NARRATIVE

JOSEPH, JACOB, AND JOHN MOYER, three brothers together with three Clapsaddle Brothers left WURZBURG, GERMANY and came to America and settled in the MOHAWK VALLEY sometime before 1760. Joseph Moyer settled in what is now the town of MINDEN, MONTGOMERY COUNTY. Jacob Moyer took a farm south of what is now East Main Street, Ilion, N.Y., and embraced a part of the land now the Ilion, N.Y., Cemetery. JOSEPH MOYER JOINED the 4th. Regiment of the Tryon County Militia and served in the French and Indian War. He lost a limb in this war.

JOSEPH MOYER married Catherine Clapsaddle sister of Dennis Clapsaddle, and they had the following children, JOHN, ANDREW, EVE, JACOB, ELIZABETH, JOSEPH, JOHN, GERTRUDE AND DOROTHY. In 1790 they lived about a mile from Fort Plank which was located near what is Hallsville now. Joseph having lost a limb could not do usual fight in the REVOLUTIONARY WAR but did serve by making ammunition (Bullets) at Fort Plank. On Aug. 2nd. 1780, was the time the name was changed from MOYER to MYERS. It was at this same date that JOSEPH left home as usual and went to the Fort, leaving his wife and three children, John age 11, Eve age 5, and Jacob age 3 years old. The younger boy had been kicked in the head by a horse. The mother desired the two older children to go to the home of Mrs. John Rother, who was named the Doctress because of her skill in healing, for some salve for the younger child's head. The older boy took the younger one on his back and with his sister started for the salve. When they were nearly half way there and in sight of Rother's house they heard a gun fired, and looking saw Indians about the house. They turned to run for home, but the Indians had discovered them and soon several had overtaken them. One tried to pull the little boy from the back of the other, but they held fast to each other and cried. The next instant another Indian ran a bayonet through them pinning both bodies to the ground in the death struggle. The older was quickly scalped, the girl was snatched up by another Indian and away they ran. Several of the party were soon at the Myers house, but fortunately when the children left the house the mother went to pull flax and hearing the gun at Rother's and divining its import she laid down in the flax and escaped notice. EVE did not cry, on which account she supposed she escaped the TOMAHAWK. The house was plundered and burned and EVE and other prisoners were soon on the way to Canada. Too young to travel with the party she was born on the back of an Indian most of the long tiresome journey. She spoke German and when captured and taken among the Indians she forgot her German, but she was so young they finally delivered her at Montreal for a bounty. Here in turn she soon forgot the Indian and learned to speak English. She was a long time in Canada before it was known whose child she was, as she unfortunately had forgotten her name. But Peter Olendorf who was captured at the same invasion readily guessed her parentage when she said her father had a wooden leg, and lived not far from the Fort.

Mrs. Bartlett Pickard, having a nursing baby, was captured in the vicinity of Myers, who with the other female prisoners were liberated by Brant and returned home. She told the enemy that little Eve was her daughter, but the pretense was of no avail. Mrs. Pickard arrived at Fort Plank three days after her capture almost famished, and then Mrs. Myers first learned the fate of her daughter. Mrs. Platts made a prisoner on the same day in Freybush, came back when EVE did, taking a motherly care of her for which she and her parents were ever grateful. After the Revolutionary War Joseph Myers and family together with eight other families left the Mohawk Valley and settled at a place they called Conradstown, later known as Orendorf Corners, in the town of Columbia, Herkimer County, N.Y. This group of people were prosperous and formed a settlement which grew as the years past. In 1798 they organized the Dutch Reformed Church, and built in 1808 the church which now stands there.

Andrew Myers on Nov. 15-1793 married Katherine Shaver, and they had the following children, Peter, Nancy, Absalom, Christopher, Joseph, Margaret, Katharine and Jeremiah.

*Jeremiah Myers on Oct. 20-1836 married Sophronia Getman and they lived near Warrens Tannery which is now Spinnerville. They had the following children, Newburn, Jacob, Cordelia, Jeremiah, Clara, Frank J., and Sophronia.

* On Sheet #14 will be found the children and grand children of Jeremiah Myers, which is a continuation of the above.

NOTES: *-One was a Civil Marriage the other a Church Marriage, St. Johns Chapel, Trinity Parish, 34 Varick St., N.Y.C., N.Y.

NOTES:- Alvira Francis Myers was named after her mother and father. She was a nurse and had some very influential cases, some were Hetty Greens husband (One of the richest women in the U.S.A.) when they lived in Hoboken, in an Apartment bet.
 11th. & 12th. Sts. on Washington St. The compiler met the daughter Sylvia and the husband Mr. Green at the time. Couple cases were Governors, N.Y. Stock Exchange, and in on case accompanied to Holland, Europe in 1906 the sick wife of one of Hoboken most prominent Doctors. She operated a Cigar & Candy Store on 2nd. St. for many years until her retirement. She was for many years a member of Holy Innocents Church, Hoboken, and her children all attended same until grown up. She had been acquainted with the elder lady Stevens of the well known Steven Family of Castle Point, Hoboken, around 1890. She often related how the Indians used to come every summer to their place at Castorland, N.Y., and make baskets, using a log cabin whic was still on the farm. Her father Charles F. Runyon had a lumber mill and a 52 ac farm there. He owned one of the first boats to run on the Black River named the
 "THE WREN". The lumber mill was destroyed by fire late at night supposedly by an incendiary. The mother passed away when she was only thirteen years old. It was by an attack of pneumonia contracted through being caught in a very bad storm on the Black River which passed their home at Runyons Landing. She was a woman of fine Christian Character, fortitude and courage. Considering the early demise of her mother which was a great loss at her young age, she lived a good wholesome and constructive life. Her spirit of independence was one of self reliance. She lived to the good age of Ninety One, and mentally alert to the end.

HENRY WALKER MYERS - Born in London, England, whose parents were the Rev. and Mrs.
 Henry Alfred Myers, D.D., (nee Lydia Walker). He did considerable traveling having been to Australia, when the Gold Diggings opened up, thence up thru the bush with herds of sheep for his Uncle there, then to South Africa. In India he spent some time with cousins there. He went back to England to see his mother. He went Canada, had experience in the lumber camps, came to the U.S.A., where he settled down. They lived in Boston after leaving Mt. MacGregor, N.Y., and from there to Hoboken, N.J. He was an Upholsterer and lived to the age of eighty seven. Prior to decease he was residing with his son Alfred Lewis Myers, at Carthage, N.Y.

 Harris J. Myers married Edith Cone of Ilion, N.Y., issue four children Ella S.- Caroline B.-Frank Joe -Edith Jane. Harris was -M.-March 1910, Born July 2-1887, residence W. Wingfield, N.Y. Edith Cone Born April 24-1887, Married March 1910.

Mrs. Bartlett Pickard, having a nursing baby, was captured in the vicinity of Myers, who with the other female prisoners were liberated by Brant and returned home. She told the enemy that little Eve was her daughter, but the pretense was of no avail. Mrs. Pickard arrived at Fort Plank three days after her capture almost famished, and then Mrs. Myers first learned the fate of her daughter. Mrs. Platts made a prisoner on the same day in Freybush, came back when EVE did, taking a motherly care of her for which she and her parents were ever grateful. After the Revolutionary War Joseph Myers and family together with eight other families left the Mohawk Valley and settled at a place they called Conradstown, later known as Orendorf Corners, in the town of Columbia, Herkimer County, N.Y. This group of people were prosperous and formed a settlement which grew as the years past. In 1798 they organized the Dutch Reformed Church, and built in 1808 the church which now stands there.

Andrew Myers on Nov. 15-1793 married Katherine Shaver, and they had the following children, Peter, Nancy, Absalom, Christopher, Joseph, Margaret, Katharine and Jeremiah.

*Jeremiah Myers on Oct. 20-1836 married Sophronia Getman and they lived near Warrens Tannery which is now Spinnerville. They had the following children, Newburn, Jacob, Cordelia, Jeremiah, Clara, Frank J., and Sophronia.

* On Sheet #14 will be found the children and grand children of Jeremiah Myers, which is a continuation of the above.
