Case Study - Gallagher Family from County Leitrim, Ireland

Background - our seven sets of grandparents and their siblings and three sets of great grandparents and their siblings, all from Ireland. Pedigree Chart.

Goals - find the townlands where they lived and as many as possible of their descendants.

1. Survey Phase - begin in the U.S. with the usual sources - what are they?
 - add unusual sources as they become available, such as my mother's letter, travel, correspondence. Resource List
 - continue in Ireland with usual sources - what are they?

2. Research Phase - take notes with date, name and location of source. Identify each set of notes by family and sequential number - enter in computer under Documents (Documents List) and under each individual referred to in Notes. (Notes List).
 - keep book and film log and data base with catalog numbers.
 - keep data base of names of collateral lines, witnesses, neighbors, employers, etc. (Database Lists)
 - file completed documents in family file (My System -Contents)
 - file incomplete documents in family research file.

3. Evaluation Phase - using notes for each individual put together each person's story. Records closest to the date of any event - birth, marriage, etc., - are most likely to be accurate as are the earliest census records.

4. Presentation Phase - put together the stories of individuals by family, add the history and nature of their habitats and lists of resources, references and documents.

The book covers two families - my father's mother and father and their siblings. It was all done on my computer which did not have the software or hardware to include pictures, page numbers or an index. Forty copies were printed and bound at a copy shop, then sent to cousins in each family.

The next edition will include pictures, which are in albums by family, page numbers and an index.

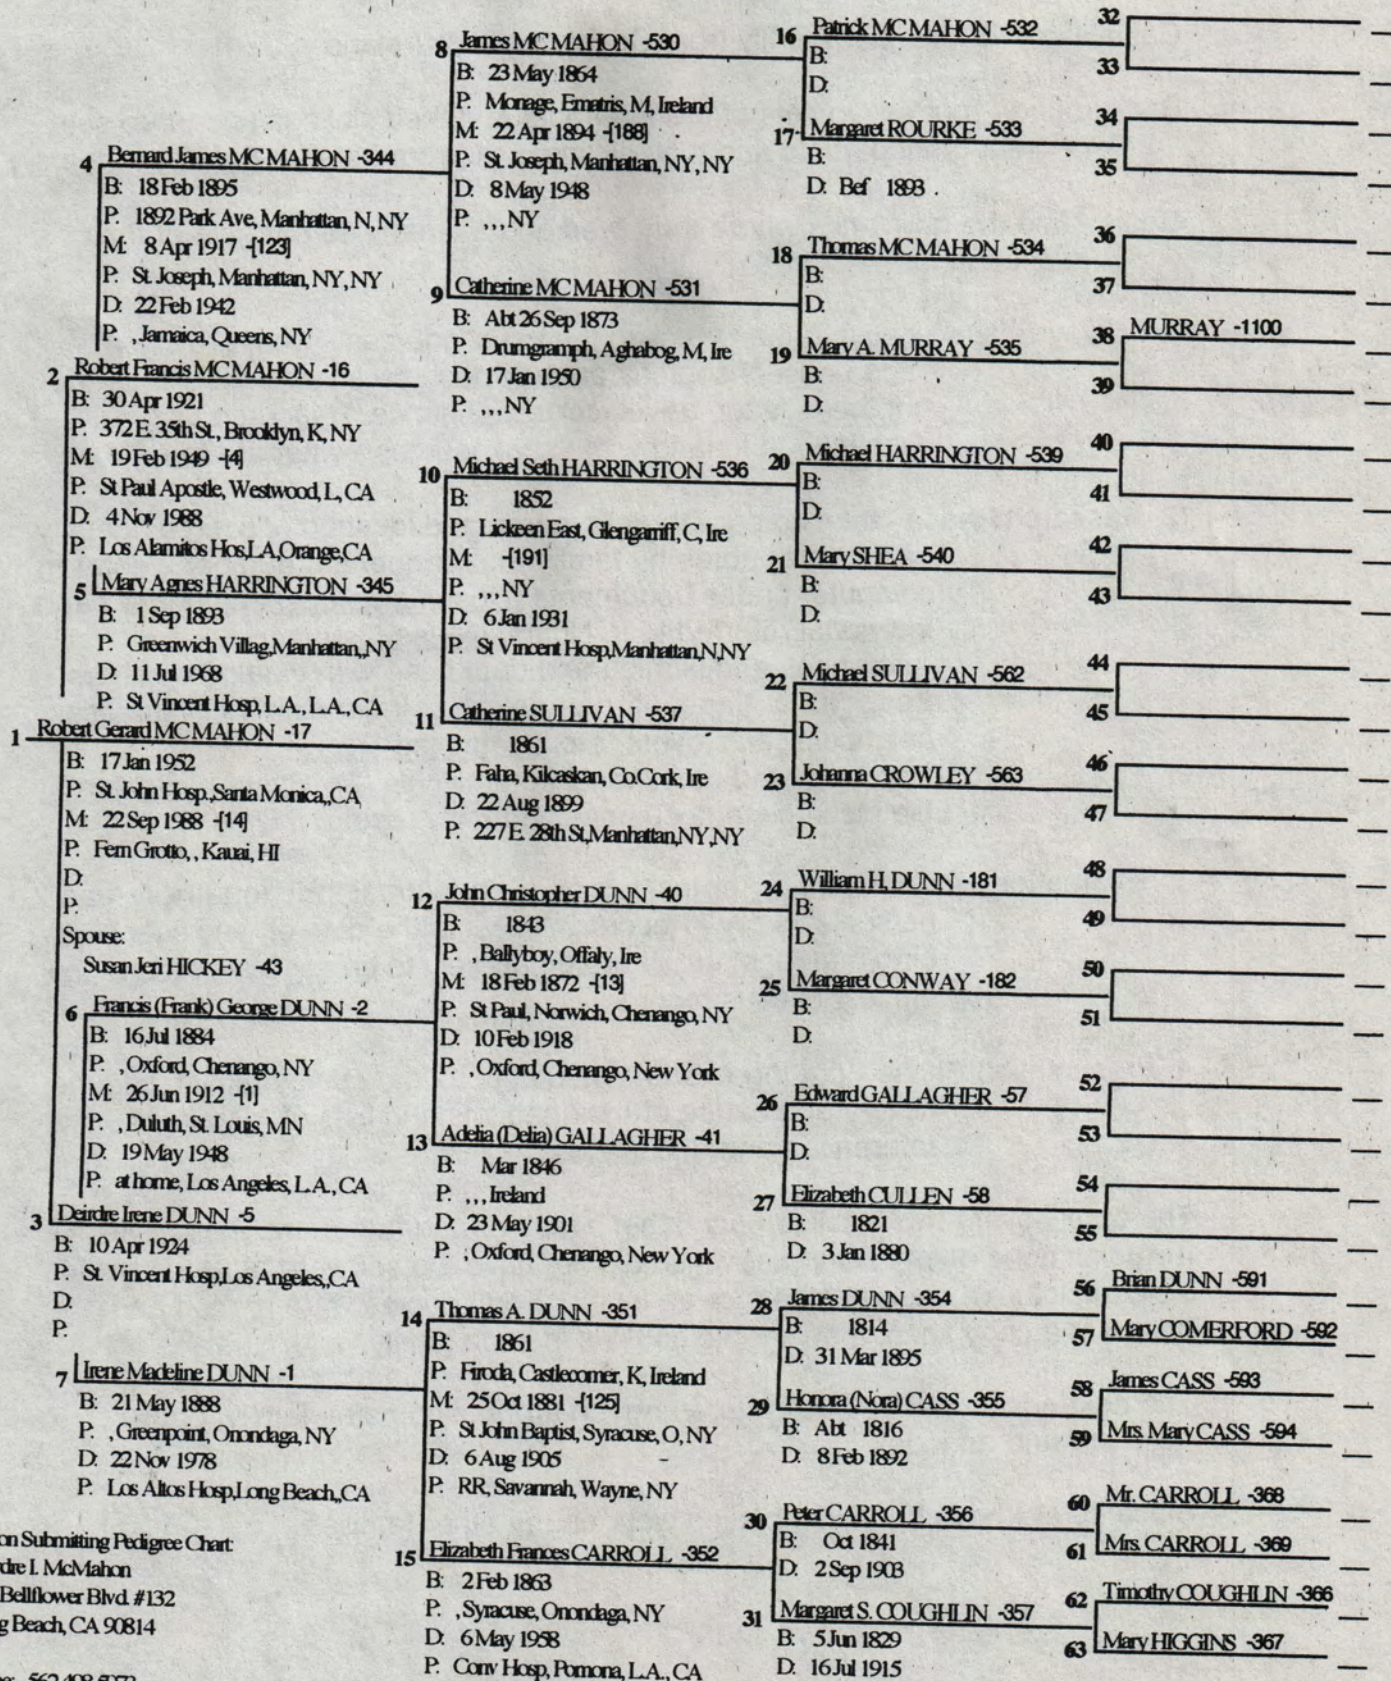

Since 1993 I have been completing work on my other families.

Original data: Source information provided with each record. This directory was reproduced courtesy of the New England Historic Genealogical Society (www.nehgs.org).

Description:

This database is a collection of city directories for various years and cities in the U.S. state of Connecticut. City directories are great sources for locating people in a particular place and time. Generally a city directory will contain an alphabetical list of its citizens, listing the names of the heads of households, their addresses, and occupational information. Sometimes a spouse's name may be listed following that of the head of household. In addition, the date of death for individuals who died in the previous year, the names of partners of firms, and forwarding addresses of people who moved to another town may also be listed. Other parts of a directory include a business directory, street directory, and governmental directory.

of the name O'Rourke were prominent in Russia, Poland, Austria and France. The O'Rourkes took a leading part in the Elizabeth wars and they were only dispossessed with the Cromwellian confiscations. In mediaeval times the O'Rourkes were one of the great princely families of Ireland being lords of Breffny and providing more than one king of Connacht in the period prior to the Norman invasion. There was much rivalry between the O'Rourkes and the O'Reillys.

Re: Sister Alcantara [Gallagher]

Dear Archivist McKeon,

According to the U.S. Census, my maternal grandmother, Nora Gallagher, and her sister Clara [aka Sister Alcantara] came from Ireland to Connecticut in 1880. I would very much like to know the following:

Where in Ireland did they come from?

Who were their parents?

When did Clara Gallagher enter the convent?

When did she die?

Where is she buried?

If you could answer any or all of these questions, I'd be very appreciative.

The Sisters of Mercy have always been special to our family. Although I was born in San Francisco, I grew up in Burlingame. Our parish was Our Lady of Angels and the school was staffed by the Sisters of Mercy. My aunt was a class mate of Sister Mary Saint John, who was on the staff at Our Lady of Angels. My Mother frequently gave the nuns a ride after school to the Convent on the hill at Adeline Drive.

In appreciation for any information you can hopefully give me concerning Sister Alcantara and because of my respect and admiration, as well as affection for the Order, I am enclosing a donation to aid in the work of the Order. If there is a charge for your research, I am more than willing to pay it.

Very truly yours,

Dear Eleanor,

I always hold my breath when we have a request that reaches back to the nineteenth century hoping, of course, that we do have the name of the sister requested and some facts about her.

Thank God!!! we do have the minimum of details about her long life with us. Sister Mary Alcantara (Clara) Gallagher was born May 1, 1864 in County Galway, Ireland. She was baptized at Abbey, County Galway but she was confirmed in Hartford at St. Joseph Cathedral in June, 1882.

She entered our community, in Hartford, in May, 1888, was received the December of that year and professed on December 27, 1890. She is listed as the 320th member of our Hartford congregation.

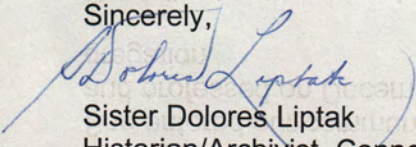

Her father's name was John Gallagher; her mother was Nora O'Rourke. Both were born in County Galway, Ireland. She died on September 9, 1946 and was buried at St. Mary Cemetery in West Hartford, Connecticut (our congregation's cemetery).

This is the sum total of our information. Wish I had more but our earlier records are spare.

Thanks for the kind donation. We will accept it as the token of the respect you so kindly offer.

I personally know several sisters from Burlingame, have visited there, and respect that congregation tremendously. Their roots are slightly different from ours (west coast, Sister Mary Baptist Russell; ours, east coast, Sister Frances Warde). But we do share Catherine McAuley and are now in the same Institute of the Sisters of Mercy of the Americas. Pray for us as numbers dwindled and congregational aims blur!

Sincerely,

Sister Dolores Liptak
