Dear Ms. Blauer

Thank you for your letter of June 22. Here is how our services work. Inquiries should be sent to the above address. We will forward them by electronic mail to our office in Moscow. If you have electronic mail (MCImail, Sprintmail, ATTmail, etc.), you can also contact our office in Moscow directly. The electronic mail address there is "rebrova@labtam.msk.su". You may need to contact your electronic mail service representative to find how to send electronic mail to this address.

Our basic fees are $12 per hour and $1 for Xerox copies. Some provincial archives charge substantial fees for replying to inquiries--we must pass on these fees. Translation into English is currently $6 per page, but this rate may change. Often provincial archives do not have Xerox machines, in which case we must hire a professional photographer to make a special trip to the archive. The copying charge then is $13 a page, but the photographic copies are much higher quality. For certified copies, we must pass on the notarial fees. Our Moscow office can arrange all details of customers' visits to the archives to view family history documents, including visas, inexpensive housing, and services of English-speaking professional archivist-guides.

With best wishes,

Sincerely

Peter B. Maggs

Dear Mr. Blauer:

Please excuse the delay in responding to your letter, received February 16th.

I can find no indication that you are a member of our society. Due to the tremendous number of research requests we receive, we must limit our research to members of the society. ~~I would~~

I would like to suggest that you give the enclosed brochure to your friend. If you are not of this heritage, perhaps your friend would be interested in a membership in our society. Membership will make him eligible for the many services and benefits of our society. The fee of $30.00 brings a number of publications throughout the year. Membership also includes help with genealogy research and listing in our Surname Exchange upon receipt of the genealogy forms we will send your friends when they join. This listing will put them in touch with other members researching the same family lines. They will also receive a complimentary copy of our Annotated Bibliography of Materials Available for Purchase as well as a reduction on all books and maps they may order.

I see you have access to our genealogical publication, Clues, as you know that we have information pertaining to the surnames you listed in your letter. When people listed in the Surname Exchange drop their membership, they are also dropped from the Surname Exchange. However, their information is still on file. Thus, we may have more information on these surnames than is indicated in Clues.

Since it is nearly impossible to receive information from the former Soviet Union, the principal way to learn more about one's family is through an exchange of information with others. AHSGR serves as a collection point for information members are willing to share. Through the years we have been able to accumulate a great deal of information about Germans from Russia which is not available elsewhere. For this reason we are confident you and your friend would enjoy a membership.

All our memberships are on the calendar year and are renewable each January 1. Members who join later in the year do receive all materials sent to all members.

We look forward to hearing from you and hope you will decide to join soon.

Sincerely,

Jo Ann Kuhr
AHSGR Research Director

DUNHAM

I. Dunham, John, born 1588-9, at Scrooby, Nottinghamshire, England. He was the same age as Bradford, and perhaps attended the same primary school around Scrooby, possibly under William Brewster. However, both he and Bradford were too young to have had any leadership in the movement to Holland, although they may have attended the meetings at the Manor between 1604-7, at which time they were about sixteen years old. They may have gone over to Holland more for "trade" purposes than any other reason, for boys of that age were seeking the most likely opportunities for "apprenticeships," and Holland was prosperous. Just when John Dunham went into Holland is not known, but he was married in Leyden, Oct. 17, 1619, to Abigail Wood, and his first child, John, was born in Leyden in 1620. He probably was another protege of Brewster's, but apparently did not go over on the Mayflower for family reasons.

However, the Plymouth records show him there as early as 1632, and in 1633 Brewster made him a Deacon of the church, an appointment not at all surprising. By trade he was a "weaver." He was one of the first purchasers of Dartmouth.

FRANK RODMAN SHATTUCK

FRANK RODMAN SHATTUCK, of Philadelphia, is a descendant of the "Pilgrim Fathers" of Massachusetts, in the ninth generation from Joshua Pratt, who was of the third freight of the good ship "Anne and Little James," and landed on the New England shore in 1623. On the paternal side he is eighth in descent from William Shattuck, who was a landed proprietor of Watertown, Massachusetts, in 1642.

WILLIAM SHATTUCK, born in England in 1621 or 1622, died at Watertown, Massachusetts, August 14, 1672, at the age of fifty-one years. He, as well as Samuel Shattuck, of Salem, Massachusetts, is supposed to have been a son of Demaris Shattuck, a widow who was admitted to the church of Salem, in 1641, but we have no record of the name of their father.

This Samuel Shattuck was of the "People called Quakers," and was tried as such at Salem, Massachusetts, May 11, 1659, and sentenced to banishment from the colony on pain of death. He immediately went to England and laid the case before Charles II, and by the assistance of Edward Burroughs, obtained, on September 19, 1661, a mandamus commanding the magistrates and ministers of New England to "forbear to proceed any farther" against the Quakers. Samuel Shattuck was appointed King's deputy to carry this mandamus to New England, which he did, and on November 27, 1661, the General Court of the Province of Massachusetts Bay, ordered that "the execution of the Laws in force against Quakers, as such, so far as they respect corporal punishment or death, be suspended until the Court take further Order". Samuel Shattuck died in Salem, Massachusetts, June 6, 1689.

William Shattuck, above mentioned, the lineal ancestor of Frank Rodman Shattuck, is mentioned on a list of the proprietors of Watertown, Middlesex county, Massachusetts, in 1642, and he later became a considerable landholder there. He died in 1672, as before stated, and three and a half years later his widow Susanna, married Richard Norcross. William and Susanna Shattuck had nine children, five sons and four daughters, and were the ancestors of all the Shattucks of America.

WILLIAM SHATTUCK (2), sixth child and third son of William and Susanna Shattuck, was born at Watertown, Massachusetts, in 1653, and died there on the old family homestead, October 19, 1732, in his eightieth year. He married, in 1678, Susanna, daughter of Stephen and Susanna (Barton) Randall. She died May 8, 1723. They had eleven children.

ROBERT SHATTUCK, tenth child of William and Susanna (Randall) Shattuck, born January 1, 1698, married, July 9, 1719, Mary Pratt, and settled in Plymouth, Massachusetts. He died in his father's house at Watertown, while there on a visit, December 13, 1723, aged twenty-five years eleven months and twelve days. His wife Mary Pratt, born April 8, 1695, was a daughter of Benajah and Mary Pratt, of Plymouth; granddaughter of Benajah and Persis (Dunham) Pratt. Her great-great-grandfather, Joshua Pratt, was one of the third freight of Pilgrims, who arrived in the "Anne and Little James" in 1630. Robert and Mary (Pratt) Shattuck had three children: Mary, Robert and Randall Shattuck.

ROBERT SHATTUCK (2), born June 3, 1721, in Plymouth, Massachusetts, settled in East Hampton parish, Chatham, Connecticut, where he lived during the active years of his life. He died in Middletown, Connecticut, February 12, 1802, aged eighty years, eight months and nine days. He married (first) on September 9, 1744, Ruhamah Cook, a descendant of Francis Cook, one of the original Pilgrims, who arrived on the "Mayflower" in 1620, and who died in Plymouth, April 17, 1663. Robert Shattuck married (second) Hannah Blake. He had nine children by his first wife and one by the second.

DAVID SHATTUCK, sixth child of Robert and Ruhamah (Cook) Shattuck, was born in East Hampton, Connecticut, September 12, 1758, and died at Colchester, Connecticut, January 23, 1840. In 1776 he enlisted in the company of Captain Eliphalet Holmes, Colonel Ephraim Chamberlain's regiment, Connecticut Militia, and served for six months under Colonel Selden, in the Continental service; was with Washington's shattered army, when it was driven from Brooklyn Heights and crossed over to New York. He again enlisted under Captain Chambers in 1780, and the company was incorporated in the regiment of Colonel Heman Swift, of the Regular Continental Line, with which David Shattuck served until the close of the war, being with the army at its final disbandment. He was granted a pension as a Revolutionary soldier on his application, dated March 31, 1818.

David Shattuck married, November, 1789, Dorothy Alcott, born January 12, 1767, died April 26, 1838; daughter of Thomas and Mary Alcott, of East Hampton, Connecticut.

GILES SHATTUCK, fourth child of David and Dorothy (Alcott) Shattuck, was born at Colchester, Connecticut, January 24, 1798. He married, September 30, 1821, Nancy Eggleston, born June 20, 1799, daughter of Moses and Mary Eggleston, of Avon, New York. They had four children, three of whom lived to mature years, viz: Francis Elliott Shattuck, of whom presently; Mary Elizabeth Shattuck, born December 21, 1831, married December 17, 1849, James D. George Shattuck, youngest son of Giles and Nancy (Eggleston) Shattuck, born in Connecticut, November 26, 1836, also became a resident of Philadelphia. He married, April 16, 1867, Caroline Mann Rowland, born August 19, 1844, daughter of Dr. Joseph T. Rowland, of Camden, New Jersey, who was born April 9, 1807. George Shattuck is a member of the Pennsylvania Society, Sons of the Revolution; of the New England Society of Philadelphia; and of other patriotic, charitable and benevolent associations. #### DANIEL SMITH NEWHALL

DANIEL SMITH NEWHALL, of Philadelphia, now filling the responsible position of purchasing agent for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, traces his descent, on the paternal side to early Puritan settlers of Massachusetts, and on the maternal side, to actual passengers on the historic "Mayflower" in 1620.

THOMAS NEWHALL, with a brother Anthony, came from England and landed at Salem, Massachusetts, in 1630. He soon after that date settled at Lynn, Massachusetts. His being one of the fifty families resident there in 1630. In the division of the public lands of the town of Lynn in 1638, he received as his allotment thirty acres, and he acquired other lands in Rumney Marsh and at Gaines Neck, which at his death on May 25, 1674, passed to his sons John and Thomas. His wife Mary, died September 25, 1665. Beside the two sons above mentioned, he had two daughters; Susanna, who married Richard Haven; and Mary, who married Thomas Brown. A sister Mary, the wife of Matthew Harrington, is also referred to in his will.

THOMAS NEWHALL (2), son of Thomas and Mary Newhall, in a deposition made November 10, 1683, in reference to the thirty acres laid out to his father in 1638, "now lying in the township of Redding," is referred to as "Aged about fifty years", which would indicate that he was born in Lynn. The deposition refers to the thirty acre tract as "in the woods" and having thereon "an olde dwelling House & olde Barn." Thomas Newhall is referred to in the records in 1675, as "Corporal" and later as an ensign, in which capacities he served during King Philip's War. He was buried at Lynn, April 1, 1687. The inventory of his estate shows him to have been possessed of land on the borders of Lynnfield, with a dwelling house, "Mault Mill, and Mault House." He married, December 29, 1652, Elizabeth, daughter of Nicholas Potter, of Lynn, a builder, living in Lynn as early as 1634, and who received sixty acres of land in the division of 1638. He had an interest in the iron works at Lynn in 1660, when he removed to Salem, giving his estate in Lynn to the two children by his first wife, Robert, and Elizabeth Potter, above mentioned. He died at Salem, October 18, 1677. His first wife, the mother of Elizabeth (Potter) Newhall, died January 26, 1659.

Elizabeth (Potter) Newhall died and was buried at Lynn, February 22, 1686-87. She and her husband were the parents of ten children.

THOMAS NEWHALL (3), son of Thomas and Elizabeth (Potter) Newhall, was born at Lynn, Massachusetts, November 18, 1653. Like his father he was a soldier in King Philip's War, and was a lieutenant of the military company of the town of Malden, whither he removed on his marriage in 1674, receiving by deed of gift dated November 9, 1674, from his wife's grandfather, Joseph Hills, a tract of sixty acres at Malden, of which town he was selectman, 1700 to 1712. He died at Malden, July 3, 1728. He married in 1674, Rebecca, daughter of Thomas Greene Jr., and his wife Rebecca Hills, and granddaughter of Thomas Greene, who was born in Leicestershire, England, about 1606,
