FUNERAL CONDUCTED BY

BROWN FUNERAL HOME

A Little Step Away
To close the eye, to fall asleep,
To draw a labored breath,
To find release from daily cares
In what we know as death...

Is this the crowning of a life,
The aim or end thereof?
The totaled sum of consciousness,
The ripened fruit of love?

It cannot be, for works of God
Are wrought for nobler ends,
And those away continue on
In the hearts of kin and friends.

It cannot be, for they live on
A little step away...
The soul, in the everlasting life,
Has found a better day....

Scottish clan of con artists

Williamsons target disaster victims, authorities say

By James Coates
Chicago Tribune

DENVER — Shortly after a freak June storm sent large hailstones crashing through roofs in Denver, the "Williamsons" struck.

Trained from childhood in the art of the con game, the Williamsons are a tightly knit Scottish clan of an estimated 1,000 related men, women and children who roam the United States to bilk people out of millions of dollars annually, authorities charge.

As Denver suburbanites were glumly surveying the June 13 storm's damages, an estimated two dozen Williamsons arrived in Denver in a caravan of pick-up trucks, luxury automobiles and trailers. They began selling a roof sealant that authorities said amounted to nothing more than silver-colored water.

Frequent targets are victims of natural disasters who are again victimized by numerous confidence games involving bogus home-repair companies, experts on the subject said.

The Denver Police Department has estimated that residents in this city alone will lose $1 million to the scams this summer.

In turn, the Denver operation will account for only a fraction of the clan's nationwide take, law enforcement officials claimed.

Though the Williamsons' ethnic heritage is Scottish-American, their lifestyle and confidence games are inspired by the activities of renegade Gypsy bands, officials said.

Until recently, much of the activity has escaped official attention because of the Williamsons' criminal expertise and passion for secrecy.

But a picture is emerging of an exotic Scottish clan that dates to America's frontier days, an ever-growing band of career criminals with collective assets estimated by some experts to be as high as $350 million.

The holdings include real estate in Los Angeles, dozens of motels, several residential trailer parks and tourist campgrounds, including one valued at $7 million in Phoenix, in addition to land in Las Vegas and Reno, California authorities said.

"And every penny of it comes from some sort of scam or another," said veteran Williamson watcher Don Wright of Elkhart, Ind., whom law enforcement officers regard as the leading expert on the clan.

Authorities gave the following examples of how the clan operates:

- The Williamsons are working the towns and farms of Iowa, Nebraska and Illinois. They go to areas the day after big thunderstorms and sell worthless lightning rods.

- In Utah, Arizona, Wyoming and other traditional Western vacation states, they are moving around campgrounds and motel parking lots, selling substandard travel trailers with bogus hard-luck stories.

- In cities from Denver to St. Louis and Bayonne, N.J., to Los Angeles, they are tricking elderly homeowners into buying asphalt treatments for their sidewalks that wash away with the next rain, said an expert Williamson watcher in California's state police.

- In blue-collar neighborhoods throughout the United States, clean-cut youngsters from the clan work barrooms with a scheme to sell 75-cent vinyl purses for as much as $30 each. With their fathers posing as the first bar patron to buy a purse, the children tell their tipsy marks that their dying mother had made the handbags.

"They specialize in several areas of fraud: home construction rip-offs, recreational-vehicle scams, the sale of bogus silk and linen," said Terry Getsay, criminal intelligence analyst for the Illinois Division of Criminal Investigations.

Getsay said the clan members are descendants of Robert Logan Williamson, a Highland tinker and outlaw.

Patricia "Patsy" Miner

Patsy has cerebral palsey and is retarded. She's living in Grenlin, MO in a special home (state funded). She comes home (to Frances) for visits. (1995). She lived at home until she was 15.

Charles Thomas Williamson, Sr.

Notes

Charles was killed by a train in 1964 in Paragould, Arkansas.

Charles' headstone it has his birth as 1894. However, his social security records indicate his birth to be 3-4-1894 and his other brother was born in 1894. Census records also indicate his birth year as 1892. Therefore, I feel it is 1892.

Charles married his second wife (Kitty) 2 or 3 times.

1920 (Census) Charles was living alone in Cardwell. SS# 429-14-2184.

Kitty Watson

Kitty Watson (maiden name?) Wayne Caro is also found. Was this another marriage?

Sept. 22. 93

"Hi" Eileen & Conrad.

Hope you are both doing great. Can hardly wait
to see you.

Eileen I am so glad to get the census papers

I'm sure that is Grandma Wo' parents. I don't remember ever hearing their names, but their son was William & I believe the mory & C's Elizabeth she was the oldest girl & Cathrine was younger than Grandma.
we called Elizabeth "Aunt Bet"
"Bet" is what her sisters called
her. she wore ankle length dresses & smoked a corn cob pipe. us kids loved to get a coal from the stove & light her pipe when she spent the night with <sup>us</sup> her, she died when I was small, William died when I was real little I dont rem. seeing him I knew where he lived & his children & step sons but not them, he must have brought his sisters with him from mo, he bought farm land on a large island in St. Frances River about 5 mi

from Cordwell.

That is ~~apparently~~ <sup>apparently</sup> Aunt Edith that is her first husband & her only childer she had about 6 more I didnt know she & <sup>husband</sup> Ben lived together long enough to register for census <sup>20</sup> I never seen her, the children

& her lived with Jack & Jones & Edith, <sup>Shel</sup> Charles & <sup>Leato</sup> Virginia were their names & grew up with my aunt brother & Frances.

Its very ~~embarrassing~~ <sup>interesting</sup> on the census sheet with Aunt Edith was Jennie pounds & family
she was ~~an~~ <sup>a</sup> child hood friend of my mothers the husband was dead all the time I rem.
her she went to church with us at Antietam Cardwell Md.

well I will mail this I dont get much chance to write thank again

we love you both
mom & dad

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
