There is another good link to get from the "Ancestry World Tree Project" website and that is the Joseph Pulsifer m. Eunice Whitcomb Houghton line. I strongly consider using it.

The names of the children listed here are said by Mrs. Burrows to be children of Amos, while Mrs. Evans believes Aubrey Cecil may have been the son of Amos' brother, John William. In either case, the birth date for Aubrey C. may be wrong since both Amos and John W. were not married until 1889, according to their marriage records at PANS. Mrs. Evans says she remembers Aubrey C. and thinks he was younger than the date given for his age. Since Aubrey's first son had Amos as his second name,perhaps he was son of Amos. At any rate, I have placed him here for now.-E.I.R.

Cemetery:
RAVENNA WAR CEMETERY
Italy
[CLICK HERE FOR CEMETERY PLAN] <sub.cfm?source=collections/virtualmem/cem&cemetery=70505>
Grave Reference: III. A. 1.
Location: The Ravenna War Cemetery lies on a communal road 1 kilometre south of the SS16 from Ravenna to Ferrara near the village of Piangipane in the Commune and Province of Ravenna. The turning from the main road is at the 143 kilometres stone, 12 kilometres west of Ravenna. The turning is marked with a Commonwealth War Graves sign pointing in the direction of the cemetery, and a road sign marked 'Piangipane 4 kilometres'. Continue along the minor road until a further Commonwealth War Graves sign is seen. The entrance to the cemetery is located on the left hand side of the road.

The site for the cemetery was selected by the Army in 1945 for burials from the surrounding battlefields. Ravenna was taken by the Canadian Corps at the beginning of December 1944, and the burials in the cemetery there reflect the fighting for the Senio line and the period of relative quiet during the first three months of 1945. Many of the men buried there were Canadians; one of the last tasks of the Canadian Corps before being moved to north-west Europe was the clearing of the area between Ravenna and the Comacchio lagoon. Others are Indians from the 10th Indian Division, and New Zealanders. The Cemetery also contains the graves of 30, 1914-18 War casualties concentrated in March 1974 from Gradisca Communal Cemetery , Italy and 3 other burials concentrated from other minor cemeteries in Italy. There are now over 30 graves of the First World War and 956 graves plus one Special Memorial of the Second World War.

THERE WAS ALWAYS ENOUGH LOVE TO GO AROUND
by Helen H. Vigliotta

We wore second had clothes
That other people had chose.
Mama scrubbed our wooden floors
As she did the outhouse without any doors.
There was always enough love to go around.

Do you remember dreaming of Quaker oats?
Nestled under blankets and overcoats?
The flat irons that kept us warm
Way beyond a dazzling dawn.
Two happy kids at the top
Two at the bottom ready to pop.
There was always enough love to go around.

Mom stayed up way into the night
Darning our stockings by kerosene light.
She wanted to make sure everything was dandy
When Santa filled our stockings with a little candy.
Although, sometimes coal was put in the boys'
Because they were the ones who made all the noise.
There was always enough love to go around.

People pitied us for being poor
Little they knew we had more.
We had many, many happy years
Even though we've had our share of tears.
There was always enough love to go around.

Lovingly remembered by family and friends

Very sorrowful w/o Richard Allen Pulsifer (allied)

Brunswick boy makes Top 40 radio

BY JOHN SWINCONECK
Times Record Contributor

In 1998, the members of the band Angry Salad, walked unannounced into the New York City offices of Blackbird Recording and handed record execs a copy of their LP, "Bizarre Gardening Accident," and a six pack of Sam Adam's Boston Lager. In 10 days they had a recording contract and, in 1999, their self-titled major label debut hit the shelves.

"Commercial radio air play is impossible without a record contract," said Brunswick native and drummer Hale Pulsifer. "Getting signed has made a huge difference."

Angry Salad, a quartet whose FM-friendly pop tunes are filling airtime on mainstream radio, has been touring nationally for years. Their witty, self-depracating lyrics sung to a brand of pop-rock that causes unconscious humming and toe tapping, were destined for Top 40 radio.

The band's first two singles, "The Milkshake Song" and a cover of "99 Red Balloons," have made heavy rotation on stations such as WMGX, WJBQ and WCYY. Now the band that played small college venues gets mobbed after shows such as WCYY's summer patio concert this June. Audiences at the WMGX OpSail show in Portland will get a first hand look at why Angry Salad may be the next Matchbox 20, but for drummer and Brunswick native Hale Pulsifer, OpSail is also a homecoming.

ANGRY SALAD

HALE PULSIFER, Brunswick native and the drummer for Angry Salad, is shown at his drum set as a young boy. At right, Pulsifer signs an Angry Salad T-shirt at a show in Boston.

Angry Salad formed in 1991 when Pulsifer and front man/South Portland native Bob Whelan met at Brown University.

"At that point, Bob had already discovered the name Angry Salad," said Pulsifer. "Apparently, he and his brother met former Queen member Freddie Mercury while on vacation."

It was Mercury who suggested the band name. "To this day, we still don't know what it means, but it's worked well for us," Pulsifer said.

Success in Boston has long been seen as the key to winning fans outside of New England, so that was where the band planted its roots.

"Boston and [Southern Maine] are completely different musical scenes," said Pulsifer. "In Boston there are at least 40 bands playing on any given night. Boston also has a great deal of independent labels, publicists, agents, lawyers, and managers. It becomes a very crowded music scene. As far as music is concerned, it's all business."

When the band began touring in Maine, Pulsifer noted how supportive the Southern Maine community was toward its bands.

"For example, the Rustic Overtones are heroes around here – everyone is very proud that they're from Maine," he said. "That's something you don't see in Boston. With the possible exception of the Mighty Mighty Bosstones, most Bostonians are nonchalant about the number of talented bands in their city."

Pulsifer credits much of his success to childhood experiences. His father was a boatbuilder and his mother was a martial artist.

"I grew up on Mere Point, and it took us 10 minutes to walk to the bus stop every day," he said. "That's a long way to carry a bulky snare drum case as a scrawny 11-year-old, so Dad built me a specially designed wheelbarrow. He always joked that I should play the flute or trumpet."

Pulsifer had a pretty typical Brunswick childhood.

"I loved growing up in Brunswick," he said. "I was at the junior high the year it almost burned down. My friends and I went to Bowdoin hockey games all the time."

"Frosty's twisties are still the best donuts I've ever had. My family and I refer to Frosty's as the 'immaculate confection' because of their unique combination of religious brochures and great donuts."

Pulsifer started on drums in the school band and practiced everything from jazz to calypso to Dixieland before settling on rock n' roll. Influenced by The Police, Led Zeppelin and Fleetwood Mac, he began playing along to a small collection of LPs at home.

"One of my favorite records was Men at Work's 'Business as Usual,'" said Pulsifer. "As I played along I imagined that I was on stage with them. Fifteen years later we actually did share the stage with Men at Work at the House of Blues in Chicago. I felt like a kid again."

A band that's done its PR homework well in advance, Angry Salad knows the value of a strong fanbase. "I have very strong feelings about our performances and the time we spend with fans at shows," said Pulsifer. "The one thing that can't be reproduced on your home entertainment center is the energy that comes from a good live performance. That's why every show matters to us."

Every now and then the band misfires. Broken guitar strings and poor sound checks are part of life on stage, so the band looks to another great performer for inspiration: Joe DiMaggio. "Before every game, he reminded himself that someone would be seeing him play for the first time, and someone would be seeing him play for the last time," said Pulsifer.

That may be why the band makes time to mingle with each fan after a show with handshakes, hugs, and autographs. Seeing them live a second or third time is a lot like catching up with your favorite cousins at a family reunion.

Having seen parts of the country that Pulsifer only dreamed about as a Brunswick high school student, he keeps himself close to his New England roots. He currently lives in New Haven, Conn., a short trip from their label in New York and studio in Hartford, but, he said, Maine will always be home.

Life on the road is tough after you travel 25 hours to get to your next show, and you've exhausted your Jim Carey tapes on the tour van's VCR. One thing he misses is a sense of community support unique to Maine. "The deeper you get in this industry, the more obsolete those values become," said Pulsifer. "But playing in Maine reinforces everything about music and live performance that I love."

"Every now and then I'll get a call from my mom after she hears one of our songs on the radio," he said. "She'll be excited on the other end of the line, and it makes me feel great."

Fire chief quits after 45 years

BOWDOINHAM — Allan Frizzle Jr., a 45-year veteran of the Bowdoinham Fire Department, stunned the town Wednesday night by submitting his resignation to the Board of Selectmen.

Although the decision appeared to take selectmen by surprise, Frizzle said today he had been thinking about quitting for six months.

Dissension within the all-volunteer fire department has been so strong that Frizzle, 57, decided he could live without the job and the medical benefits he gets as a town employee. As fire chief, Frizzle received a stipend of about $2,000 per year and health-care insurance.

"I lose my health benefits," said Frizzle, who owns an automobile service garage on Route 24. "I guess I'll have to do something on my own."

Frizzle declined to get specific about the discord and "rumors" within the 26-member department that made him leave.

He began working as a volunteer firefighter for the town in 1949, when he was 13 years old. He needed written permission from his parents at the time. He has been Bowdoinham's fire chief for the past 30 years.

> Bowdoinham fire chief

Frizzle's resignation becomes effective Jan. 1, 1994. He is the second fire official in town to resign in recent weeks. Assistant Fire Chief Irvin Temple has also stepped down.

"He said he had heard rumors about the way he's running things," said Board of Selectman chairman Daniel Billings.

After listening to Frizzle read his letter of resignation, selectmen closed their meeting to the public to discuss the matter before voting to accept the resignation.

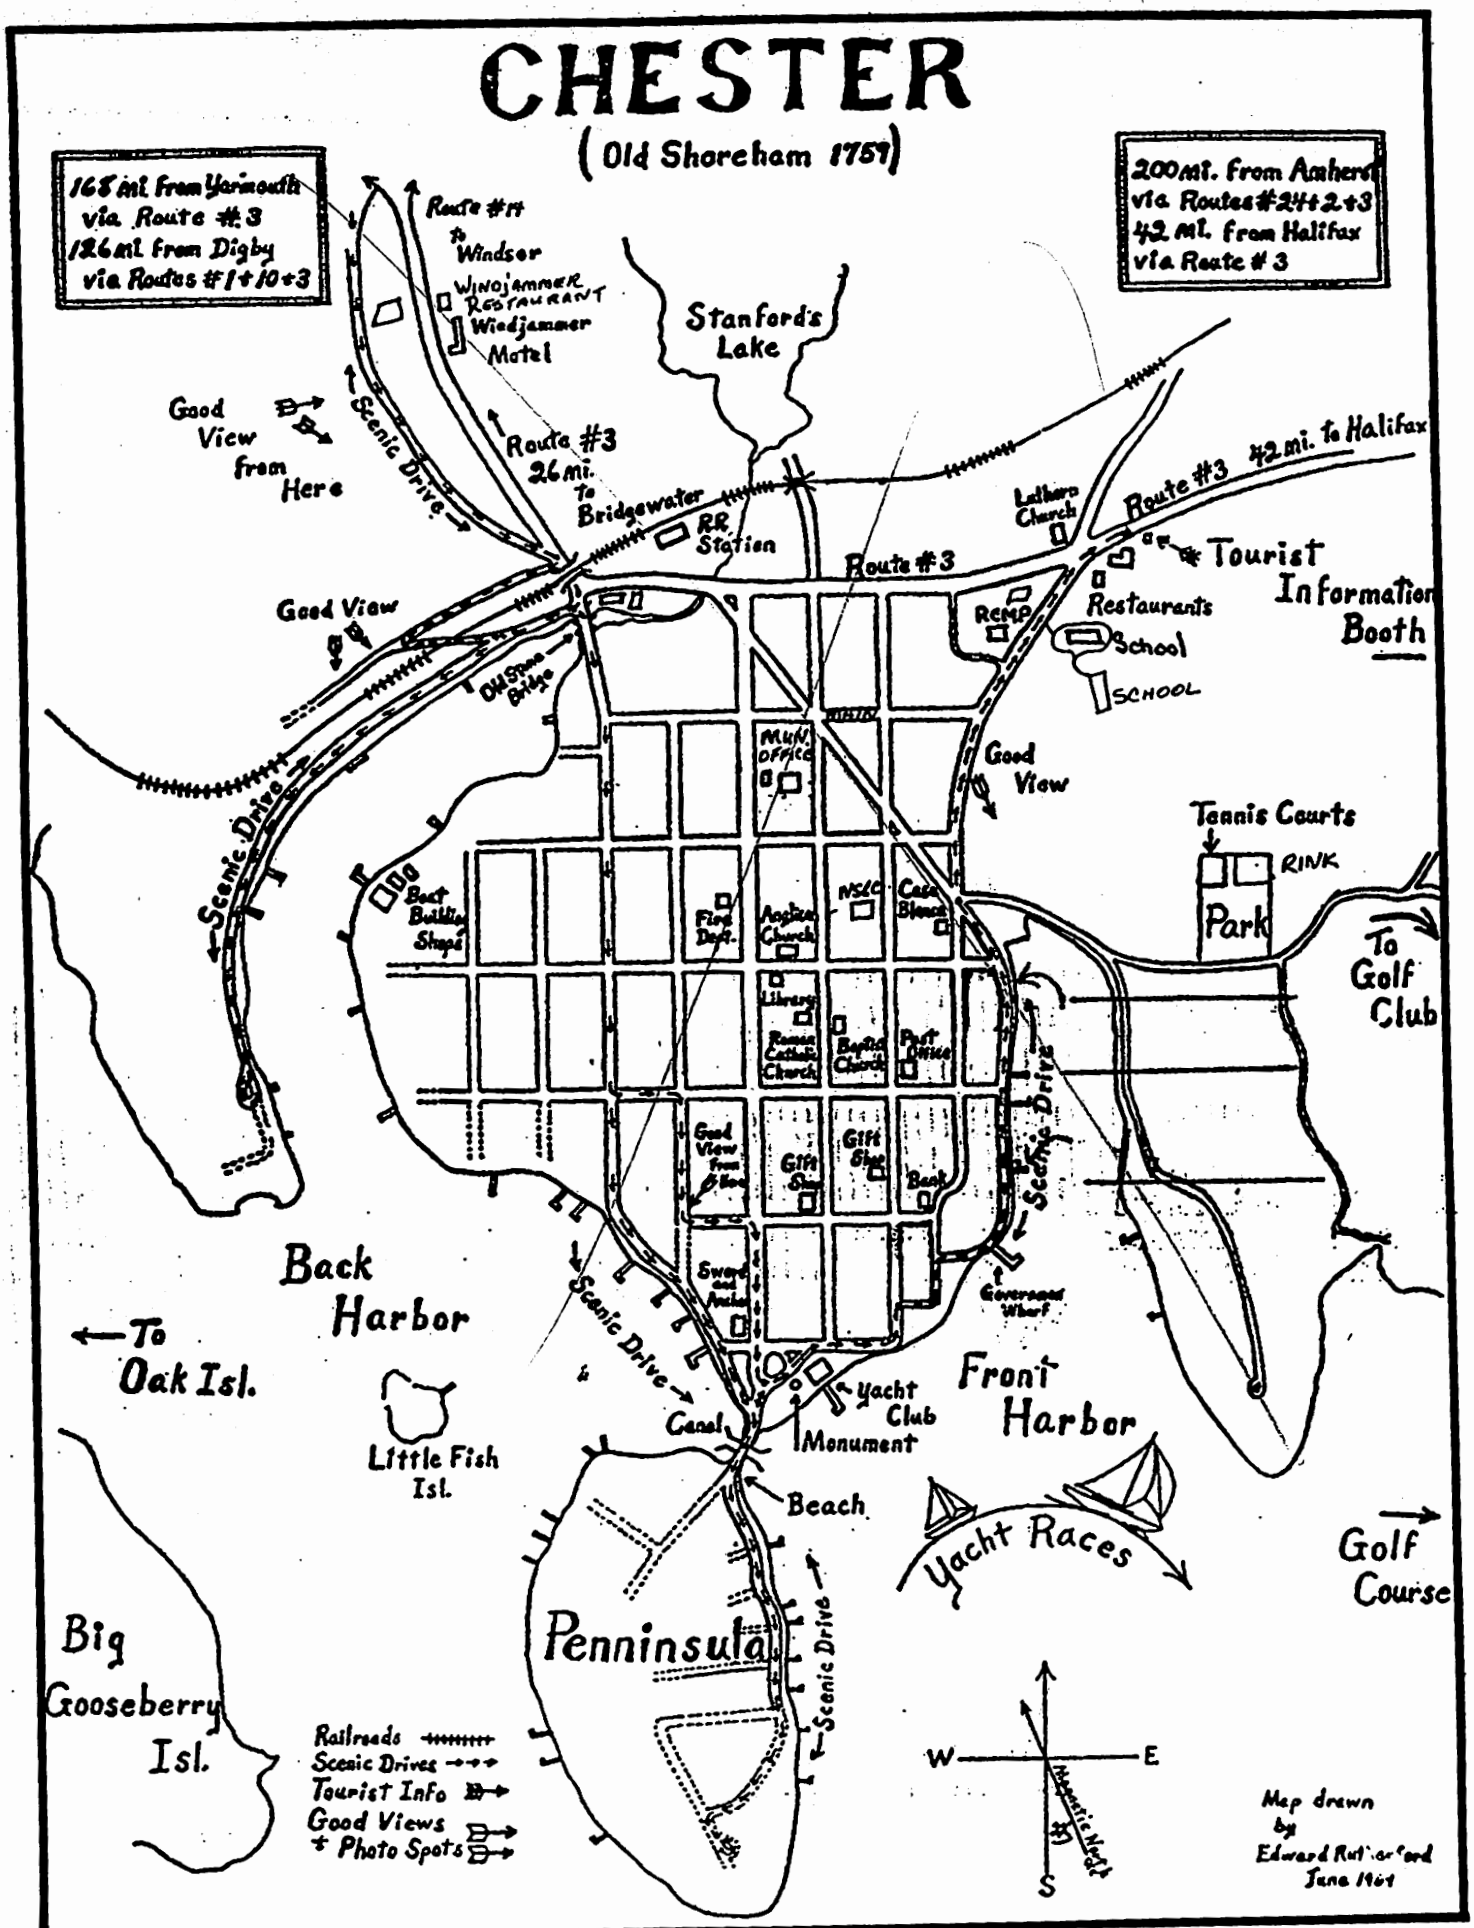

"I cannot and will not be a baby sitter," Frizzle told selectmen. "If there is discontent amongst the firemen or townspeople, things cannot run on a smooth basis."

Civilian Workers On Job At NASB

BRUNSWICK — Early this year, 22 sailors at the Naval Air Station Brunswick were relieved of scullery duties by civilian workers at the enlisted men's dining hall.

This was done in accordance with a new Navy policy of hiring civilians to perform scullery, cleaning and disposal duties at stateside Navy dining halls.

January 5, 1966, 22 civilian men and women, (16 men, 6 women), began work in Neptune Hall. The civilians, under the supervision of retired petty officer Robert D. Watson, do their work in two shifts; a 6 a.m. to 2 p.m. shift and a noon to 8 p.m. shift.

The workers were hired through the Service Engineers Incorporated of Taunton, Mass., working through the state unemployment agency in Bath.

Those working in the first shift are Alec Lyons, assistant supervisor, Bath; Carl Brown, Brunswick; Jack French, Marjorie Haley, Gloria Pullen, Dale Jacobs, Gladys Bracey, Violet Cressey, James Lyons, and Archie McDonough, all of Bath.

Those working in the second shift are Glenn Giles, Brunswick; Joe Jenec, assistant supervisor, Bath; Ronald Overmiller, Woolwich; Clyde Weathering, Bath; Irene Plant, Wiscasset; Harland Booker, Edwin Hanscom, Beatrice Hagan, and Rexford Pierce, of Bath and Robert Christman of Brunswick and Harold Darling of Topsham.

According to a January Navy Times, NASB is one of a few Navy installations in the states to switch from non rated Navy men to civilians for this type of work in the galley.

The move is designed to free some non-rated men for more important jobs and to improve morale and ultimately, the retention problem. It will also give the Navy a better chance to train workers in more important tasks than has been possible in the past with the rapid turnover of personnel, assigned for three or four months to galley duties.

Nothing unusual, nor any trouble was reported by City Clerk Cole. Candidates were at a minimum and only a few were noticed about the polls.

For the first time in history the voting place at the Auburn Armory was moved from the downstairs location to the upstairs gymnasium.

City Clerk Cole explained that the voting place had to be moved because of a quantity of National Guard equipment which was stored on the downstairs floor, which could not be moved.

He said it would be unlikely if the situation ever arose again but it was pointed out that the election workers had expressed pleasure at working at the upstairs location.

Indict Burke On Weapons Charges

BOSTON (AP) — Elmer "Trigger" Burke, 37, New York hoodlum arrested after a Dorchester shooting in which Joseph "Specs" O'Keefe, 47, onetime Brinks robbery suspect, was wounded, was indicted quickly by the Suffolk County Grand Jury today on charges of illegal possession of a machinegun and other weapons.

O'Keefe was shot during a gun battle at a Dorchester housing project.

Police found a machinegun and other weapons in a room Burke had rented.

Dist. Atty. Garrett H. Byrne, who called the grand jury into session, said an associate of O'Keefe, John H. Carlson, 29, reported O'Keefe was wounded in the Dorchester fight and is now in hiding.

Capt. Francis Wilson of the homicide squad and two New York detectives went before the grand jury.

Conviction of such a charge is punishable under Massachusetts law by life imprisonment.

Police said Burke had a companion and they are anxious to locate him.

One investigator said:

"We figure that Burke was one of the men who shot at O'Keefe but we don't know who the other man might be. That means that the second man is still somewhere around, probably looking for O'Keefe just as much as we are. If he finds him first it will be just too bad for Specs."

Byrne said Carlson told him, however, that O'Keefe "will come in and talk soon. I figure."

Car Impounded

The car in which O'Keefe was seen last Wednesday was impounded by police early today after it was spotted by two detectives in Roxbury.

A search revealed a trunkful of camping equipment, including blankets, a stove and packages of food. Detectives also found stains on the front and back seats which they said would be examined by chemists to determine if they were made by blood.

The car was being driven by Donald O'Keefe, 36, the wanted man's brother, who said he did not know where his brother is. Police quoted him as saying he had the car since last Thursday and that he had used the camping equipment during the weekend.

O'Keefe was cited by the FBI as a "principal suspect" in the Brink's $1,219,000 robbery 4½ years ago but a federal grand jury which investigated the theft returned no indictments.

Cited For Contempt

He and Carlson were cited for contempt of court in connection with that grand jury investigation but both later were cleared.

O'Keefe now is wanted as a ma-

OUR CHILDREN

A Backward Pupil May Need A Medical Examination

BY ANGELO PATRI

It would be sensible and honest if teachers and specialists of one kind and another in reporting on children's health, abilities and the like, would use the harsh, correct term instead of glossing the condition to spare somebody's feelings.

Toby, 6 years and 5 months old, is in the first half of the first grade and should be ready for promotion. But he isn't. He does not attend to the work in progress. He loses his place in the reading lesson. He cannot read to standard. His teacher knows that Toby is a backward child and in need of the attention. Certainly he is not ready for promotion.

Instead of telling his parents the simple facts as stated here, the teacher, sympathetically says, "Toby is immature; not ready yet for the next grade."

Toby's mother and father, always eager to think of him as all he might be, nod their heads and say, "Immature." They decide that all Toby needs is Time. In time he will grow and develop all the necessary abilities, the powers of mind and body he now lacks.

Maybe he will, but again, maybe he won't. Maybe there is a strong chance of his developing soundly if he gets help and if that help is given promptly. A delay, even a brief delay, may make help too late, which is the reason for my anxious hope that teachers, the educational specialists and the psychologists, will tell parents the truth as they see it and so give them the chance to help the child. At least tell them and if they do not heed the telling the burden lies where it belongs.

Not that I would have a teacher diagnose any child's health of mind or body. That is not the function of the teacher. He directs the parent to the specialist saying no more than, "Your child seems to need help and I would advise you to seek it promptly." Teachers are not equipped to test eyes, ears, and noses, nor to say any treatment is called for. That is the doctor's field and must be left to him always.

But the teacher can say, "Toby is not ready for promotion. He does not do the work of the grade. I do not know why. I would suggest that you consult the psychologist, etc." Saying that a backward child is immature—or that he "could if he only would," is not helpful to anybody. Let's get down to facts, harsh as they may be, and so really help parents and the children who need help.

EXERCISES

A note of extreme sadness was struck in the very first event of Brunswick's Bicentenary celebration as a crowd of which many were aware of the circumstances watched little Irma Galloway assist in the unveiling of the Spanish War Memorial near the First Parish Church Sunday. Irma was unaware that her father lay dead, victim of a motor accident a few hours before the Bicentenary program was to begin.

Irma, the daughter of a Spanish War veteran, was asked many weeks ago to assist Robert E. Cobb, another veteran's child, to unveil the tablet. She had anticipated the event keenly, had prepared the white dress she was to wear, had jovously awaited the moment when all eyes would be turned toward her and the monument she was to uncover.

Shortly after midnight Sunday morning Andrew Galloway was struck by a car driven by Frederick A. Allen of Beverly, Mass., near the intersection of the Growstown road and the Portland road. Death from a fractured skull and multiple injuries was instantaneous. Mrs. Galloway decided immediately not to tell Irma until after she had taken part in the exercises. The girl had no inkling of the tragedy until after the group on the hill had disbanded and the mother and daughter were alone.

The father was 68, and was to have taken part in the exercises himself. State Patrolman Herbert Q. Marriner investigated, and learned from Allen that Galloway had apparently walked in front of the car. Allen said he did not see the man until the moment of the impact. Galloway was presumably walking home from town. The family lives on the Woodside road.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Schroeder and Mrs. Martha Hoffses were in Waldoboro on Wednesday to attend the funeral services of William H. Sprague.

CHRISTMAS

"THERE ARE MANY THINGS from which I might have derived good, by which I have not profited, I dare say, . . . Christmas among the rest. But I am sure I have always thought of Christmas time, when it has come around—apart from the veneration due to its sacred name and origin, if anything belonging to it can be apart from that—as a good time; a kind, forgiving, charitable, pleasant time; the only time I know of, in the long calendar of the year, when men and women seem by one consent to open their shut-up hearts freely, and to think of people below them as if they really were fellow-passengers to the grave, and not another race of creatures bound on other journeys. And therefore, . . . though it has never put a scrap of gold or silver in my pocket, I believe that it has done me good, and will do me good; and I say, God bless it!"

—From "A Christmas Carol," by Charles Dickens.

MAN, 81, IS MISSING FROM RURAL HOME

Police Search For Walter C. Higgins Of Prince's Point

No trace has been reported of Walter C. Higgins, 81 year old Prince's Point farmer who disappeared shortly after midnight Tuesday morning. Arising about 12.30 a.m., he left the house and has not been seen since.

Since then Deputy Sheriff William B. Edwards and the local police have exhausted every clue as to his whereabouts without success.

It is now believed that Higgins wandered off in a moment of forgetfulness, and that he has met with some accident.

Higgins lived with his wife and two-step-children on a Prince's Point road farm.

EVERY FAMILY HAS CHRISTMAS DINNER

Emergency Relief Assn. Gets Hearty Support In Its Work

The Emergency Relief Association wishes to thank all of those who cooperated so willingly and effectively last week in the effort to supply Christmas dinners to unfortunate families of Brunswick.

The need this year was far in excess of early estimates and a last minute appeal was necessary in order to take care of everyone. The response was so generous that the Association was able to take care of every family reported.

Coming as it does at a time when everyone is busy and hard pressed to find the wherewithal for their own needs such efforts clearly demonstrate the presence of a true Christmas spirit.

Especial thanks are extended to those who assisted at the collection booth and to several companies who cheerfully gave time and effort to make the drive a success, notably the Pejepscot Paper Company, the Central Maine Power Company, and the Brunswick Hardware Company.

The Salvation Army has promised assistance and the Brunswick Record's Santa Claus Fund contributed the sum that put the drive over the top.

Thief Steals Bulbs From Freeport Xmas Tree

Chief of Police Leslie B. Bailey of Freeport has the year's strangest case, and as the days flit by and 1938 approaches, he thinks maybe this is a good case on which to wind up.

Someone—the chief isn't saying who—stole the lights off the Community Christmas tree.

The chief expects to make no arrests, but he has heard from a citizen who saw the thief in action, and he says the foul deed was not perpetrated by any youngsters. In fact those who were seen taking the lights have been out of school for some time.

In all, about a dozen and a half of the bright colored bulbs were unscrewed—these being the ones that anyone could easily reach by standing on the ground.

Chief Bailey, who is also secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and therefore custodian of the Christmas tree, has added new bulbs.

SKI CLUB FACILITIES READY AT BRADLEY MT.

Cabin Completed, And Spot Used By Skaters And Skiers

The Bradley Mountain Ski Club has welcomed the arrival of snow, and is in the midst of its long awaited activities. Formed last year, the club went through a snow-less winter, and thus far its activities have been in the nature of preparations.

Skiing is now possible at the site on Bradley Mountain, however, and the club house has been finished for the convenience of those using the slopes.

The club house is a cabin type, later to have a fireplace across the back. This year a stove has been put in, and the stone-work chimney will be laid up in warmer weather.

The slopes are in fairly good condition, although a lot more snow would be welcome. The river below the slope is ready for skating, and a lean-to will be available near a bonfire for skaters. The hill has been used considerably during this week.

Memberships in the club are now available by applying to the office of A. B. Holmes. The club intends to have the area available at all times during the coming sports season for all varieties of sliding and skating, and will offer local people the only sports advantages specially arranged in this section.

BODY OF HIGGINS FOUND OFF GURNET

81 Year Old Man Wanders To His Death In Casco Bay

After a search of nearly a week, the body of Walter C. Higgins, 81, Prince's Point farmer, was found Sunday morning in the waters of Casco Bay off Indian Rest, across from Gurnet. Medical Examiner Harold R. Webb was called, and said death was due to drowning.

Higgins left his home about midnight of Tuesday, last week, and immediately search was taken up by his relatives, and by Brunswick police and the Deputy Sheriff William B. Edwards. No trace of him could be found, and police were convinced that he had wandered away to his death somewhere.

Two stepsons, Ernest and Myron Pulsifer, continued to search during the week, and located the body Sunday. They immediately notified Deputy Sheriff Edwards and the medical examiner.

Higgins was a native of West Bath, the son of John and Charlotte Higgins. He lived in Harpswell for many years, and came to Brunswick nearly thirty years ago. His occupation was farming. He was a charter member of West Bath Grange, where he often attended meetings.

He is survived by his wife, Jennie, and a brother, Cyrenus. There are also stepchildren; Ernest and Myron of Brunswick, Paul of Harpswell, and Delia Douglas of Brunswick.

ANOTHER HOLIDAY

Close on the heels of an unusually happy Christmas comes another week-end holiday.

New Year's Eve this year offers the celebrant plenty of choice in entertainment. The big community time will be the Charity Ball in Brunswick Town Hall. This year, for the first time, the Charity Ball is being held on New Year's Eve to provide any and all in the community with a full evening's entertainment at low cost. For many years Bath has held her Charity Ball on New Year's Eve and it has now become a huge social and financial success there. Those supporting our party in Brunswick this year will have the additional satisfaction of knowing that their support and attendance will help in future years to relieve distress among many a needy family.

The Brunswick Lions Club is planning a New Year's Eve party at Hotel Eagle which will attract many members and guests. This party has become an annual affair and is always an enjoyable one.

The Cumberland Theatre has arranged a midnight show on the holiday eve from 12 to 2.

In addition there will be some private parties at homes throughout the community, but the sponsors of the Charity Ball hope that if it becomes an annual affair on New Year's Eve, it will take the place of many of these private parties.

On the real holiday, Saturday, there will be opportunity for the usual visiting between folks and the giving and receiving of greetings. For the football fan, the radio will provide several hours broadcast of the four "bowl" games.

And on Sunday there will be a day of rest after all the excitement, during which we can catch up on our sleep and prepare for the real beginning of the new year—for most of us—on Monday.

FORWARD!

It should be with few regrets that we see 1937 steal away into oblivion. When first he arrived, he was a husky, rosy-cheeked youngster with prospects galore ahead of him. But instead of encouraging his normal, steady growth into stalwart manhood and then comfortable old age, we decided to experiment.

We gave him shots in the arm to stimulate his growth so that he was middle-aged long before he was six victim he is usually pictured, but definitely contributes to his own doom.

The National Safety Council suggests five simple and practical things the pedestrian can do to keep the Dark Angel at a safe distance:

First, obey traffic signals the same as good drivers do.

Second, learn the laws and ordinances in effect in state and town to regulate traffic from the pedestrian's point of view—his rights and his duties.

Third, having done this, the pedestrian is in a position to demand a better acceptance of their obligations by drivers.

Fourth, take a greater interest in traffic problems, and especially in the placement and operation of traffic signals and pedestrian islands.

Fifth, it will be found through these studies that major reductions in the number and severity of accidents to pedestrians can be easily achieved.

The man on foot must contribute his share to the cause of safety, as well as the man at the wheel. Many pedestrians believe they should be allowed to commit almost any traffic error. The sad results of that notion are found in the daily accident figures.

IT'S UP TO CONGRESS NOW

The nation's leading bankers, replying to a recent questionnaire, expressed the opinion that the current slump in American business would run its course in about 4 months, and not develop into a new depression.

They qualified this statement, however, by saying that an upturn is dependent largely upon a change in the attitude of the government toward industry.

Finally, they proposed five distinct recovery measures, in the following order ,all of which are in the power of Congress to effect:

1. Repeal of the undistributed earnings tax.

2. Balancing the budget.

3. Lowering the tax on capital gains.

4. Effecting increases in rail rates to provide a reasonable return on investment.

5. Encouragement to the utilities, in the interest of expansion.

It is certainly no coincidence that this list of measures, proposed by bankers heading 125 institutions with total deposits of more than $12,000,000,000, is in entire accord with the proposals of a legion of other experts, including many men high in government service. Tax reform—a sane fiscal policy—a friendly attitude toward the great basic industries which normally provide the bulk of American investment, purchasing and employment: These are essential not only to recovery and the prevention of another depression, but to eventual permanent stability.

In other words, it is high time Congress did more thinking about recovery, and less about "reform"—especially reforms of the half-baked, experimental nature we have been witnessing in confused abundance the last few years. As a number of authorities are saying, the question of

Mrs. Lemieux Wins

The winner in this week's "Menu Contest" is Mrs. Victor J. Lemieux, 10 Columbia avenue, who submitted a well-balanced menu for a roast beef dinner—each item clipped from grocery store ads, as they appeared in last week's Record.

If Mrs. Lemieux will step into The Record Office she will be given her choice of prizes—a dollar bill or a ticket good for a meal at Hotel Eagle at Mrs. Lemieux' convenience.

This concludes the Menu Contest. For two weeks women—mostly—have been clipping Brunswick Record ads and trying to formulate a menu that would win a prize. To all The Record extends its thanks for making the contest successful.

FINDS SECOND FIRE IN KELLEY GARAGE

Discovering fires in the Leon H. Kelley garage is getting to be an old story with Arthur St. Pierre, street foreman of the Brunswick and Topsham Water District.

The truck he operates is put in that garage every night, and he goes to get it in the early morning, before the day's work at the garage has started. Last week he discovered a little blaze, one that hadn't got very yet, but which would have caused heavy damage if it had gone undiscovered until the regular garage crew showed up. The department was called, and the fire was put out.

Some time ago St. Pierre discovered a similar blaze under exactly the same circumstances in the same garage, and by his prompt action a serious blaze was averted then.

DR. NEVINS TO BE LEGION SPEAKER

At the American Legion meeting next Wednesday night Dr. George Nevins of Boothbay Harbor, formerly of Brunswick, will show motion pictures he made of a recent pilgrimage to World War battlefields in France.

Dr. Nevins went to France just after the recent American Legion convention in New York. All the pictures he will show were made by himself, and will be of interest to his friends and Legion members.

At the same meeting "Chef" Philip Meserve will prepare an unusual treat for the group.

On Wednesday evening of this week the executive committee of the Legion post met and discussed preliminary plans for the annual American Legion Fair to come in Town Hall in February.

WARD AND LEWIS TO OPEN NEW STORE

The space at 212C Maine street, formerly occupied by Hogan Brothers and other men's clothing shops, is to be opened on January third as a combination radio and electric shop and music studio.

Ernest E. Ward and Donald E. Lewis will conduct the shop, the former handling the radio and electric portion, and the latter having his students visit him there. Later a line of sheet music and musical supplies may be installed.

The store has been remodeled, and when opened next Monday will offer a pleasing addition to the Maine street scene.

AUTO EXCISE TAXES ARE OVER $10,000

Tax Collector Wilfrid A. Lapointe has closed his automobile excise tax books for 1937, and reports an increase over any past year.

For the first time in history Brunswick automobile owners paid over ten thousand dollars in excise taxes. In 1936 the total excises paid were $9,587.25—the biggest year up to that time. This year the total was $10,661.87, an increase of $1,074.62.

The books are closed as soon as it becomes legal to install the license plates of the following year—usually on Christmas day. New cars registered this week will be included in the 1938 total, to be taken a year from now.

GIFT OF $250 MADE TO OLD FOLKS HOME

The building fund is accumulating for the purpose of adding to the home in order to accommodate more persons.

Topsham Pair Die In Bath Crash Today

Three persons were killed in a truck-station wagon crash on Witch Spring Hill in Bath early this afternoon. Two of the dead were identified as Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Pulsifer of Topsham. James Brooks, 65, of Lisbon Falls, a passenger, also died in the crash.

Police said a Sunbeam Bread truck proceeding west on Rte. 1 skidded on the hill and struck the station wagon, registered to Pulsifer, which was travelling in the opposite direction.

Police said the driver of the truck was Roger Duhamel of Biddeford who was hospitalized. His condition was not immediately known.

Pulsifer, 65, owned and operated a portable sawmill on New Lewiston Rd. in Topsham.

Brunswick Selectmen Consider Decisions Of Planning Board

Recommendations of the planning board on three subjects — school land acquisition, construction of a causeway linking the Harpswells and plans for government-owned Capehart Act housing — were considered by the Brunswick selectmen at their regular monthly meeting this week.

Letters from the planning board reported that it favors the land acquisition and the causeway, but is concerned about lack of information on the Navy's plans for Capehart housing.

No action was taken on any of the recommendations. In each case there was a reason for delaying a decision.

It is proposed to extend the present Coffin School lot about 400 feet westerly and give better access to the Regional Memorial Hospital site.

Principal Connecting Street

Present thinking for Baribeau Drive is for it to be an 80-foot-wide street, much wider than most streets, and for it to serve as a principal connection between McKeen Rd. and Pleasant Hill Rd. Planners believe that the area south of McKeen Rd. and west of South Stanwood St. will develop very rapidly. Having been given its first impetus by the erection of Coffin School there three years ago, the area is already the site of a large housing development (Bowdoin Park) and is the chosen

Auburn's Situation

In Auburn activity was very slow with election workers finding the hot weather harder to contend with rather than a flow of voters.

Up until noon today the Auburn voters had turned out in only small numbers to ring up a weak total of 769 votes.

The polls in the Shoe City looked almost barren at the morning session with the most activity being seen at the Ward Three polling place at the city building. However, the voting was not the heaviest at that building.

The heaviest voting was at the Ward One polling place, Washburn School.

Surprisingly, Ward Five, which is notably a very busy place during any election, was just about the quietest polling spot in town shortly before noon today.

However, while there was a lack of voting all over the Shoe City the ward workers reported that many voters had enrolled at the polls.

The Tally

The tally up to noon looked this way.

Ward One, 190; Ward Two, 174; and talk soon. I figure."

Car Impounded

The car in which O'Keefe was seen last Wednesday was impounded by police early today after it was spotted by two detectives in Roxbury.

A search revealed a trunkful of camping equipment, including blankets, a stove and packages of food. Detectives also found stains on the front and back seats which they said would be examined by chemists to determine if they were made by blood.

The car was being driven by Donald O'Keefe, 36, the wanted man's brother, who said he did not know where his brother is. Police quoted him as saying he had the car since last Thursday and that he had used the camping equipment during the weekend.

O'Keefe was cited by the FBI as a "principal suspect" in the Brink's $1,219,000 robbery 4½ years ago but a federal grand jury which investigated the theft returned no indictments.

Cited For Contempt

He and Carlson were cited for contempt of court in connection with that grand jury investigation but both later were cleared.

O'Keefe now is wanted as a material witness against Elmer Burke 37, a New York hoodlum who was picked up here Thursday night.

Police said Burke admitted spraying O'Keefe with a submachine gun outside the housing project. The New York man is wanted in his home city for the slaying of a drinking companion in a Ninth Avenue bar in July, 1952. He also is wanted for questioning in about five other New York slayings.

Byrne quoted Carlson as saying he helped O'Keefe after he was shot and that he is "still alive, unless something happened to him since."

Byrne quoted Carlson as saying: "I got a telephone call from O'Keefe after midnight last Wednesday. It came from a telephone booth near where the gun battle happened. Specs said to me 'I'm hurt.' I got over to him fast. I met Specs not far from where the trouble happened.
