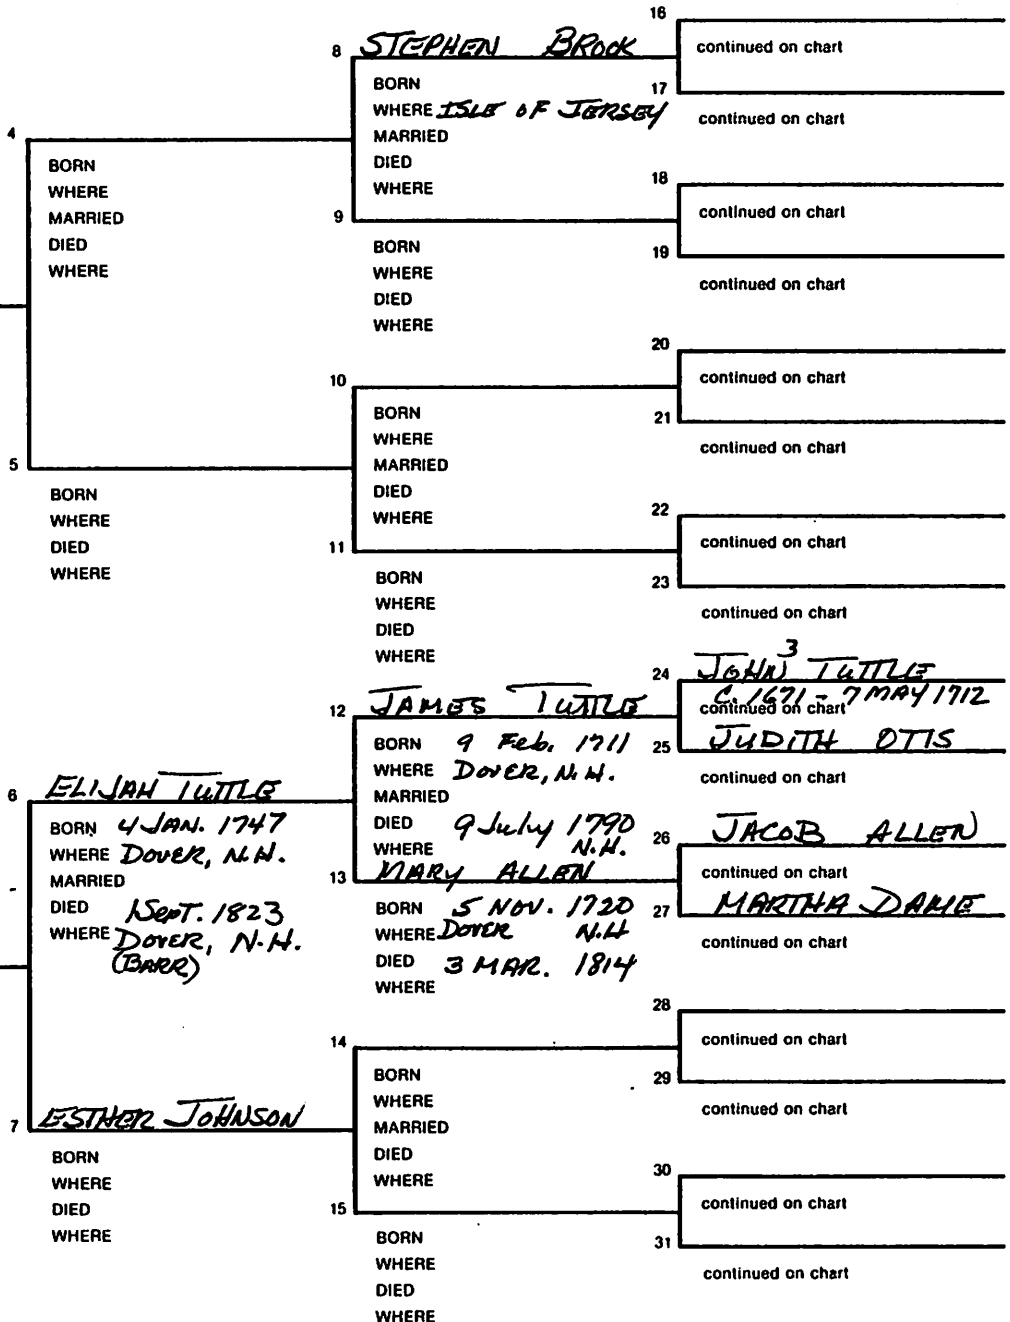

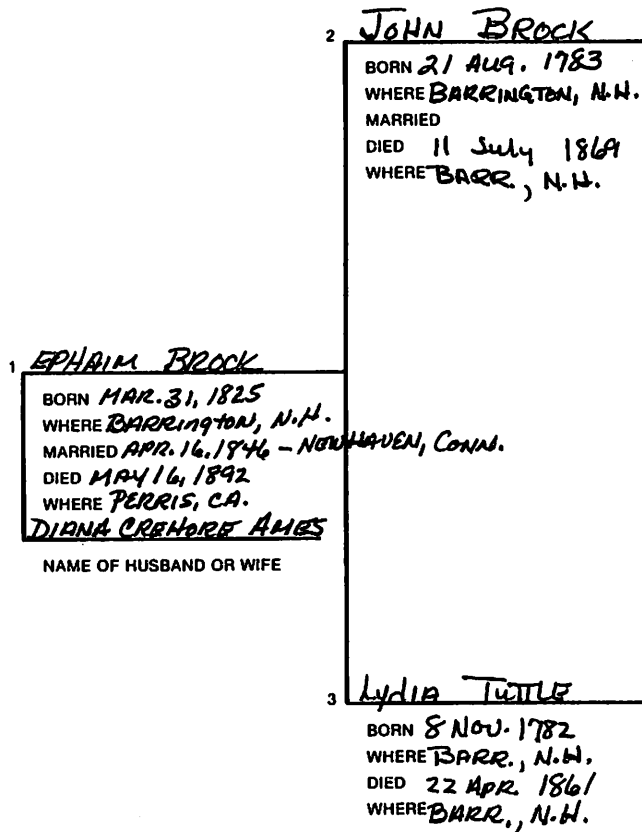

After 10 generations in direct descent from William de la Broke/Brooke/Brook,

Dear Jim and Cindy,

As we discussed this week...the strange mystery of the Gullicks, here are the records that relate to the Gullick family that I have found, and the strange situation that these people are know as "Gullick " in this country but as "Bulkow" in the Drachhausen books.....sometime between 1843-1849 the name changes from Bulkow to Gullick....Bulkow's are fairly prominent family in the books, Gullick family rarely otherwise appears...

the 1840 birth of Frederick says "Gullick" ..but this is a sheet of paper added later to the books, perhaps after the name was changed.....

The birth dates of these children coincide with the births of the "Gullick children" as recorded in this country. But in Germany their names are recorded as Bulkow. (Had we not already had the dates, I would never have figured out this much!)

CINDY: glad to hear you got the books, perhaps you can decipher something here, what's up with this family?

JIM: Your Gullick copies will be in the mail on Friday.

Thanks, Cathy

I got this out of an old email from Carla.....I think you could order it from Betty Haas (Carla has her addresssss)or order from Lee County,....or LDS probably has it...on tape, I would think.....

I think Carla picked it up in an Iowa Geneaolgical Society publication that indexed the probates...so neither she nor I actually have it...It just indicates that it exists. I think it would be worth getting.

Dear Roxanne:

Here are the notes from Chris Markusch File...they have the obit in them, of course email decided to reformat it...I hate it when it does that!:

Emmigrated 1882 This is from the Zearing Centennial book, from Connie Lyall, 2000:

Christian and Elizabeth Markusch

Christian and Elizabeth Kulowatz Markusch were born in Germany in 1848 and 1842, respectively. They came to Iowa in 1881 and settled in Story County, a few miles west of Saint Anthony.

There were the parents for four children; Caroline, Fred, Louise and Mary.

Caroline was born July 18, 1885, on the home farm and married William Mehlich January 27, 1905. William's parents were Martin and Maire Riese Mehlich, who came to this area from Kossuth County in 1901.

Caroline and William bought and lived on the old Markusch place until they retired and moved to State Center. Their son William Jr. married Dorothy Hennis February 27, 1935.

The farm continues to be in the Mehlich family, as it is now owned by William and Dorothy's son, Gary Mehlich. I have recently gotten more info on this family but need to get them in order before I send.

OBITUARY:

TUMBLES IN WATER TANK AFTER DEATH

Chris Markusch, of St. Anthony, Meets a Peculiar Fate Friday Evening

Chris Markusch, one of the early settlers in the county, and who had made his home lately with his daughter, Mrs. William Mehlisch, southwest of St. Anthony, was found dead in a water tank on the farm at 5 o'clock last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Chris Schmellick, a neighbor. The body was lying face down in about one foot of water. Death was due to heart failure.

It is believed that Mr. Markusch had been dead about half an hour when his body was found. He was alone at home at the time. Mrs. Schmellick came for a neighborly call and when she passed the water tank noticed something strange in it. She was horrified to find that it was her neighbor's body.

The coroner was called and after investigating the case concluded that Mr. Markursch had been a victim of heart disease and had fallen into the tank. He said that the man could not have been dead more than thirty minutes when his body was found.

Mrs. Markusch is survived by five children. Besides the daughter with whom he resided, they are, Mrs. W.H. Hennis, who lives north of State Center; William and Charles Markusch, of St. Anthony; and Fred Markusch, of St. Paul.

Funeral services were conducted Monday Afternoon at the French Grove Lutheran church by the pastor, Rev. A.J. Boehm. Interment was made in the church yard.

Subject: Re: Chris Muschick's Violin

Chris Markusch had the violin and played on the journey to America in 1881. and I do have 3 small baskets that I took out of the attic of our old house, that look like the pictures of Don's baskets. I have no idea if they were made by members of the family or not but did belong to Caroline Markusch Mehlisch. I also have some very old very very fragile Christmas tree ornaments that are hand blown glass very thin and I bought a book years ago about antique ornaments and they look exactly like pictures of the ornaments made in a village in Germany as a cottage industry, can't remember the name of the village right now will think of it later! I have an old papier mache mother rabbit and 2 small ones that also belonged to Caroline or her mother Elizabeth Kullowatz Markusch. The hump back truck from the old attic belonged to the Markuschs unfortunately Gary's dad died not long after we were married and so I really don't know any of the stories about the familys. Altho I do know more about his family than Gary because I was interested and listened whenever Bill talked about these things. Roxanne

I am having a great time reading all of this great info. on the Markusch and Kullowatz families. I know that Chris Markusch had retired and moved to St. Anthony. his dau. Caroline and son-in-law Wm. Mehlisch now living on Chris and Elizabeths home place. he drove his horse and buggy out to the farm and was at the water tank watering his horse when he had an apparent heart attack and fell forward into the horse tank. That is what Marie Schmellick told me and she said her mother found him so when i read that Jenny has an obit that tells about that i was excited any chance Jenny, that you could send me a copy of that it said it was in the file which opened and was perfect. i had no trouble opening or reading the file but i did not see a copy of the obit. Dear Dave,

Yes you are related but this is extremely complicated...so I will try to explain it in a way that only give a head ache!

1. Chris Kullowatz 1871 was:
2. s/o Liese Kullowatz (Markusch) (before she married Chris Markusch) b. 1842 she was:
3. d/o Christian Kullowatz 1816, who was:
4. s/o Martin Kullowatz 1782, who was:
5. S/o a man I have labelled in the computer as Unknown Brother Kullowatz b ABt 1750 who was married to a woman who's maiden name was Melkow (this being part of the Mehlow family and being one of the variant spellings of it.....)

NEXT:

6. Martin Frederick Kullowatz b 1897 was:

*This makes#1 Chris Kullowatz (1871)

a 3rd cousin to #6 Martin Frederick Kullowatz (1897) and a 2 cousin, one generation removed to #7 Matthes Kullowats (1865)

In the case of # 5, I do not know his name....I may when I finish the 1825-1850 Death books because he may be in there, or maybe the wife, who often outlives the man, and I may be able to figure in out.....There are indications in the records that both Hans (1801) and Martin (1782) had a mother with a maiden name of Meklow... and she is obviously married to a man named Kullowatz....We would have to have the actual birth records back to 1782 to be certain, and they do not exist any longer.....so this is the educated guess version of the story.....In wonderful little Drachhausen, it is not impossible that Hans and mMartin had different fathers both married to 2 different women, both name Melkow....(believe me it happened all the time!) I which case ad one more number to the relationships.....#1 & #6 would then become 4th cousins and #1 & #7 become 3rd ClGR.....

Unfortunately there are more possiblilities....more complicated.....so I have given you my best guess and I think it is about 90% chance that it is accurate.....with about a 20% chance of proving who either the Mother Melkow or "Unknown Brother Kullowatz is by the end of the translating

So there you have.....confused????

But such fun!! THIS THING WE KNOW FOR SURE>>>>HE IS YOUR RELATIVE!!! I have a habit of rounding it off and just saying " distant cousin"

Dear Roxanne:

1. Concerning Charles and William Markusch, in the obit.....Obituaries are very helpful and also have alot of false leads in them, as do death certificates....both include information is normally taken from people, often the oldest child, right at the time of their parent's death. These children of the deceased are often knowledgable, but very upset people. Then you have who ever took the information and wrote the article...again newspapers misconstrue so much that I have rarely seen an article that doesn't have something wrong with it.

This and many of the obits I have came from Connie. She spent hours and hours of time one summer hunting these down, every time I thought of someone I did not have, yet in the program, she would go look it up....then she would type them into the computer to me, by email.....It is not impossible that in copying literally dozens of these, that some error could have been made picking up some info from one page and getting it on another.

I find absolutely no other evidence that Charles and William Markusch ever existed.....William of course was the name of 2 of Chris's son in laws.....so that could have been a case of just getting confused, by the newspaper, some one who didn't know these people could easilly have thought , that's his son and put in William Markusch, instead of Mehlich, There was also William Hennis.....

On Charles I have no guess.....beyond a grandchild, and again, I have none with that name.

The only siblings I have found so far are brother Matthes, born 30 Jan 1851 & sis Anna, b 27 Jul 1855...however, since the family is having kids about every 4 years...I very possible will pick up another, as I have found his parents wedding as 21 April 1844 and he is not born till 1848...so there is almost certainly another child, born around 1844 or 1845.....on the other had "Charles" is NOT a common name in Drachhausen, almost unheard of, so on that alone it seems unlikely that if there is antoher child, this would be his name.....probably the obit is just inaccurate.....Common problem...Thanks for pointing it out.

2. The wedding announcements came from Carla Koch....she maybe able to scan them to you, I don't have them...don't know if I left out the year on the one, or it didn't appear, & have no way to check that. I have Lizzie's wedding date as 6 Oct 1906.

Cathy the info on the Markusch family is what i put into the Zearing centennial book. the obit has some info that i am not sure about. Elizabeth died in Feb, 1911 and so it is probably true that Christ moved back out to the home place and was living with dau Caroline and Bill at the time of death which was Aug. 1911. but the children aren't right. Lizzie Markusch Mehlich is not mentioned and she didn't die til 1915. Who are William and Charles? I think maybe brothers? altho i have never heard of these men or anything about Christ having brothers around here i emailed Jennifer and she said she didn't have any obits so maybe this came from Connie and the date from the one wedding announcement is missing but some interesting stuff. rox

Dear Roxanne:

Here are the notes from Chris Markusch File...they have the obit in them, of course email decided to reformat it...I hate it when it does that!:

Emmigrated 1882 This is from the Zearing Centennial book, from Connie Lyall, 2000:

Christian and Elizabeth Markusch

Christian and Elizabeth Kulowatz Markusch were born in Germany in 1848 and 1842, respectively. They came to Iowa in 1881 and settled in Story County, a few miles west of Saint Anthony.

There were the parents for four children; Caroline, Fred, Louise and Mary.

Caroline was born July 18, 1885, on the home farm and married William Mehlich January 27, 1905. William's parents were Martin and Maire Riese Mehlich, who came to this area from Kossuth County in 1901.

Caroline and William bought and lived on the old Markusch place until they retired and moved to State Center. Their son William Jr. married Dorothy Hennis February 27, 1935.

The farm continues to be in the Mehlich family, as it is now owned by William and Dorothy's son, Gary Mehlich. I have recently gotten more info on this family but need to get them in order before I send.

OBITUARY:

TUMBLES IN WATER TANK AFTER DEATH

Chris Markusch, of St. Anthony, Meets a Peculiar Fate Friday Evening

Chris Markusch, one of the early settlers in the county, and who had made his home lately with his daughter, Mrs. William Mehlisch, southwest of St. Anthony, was found dead in a water tank on the farm at 5 o'clock last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Chris Schmellick, a neighbor. The body was lying face down in about one foot of water. Death was due to heart failure.

It is believed that Mr. Markusch had been dead about half an hour when his body was found. He was alone at home at the time. Mrs. Schmellick came for a neighborly call and when she passed the water tank noticed something strange in it. She was horrified to find that it was her neighbor's body.

The coroner was called and after investigating the case concluded that Mr. Markursch had been a victim of heart disease and had fallen into the tank. He said that the man could not have been dead more than thirty minutes when his body was found.

Mrs. Markusch is survived by five children. Besides the daughter with whom he resided, they are, Mrs. W.H. Hennis, who lives north of State Center; William and Charles Markusch, of St. Anthony; and Fred Markusch, of St. Paul.

Funeral services were conducted Monday Afternoon at the French Grove Lutheran church by the pastor, Rev. A.J. Boehm. Interment was made in the church yard.

Subject: Re: Chris Muschick's Violin

Chris Markusch had the violin and played on the journey to America in 1881. and I do have 3 small baskets that I took out of the attic of our old house, that look like the pictures of Don's baskets. I have no idea if they were made by members of the family or not but did belong to Caroline Markusch Mehlisch. I also have some very old very very fragile Christmas tree ornaments that are hand blown glass very thin and I bought a book years ago about antique ornaments and they look exactly like pictures of the ornaments made in a village in Germany as a cottage industry, can't remember the name of the village right now will think of it later! I have an old papier mache mother rabbit and 2 small ones that also belonged to Caroline or her mother Elizabeth Kullowatz Markusch. The hump back truck from the old attic belonged to the Markuschs unfortunately Gary's dad died not long after we were married and so I really don't know any of the stories about the familys. Altho I do know more about his family than Gary because I was interested and listened whenever Bill talked about these things. Roxanne

James,

Because you are the primary source on the Gullick family, I am sending you some details that may (or not) be new.

1. Years ago Gerhard Krüger wrote an article on German migration from the Cottbus region and then listed names of people who obtained exit permits. According to him Christian Gullick of Drachhausen migrated to the US in 1853. This date is supported by the places of birth of Caroline (1850 in Germany) and Henry (1855 in US). With this date of migration pinpointed, he would have been the first of the Iowa Wends. Do you have any idea what brought him here instead of Australia, Canada, or Africa?

2. In the 1900 census he is listed next to Bubner and has a boarder named Fred. Yurth. Yurth is a Wendish name. Have you encountered it any other place?

3. Their migration route through England was common at that time and the Wendish colony in Texas used it in 1854. They sailed from Hamburg to Grimsby, England, they by train to Liverpool where ships, empty from the cotton bales, were modified and took passengers to New Orleans. (Or Galveston in the case of the Texas group). Have you checked the New Orleans port records?

Thanks for your help.

If you take these to someone who reads German today, and tell them what the other words & columns mean, & they can often then read the words you can't get, because you have helped them figure out the letters and they have the advantage of knowing the vocabulary.....that often works quite well!

I have a busy day ahead....will try to do you a birth and a death

Dear Roxanne & All,

I spoke with Janets Renee born Zeisneiss Jones Halverson, b 15 Jul 1955, d/o Carl Frederick Ziesneiss (born 16 May 1930, died 1 Mar 2001) & Dorothy Marie Allen.

Carl Frederick Zeisneiss is the son of Frederick Henry Zeisneiss and ATVE M. SCHMELLICK, b 5 May 1900

ATVE M SCHMELLICK is daughter of Christian (geb Goschmann) Schmellick, 9 Jun 1867, Drachhausen & Mary Rinza, b 2 Mar 1875, Drachhausen (The 2 were married 10 Jun 1897, State Center, IA)

She divorced in July 1998, and had previously, for 20 years, been married to Tim Jones, with whom she had three children, Benjamin, Kaitlin and Jacob Jones...the later 2 are twins, She also lost a set of twins before their birth, as did her "Aunt"

Ellen Allen that you thought she might belong to.

She lives @ 3051 East main St. Road, Marshalltown, Iowa 50158.....phone 641-753-5018.....no email, though I may try to talk her into getting a hotmail box, as she is very interested in the group, says she will get us pictures and send them to me to be scanned, etc.

TO ANYONE READING IN: LEROY TALKED ME INTO SOMETHING I JUST TRIED WITH JANET HALVERSON....I love it and it works great....! I got a phone head set, I took a bunch of info from Janet by phone and had both hands free, so as she told me instead of taking notes...I just typed it right into PAF as she told me...cool time saver!....So if you have something of the genealogical to tell me, just give me a call!

STILL NEGOTIATING WITH HOTELS.....Hope to get the cancellation policies etc, but just about have it solved....

Will share that with you soon!

ALSO: IF YOU ARE NOT GOING ON THE TRIP: I am adding a separate section to the roster, which are a list of folks not going on the trip, but who would like to be connected with someone in Germany, if we find the connection. It will allow us to give out your address and phone and email, should we find your relativeSo far I have Jim Blauer and Janet Halverson on the list....If you wish to go on it, please let me know.....

Cathy is this Ellen Allen's daughter? I know Ellen's mother was a Schmellik and I remember her very well she lived to be in her 90's and she could speak Vendish. I remember her sister Marie Schmellik (never married) and lived on the home place which is just a 1/2 mile from us. Roxanne

The Marshalltown article must have been run! I was unable to find it on line, but I received a call from Janet Halverson, 641-753-5018....

I am to talk to her again tomorrow at 9:30 Iowa time...

She is granddaughter of Christian Schmellick and Mary Rinza.. !!! No joining the trip, no email, but wants to contribute info, and very interested in our research.

Cool....can anybody figure out how to access the article on line? She said there was no picture...but she was so shocked to read about Wends, that she dropped her coffee!

Cute!!!!

Dear All,

In response to a email from Barry DiBernardo (married to Heidi Muschick, previously of Cottbus), Yesterday I called their Aunt Annie Muschick, of Osprey, FL. Barry and Heidi had just been there for a visit and had realized she had been doing research in Germany on the Muschik family.

WOW!!!!!!WOW!!!! WOW!!!! is all I can say...Annie and I were on the phone for several hours and exchanged lots of information. I could help her with gaps in her research and completed several lines she had not had success with, but she also had really exciting news for us as well! It included lots of new information about the Muschik families!!!

I'll try to itemize some of the new things I learn:

1. Annie has a picture from Drachhausen about 1910 vintage, at a village event, that includes many friends and family members of her parents, but they were never labeled as to who they were. She is going to take it to a friend and see if she can get it scanned and emailed to us, so we can take it to Drachhausen, or share it with Kristin and Manya, etc., to see if anyone in Drachhausen can ID it. If she can not find a person with a scanner, she will copy and send it to me, so I can scan it.

2. For GEORGE: Some of her family A Martin Friederich Bossenz, from Drachhausen, migrated to Canada, with his wife and children in 1868, A cousin of her Bossenz great grandparents, George Bossenz, born Jan 1852

3. "Bossenz" name originated from the French. It is not a Wendisch name. The Bossenz' came to the area during the 30 years War and never went back to France at its conclusion. The French name was not Bossenz.....but perhaps Bissene? or something similar, so this became "Wendized" but it is not Wendisch, even though they became a family in Drachhausen for many years.

4. JACK: .Annie's family of Muschick's come from the village of "Suechow" I find this on the map spelled "Suschow"

This village is east of Cottbus about 5 or six mile, just about the large town of Vetschau. My guess, about 15 mile cross country to Drachhausen which is North and west of Suschow. She also mentions "Papitz" books for the village of Kunersdorf, where her great grandfather, Christian Martin Muschick came from. This is a microscopic village on the edge of Cottbus. Below are notes on this, that I put in PAF that details this information a bit more.

Annie believes, as I do that all the Muschick families tie into one, if we could only back track the research a little farther. I can not tie her Muschick's into my families Muschick's or into Jack, or any other of the Muschick families at this time, though it would be relevant on the Muschick research to pull the church books from Suschow and Kunersdorf.....and see if we come up with any more of anyone elses great grandparents!

Annie has done all her family searching on live, site in Germany, so we don't know, what if any the LDS library has on tape from these areas. Since she knows the village names and their stoarge churches...this is a HUGE help in looking for these records!

She has the birth records for all the major peopl on her chart!

2003: Information from Annie Muschick Imer of Osprey, FL....is that the Suechow church books are located in "Vetschau" though the birth and marriage books were originally listed as "Weissagk" but might also be found under the name of "Maarkisch Hiede", When Hitler came into power he did not like the names of some of the Wendisch Villages So he just changed them. These Suechow Muschick's would be tracked through these books....

However....the first of her Muschick: Christian Martin was born in 1830 in Kunersdorf and later moved to Suechow where he had his children. The books for Kunersdorf are to be found in "Papitz" and hopefully would yield the start of this Muschick line.

5. Now we get to some really crazy stuff!!!! This is too fun! After much discussion and computer searching we have positively attached Annie Muschick into the Schlodder, Mehlow, Kullowatz, Bubner, Lukas & Liebitize families.

I am attaching a pedigree chart on Annie so you can see this, but of course, these don't always download like they look on the paper, so good luck!

What does it mean??????

Annie Muschick Imer is a 2nd cousin to Don Schwanke...common relative Martin Schlodder Sr. + Caroline Mehlow
Annie is a 2 nd cousin 1 generation removed to Leroy Mehlow, via same grandparents as Don + a 3rd cousin 1 generation removed through his Bubner line
Annie is a 4th cousin 1 generation removed to Eloda Yule

Everybody here is decendents Drachhausen!!!! Isn't that fun!!!!!! All these offical cousin.....except I am a Muschick and so is Annie, and we can't tie it together...Sometimes these Muschick's are so difficult....Oh,well, you can only prove so much in one day...and this was a bunch!!!

I am making a package of goodies to send to Annie, because she does not have email. They will include her connection to the Schloddors, Mehlovs, Kullowatz families as she did not have this reasearch. I will e mail these to Leroy and Barry, who also requested them.....

DOES ANYONE ELSE WANT THE LINEAGE---DESCENDENCY CHARTS< ETC?

6. Annie Muschik Imer lives at 938 Mac Ewen Dr. Osprey, FL 34229 Phone 941-966-2740.

Dear All,

With great excitement, recieved the coolest package today...the 1824-1849 Drachhausen books form Ernst and Margarethe Mucha, who used to be the Peitz church secretary

She has even marked with post-its cards that tell when various families left for America---as these notations are quite small and hard to read in the xeroxes.

I will start translating soon....it is roughly 200+ pages...xeroxed front and back.so perhaps 4-500pages total! ..all in old German! But what a thrill! Just think what we will find out next! Will make a copy and send to Cindy...and we will try to get to work on them!

Below is a computer translation of their letter, difficult, but not impossible to understand:

Dear Cathy, dear Phil,

now we created it entlich.(in total?) The koupierte (The copies of the) church book of Drachhausen goes with the post office to you.

Writes please, if your asking have or email sends. (Probably write or email us when you get it)

In the supermarket we met Mrs. Schnabel. She is already excited and is pleased, (for when we will?) comes it in the autumn to Drachhausen. We come then also to Drachhausen and look forward to seeing you again.

Tomorrow we drive to Ernst Schwester to Ingelheim to the Rhine. Ernst Schwester wirol 75 years old. Then it continues to go to east realm. I did not see ever the alps. I am strained like it wird!

All love and wunschen. You, Ernst and Margarethe

Dear Leroy,

Remember our discussion on the Castle in Peitz?(The fortress is called "Die Festung" or "the Castle")

& that I thought we needed to visit also the "Eisenhutten" & "Hammerwerk" also in Peitz. (The iron works and Hammer factory, used by the Germans, not the Wends in 1500, the Germans were after the Wendish natural resources, wanted to use the area for building their weapons) This is a museum that can be toured today, in Peitz.....(we did not get to this place in either of our visits, but I have a brochure on it, and it looks worth seeing, good chance some of our relatives worked in it.

I looked up.....the castle was built when the "Germans" captured the Wends, 1373 and it was to protect the Germans, not the Wends, from Wends & any other invaders.....Today, it is much restored and is a cool building and museum, in Peitz.

This is from my notes from our first trip to Drachhausen and this is the fortress I think we should visit in Peitz: See below:

THE HISTORY OF THE WENDISH PEOPLE

Because of its location, Drachhausen and the surrounding area was captured repeatedly through out history. They were first conquered by the better armed Germans, in the 10th Century, who introduced Christianity to the area.

They were conquered by Poland in 1002 and then occupied by the Germans from 1373-1625. During this period the Germans built a mighty fortress in Peitz, the largest town (7,000 people) and the parish center for the church. This was about 8 miles from Drachhausen.

The minister of the church took us on a tour of this fortress. We were marched into the Rathaus, or town hall, right through a meeting of the council in session. We went into a small back room, where two young engineers were working on the plans for the restoration of the Fortress. They showed us artifacts excavated from the foundation of the fortress. Some tools' dated back 3000 years. We were given the huge 6" keys to the fortress doors. We climbed several flights of scaffolding and entered the fortress.

The huge and ancient building was made almost entirely of brick, with walls that appeared to be 10 feet thick, going out tunnels to tiny windows that let in the only light.

Though the building had been electrified for work and display purposes, the minister was unable to get the lights on. We lit large candles and proceeded up the steep staired corridors to the top of the building. The upper levels were half timbered on the inside, with stucco in the middle.

Giant cannons faced out in all directions. Ladders were used to get us up to the small look out tower on top, where we could see for miles in every direction and we looked down on the church steeple.

This fortress was used for the protection of the conquering Germans. The Wendish people had to defend themselves when the area was under siege.

The minister also took us on a tour of the "Evangelisches Church in Peitz" Though this was the parish church for Drachhausen, it had not been built until 1860, three years after the Muschicks left for America.

The interior had been remodeled at some point and appeared to be 1950's in design. The minister took us to the top of its steeple, past the bells, and up crude and narrow ladders to a tiny hole at the top that exited on to the approximately 4' circular top of the steeple. There were no lights, except for the little bit that filtered in through cracks, so this was done more by feel than anything else. It was very cold and my hands felt frozen trying to take pictures at the top. Though the minister spoke no English, we had great fun on his tour of Peitz. He can be written to at :

Evangelisches Pfarramt, Lutherstabe 8, Peitz 7520, Germany.

The Germans also discovered iron ore, around 1500, which became a main source of industry. The Germans used the many rivers to transport the ore and built dams to develop the fishing industry. Like the rest of Europe, the Black Plague swept through the area, in 1585, killing many.

The Wendish were hunters, farmers, and fishermen.

After the Seven Years War, from 1806-1815 the Wendish were conquered by the French, who burned entire towns to the ground and created great poverty.

In 1830, the area became part of Prussia, under King Frederick Wilhelm III who attempted to force a union between the State Church, of which he was the head, and the Lutheran Church, which was then and is still the prevailing religion of the Wendish. (The Muschicks were Lutheran). The Lutherans were severely persecuted for their refusal to accept the "Church Book. "

From 1844-1848 the area was plagued by a great famine and many were starving. Barely recovered, in 1853 and 1854, the potato crops, a staple food in the area, died from blight, causing severe food shortages. Then the summer of 1855 was extremely hot, causing additional crop failures. Though the Muschick family was considered to be one of the most wealthy, the farm was now supporting Mathes and Liese, his three offspring, and their children, approximately 30 people. A shortage of land made it impossible to purchase additional farm land.

In 1857, when the first Muschick's came to this country, they were part of Prussia. The law at the time required that all 11 year old boys be drafted into the army, where they remained into their 30's. Martin Muschick Sr. had already had one son die at a young age. Between difficult times on the farm, religious persecution, and the military policy of the country, and who knows what other considerations, he left Drachhausen, with his wife and 7 children, to find a new life in America.

Dear George,

Thanks!

Cindy, Jim Blauer and I have been trying to decipher a profession that is very clear to me now.... "Halbbudner" which is what Jim's gr. gr grandparent's profession was in his marriage. What timely information!

This word, and Halbbauer, is seen many times in these 1825-1849 books, but we did not see it in the 1849-1874 books, that were copied for Pottsdam....

Cindy has been working on an even tougher one: translation & your definitions are really timely for explaining them :

"Anna born Goslau, hinterlassen (surviving) Wittwe (widow) verstorben- (of the deceased Friedrich Schulze) ___? ___? ___ (Wirth-innkeeper)? and the Gosluisch Halb-bauer-nahrung"

So I guess this means farmer of 50-150 Morgens of land....my thought was the last word means he is a grain or cereal farmer, Cindy think food merchant.

Thanks also on the Texas info for CD and book. Leroy told me they have a reunion every September, so I will relay this information on to Annie Muschick.

Cathy

Cathy,

Sorry for responding so slowly.

1. Reisner is an unknown name.
2. I know of no list of meanings for Wendish names. A Wendish dictionary may provide hints, and certainly someone who knows Wendish.
3. The photos of the Bubner baskets are impressive. If I ever need them, I will get permission.
4. This is my limited knowledge of farmer designations. The most common designation for the immigrants was Häusler. He owned a cottage and less than five Morgen of land. (A Morgen is the amount of land a farmer could plow in a morning or between .6 and .9 acres). A Būdner owns a cottage and from 5 to 30 Morgen. A Hūfner and Kleinbauer have up to 60 Morgen. A Kossat owns a house, from 30 to 200 Morgen, and draft animals. A Bauer or Gross Bauer owns 100 to 300 Morgen. At times the word Halb precedes the noun and that simply means half. Wends in the southern part seldom used Kossat, but Halbbauer. The Bautzen area Wends also used the term Gärtner which was the equivalent of a Būdner.

You can get the Wendish book and the CD from The Texas Wendish Heritage Society and Museum, 1011 CR 212, Giddings, TX 78942-5940. I am not sure about the costs.

If I missed anything, remind me,

George
