Dear Cathy,

Thank you so very much for taking time to send me the information on your family. I really appreciate it. Eleanor M., as our part of the family calls your Aunt Susie to distinguish her from me as Eleanor B., told me what a wonderful visit she had with you and your family. Because she can't get around much, she was concerned about being able to play hostess, but she said everything was just grand and how nice it was that her son Paul Jr. and his wife Katie were there at the same time.

I don't know how much she told you about the extended family, but I'd like to tell you about our common ancestors, in case you and she didn't get to that topic. Your father's mother Mary Pauline Murray Roche and my mother Frances Elizabeth Murray Evans were sisters. They were the daughters of Nicholas Murray, born in Illinois, and Nora Josephine Gallagher, born in County Galway, Ireland. Nicholas and Nora were married in Hartford CT in 1893. They lived in Pawtucket RI, where Pauline and Frances were born, until 1900, when Nicholas died. In 1907 Nora, Pauline and Frances came to San Francisco where Nora married John W. Collins, a silversmith from North Attleboro, MA, who apparently was a friend of the family. They had 3 children: 1) Margaret, who was born in 1908 and died in 1913. 2) John, who was born in 1909 and died in 1982. He married Helen Horan, who is still living, and they had 7 children, who are all living. all living. 3) Claire, who was born in 1911 and died in 1992. She married Paul Judge, who was born in 1908 and died in 1990. They had 5 children, who are all living. Their oldest daughter, Claire Mac Neil, who is a widow, lives in San Mateo and is the one who phoned you after I got your address and phone number and gave it to her. Her daughter Jennifer MacNeil Blackwood lives near you at 442 State St., San Mateo 650-401-6757. Her other daughter, Joan MacNeil Stone lives on 739 Plymouth Way in Burlingame. By the way, my brother Hall and I grew up in Burlingame at 1317 Grove Ave. I was born in 1927, the same year as your father, and my brother was born in 1929. Our father died in 1930, so our mother Frances taught school to support us.

I'm rattling on about the family, but Aunt Susie said you are interested in your family history. Since I retired I have spent a lot of time on genealogy and just love doing it. If there is any more you want to know, just write, e-mail or phone and I'll try and help. In the meanwhile, would it be possible to tell me more about your mother's family. I'll enclose a family group sheet for your convenience.

I'm so happy we are in touch. It is exciting to meet more relations

January 23, 2000

Dear Aunt Eleanor,

I know you've been anxious to get our family info, so I'm sending it along. It's not as complete as I had hoped it would be, but my mom didn't have birth-dates on her daughter-in-laws. Also, two of my brothers are still single, so there was nothing to fill out for them. They are Matthew Thomas Roche Sept. 19, 1959 and Patrick John Roche Jan 19, 1965.

Take care + enjoy!

Obituary: Sweigert helped protect water rights in region

By Robert D. Dávila - bdavila@sacbee.com

Story appeared in METRO section, Page B3

William T. Sweigert, a lawyer and expert on California water law who helped safeguard rights to the American River for developing Sacramento suburbs, died Sunday. He was 81.

He died at his Auburn home of lung cancer, said his son, Bill Sweigert.

Mr. Sweigert was widely recognized as a statewide authority on water rights, his specialty for more than half a century. He represented many local water districts in Northern California, including agencies serving unincorporated communities in Sacramento and Placer counties that boomed in population after World War II.

"He was one of the giants of California water law," said Zane Vorhes, attorney for the San Juan Water District. "Not many people had the longevity and amount of experience that Bill had."

Mr. Sweigert helped found the Arcade Water District in 1954 to serve homes and businesses in Carmichael and Arden Arcade. During the 1960s, he won a major lawsuit against the city of Sacramento securing the district's rights to American River water. He served as the district's general counsel until 2002, when Arcade merged with the Northridge Water District to form the Sacramento Suburban Water District.

He was attorney for the Fair Oaks Water District and the San Juan Water District, which supplies smaller agencies serving Citrus Heights, Fair Oaks, Folsom, Granite Bay and Orangevale. In addition, he represented the Rocklin-Loomis Municipal Utility District – known today as the South Placer Municipal Utility District – for more than 30 years. He also served as a commissioner and volunteer firefighter for the Loomis Fire District.

"He was very much a civic-minded guy," said Tom Tomich, a former San Juan board member.

William Thomas Sweigert was born in 1926 and raised in San Francisco, where his father was a federal judge. He graduated from St. Ignatius High School in 1943 and served in the Pacific with the Coast Guard during World War II. He worked as a firefighter for the California Department of Forestry while earning bachelor's and law degrees from the University of San Francisco.

He moved to Sacramento to work as assistant secretary to the state Senate before joining the Desmond, Miller and Artz law firm. He set up his own practice in 1960 and moved his office in 1980 to Loomis.

He married Mary Desmond in 1948. The couple had a daughter and six sons before divorcing. He married Trudi Busam in 1967.

Mr. Sweigert found escape from the complexities of water law as a cowboy. A lifelong equestrian, he rode trails with the Reno Sierra Riders and the Sacramento Horsemen's Association. He was a longtime active member and past president of the Sonoma County Trailblazers.

He loved reciting cowboy poetry and performed often at local schools and the Loomis Cowpoke Gathering. He was a member of the Little Big Horn Associates, a historical group, and he "rode every inch of Custer's trail there in Montana," his son said.

"He made friends everywhere he went," Bill Sweigert said. "He was a precision storyteller who always made people laugh. He was always able to make a connection with anybody."

Claire,

Good to hear from you. Yes, this is still my old faithful email address. I am starting to get invites to join all of these online chat groups, but i haven't quite gotten there yet. How are you and your beautiful girls? Are you a grandma yet??? I f I remember correctly, you were living in Sonoma.

Pablo and Mateo are 21 and 15 respectively...hard to believe. Roberto and I are still teaching. We still live in San Mateo, and bought a house here 5 years ago. It would be fun to get together and chat about family news and history! Do you ever get to the bay area?

Take care,
Cathy

Cathy, it's been quite a while since we have communicated. I was editing my email addresses and just realized that I had an address for you. If this is no longer in use, I will phone you and we can get caught up with family news. Hope we can get connected.....
