Dear Mrs. Berger,

Enclosed you will find the complete list of Harrigan's that are buried at St. Joseph Cemetery. In addition, the records that we have of the Old Cemetery are also included. I have highlighted the individuals buried at the Old Cemetery. Our records of the Old Cemetery are incomplete.

I am also unaware of any organization that has copied the tombstones.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink that reads "Harry Cappel". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large initial "H".

Dear Mrs. Berger,

I have checked the records of Holy Trinity, St. Paul's and St. Philomena's but have found nothing regarding the baptism of Patrick Sarrigan (Feb. 1853).

Our records for the Church of the Atonement begin in 1872 so that parish is ruled out immediately.

Regarding the Chapel of the Little Sisters of the Poor - whenever a baptism marriage etc. takes place there or any chapel the records are sent to the Church that is in that particular area or to the parish church where that particular person belongs. The chapels keep no records themselves.

Sorry I was unable to help you. If you come up with any additional information please don't hesitate to write to me.

P.S. I am returning your $5.00 as I didn't find anything for you.

Sincerely,
Gail Arbino

Dear Sirs:

Members of my family lived in Newport, KY in the 19th and 20th century. I am interested in locating more information about them, in particular their place of origin in Ireland. Most of those who lived in Newport were buried in St. Stephen's Cemetery, Fort Thomas.

Can you possibly check your old newspapers for any biographical information or death notices in your Catholic newspaper? I have tried many other sources without finding the needed information.

I am enclosing a small sum for any copying fees or postage should material be found. I would also be happy to reimburse someone for their time in researching this material. Please let me know.

The persons I am interested in (in the order of importance) are:

Peter Harrigan	died about	Dec. 8, 1878	(buried Dec. 10)
Isabella Harrigan		Feb. 16, 1935	(buried Dec. 18)
Frank L. Harrigan		Apr. 25, 1929	(buried Apr. 27)
Isabelle Harrigan		May 8, 1967	(buried May 10)
Joseph R. Harrigan		Aug. 19, 1945	(buried Aug. 21)

Thank you very much for any help you can give me.

Sincerely,

Concerning Genealogical Research:

The staff of the Archdiocesan Archives is always happy to give reasonable assistance to persons engaged in study of their family tree. However, our microfiche copies of sacramental records may not be handled by the general public but only by authorized personnel. The delicacy of the film, the complexity of the equipment and the sensitive nature of the records all combine to make this restriction a necessary one.

Persons seeking genealogical information are asked to submit their requests in writing to the Archives at the address listed above. Your requests should be as specifically stated as possible. The name of the party whose record of baptism, marriage or death you are seeking should be given as accurately as possible and alternate spellings should be indicated, if you know of them. It is extremely important that we have the exact parish in which the baptism, marriage or funeral took place, since we do not have a general index of all the sacramental records. If you do not know the exact parish, then occasionally the exact address of the person concerned may help us determine the parish. The exact date of the birth, marriage or death will obviously be extremely helpful, but we must have at least an approximate date.

You should be forewarned that some 19th Century records omit information which we consider standard today. Marriage records, for example, do not always give the date and place of the spouses' birth or the names of their parents.

We are always willing to give you a specific record of one of your ancestors, if we are able to do so. We suggest a fee of $5.00 to cover the expense of office and staff. We regret, however, that we are not able to do extensive research for genealogists. We can consider some requests for a limited search, but our staff and our resources are not adequate for lengthy investigations.

We do consider it both a duty and a privilege to help you, if we can. And we sincerely regret when the limitations of our resources sometimes prevent us from assisting you.

Is it ever possible to pay someone to come in and make a general search of the records. I really would like to have all of the Harrigan records. Is there anyone on your staff that could be paid to do this? Have the records been microfilmed and made available in any other way, such as through the Genealogical Library at Salt Lake?

Thank you very much for any help you can give me.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Camilla A. Berger

I am interested in locating descendants of a Harrigan family that lived in Cincinnati from before 1850 to at least 1900. My g-grandfather Patrick Harrigan, son of Roger Harrigan and Bridget Doyle, was born in Cincinnati in 1853.

There were a number of Harrigans in Cincinnati at that time. My family was related to the following Harrigan family which probably immigrated to country in about 1827, settling first in Pennsylvania, and the coming to Cincinnati a little before 1850.

Peter Harrigan and wife Mary (immigrated to this country with their young family)
(born about 1788 Ireland)

Their children were:

Bessie	born about 1807	married Charles Conlin
Ann	born about 1813	married _____ Tiernan
Patrick	born about 1828	married Mary _____
Rosanna	born about 1823	married _____ McHune
Michael	born about 1825	married Bridget _____
Roger	born about 1827	married Bridget Doyle (also he was known as Rody)
Thomas	born about 1826	married Frances Doyle
Charles	born about 1836	married Mary
Andrew	born about 1839

Peter moved over to Newport, KY. One of his granddaughters Belle Harrigan was still living there in 1967.

In 1900 Charles Harrigan born 1836 in Pennsylvania was still living on Hatch Street in Cincinnati. His wife's name was Mary and he had a daughter named Isabella living with him. Charles, Jr. born 1864 also lived on Hatch St.

If you have any Harrigan ancestors in Cincinnati before 1900 I would be interested in hearing from you. Do you have any family bibles or any other information on your family? I am interested in all the Harrigans.

My grandfather's youngest sister is still living and is age 87 now. She remembers being taken to visit relatives of the Harrigans named Schaeffer in Cincinnati, way back in about 1910 or thereabouts. Other relatives were Conlins, Doyles. My branch of the family went out to Indiana, Fulton Co.

I would very much appreciate hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Camilla A. Berger

Dear Ms. Berger:

I hope you will kindly accept my apology that the research you have requested has been so long in progress. My own schedule has been much more hectic and demanding than anticipated, thus the extended delay.

With regards to your request, I have been able to research through some baptismal records, from Saint Peter's in Chains parish, and have located the attached listings. You will note that the variant styles of handwriting does little to aid the search. In particular, I would direct your attention to the attached copy, indicating #193, at the top. I found it impossible to determine, beyond some reasonable doubt, that the name listed is "Harrigan," and not "Hanigan". Perhaps the information at your disposal may be of service in clearing up any question, on your part.

My time at the Athenaeum of Ohio is fast coming to a close. Next month, I will be ordained a priest for my diocese, and will leave the seminary for a parish assignment. I will attempt, in the time I have remaining, to at least complete the search of the baptismal records in question. Any subsequent information obtained in that endeavor will be forwarded to you forthwith. Research of marriage records may need be completed by another person in the Archives, since my own time is drawing short. If I am able to devote some time to the search of marriage records, I will do so, as well.

Since this effort has been more protracted with regards to the time you have been waiting, I would not feel at ease expecting any type of compensation from you. You have been most patient in awaiting even this amount of news, and I could not feel comfortable accepting a fee for the search, particularly when the time it has taken has been drawn out.

I will continue the search, as able, and hope to provide you with any additional information which may be available.

Again, I apologize for the delay, and hope the attached information will be of assistance to you. Until I communicate with you again, may God be with you and your family, gracing you all with His love and peace.

Sincerely yours,

Rev. Mr. Dennis Stevenson

Dear Ms. Berger:

I saw your request about Peter Harrigan in the May-June, 1981, issue of The Genealogical Helper. My maiden name is Harrigan, and have been trying to trace my family tree without much success. Harrigans do not seem to live to an extended age.

Unfortunately, I am unable to help with Peter Harrigan (at least at this time), but I would like to give you what information I have about the Harrigans. Please see the enclosed ancestor chart.

If this information helps you in any way, I will be pleased. I must tell you that seeing this name listed as being in Hamilton, Ohio, in 1850 has given me a new direction to look for my ancestors--I have been unable to locate just where they were before 1900.

Also enclosed is a self-addressed stamped envelope, just in case I have been of help to you and possibly able to be of more assistance. Or, of course, if you have any information that could go along with my research, I would be grateful to hear from you.

Thank you and good hunting.

Yours truly,

(Mrs.) Constance A. Hatfield

P.S. This may not help, but I have been told that there used to be Harrigans in St. Louis, Missouri, but I have not been able to check this out for myself.

OLD ST. MARY'S CATHOLIC CHURCH 123 E. 13TH ST. CINCINNATI, OHIO 45210

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am writing to you in response to your request for geneological research. St. Mary's is the oldest church in southwestern Ohio, and the oldest German-American church west of the Alleghenies. Because of this, and the consolidation of St. Paul's Church records with ours, we have an extraordinarily large number of sacramental records. There are probably 125,000 entries in our files. Unfortunately these entries are unindexed, written in several languages, and in several forms of script. Because of these great numbers and historical shortcomings and shortage of staff (our parish operates without secretary or housekeeper) we simply cannot respond to your request.

If there is a pressing need such as the reception of a sacrament or eligibility for Social Security or another welfare program, we will be happy to send you a document from our files. If however your request is for a family tree, personal history, or a "Roots" project, we are unable to honor your request. Because of the frail, faded, and complicated nature of our records, searching through them is a difficult and time-consuming task.

If you are willing to visit the rectory by appointment, you are welcome to look through our record books as much as you wish. The books never leave the house. Please set up a time in advance so that you do not travel a distance only to find no one at home.

If visiting the rectory in person is difficult, I advise that you contact the Archives of the Archdiocese where all the records are microfilmed. Write to: Archives, Attn: Mrs. Pat Heile, 6616 Beechmont Ave. Cincinnati, Ohio 45230.

Thank you in advance for whatever understanding you extend us.

Sincerely,

(Rev.) Christopher Hall
Administrator, Old St. Mary's

I am interested in locating descendants of a Harrigan family that lived in Cincinnati from before 1850 to at least 1900. My g-grandfather Patrick Harrigan, son of Roger Harrigan and Bridget Doyle, was born in Cincinnati in 1853.

There were a number of Harrigans in Cincinnati at that time. My family was related to the following Harrigan family which probably immigrated to country in about 1827, settling first in Pennsylvania, and the coming to Cincinnati a little before 1850.

Peter Harrigan and wife Mary (immigrated to this country with their young family)
(born about 1788 Ireland)

Their children were:

Bessie	born about 1807	married Charles Conlin
Ann	born about 1813	married _____ Tiernan
Patrick	born about 1828	married Mary _____
Rosanna	born about 1823	married _____ McHune
Michael	born about 1825	married Bridget _____
Roger	born about 1827	married Bridget Doyle (also he was known as Rody)
Thomas	born about 1826	married Frances Doyle
Charles	born about 1836	married Mary
Andrew	born about 1839

Peter moved over to Newport, KY. One of his granddaughters Belle Harrigan was still living there in 1967.

In 1900 Charles Harrigan born 1836 in Pennsylvania was still living on Hatch Street in Cincinnati. His wife's name was Mary and he had a daughter named Isabella living with him. Charles, Jr. born 1864 also lived on Hatch St.

If you have any Harrigan ancestors in Cincinnati before 1900 I would be interested in hearing from you. Do you have any family bibles or any other information on your family? I am interested in all the Harrigans.

My grandfather's youngest sister is still living and is age 87 now. She remembers being taken to visit relatives of the Harrigans named Schaeffer in Cincinnati, way back in about 1910 or thereabouts. Other relatives were Conlins, Doyles. My branch of the family went out to Indiana, Fulton Co.

Dear Reverend:

I have been searching for the marriage of my g-g-grandparents Rhody HARRIGAN (also Rodney or Roger) and Bridget DOYLE in Cincinnati about 1850-3 and also the baptism of their son Patrick who was born on or about February 15, 1853.

City directories indicate that this Harrigan family lived not far from what is now Holy Cross Immaculata at Pavilion & Guido, but this parish was not established until about 1873.

From the old city directories I have learned that there were a number of parishes in 1850 not far from where the Harrigans lived. I have located some of them which are still in their original location, but I would like to locate the sacramental registers of the other churches which may be now defunct or have changed name and location. Also the old city maps show a canal between the area where the Harrigans lived (now Monastery Road, apparently) and the area of downtown Cincinnati where all the churches seemed to be. I am not sure whether they could easily get across the canal to go to church, or if they had to go around it. This might have influenced what church they went to. I also noticed that some material in the history books I have read indicates that certain of the churches catered to the German Catholics. I don't know if the Irish attended these at all.

At any rate, could you please tell me where I might write to search the sacramental registers of the following:

1. Holy Trinity (German) 5th between Smith & Parks Streets
2. St. Paul's German corner of Spring & Abigail
3. St. Philomena (German) north side of Congress between Pike & Butler
(this was probably fairly close to them, if the canal did not interfere)
4. St. Thomas west side of Sycamore between 5th & 6th
5. Chapel of Sisters of Notre Dame between Broadway & Sycamore (also close by)

I have already written to the following parishes for which I located

St. Francis Xavier, 607 Sycamore
St. Patricks, Blue Rock & Cherry
St. Mary's 123 E. 13th St.
St. John Baptist 5356 Dry Ridge RD.
St. Joseph, 745 Ezzard Charles Dr.

Some of these might not be in exactly that same area, but there were other Harrigan families living in these areas, anyhow, and as I could only find a city directory for 1857-1862 and not 1850-53, I want to write to them also.

I would very much appreciate any help you can give me in this matter. I would be willing to reimburse you for any expense involved in obtaining this information. Do you have any other suggestions for research, such as early Catholic newspapers? I have already written for cemetery records.

Thank you very much,

Dear Reverend:

My g-grandfather Patrick HARRIGAN's family lived in Cincinnati from the 1840's till after 1860. I have located their street address in city directories of that time period. After checking the maps and the addresses of the Catholic churches at that time, I have reason to believe that they may have been in your parish. Can you please check your records for the following:

1. Marriage record of Rhody (Roger, Rodney, etc.) HARRIGAN and Bridget DOYLE about 1850-1853.
2. Baptismal record of Patrick HARRIGAN probably born about 1853. But please check the years 1851-1855 if necessary.
3. Patrick was probably the eldest child of this couple. In the event that you locate his baptismal record and if your records are indexed, could you please check for any other children born to this couple? I know many times the old records are difficult to read and it is time consuming to go through them, so please only do this if it will not take too much of your time.
4. In the event you do not find this Harrigan couple, but find other Harrigans I would appreciate having the earliest records that you find. Please indicate the sponsor's names, if they are given, in all cases.

I would be happy to reimburse someone for their time to make this search. Thank you very much.

Dear Reverend:

My g-grandfather Patrick HARRIGAN's family lived in Cincinnati from the 1840's till after 1860. I have located their street address in city directories of that time period. After checking the maps and the addresses of the Catholic churches at that time, I have reason to believe that they may have been in your parish. Can you please check your records for the following:

1. Marriage record of Rhody (Roger, Rodney, etc.) HARRIGAN and Bridget DOYLE about 1850-1853.
2. Baptismal record of Patrick HARRIGAN probably born about 1853. But please check the years 1851-1855 if necessary.
3. Patrick was probably the eldest child of this couple. In the event that you locate his baptismal record and if your records are indexed, could you please check for any other children born to this couple? I know many times the old records are difficult to read and it is time consuming to go through them, so please only do this if it will not take too much of your time.
4. In the event you do not find this Harrigan couple, but find other Harrigans I would appreciate having the earliest records that you find. Please indicate the sponsor's names, if they are given, in all cases.

I would be happy to reimburse someone for their time to make this search. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Camilla A. Berger

Can you please tell me if you have a marriage record for the following: Rhoda or Rhody HARRIGAN (Harigan, Haragan, Harragan, Horrigan, etc.

Rhody (man's name) married in the 1850's, probably 1851-3.

If a marriage for this man is not found, can you find any other Harrigans before 1860?

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Camilla A. Berger

Dear Ms. Arbino:

I have written to you previously to check church records for my family. I am making a trip to Ireland in May and am now anxious to find any additional family information.

Could you please check your baptismal records for any of the following:
(Please check St. Peter in Chains Cathedral) Include all information available.

Children of Michael and Bridget Horrigan or Harrigan:

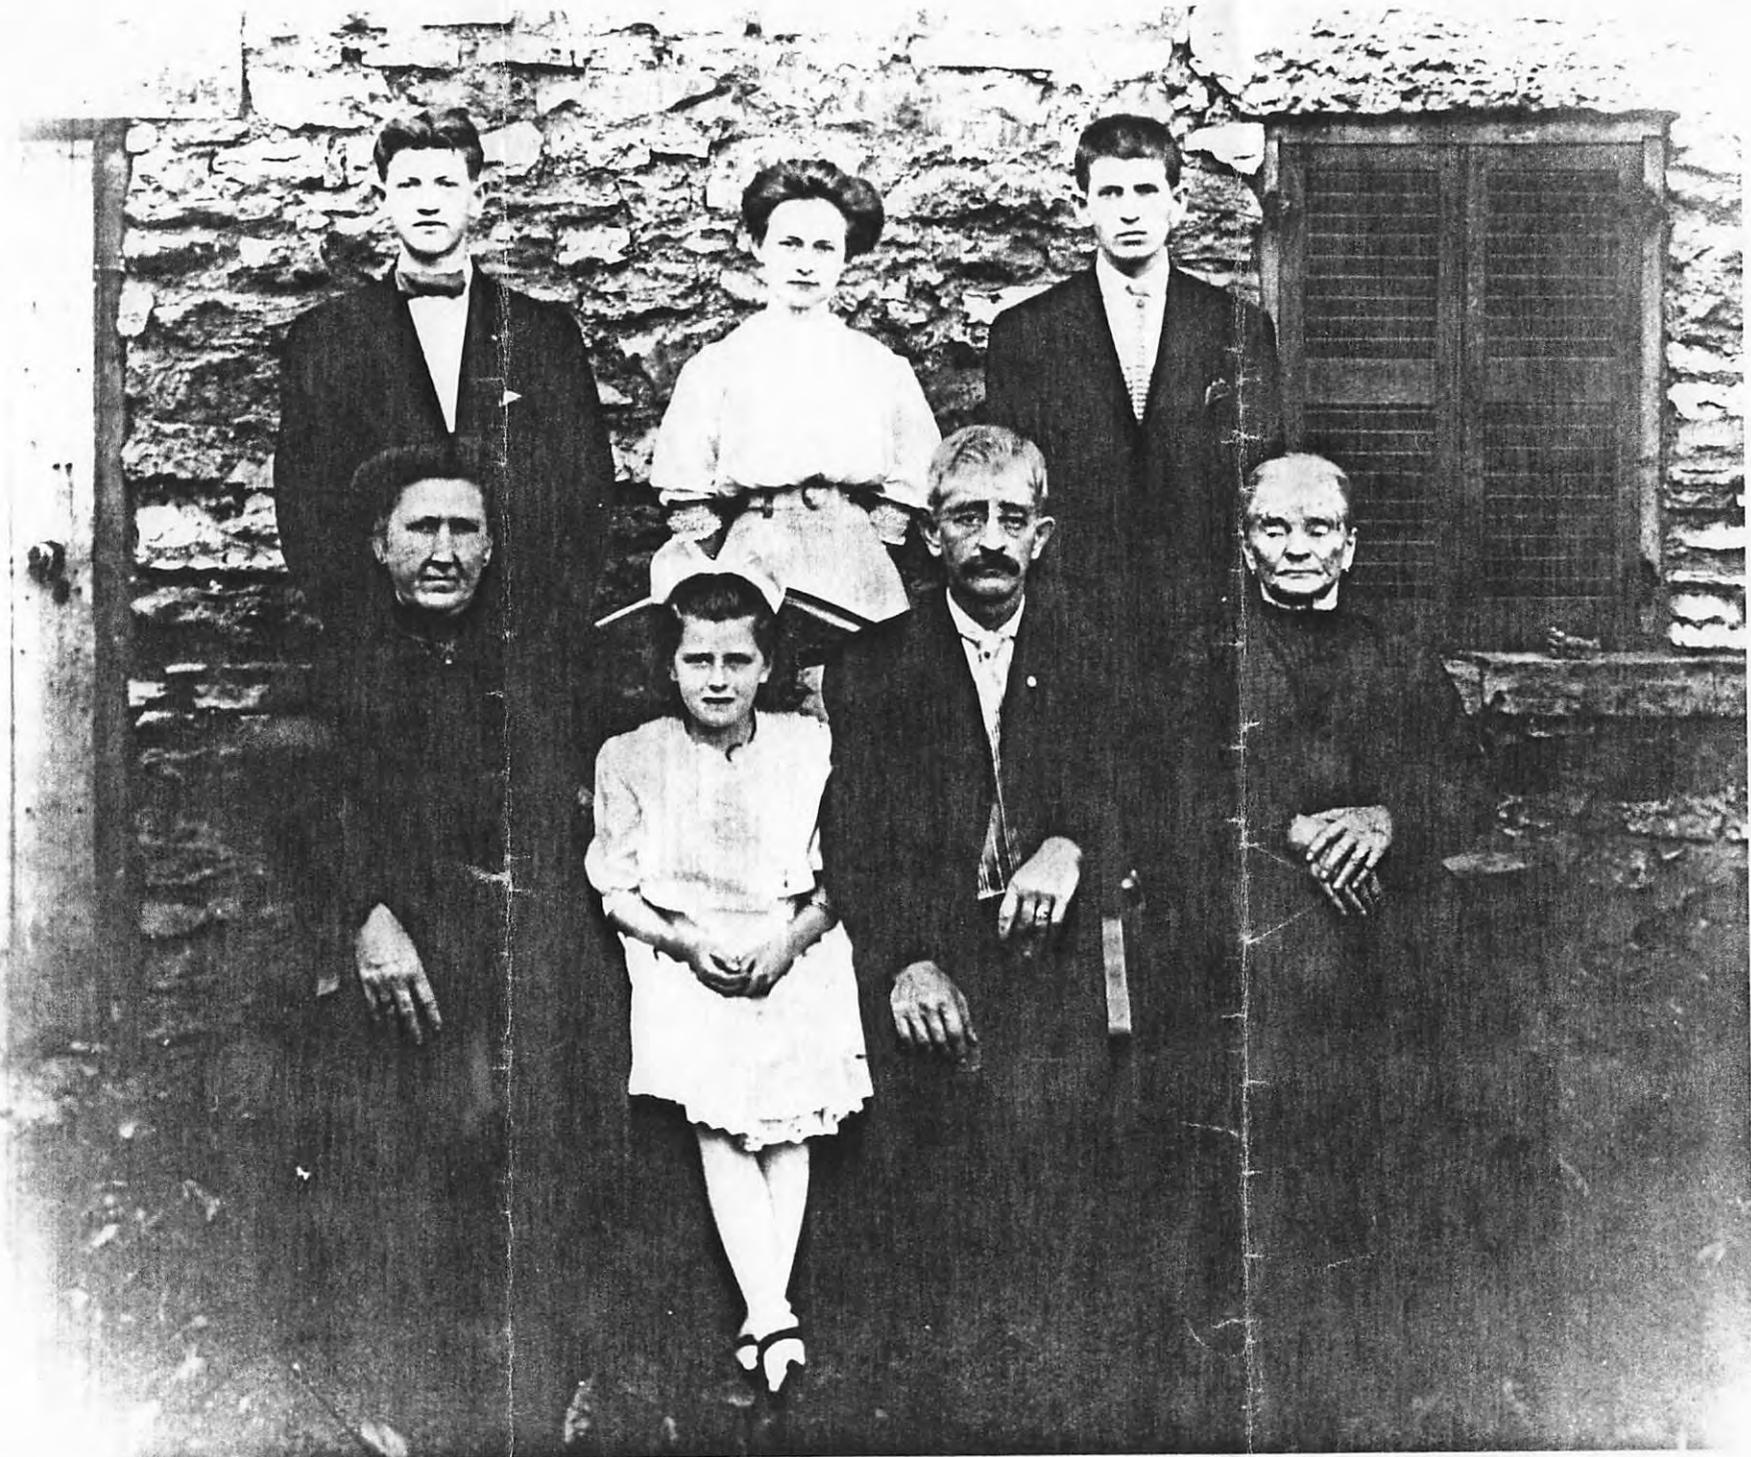

John		b. 1849
Mary A.		1851
Peter		Sp 1852?
Cecelia	twin	1854
Rosanna	twin	1854
Margaret		1858

Children of Rody & Bridget Harrigan or Horrigan:

Thomas	c.	1855
Anna		1858
Peter		1862

I wish I had more detailed information regarding their actual birth dates. Just do the best you can. I will be happy to send additional money, if necessary.

This family lived in the neighborhood I have circled on the map enclosed. Perhaps another church nearby might have the records, but Rody & Bridget were married in the Cathedral. Some of the family later attended Chapel of Srs. of Notre Dame. You told me before these would be listed under Church of the Atonement. Do these records go back this far?
