			The spelling of the name was changed to Butterick. John and Mary who lived in Stow, would have been the logical parents of Hannah who married John Daby. However, John Butterick's will (Middlesex County Probate Court, #3793) contains the following information:
			"Item: I have given to my daughter Hannah twenty-five pounds at her marriage to Israel Heald and I do will and bequeath her twenty-five pounds more after our decease, etc." J. & S. Gates state (SILAS GATES OF STOW, MASS. (1907) p.19: "Silas Gates marr. (2) (int. July 25, 1756) Mary, widow of Thomas Wheeler and daughter of John and Hannah (Buttrick) Daby, who was born in Stow, Oct. 24, 1722." Either they were mistaken as to Hannah Daby's maiden name, or Hannah may have been the daughter of Joseph Butterick, whom Savage does not follow. A William Buttrick came on the Planter, according to Savage (Vol. I, p.324), to Cambridge in 1635, aged 20, and married Elizabeth, dau. of John Hastings. The probate index shows a Wm. Buttrick at Lancaster, admin. 1711, also.

The foregoing Will of Samuel Buttrick late of Concord in the said County of Middlesex deceased was lodged in this Office the 28th of August last past, and on the 6th of Sep^r following I caused to call in the widow and next of Kinred to the said deced^t to attend not be proved — Accordingly came Mess^{rs} Thomas Bateman, Tim^o Minott and Thomas Brown the three witnesses thereto subscribed and made oath that they were personally present and saw the said Testat^r sign seal and heard him declare the aforesaid Instrument as his last Will and Testament and that he was at that time (to the best of their judgments) of sound and disposing mind; and that they subscribed their Names as Witnesses to the Execution thereof in said Testators presence — At the same time was brought under the deced^ts widow's hand and his son Samuel Buttricks themselves together with the said Will's being proved — And I do prove, approve and allow of the same as the last Will and Testament of the aforesaid deced^t, and the Admin^ron thereof in all matters the same concerning, and of his Estate whereof he died seized and possessed in said County is committed to the said deced^ts son Ezra Buttrick sole Executor
