always standing around the grand piano in the living room singing what you once described as "smaltzy" Irish songs: "Danny Boy", "Take Me Home Again Kathleen", "My Wild Irish Rose", etc. We kids-the 3 Roches & Hall and I escaped to the "rec" room downstairs. SF houses have full basements and they had paneled part of it with knotty pine & we played games, etc. down there. The "rec" room was later demolished when Eleanor was taking driving lessons & either she or her teacher left the car in forward gear and when she turned on the engine, it went into the "rec" room. I saw Richard & his wife Elaine at Auntie Claire's memorial service and I told him that Eleanor, who flew in from Utah, & Dave & I spent the night at Claire Marie's and got caught up on "the good old days". His response was "Did she bring up about driving into the "rec" room?" She didn't and I didn't bring up how at Thanksgiving dinners at their house in the era before pitted olives, he would put all his pits on my plate, so it looked like I ate two times as many as I actually did.

I don't know why Hall didn't like Dick Roche, but he is wrong about Mom not liking him. After Pauline died, when Mom & I went to The City to visit the Judges, we would always stop in and visit Dick. Later, when I was down here working & Mom came to visit, Dick was on a business trip in L.A. and staying at the Biltmore Hotel. He invited us to dinner. He was charming. He even walked us down to the parking garage & paid for my parking. He was lost after Pauline died & the kids were all gone. One time after the Biltmore dinner, when we visited him, he in effect asked Mom if she would approve if he married Madeline O'Donnel (1893-1972) a close family friend. Mom thought it was great & said so. Dick died in 1967 and Madeline out lived him by 5 years.

As to the Collins children, Margaret died at age 8 at UCSF. John married Helen Horan & they had 7 children. He worked for the US Mint in SF & when it closed, they moved to Denver & are still there. I am in touch with them. Claire married Paul Judge(1908-1990) and they had 5 children. Barbara died (2000), but I am very close to Claire Marie & Paul Jr. As to the Roche childre: Richard married Elaine Brewer. Her father Julian, who lived in Burlingame, handled Mom's estate because I called him at home on the Sunday after her funeral and asked him to. Hall & I went to his house before we each flew back south. They had 4 children, but I never met any of them. Both Richard & Elaine died in Walnut Creek. Eleanor married Paul Mullinger. They had 2 boys, who I am still in touch with. They lived in Walnut Creek until Paul retired, then they moved to Hurricane, Utah. Paul married Jane Schweikert, whose father was a state superior court judge. They had 6 boys and one girl. I never met any of them, but Claire Marie is in touch with the daughter. I don't know if Janie is alive or not.

So there you are! Hope I covered everybody & everything. If the above generates some more questions, as away!

With love to you & Hall,
Eleanor

in Cranston RI. He is buried in Jewett City CT with his parents (Dennis 1842 (Co. Waterford)-1920 & Eliza Conner 1844 (Co. Queen=Leix)-1906) and his older brother John (1867-1920).

Nora took in boarders, according to Eleanor Mullinger, to support herself and the girls until 1907. That year the 3 of them went across the country to Alameda, where there were family friends-the Hogans-who knew John Collins, a silversmith. Nora married John W. Collins (1876 Attleboro MA-1938) in Sept. of 1907. Because of the 1906 San Francisco earthquake/fire they lived in Alameda until housing was available in SF. Then they lived at 3524-21st Street.

Nora and John had 3 children: Margaret (1908-1913), John (1901-1982) & Claire (1911-1992).

Pauline married Richard Roche in 1919 after he got out of the Army, as he had been drafted in WWI. They lived with John, John Jr., Claire & Frances. Frances was teaching school, as she had graduated from S.F. State Normal School (now S.F. State University) in 1916. Pauline & Dick had 3 children: Eleanor (1920-2002), Richard (1922-2006) & Paul (1927-1995). After Richard was born Pauline & Dick moved to their own place. Since Frances was teaching, she could help with expenses, but not the care of young John & Claire. So John asked his sister Sarah Teresa (1883-1958) to come live with them. I have vivid memories of her as being like the wicked witch in "The Wizard of Oz" probably because she always wore black & had high buttoned shoes. You can see by the death dates that she outlived her brother John by 20 years & Claire Collins Judge had to deal with her burial, when it happened. After our mother & father were married, living in Burlingame when I was born(1927) Claire would come down on the street car to spend the weekend with us to get away from Aunt Teresa.

Frances married Hall Evans (1894-1930) in 1923 after he got out of the army, as he had been drafted in WWI, and "got established". They lived at 2206 Anza Street in what San Franciscan's call "a flat" until they were expecting me. Then they built the house at 1317 Grove Ave. Burlingame.

To tell you about Dick Roche, when he got out of the army, he went to work at a bank. When the kids were growing up, they lived at 787-17th Ave. He must have been good at what he did, as he became the vice president of the Hong-Kong Shanghai Banking Corporation. It was then that they built the house at 28 Kitteridge Terrace. [Hall must have an old address book to come up with that!] No matter where they lived, Mom, Hall & I were always invited to Thanksgiving there. They thought they were being nice and they were & Mom loved having adult company. It was rather formal, but Pauline had hired help & could manage nicely as a result. The "down" side of that was that young Richard & Paul got the drumsticks & there were no left-overs given to us to take home. I think it just never occurred to anyone to give us any. After dinner the adult activity was

Dear Eleanor.

When you put in the subject box "Family History" you weren't kidding!

You'll be surprised to know that Hall pulled 28 Kittridge Terrace out of his head! He remembered Richard & Elaine lived in Walnut Creek but said near Lafayette because of his strong association with that city. Evans' strain seems to be pretty strong as your cousins all died before their 80th birthday. We will have to discuss Hall's feelings about Kittridge at our next meeting.

Do you have a family tree which would help me understand better all the people mentioned in your email.?

Thank you so much for taking the time to send me this lengthy family history. I don't think anyone in my family (7 of us left) has even thought to engage in research of the Joyce family. I never knew my grandparents because they were gone before my birth but my siblings have filled me in on some interesting tidbits of their memories of them.

Merry Christmas to you, Dave and the family.

Love,

Olivia

Grandma Nora Josephine Gallagher (1871-1919) was born in Abby [don't know which one] Co. Galway. She had a brother Thomas (1861-1921) and a sister Clara (1864-1946). According to Eleanor Roche Mullinger, they left Ireland after their mother died & they had a wicked stepmother. Who knows if that is true? I have them in the 1880 U.S. Census living with uncle Thomas (1839-1891) in Hartford CT. The Hartford City Directory for 1893 shows Nora working as a clerk in Brown, Thomson & Co, a dry goods store. That is the same year she married Nicholas C. Murray (1870-1900). He was a newspaper reporter at the Pawtucket Tribune and they lived at 171 Garden Street in that city. Thomas stayed in Hartford until his death. He had 4 daughters and Mom & our father visited them on their honeymoon (1923) & she & I visited them in (1960). Clara entered the convent of the Sisters of Mercy and is buried in the congregation's cemetery. Eleanor Mullinger told me that Pauline corresponded with Sister Mary Alcantara until her death. I did not even know of her existence until I started delving into genealogy.

Nora & Nicholas had two daughters: Mary Pauline (1894-1954) & Frances Elizabeth (Our Mom) (1896-1966). Nicholas died in 1900 in a State Workhouse

Hello Eleanor.

Hope you're enjoying all the rain as much as we are! Today I made soup, froze several batches and baked choco. chip cookies, perfect rainy-day activities! Thank you for your Christmas card. You're very good at creating cards on line.

Thank you also for the article about Noir restaurant in Pasadena which Hall & I will try first chance we get. It's also close by.

Now, some questions for you: Do you remember your Thanksgivings at 28 Kitteridge Terrace in S.F. with your Aunt Pauline & Uncle Dick and your cousins Eleanor, Richard and Paul? Your mom's sisters are Pauline & half sister Clare. How did your mom have a half sister?

Paul died, so are Richard and Eleanor still alive and if so where are they living? Hall thinks maybe Eleanor lives in Utah and Richard in Lafayette. Do you have contact with either of them?

Hall told me that neither he or your mom liked Uncle Dick. What was it about Uncle Dick that the family didn't like? Did you like him?

Love hearing your stories and yes, we never seem to have enough time to reminisce.

I have frequent telephone conversations with some of my siblings who are older than I who help fill in the many gaps that exist in my childhood.

My dad died in 1950 when I was 12, so they have more years of memories of him than I have. Our conversations always turn to reminiscing which I really enjoy.

So, Eleanor, I've given you food for thought. Reply to my questions when you have the time - no rush. Hope you and Dave are well.

Love,

Olivia

INTRODUCTION.

This index is a list of the surnames of all the persons given in Griffith's Primary Valuation and in the Tithe Applotment books. The volumes cover the period of approximately 1824 - 1860. There is a general alphabetical index for the whole county and each civil parish is also indexed. In the case of the Primary Valuation each occurrence of a name (where the person is shown as occupier of a house) is recorded in order to establish the number of householders in a parish or barony of a particular name. The number is indicated by the figure after "G" in the index.

In the case of the Tithe Applotment Books, on the other hand, only the occurrence of a name in a given parish is recorded, the letter "T" indicating that the name occurs at least once in the parish in question.

The parish indexes are arranged in alphabetical order of parishes within each barony, the baronies being in the order indicated by numbers on the attached map. The order of the baronies was decided by reading the map from left to right beginning in the north of the county and working down to the south. Each name in the general index is recorded against a barony in order to indicate in what part of the county those of a given surname were most numerous. Many names occur, of course, in almost every barony but in these cases the frequency of occurrence may often be significant.

The tables of parishes opposite the map are given to indicate the position of the civil parishes in the county and to show also what Catholic parishes correspond to the civil parishes.

The Primary Valuation contains a great number of variant spellings of the same name and it was thought best to record them exactly as found. These variant spellings should therefore be taken into account by anyone trying to establish statistics of the total number of persons of the same surname. Special attention should be paid to cases where variants occur under different letters of the alphabet e.g. Carney and Kearney, Reilly and O'Reilly.

Eleanor,

You have your choice of two Abbey townlands in Co. Galway. The more well-known Abbey (at least in my circles) is the site of the Cistercian abbey, Knockmoy (also referred to as Abbeyknockmoy). right on the N 63 national road, about midway between Claregalway and Mountbellew Bridge.

It's

at 503 433 on Discovery map 46.

The other Abbey, perhaps a bit more populous, was home to the Franciscan friary of Kinalehin (and later referred to as an "Abbey") and is also located on a well-traversed road, the R 353 between Gort and Portumna. This Abbey is about 8 miles west of Portumna, on this road, and located at 738 058 on Disc.

> The most authoritative account of the Gallagher family > is given by an tAth. P. O'Gallachair in Donegal Annual > 1973. He states it is one of the names most frequently > found in County Donegal, not to say the country as a > whole. He gives Cinel Ainmireach as their origin.

> Little occurs in the annals concerning them. Even while > the family fortunes were low the name O'Gallagher is > found turning up frequently amongst the wives recorded > for the O'Donnell sept. An tAth. O'Gallachair provides > many obscure annalistic references to the O'Gallagher > sept: there were at least eight O'Gallachair bishops of > Raphoe; Cormac O'Gallagher accompanied Red Hugh > O'Donnell in the famous capture and escape of 1587 > which precipitated Cin Conaill intervention in the Nine > Years War.

> The name Gallagher is found all over County Donegal but > is widespread in Sligo and Mayo also, as may be noted > from the telephone directory. In Dublin it exceeds the > O'Donnells and the O'Dohertys combined but has > practically entirely lost the O. It is also found > widely in Scotland where it often takes the form > Gallchair. It is not uncommon in the English cities of > Liverpool, Manchester and Leeds where it is pronounced > 'Galloch-er'.
