Dear Eleanor,

Last night we, finally, saw the Riverdance tape you sent. It was terrific. It's been on public television here, but we've missed it every time. Anyway, we, and our neighbors who showed it enjoyed it very much.

I really appreciate your keeping me up with family news. Tried to phone Helen Collins to see how she's progressing, but have not been able to reach her. Hope that isn't too ominous a sign.

Wow! have you collected clippings. Have enjoyed them all. Herb Caen's death really rated a lot of coverage - didn't it? I didn't really like him, but loved his columns.

My mother died 43 years ago yesterday. Rick called me - he always does on any significant day. I still miss her, as I'm sure you miss your dear
mother too.

You certainly have a busy
life with those grand children.
Ours seem so far away now,
although we use the phone constantly. Jennie is in her sophomore year at U.C. Santa Barbara & Sarah is a sophomore in high school in Sacramento. Sarah wants to go to Juilliard - she's a singer & dancer. Her other grand mother was a graduate of Juilliard (in piano & voice) so there's a precedent.

Also, have enjoyed hearing about what books you're reading. Just got Angelis' book from the library - have had good reports on that from a couple of friends. I've been to Limerick & even visited a cousin on my father's side there. It's a beautiful setting (on the Shannon) but a dreary city - and dead
on Sundays.

By the way - our neighbor
who showed the tape "fast - forwarded" during the pledge time.

You are so good - to even remember Valentines! In fact, you've been my most faithful correspondent & I do appreciate it. Wish I could help you out more with genealogy. I just can't remember too much - didn't listen in the first place, probably.

I love to hear from you & about you - but don't let me become a burden. Just write when you feel like it.

So glad you & Ann seem to have recovered well. Be sure to stay that way.

As for me - two big
"break-throughs" - I can hook my bra & I can stand in my own skinner
long enough to do the job!
Will going to take our first "overnight" March 25 - a senior citizen trip to Laughlin. If I can get on the bus, I'll have it made.

Much love to you &
Dave & all the family.

Eleanor

MULLINGER, Eleanor Roche -- Passed away on the 10th of January in Mesquite, Nevada. She was born on April 26, 1920, to Richard and Pauline Roche. She was married to Paul Edward Mullinger in 1944, at the Holy Cross Cathedral in San Francisco. They had two sons, Paul and Charles.

She attended Star of the Sea Grammar and High School, graduating class of 1937. She graduated from the University of California in 1941. She resided in San Francisco from her birth until 1948, and remained in the Bay Area until 1969, when she moved to Hurricane, Utah.

She is survived by her husband, Paul; brother, Richard; sons Paul and Charles; granddaughters Genevieve and Sarah; and numerous other friends and family whom she loved very much. She is preceded in death by her parents, Richard and Pauline, and her brother Paul. She will be missed greatly and remembered with love.

Funeral services will be held on January 15, at the St. George Catholic Church in St. George, Utah, with Mass celebrated by Father Epperley. The burial will be under the direction of Spilsbury-Beard Mortuary.

Spoke with Elaine Roche yesterday - asked for Richard and she just kept yapping, and never did call him to the phone! Oh well, did let them know we were thinking of them

Description

This database is a compilation of burial records from a variety of sources and cemeteries. These records provide information on the burials of U.S. veterans and their dependents who were buried in the various Veterans Affairs (VA) National Cemeteries, state veterans cemeteries, or other military cemeteries. Because the information regarding the burials is compiled from multiple sources, the amount of information provided for each burial will vary. Some of the information you may find in this database includes: name of deceased, birth date, death date, interment date, burial location/site, cemetery name, cemetery address, relationship to veteran, veteran service dates, military rank, and military branch. Dear Eleanor,

Sorry to be so tardy responding to your great letter/package of January 5. We've had an unaccustomed bout of winter colds here and it's sort of taken us out of commission for a couple of weeks. So here I am on MY Macintosh (aren't they the greatest?), and I do wish to thank you for all the data on Davis and your interest in our college-bound girl. She continues to plug away at her studies---she lettered in academics!---and her sport, gymnastics. I think she's hoping for a gymnastics scholarship somewhere and the chance to compete on a college team---being a great student is just insurance!

We'll be interested in anything you come up with and care to publish on family history. I've been a genealogy nut for over thirty years--my eighth-grade history teacher back in Columbus, Ohio assigned us the task of "looking into" our family trees. I started with notes my mother had made in my baby book, got in touch with relatives then alive who knew the old stories, and before long had sketched out a pretty respectable tree, going back twelve or thirteen generations on my Dad's side. When my Dad retired from the Air Force after a thirty-year career (he launched a second career as a librarian for a technical institute in North Carolina), he took advantage of the fact of being back in the part of the country where his ancestors had started out and did a lot of research to "flesh out" my tree. He visited graveyards, State Archives, etc. and has put out a book about the family, complete with details of land transactions, moves, the Scriptural passages read at the passing of our forebears, etc. He's followed that up with a volume of "group sheets" of the descendants of his Granddad, who had fifteen children. Many of those descendants gathered at a reunion a few years back and honored my Dad. But he wasn't through! He's put out some "memoirs" of his maternal grandfather and just this Christmas sent us copies of his edited version of his mother's "Day by Day" diary, titled "Growing Old in a Kansas Village." It's incredible to be able to look into the lives of these people and feel such a kinship across the years.

I was interested in my mother's family as well but had reached a bit of an impasse just a couple of generations back at the point where they'd come over from Sweden. About ten or twelve years ago, I took a shot--- realizing that the Swedish Church is sort of like the Mormon Church in its careful maintenance of records, I wrote a letter to the "Town Registrar" of the little town in Sweden my great-grandfather had come from, asking for help. There isn't really a Registrar, but the Postal Operator handed the letter to an old gent in town (surprisingly, NOT a relative) who hobbyed in genealogy--and he sent me data on another four generations of our family, back into the 1600s. What a coup! A few years before my mother's death, my parents visited this little town of Asarp, Sweden and the old man who had done us such a kindness. They got to meet some distant cousins who were all interested to learn what the emigrants had amounted to. Two special moments for my mom--she was a musician who'd held a number of organist jobs from her early youth on, and she got to play the town's four-hundred-year-old pipe organ--quite a thrill. Then she told how, on their last evening in Sweden, they were gathered with some of their new friends for coffee in her cousin's home. My mother went to the piano and began to play a hymn known on both sides of the Atlantic, and all joined in to sing. Very touching.

Well, your letter helped us to get to know your family better--what a great crew! I like to garden and read also, but I currently have an accounting job that's eating me alive--and between that, chauffeuring the girls to this or that activity, and doing at least the MINIMUM maintenance around the house and yard, I don't do nearly as much reading or creative gardening as I'd like.

Miss Sarah is clamoring for attention, so I need to go spend some time with her.

Happy Anniversary to you and Dave! Thanks again for getting in touch.

Best,

*Kat, Paul, Jenny &
Sarah Mullinger*
