Dear Camilla -

Dear Mrs. Berger:

The Sheraton is a good twelve blocks from the Library on a diagonal, so perhaps a taxi would be best for you. The same goes for the Missouri Historical Society. Trying to take a bus might be confusing.

The likeliest Catholic cemetery for someone living near the Fairgrounds would be Calvary. This is a very large and old cemetery whose records have not, and probably never will be published. But they are quite cooperative toward individual requests.

Dear Mrs. Berger:

Thank you for your inquiry. Because of limited staff, we regret that we are unable to do extensive research. We must, therefore, restrict searching to local, Missouri, and Illinois books and materials.

The following important sources have been checked:

___ Genealogical Materials and Local Histories in the St. Louis Public Library, rev. ed., 1966; First Supplement, 1971; unpublished card file supplement.

___ Surname and Geographical Name Card File.

___ Census Indexes.

✓ St. Louis City and County Directories. 1875-1886

___ Index of St. Louis Marriages, 1804-1876.

___ Local historical and biographical sources.

✓ Other Ward map

Results:

The city directories did not list him.

Dear Reverend:

On Aug. 1, 1839 Joseph Orendorff and Jane Talbot were married at St. Louis by Fr. B. Jamison. Can you find a record of this marriage in your Cathedral records? I am compiling a genealogy of this family and would appreciate any information available concerning them.

Could you please check your baptismal and death records for any children born to this couple? I know they have at least two who were born about 1840 and 1843.

If you have any copies of cemetery records or burial records I would appreciate your checking these also. I am willing to compensate for any costs that might be involved. I would really appreciate your help as I know these old records are sometimes in poor condition and difficult to read. If this information might also be available in another form or place (published or otherwise) please let me know.

Thank you very much for your help.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Camilla A. Berger
