According to things I recall from child hood, Andrew C. Freese was a tugboat captain on S.F. Bay. The name "Captain Freese" on a letter from Carew & English, Undertakers, SF, concerning the Evans/Freese plot in Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma, would tend to substantiate this as would the name "Captain Freese" as plot owner on Holy Cross's file cards. NORA JOSEPHINE GALLAGHER MURRAY COLLINS

Nora Gallagher was born in County Galway, Ireland on Jan. 7, 1871. When she was 4 years old her Mother died. Her brother John (THOMAS?) and sister Clara, who were already in the USA, went from Connecticut to Galway "to rescue her from a wicked stepmother". Clara waited until Nora was raised before entering the convent as Sister Mary Alicantara. Nora attended a Young Ladies Seminary. Have no info on how she met Nicolas Murray, who was born in Harvard, II, 7 Dec. 1870, but is reported to have had relatives in CT They were married June 28, 1893 at St. Patrick's Church, Hartford CT by Rev. James J. Egan. They visited Cottage City MA on their honeymoon. [24 Mar 1995 letter from Eleanor Mullinger] They had 2 daughters, Mary Pauline, born 30 April 1894, died 1954, and Frances, born 9 Oct 1896, died 9 Feb 1966, both at 171 Garden St., Pawtucket, RI Nicolas died of pleuro-pneumonia & exhaustion in a State Workhouse in Cranston, RI, April 7, 1900. He is buried at St. Mary Parish Cemetery, Rt. 12, Lisbon CT 06351

Letter from Eleanor Mullinger dated 27 May 1977, "All I ever heard about Nora's birthplace is that it was Galway-I don't know if it were in the city or surrounding area." "Nora ran a boarding house to support herself and our mothers."

Letter from Eleanor Mullinger 19 April 1989-" know little more than you do. Nora was only 4 years old when her brother John and sister Clara came from Connecticut to Galway to rescue her from a cruel stepmother. Clara waited until Nora was raised before entering the convent-Sr. Mary Alcantara-I can remember my Mother writing to Sr. M. A. She lived to be very old. Nora attended a Young Ladies Seminary and don't know where she met Nicholas although he did have relatives in CT. He was indeed born in II. Clara McLaughlin said he had a drinking problem."

Undated letter from Eleanor Mullinger-"Nora Gallagher was born in 1870 (I think) one year before Ireland started keeping good records. She came to the States when she was about 4 years old, after her brother John and her sister Clara (much older and already in CT) heard tales of abuse by a new step mother." "Your memory of John Collins being a doorman at the Palace are correct, his real work was as a silversmith, but during the depression he lost his job at Shreve's and was unemployed for 5 years. He worked in the WPA and whatever he could get until this job as doorman came up and he was glad to get it."

Nora met John W. Collins thru a mutual friend, George Hogan. In 1907 Nora, Pauline and Frances came west to Alameda, where Nora married John. George Hogan was best man. Housing was not available in
