Dear Camilla,

I am back at the family tree project, and I need your help. I have some family pictures from my Aunt Katherine Houser, who I think you corresponded with some years back. I have one picture that I cannot identify, and am hoping you can help, especially if you have some Orndorff family pictures.

The following picture is "Mrs. John Ballard". That makes her Sabina Orndorff, John Ballard's wife. The second picture is unidentified. It could be one of John and Sabina's daughters, or I am wondering if it is the same woman and the man is John Ballard.

I thought maybe you might have some pictures of Sabina in your files, and could help me with the identity of the couple.

By the way, if you do have some photos of some of the Orndorff's that you could copy, I would really appreciate it. I am putting together some biographical information on the family, and any information would be greatly appreciated.

As long as I'm bothering you, I have included a copy of the ancestor report for William Orndorff from my files. The information in it has come from a number of places, but primarily from data I received from you. I have included a second ancestor report that I got off the internet. The data is quite a bit different and I was wondering if you had run into this data in your research, and what your opinion of the information is. I know it is risky to trust the internet data, especially when you get back a ways, so I am wary of this data.

Do you have an e-mail yet? Are you still working? Has the fires come anywhere near your area? Boy, they sure look terrible on the news. They sure seem to travel fast when they are pushed by the Sana Anna winds.

I will close for now. I hope this letter finds you well. I would like to meet you some time, but we don't have occasion to come to Southern California. Do you ever get up this way? If you do, be sure to look us up.

Thanks for your help...

Ancestors of William Orndorf

Generation No. 1

1. William Orndorf', born 15 Aug 1819 in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania; died 28 Nov 1894 in Burlington, DesMoines County, Iowa. He was the son of 2. Jacob Orndorf and 3. Catherine Orndorf. He married (1) Mary Ann Sadler 19 Oct 1841 in Stone Jug, Adams County, Pennsylvania. She was born 1810 in Adams County, Pennsylvania (Maybe 1820), and died 31 May 1913 in Burlington, DesMoines County, Iowa. She was the daughter of William Sadler and Lydia Harlan.

Notes for William Orndorf:

The following narrative was taken from "Portrait & Biographical Album of Des Moines County", 1888

William Orndorff, a prominent and influential citizen of Mediapolis Iowa, born August 15, 1819, seven miles east of Gettysburg Pennsylvania, and is a son of Jacob and Catherine (Orndorff)Orndorff, who were distant relatives, the father born near Frederick, Maryland, the mother near Lebanon, Pennsylvania. The family of Orndorff was founded in America in 1726 by three brothers, natives of Germany, one ofwhom settled in New York in the Mohawk Valley, another in Kentucky, and the third in Virginia, the latter founding the line of which our subject is a descendant. The paternal grandfather, Peter Orndorff, the father, was reared in Maryland upon a farm and emigrated to Pennsylvania in 1819. He married Catherine Orndorff, and they reared a fine family of seven children: William, our subject; Isabella, widow of David Martin of Adams County, Pa., now residing in Mediapolis; Angelina became the wife of John Snyder, and died in Pennsylvania in 1876; Catherine and Caroline are twins— the former became the wife of Leonard McElviegh of York Springs, Adams county, Pa., and Caroline wedded Joseph Ross of the same city; Maria, widow of Jacob Wireman, resides in Burlington; and Franklin M., whose home is in Mediapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Orndorff were both members of the Catholic Church. The father died in 1868 at Burlington, the mother being called to her final home one year later. Mr Orndorff, who was a man of fine business ability, engaged in shipping stock from 1827 until 1858, and he was one of the leading men of the community where he resided, taking an active part in public affairs.

While our subject was an infant his parents removed to near Oxford, Pennsylvania, where they resided for four years. They subsequently made their home in Stone Jug, Adams county Pennsylvania where on the 19th of October, 1841, William Orndorff was united in marriage with Mary Ann Sadler, a native of that county, and a daughter of William Sadler, a prominent farmer and also a manufacturer of saddles and hats. After his marriage, Mr. Orndorff engaged in the stock business for seven years in his native county, when he removed to York County, Pa., continuing in the same occupation, and four years later removed to Baltimore City, Maryland engaging for two years in the shipping of horses to Philadelphia. Mr. Orndorff next took up his residence in the latter city, purchasing the Rising Sun Hotel, which he operated for some time, and then built a race track at that place. Once more returning to Baltimore, he there remained until 1856, when he emigrated to Des Moines County, Iowa, renting the farm of R. D. Poole, in Benton Township for four years, and at the expiration of that time purchased 160 acres of land near Franklin Mills, residing upon that land until February, 1885, when he moved to Mediapolis. Mr. Orndorff added to his possessions from time to time until he owned 1027 acres of land. In 1857, he was renting land, and in that year borrowed $150 of R. D. Poole, with which he began the stock business, his first shipment to Chicago being a car load of sheep. He has continued that business to the present time, gradually increasing his trade, until he is now the largest stack dealer in the State of Iowa. In 1864. Mr. Orndorff shipped forty-two car loads of hogs and had nine car loads left in the yards at Burlington. On the 17th of December of that year, he sold hogs worth $31,936 to A. E. Kent of Chicago, and in seven days sold stock amounting to $71,107.67. IN eight months of that year he received for stock over $400,000, which he deposited in the State National Bank at Burlington. Mr. Orndorff was also engaged for a few months in the commission business at Chicago with R. F. Hosford, formerly general freight agent of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad, at Burlington, Iowa. In 1867 he also engaged in the same business with A. F. Fassett of Baltimore, then owner of the famous trotter "Dexter," continuing in partnership for one year, when they took in two other partners, a Mr. Allen and Norman B. Ream, now a millionaire of Chicago. Throughout his business career, Mr. Orndorff has been very successful. In 1872, he shipped 5800 head of cattle, and now and for several years past has been engaged in shipping horses to Boston and Northern markets.

Four children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Orndorff: William H., who was born in 1844, died July 1, 1881, the day before President Garfield was shot; Sabina C., wife of John Ballard, a leading farmer of Franklin Township, Des Moines County; Lydia C., died at the age of 16 years; and John S. died in Baltimore at the age of 7 years. The mother of these children has been a devoted member of the Methodist Episcopal Church since childhood. Politically, Mr. Orndorff is a Democrat, and socially he is a member of the I. O. O. F. On coming to this county he was without money, but by business ability, integrity, energy, and enterprise, he has gained considerable property, and has never had a note protested nor a check dishonored. He enjoys the respect of the people of the county, and is one of its influential citizens, well worthy of mention in this record of its best element.

Memory from Russel J. Miller:

Grandma Ballard (Sabina Catherine) would lock Grandma Orndorf (Mary Ann) in her room upstairs when she wanted to do some sewing. One time, a neighbor came by and said Grandma Orndorf was out walking on the porch roof.

Grandma Orndorf was a staunch Methodist. When Bill, her grandson, got married, he became a Catholic. Grandma Orndorf wouldn't speak to him until Helen Catherine, her grand-daughter was born. She asked to see the baby, and they sat her on her lap. After that, everything was OK.
