MAJOR THOMAS SAVAGE AND THE FORCES
UNDER HIM.

MAJOR THOMAS SAVAGE was born in Taunton, Somerset Co., England, son of William Savage. Came in the "Planter" to Boston, April, 1635, aged 27. Admitted freeman in May following; was an original member of the Artillery Company, and was chosen its captain in 1651, and several times afterwards. He married Faith, daughter of William and Ann Hutchinson, in 1637, and for sharing the views of Ann and her brother-in-law, Rev. John Wheelwright, he was disarmed by the Court, and joined with Coddington and others in the purchase of Rhode Island, whither he removed in 1638, but returned the same year. By his wife Faith he had seven children between 1638 and 1652. Faith died February 20, 1652, and the following September he married Mary Symmes, daughter of Rev. Zechariah, of Charlestown, by whom he had eleven more children. He was almost constantly in public office, and was especially prominent in all the military affairs of the town from 1651 onward. He was captain of 2d Boston militia company from 1652 to his death in 1682.

It is the purpose, in this chapter, to give as fully as possible the operations under Major Savage, and facts connected with this Mt. Hope campaign, and the names of men serving with him not previously mentioned, so that our account of the campaign may be considered complete. Some details of the opening preparations are here given, as being rather connected with the movements of the general force than separate companies.

It will be remembered that the first actual attack of Philip was upon those people of Swansea who lived nearest to him. An account of this attack was sent to the Massachusetts Council by Gov. Josiah Winslow of Marshfield. His letter is in Mass. Archives, vol. 67, page 202, dated June 21st, and says the attack was made on the day before, and asks the Massachusetts Colony for aid only in protecting them from the alliance of Philip with the Narraganset and Nipmuck¹ Indians, which tribes are within some who to make themselves faultless lay the fault upon him, which might be easily evinced to a national man. We killed of the French at our coming ashore above thirty, as some, who have made a computation of what they saw in several places lay dead, say. We lay not far from the shore, and the General sent his boat ashore with an old french woman to treat about change of prisoners, which we did, and changed 17 we had taken, for 17 english prisoners that had been with them a pretty while. Our prisoners informed us of the truth of the quality of men in the town, as is above; and that if we had gone over the river, we had certainly been destroyed; so that I looked there was a Providence of God in it; yet if they had send ammunnition and provision we had certainly been with them.

THOMAS SAVAGE.

MAJOR THOMAS SAVAGE.

Major Thomas Savage was born and baptized in Boston, 17 May, 1640, a son of Major Thomas and Faith (Hutchinson) Savage, a grandson of the famous Ann Hutchinson. He married about 1664 Elizabeth, daughter of Joshua Scottow. He became a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company in 1665; first sergeant in 1674, and ensign in 1681. A leader in the 1690 expedition. He held the rank of lieutenant-colonel of the Boston Regiment in 1702. He was a member of the Old South Church, and died 2 July, 1705, and was buried on the 5th at about seven in the evening, escorted by the military through the principal street of the town, thronged with the people.

OF BOSTON

AND HIS DESCENDANTS

MAJOR THOMAS SAVAGE OF BOSTON AND HIS DESCENDANTS

1. THOMAS¹ SAVAGE was born, probably in England, in 1607 or 1608. He embarked from London in the ship Planter, Nic^o Trarice, master, in Apr. 1635, having been certified by the minister of St. Albans, Hertfordshire. In the list of the ship's passengers he is called a tailor, and his age is given as 27, which corresponds with his age as given by him in a deposition dated 26 (9) 1664, in which he states that he is about 57 years old (Essex County Files, vol. 10, p. 59). According to his descendant, Hon. James Savage, the noted antiquarian of Boston, he was a son of William Savage, a blacksmith of Taunton in Somersetshire, and was apprenticed by his father 9 Jan. 1620/1 to the Merchant Taylors Guild of London. Aside from this statement, I have found nothing to show that Thomas Savage had any connection with William, the blacksmith of Taunton. In his will, dated 28 June 1675 but probably written some years earlier, Thomas Savage leaves money to "my coz Leonard Savage in Barbadoes" "to my sister." The sister's name is written in the will, but it is ult to decipher. It is, however, apparently "Perking." These two bequests, together with another to his son Arthur, who was probably dead when the will was dated, are interlined in the original, and do not appear in the copy of the will on file in the Suffolk Registry of Probate in Boston. In the registers of the church of St. John sub-Castro at Lewes, co. Sussex, is recorded the burial, 9 Nov. 1617, of Leonard Savage, mercer and householder. In the will of Henry Crabbe of St. Gregory, London, merchant tailor, dated 25 Nov. 1620, mention is made of William, Margaret, and Anne (all under 21 years), children of Leonard Savage, deceased, "my late master," who is doubtless the same man who was buried at Lewes in 1617. In 1784 Samuel Phillips Savage, a great-grandson of Thomas Savage, compiled a chart of the family from information given him before her death in 1755 by his grandmother Hannah (Gillam) Phillips, a granddaughter of Thomas Savage, and by Mrs. Joshua Wells (Sarah Savage), another granddaughter. Mrs. Phillips was born in Boston in 1662, twenty years before her grandfather Savage died, and doubtless derived the information directly from him. In this chart, which is now in the possession of a descendant of the compiler, it is stated that Thomas Savage was a linen draper (mercier) and had two brothers in England, one of whom was Arthur, "Dean of Carlisle," while the other, name unknown, lived about fifty miles from London, which is the distance between London and Lewes. Arthur Savage, I find upon investigation, was not dean of Carlisle, but a prebendary or vice-decanus of the Cathedral of Carlisle, and in his will made in 1698 he bequeathed money to Arthur, James, and Elizabeth, the children of his nephew James Savage, a sadler of Lewes. Arthur Savage matriculated at Oxford 16 Mar. 1637/8 at the age of 16, and in the catalogue of Oxford University graduates he is called a son of John Savage, Esq., "of Wootton Hall in the County of Salop." It seems impossible to identify this estate, and researches thus far have not disclosed any will of a John Savage in Shropshire. If Thomas Savage's father was named William, it is a little strange that he gave his father's name to none of his twelve sons. He did, however, call one son Arthur, a name which has since been frequently used in the family, and named another Richard, which was also the name of a Savage who married at Lewes in 1673.

In the January after his arrival Thomas Savage was admitted to the church in Boston. In the following month he was given seven acres of marsh ground at Muddy River, now Brookline, Mass., "for the keeping of his cattle (being in number, five)" (Boston Records), and on 25 May 1636 he was made a freeman of the town of Boston, upon whose records his name appears with frequency during the remainder of his life. In the religious controversy in which his mother-in-law, the famous Mistress Anne Hutchinson, became involved, Savage was one of her adherents, and previous to her trial was disarmed and obliged to leave Boston, as he did apparently late in 1637. With William Coddington, William Hutchinson, and others, Savage purchased Aquidneck of the natives, and began the settlement of Rhode Island. Soon after his arrival at Aquidneck Savage recanted, and was allowed to return to Boston, where he was again settled, probably as early as June 1638. In 1637 he became a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston, where his name stands fourth on the roll of membership, and in 1651 he succeeded Capt. Robert Keayne as captain of the Company, holding this position again in 1659, 1668, 1675, and 1680. In 1651 and 1652 he was the recorder or town clerk of Boston, and a selectman in 1652. On 12 Mar. 1653/4 Savage, with one other, was chosen to represent Boston in the General Court, holding that position until 1657. He was again a representative from 1659 to 1662, and in 1677 and 1678, and held the office of assistant from 1680 to his death. In 1669 he was one of the founders and members of the Third (Old South) Church, and was a liberal contributor toward establishing a free school in Boston. In 1673 he, with others, erected a barricade in Boston Harbor for protection against an expected attack upon Boston by the Dutch. This barricade eventually grew into Long Wharf, portions of which have ever since been owned by some of his descendants. In 1675, at the beginning of King Philip's War, Savage was appointed to the chief command of the Massachusetts forces, Denison, the major-general, being prevented by illness from participating, and on 28 June he set out upon the campaign at the head of a force numbering about three hundred men. Upon their arrival at the Wampanoag country in the northeastern portion of Rhode Island they found that Philip and his forces had fled, and peace being soon declared, Savage and his men returned to Boston, where the army was disbanded. Philip, however, was soon again upon the war-path, and in the spring of 1676 Savage was once more placed at the head of the Massachusetts troops and acquitted himself with distinction during the remainder of the war.

According to the Book of Possessions, Savage's house and garden were on the north side of the present Bennet Street, near Scarlet's Wharf, where afterwards stood the King's Head Tavern. At the same time he was the owner of a farm in Braintree, containing about 65 acres, 26 acres of which he sold early to James Everill of Boston. He afterwards increased his holdings in Braintree to nearly 2500 acres. In 1656 Savage built a new house "between the drawbridge and the conduit," on the southerly side of the present North Street, near Dock Square, on land which he had purchased two years earlier for £130. In the deed of this purchase he is called a "merchant," and his shop stood on what is now the easterly corner of Washington Street and Adams Square.

He married first, probably in Boston in 1637, FAITH HUTCHINSON, who was baptized at Alford, co. Lincoln, England, 14 Aug. 1617, and died in Boston 20 Feb. 1651/2, daughter of William and Anne (Marbury), who came to Boston in 1634. He married secondly, in Boston, 15 Sept. 1652, Increase Nowell officiating, MARY SYMMES, who was born at Dunstable, co. Bedford, England, 9 Apr. 1628, daughter of Rev. Zechariah of Charlestown, Mass., who came to Boston in 1634 in the same ship with the Hutchinsons.

Maj. Savage died suddenly in Boston 15 Feb. 1681/2, and was buried in the burial-ground now adjoining King's Chapel, where his tomb, upon which are engraved the arms of the Savages of Rock-Savage, may still be seen. On 28 June 1675 he dated his will, by which he appointed John Hull and Isaac Addington overseers, and his sons Thomas, Ephraim, and Perez his executors, and disposed of property amounting, as shown by the appraisal of his estate, to nearly £3500. Among the items of the inventory are arms and armor valued at £5; plate, gold, and rings, £29. 10s. 1½d.; servants, £83; pewter, £11. 9s. 6d.; books, £2. 10s.; and debts of £644. 8s. 6d. In the real estate are included his house and land in Boston, land at the South End of Boston and a "parte of the out wharfe," Hog (now Bred's) Island, a farm at "Romly Marsh," and lands in Braintree and Lynn. His portrait, showing him in military dress and painted in 1679 by an unknown artist, is in the possession of a descendant, and is reproduced in Winsor's Memorial History of Boston, vol. 1, p. 318.

Maj. Savage's widow, who became a member of the Third Church in 1674, was married, between 7 Dec. 1683 and 10 Apr. 1684, as his fourth wife, to Anthony Stoddard, who, when he died on 16 Mar. 1686/7, was called by Sewall "the ancientest shop-keeper in Town." Mrs. Stoddard died in Boston 18 July 1710, and was buried, the day following her death, in the Savage tomb. In her will, made 5 Feb. 1697/8 and proved 21 July 1710, she gives to her daughter Sarah Higginson her "Molatto Girl named Ann and also all the wrought plate;" to her son-in-law John Higginson her "Great bible;" to the two children of her grandson John Higginson, Jr., a silver spoon each, of the value of fifteen shillings; and the remainder of her estate is to be equally divided between her six grandchildren, the five children of John Higginson and the daughter of her deceased son Ebenezer Savage. She appoints John Higginson and his wife Sarah her executors.

On 29 June 1689 he was chosen one of its wardens. In Apr. 1689 he was imprisoned for sympathizing with the policies of Gov. † John Stark Ravenscroft, b. 1772, d. 1830, a great-great-grandson of Samuel and Dyonisia (Savage) Ravenscroft, was the first Bishop of North Carolina.

"young martial spark" Hubbard quaintly calls him,* and a "noble heroic youth" says Capt. Benj. Church. Later he carried on trade between Boston, London, and Cadiz. He was in London in Sept. 1690, about to sail for Malaga, and in the following Nov. he was in Deal, "waighting A faire wind to go to sea: for Malago and here Againe." He was again in London in Oct. 1691. A contribution was taken up in the Dorchester churches on 23 Jan. 1693/4 for the purpose of ransoming Savage and his nephew Thomas Thacher, who had fallen into the hands of Barbary pirates. Just when this capture took place has not yet been discovered, but Savage and his nephew and other members of the ship's crew were imprisoned at Mequinez (now Meknez), Morocco, and there on 24 May 1694, "in my Sick Bed," Savage made a will, and probably d. soon after. He never married. When Savage was in London, 8 Sept. 1690, "being bound out on a Voyage to Sea," he made a will, by which he left £10 each to his brothers Thomas, Ephraim, and Benjamin, and to his sisters Hannah Silvester, Mary Thatcher, Dionitia Ravenscroft, and Sarah Higginson, and to each of them a ring of 20 shillings in value; to his nephew Thomas Thacher £50, and to his brother Thomas Savage "my Silver hilted Rapier which was left me by my Father." All the remainder of his estate, after the debts and above-mentioned bequests had been paid, he left to his brother Thomas, and appointed him his executor. This will, which was witnessed by Rob^t Granvill, David Kally, Tho: Thatcher, and Ju^o Towne, was signed at "Snelgroves dock Wapping," and was proved at Boston 18 Apr. 1695, nearly a year after Savage's death. In his later will, made in Morocco 24 May 1694, he leaves to "Robert Carver a French Lewes, to Henry in the Jewdree a ducat of Gold, To John Borch & Elias Fortune a Ducat in Silver a piece, and Elias a Jackett & to Joanas, the Thirty three Bla^s [blankets?] as he Owes me," and the remainder of his estate, "that lyes now in the hands of Mr Rich^d Hill Merch^t in Cadix or London, New England or any other part where I am concern'd," is to be given to his nephew Thomas Thacher. This will was proved in London 11 May 1702. On 10 Nov. 1708 the first will of Perez Savage was revoked in favor of the Mequinez will by Judge Addington of the Suffolk Probate Court, Addington having been the register under Judge Stoughton who granted letters of administration on the first will thirteen years previously. Later, however, Elizabeth (Scottow) Savage, widow of Thomas, the executor mentioned in the first will, instituted proceedings in the Court of Arches in London before Sir Charles Hedges, which resulted in a reversal of the decree of Addington in support of the second will and established the right of the appellant under the first or Boston will, "perhaps," says Savage, "with the concurrence of Thacher." (Savage's Gen. Dictionary, vol. 4, pp. 25-6.)

† John Stark Ravenscroft, b. 1772, d. 1830, a great-great-grandson of Samuel and Dyonisia (Savage) Ravenscroft, was the first Bishop of North Carolina.

"young martial spark" Hubbard quaintly calls him,* and a "noble heroic youth" says Capt. Benj. Church. Later he carried on trade between Boston, London, and Cadiz. He was in London in Sept. 1690, about to sail for Malaga, and in the following Nov. he was in Deal, "waighting A faire wind to go to sea: for Malago and here Againe." He was again in London in Oct. 1691. A contribution was taken up in the Dorchester churches on 28 Jan. 1693/4 for the purpose of ransoming Savage and his nephew Thomas Thacher, who had fallen into the hands of Barbary pirates. Just when this capture took place has not yet been discovered, but Savage and his nephew and other members of the ship's crew were imprisoned at Mequinez (now Meknez), Morocco, and there on 24 May 1694, "in my Sick Bed," Savage made a will, and probably d. soon after. He never married. When Savage was in London, 8 Sept. 1690, "being bound out on a Voyage to Sea," he made a will, by which he left £10 each to his brothers Thomas, Ephraim, and Benjamin, and to his sisters Hannah Sylvester, Mary Thacher, Dionitia Ravenscroft, and Sarah Higginson, and to each of them a ring of 20 shillings in value; to his nephew Thomas Thacher £50, and to his brother Thomas Savage "my Silver hilted Rapier which was left me by my Father." All the remainder of his estate, after the debts and above-mentioned bequests had been paid, he left to his brother Thomas, and appointed him his executor. This will, which was witnessed by Robt Granvill, David Kally, Tho: Thacher, and Jno Towne, was signed at "Snelgroves dock Wapping," and was proved at Boston 18 Apr. 1695, nearly a year after Savage's death. In his later will, made in Morocco 24 May 1694, he leaves to "Robert Carver a French Lewes, to Henry in the Jewdree a ducat of Gold, To John Borch & Elias Fortune a Ducat in Silver a piece, and Elias a Jackett & to Joanas, the Thirty three Bla" [blankets?] as he Owes me," and the remainder of his estate, "that lyes now in the hands of M^r Rich^d Hill Merch^t in Cadix or London, New England or any other part where I am concern'd." is to be given to his nephew Thomas Thacher. This will was proved in London 11 May 1702. On 10 Nov. 1708 the first will of Perez Savage was revoked in favor of the Mequinez will by Judge Addington of the Suffolk Probate Court, Addington having been the register under Judge Stoughton who granted letters of administration on the first will thirteen years previously. Later, however, Elizabeth (Scottow) Savage, widow of Thomas, the executor mentioned in the first will, instituted proceedings in the Court of Arches in London before Sir Charles Hedges, which resulted in a reversal of the decree of Addington in support of the second will and established the right of the appellant under the first or Boston will, "perhaps," says Savage, "with the concurrence of Thacher" (Savage's Gen. Dictionary, vol. 4, pp. 25-6.)

JOHN HIGGINSON, b. at Guildford, Conn., 1646; d. at Salem 23 Mar. 1719/20, son of Rev. John and Sarah (Whitfield) of Salem. John Higginson was one of the great merchants of Salem, and held many public offices. In 1678 he was chosen to keep the town books and was frequently selectman. He was deputy from Salem, 1685, 1689 and 1691, and a member of the Council from 1700 until his death. He was also county treasurer and justice of the Court of Common Pleas. He was commissioned ensign

* "Ensign Savage, that young martial spark, scarce twenty years of age, had at that time one bullet lodged in his thigh, another shot through the brim of his hat, by ten or twelve of the enemy discharging upon him together, while he boldly held up his colours in the front of his company." (Hubbard, Narrative of the Indian Wars in New-England.)

against Quebec, being the first officer to land. On 7 Oct. 1690 his ship ran aground in the St. Lawrence River, within gunshot of the shore, but was floated by Sir William. He returned to Boston with the expedition on 19 Nov., and wrote "An Account of the late action of the New-Englanders under the command of Sir William Phips, against the French at Canada," which was published in London in 1691.* He became a merchant in Boston, and in many deeds calls himself, or is called, "Shop-keeper." He became a member of the Third (Old South) Church in 1702, his wife having been admitted to this church two years earlier. He was one of the executors of his father's will, and was attorney for his brother Perez, who was often absent in England and Spain. He lived on Ann (now North) Street, and had a warehouse adjoining on Scottow's (now Scott) Alley, which in 1732 was sold by the other heirs to his son Habijah.

He married about 1664 ELIZABETH SCOTTOW, baptized 1 Aug. 1647, "aged about 2 days," died in Boston 29 Aug. 1714, daughter of Capt. Joshua and Lydia of Boston.

He died in Boston 2 July 1705, and three days later was given a military funeral, with the "Street," says Sewall, "very much fill'd with People all along." He was buried in his father's tomb in King's Chapel Burial-Ground. His will, made 23 Feb. 1697/8 and proved 21 July 1705, appoints his wife sole executrix and leaves his property both real and personal to her for her life, and after her death it is to be equally divided between his six children. If, however, his wife should remarry, then one half of the property is to be divided between his children and the other half is to go to his wife for her life and to be disposed of by her among his children and grandchildren. To his son Thomas he gives "my Silver hilted Sword that was my Fathers and my fringed Scarfe," to his son Habijah "my Seal Ring that was my Fathers," and to his son Arthur "my little Birding piece."

In 1728 he purchased from the heirs of his wife's grandfather, Capt. 4. EPHRAIM² SAVAGE (Thomas¹), born in Boston 20 July 1645 and baptized at the First Church in Boston 27 July 1645, was probably a scholar at the Boston Latin School in 1654. He entered Harvard College in 1658, and was graduated in 1662, and at the time of his death was the oldest living graduate of that institution and the sole survivor of his class. He was made a freeman 15 May 1672, took the oath of allegiance 11 Nov. 1678, and became a trader in Boston. In 1674 he became a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company, and in 1683 was elected its captain, after holding minor offices in the Company. On 5 May 1676 he was ordered by the General Court to march to Brookfield, Mass., with provisions for the relief of the garrison there, and to take command of the garrison. At the session of 22 Oct. 1677 he was appointed ensign in his father's company of militia, and on 17 Mar. 1681/2 succeeded his father as captain of the company. At the session of 10 Oct. 1683 he was "added vnto the committee for the ouersight of the repajres of the Castle." About 1688 he removed to Reading, Mass., the home of his second wife, where he became the wealthiest and most influential citizen of the town. In July 1690 he was appointed captain of a company of men from Reading and elsewhere in Middlesex Co., under Maj. Nathaniel Wade of Medford, in Sir William Phips's expedition against Quebec; and in the assault upon the town on 10 Oct. his ship, with sixty men on board, "ran a-ground upon the North-Shoar, near two Miles from Quebec," but, although attacked violently by two or three hundred of the enemy, escaped capture. He was, however, so badly wounded in his left thigh that his life was despaired of, and in Mar. 1697 the Province voted him a yearly pension to date from the day on which he was wounded. He probably returned to Boston from Reading in the late spring of 1692, and in that year was elected town clerk of Boston, an office which he held until 1696, being also a selectman, sealer of weights and measures, and an assessor of the town. On 12 Mar. 1703/4 he was one of a committee chosen by the inhabitants of the district of Muddy River (now Brookline), Mass., "to consider and draw up" a petition to be presented to the General Court praying "that they may be dismissed from the Town of Boston, & become a Township of themselves." In 1703-8 and again in 1710 he represented Boston in the General Court, and in 1709-10 was once more elected a selectman. He was for several years an officer in the Boston militia. On 11 July 1707, as captain, with fifty men under his command, he arrived at Casco Bay in the frigate Ruth, and joined the campaign under Col. John March of Newbury, as general, in an abortive attempt to reduce Port Royal, supposed to be headquarters for privateers in carrying on an illegal business with the Indians. In a few weeks this expedition returned to Boston. In Nov. 1714 Savage presented a petition to the justices of Suffolk Co., praying for an allowance for serving as the sheriff of the county, and for taking care of the "Goal" of the county "and the prisoners therein." The great fire of 1711 started in one of his out-buildings, near his house in Savage's (now Williams) Court. Late in 1717 or early in 1718 he removed from Boston to some place as yet unknown, but this absence was probably of short duration. In a letter from Governor Shute to Father Rale, under date of 21 Feb. 1717/18, Savage's conduct as magistrate in punishing Indians is excused on the ground that "If the Indians or French come into our towns, they must observe the laws of the land and that he did not otherwise with the Indians than he would have done by English people in like circumstances."

He married first, about 1670, MARY QUINCY, born 4 Mar. 1649/50, died in Boston 7 Oct. 1676, eldest daughter of Edmund and Joanna (Hoar) of Braintree, the latter being a sister of Leonard Hoar, President of Harvard College from 1672 to 1674/5. He married secondly, in Boston, Maj. Thomas Clarke officiating, 26 Feb. 1677/8, Mrs. SARAH (HOUGH) WALKER, daughter of Rev. Samuel and Sarah (Symmes) of Reading, and widow of Obadiah, a Boston merchant. Her mother was a daughter of Rev. Zechariah Symmes of Charlestown, Mass., and a sister of Ephraim Savage's stepmother. She was born at Reading about 1652, and died in Boston, according to Sewall, 12 Jan. 1686/7, of smallpox, which "came out upon her about a week ago two or three dayes after her Travail." She was buried on the following day in the Savage tomb in King's Chapel

Burial-Ground. He married thirdly, in Boston, 12 Apr. 1688, Mrs. ELIZABETH (NORTON) SYMMES, daughter of Capt. Francis and Mary of Charlestown, and widow of Timothy, who was a brother of Ephraim Savage's stepmother. She was born probably at Charlestown about 1643, and died in Boston 13 Apr. 1710, being buried about sunset on 16 Apr. with "Winthrop, Sewall; Addington, Sergeant; Walley, Belchar" as bearers. This third marriage was solemnized by Rev. Charles Morton of Charlestown, and is one of the earliest of the New England marriages of which there is any record at which a clergyman officiated. He married fourthly, in Boston, 8 Jan. 1712/13, Mrs. ELIZABETH (BROWNE) BUTLER, daughter of Abraham and Elizabeth (Usher) of Boston, and widow (with six children) of Peter, mariner and merchant of Boston. She was born in Boston 17 Nov. 1664, but the date of her death is unknown. Soon after this marriage Savage was appointed guardian of his wife's minor children.

He died in Boston, and was buried there 2 Mar. 1730/1, in his eighty-sixth year. He was one of the executors of his father's will, and probably the last survivor of his father's children. His own will, made 3 Dec. 1730 and proved 22 Mar. 1730/1, leaves the principal part of his property to his wife Elizabeth and a gold ring to each of her three children by her former husband, besides remembering his three daughters.

Child by third wife:

- x. HANNAH, b. at Reading 4 May 1689. Marriage intentions between Thomas Sober of Barbadoes and Hannah Savage were filed in Boston 25 Dec. 1711, but were forbidden by her father. She m. (1) in Boston, 30 Jan. 1711/12, JOHN BUTLER, son of Peter and Elizabeth (Browne) of Boston, whose mother about a year later became the fourth wife of Ephraim Savage and Hannah (Savage) Butler's stepmother. He was b. in Boston 21 Jan. 1686/7, d. at Arrowsic, Me., 25 Sept. 1726, was a mariner, and was living at Arrowsic as early as July 1718. On 8 July 1727 his widow was living in Boston. She m. (2) in Boston, 3 Aug. 1730, PHILIP PARMENTER, a mariner, of Boston, whose parentage, birth, and death have not been found. He made a will 8 Feb. 1744/5, "being bound to sea," which was proved 10 Feb. 1745/6; and as he makes therein no mention of his wife, she was probably not living, but no record of her death appears. Children by first husband: 1. John, b. in Boston 17 Jan. 1712/13; no further record. 2. Elizabeth, b. in Boston 6 Aug. 1716; no further record.

5. THOMAS³ SAVAGE (Habijah,² *Thomas*¹), born in Boston 19 Oct. 1664, a goldsmith and silversmith, was admitted a freeman on 22 Mar. 1689/90. He became a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company in 1693, its first sergeant in 1700, ensign in 1701, lieutenant in 1703, and captain in 1705. On 12 Mar. 1693/4 he was chosen a clerk of the market for the ensuing year, and on 8 Mar. 1696/7 a constable. At the end of 1705 or early in 1706 Savage removed with his family to Bermuda, for in Feb. 1705/6, and again as late as May 1713, he is called "of Bermuda." Probably in 1714 he left Bermuda permanently, and on 30 Oct. of that year he was back in Boston. In Mar. 1716/17 he and his wife are "of Boston," and sell land on Pudding Lane to Mrs. Savage's brother, Samuel Phillips. On 14 June 1725 Savage was chosen by the town to serve as sealer of weights and measures, an office which he held until, "being grown infirm," he was relieved of his duties 19 Mar. 1735/6. On 2 July 1738 he was dismissed from the First Church in Boston "to a chh in Newbury M^r Lowell Pastor," but he had probably removed to Newbury at least a year or more before his dismissal from the Boston church. There, living near his married daughter, Mary, he passed the remainder of his life.

He married in Boston, 5 Feb. 1689/90, MRS. MEHITABEL (PHILLIPS) HARWOOD, born in Boston and baptized 21 July 1667, died at Newbury, Mass., 6 June 1737, daughter of Henry and Mary (Dwight) of Boston, and widow of Benjamin of Boston, mariner, to whom she was married prior to 1687 and by whom she had two children.

Thomas Savage died at Newbury 23 Aug. 1749, and was buried beside his wife in the Old Hill Burying-Ground, where their grave-stones may still be seen. No record of any will or of any settlement of the estate either of Thomas Savage or of his wife appears. At least one example of his craftsmanship exists in a silver caudle-cup owned by the First Congregational Church of Quincy, upon which is found his mark, T S, with a star below, the whole enclosed in a heart.

6. THOMAS³ SAVAGE (Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), born in Boston 2 Aug. 1668, was probably a scholar at the Boston Latin School in 1677. In a "List of Inhabitants in Boston in 1695," Savage is called "mariner," but later being prominent in the military affairs of Boston and colonel of the Boston regiment, he was commonly known by his military title. He became a freeman 22 Mar. 1689/90, and was then called a captain, and, as "Coll. Thomas Savage," he was chosen a selectman of Boston 8 Mar. 1702/3, 13 Mar. 1703/4, and 10 Mar. 1711/12. On 9 Mar. 1701/2 he was chosen a constable, to serve for the ensuing year, and in 1714 he was granted permission to sell liquor at retail "without doors."

He married, probably at Charlestown, Mass., about 1693, MARGARET LYNDE, born at Charlestown 24 or 31 Jan. 1668/9, died in Boston between 21 Mar. 1720/1 and 5 July 1721, daughter of Hon. Joseph and Sarah (Davison) of Charlestown. He died in Boston 3 Mar. 1720/1, and Sewall notices his funeral at length in his Diary, saying that he "was buried in his Grandfather Savage's Tomb in the old Burying place" (King's Chapel); but the editors of the Diary have fallen into the common error of confusing him with his cousin of the same name (vide supra, 5). The inventory of his estate, in which he is called a merchant, amounted to £3899, and included an Indian man valued at £60, 232 oz. of silver valued at £139. 4s., and 8 tons of Spanish iron. The real estate included a brick house and stable in Dock Square, a lot of land on Boston Neck, a brick house and land on Union Street, together with a wooden house on that street and a shop and land on Marlborough Street. Administration on his estate was granted 21 Mar. 1720/1 to his widow and his sons-in-law.

7. HABBIAH³ SAVAGE (Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), born in Boston 10 Sept. 1674, was probably a scholar at the Boston Latin School in 1684, and was graduated from Harvard College in 1695. He became a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company in 1699, and besides holding minor offices, was its captain in 1711, 1721, and 1727. In 1711 he was styled "apothecary." He became a member of the Old South Church in Jan. 1708/9, his wife having been admitted to this church in Feb. 1704/5. In 1717 he was chosen major in the Boston regiment, and in 1727 lieutenant-colonel. From 1715 to 1718 he was a selectman of Boston; represented the town in the General Court in 1717, 1718, and 1732; was auditor of the town's accounts in 1731; moderator of the town-meeting in the same year; was appointed a justice of the peace in 1728; was reappointed in 1732; on 15 Dec. 1732 was appointed a special justice of the Court of Common Pleas for Suffolk County; and in 1737 was county treasurer. He was largely interested in lands in Maine, and was one of the Pemaquid proprietors.

He lived in a brick house on Ann Street, near the corner of Scottow's Alley, his property running to Scottow's Alley; and his warehouse stood on land at the rear of his house, upon the Town Dock.

He married in Boston, Rev. Ebenezer Pemberton officiating, 8 July 1703, his first cousin once removed, Mrs. HANNAH (PHILLIPS) ANDERSON, born in Boston 8 Mar. 1680/1, died there 27 May 1751, daughter of Samuel and Hannah (Gillam),* and widow of Dav. Jr., a Charlestown sea-captain, to whom she had been married in 1699.

He died in Boston 16 Sept. 1746, having by his will, dated 24 Oct. 1743, appointed his wife and his sons Thomas and Arthur executors. Mrs. Savage made a will 28 May 1748, dividing her property equally between her three children, after £50 had been paid to each of the children of her son Arthur and her daughter Hannah. Portraits of Habijah Savage and of his wife, painted about 1715, are now at Belfast, Me., in the possession of the widow of a descendant.

8. ARTHUR³ SAVAGE (Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), born in Boston 29 Mar. 1680, was at the time of his marriage (1710) a merchant dealing in West India goods, with a shop on Long Wharf, but very soon he became a sea-captain and ship-owner, in the trade between Boston and London. He arrived at Boston in Nov. 1712 from a twenty-nine days' passage from Falmouth, England. In May 1714 he was in command of the ship Province Galley and a part-owner, sailing from Boston to

* Hannah Gillam, wife of Samuel Phillips, was daughter of Benjamin and Hannah (Savage) Gillam (vide supra, 1, iii). Samuel Phillips, bapt. in Boston 2 Nov. 1662, d. there 24 Oct. 1720, son of Henry and Mary (Dwight), was the well-known bookseller of Boston, "at the Brick-Shop at the West-End of the Town-House." He was a large dealer in books, many of which, says Thomas in his History of Printing, were consigned to him by John Dunton, who was his factor in London; and he published several books which were printed in London. Dunton in his Life and Errors mentions him as his "old correspondent," and says that "on visiting him in Boston he treated me with a noble Dinner, and, (if I may trust my Eyes) is blest with a Pretty, obliging Wife . . . he's very just and (as an Effect of that) very Thriving. I shall only add to his Character that he's Young and Witty and the most Beautiful Man in the Town of Boston." His son Henry was graduated at Harvard College in 1724, and in July 1728 fought on the Common, "near the water-side," the first duel in Boston. His opponent, Benjamin Woodbridge, son of Hon. Dudley Woodbridge of Barbadoes, was killed; and Phillips, aided by Peter Faneuil, whose sister Mary married Gillam Phillips, a brother of Henry, escaped on board the man-of-war Sheerness, then lying in the harbor, and sailed immediately for La Rochelle, France, where he died in the following year.

French, Portuguese, Dutch, and Mediterranean ports.* On 6 Apr. 1716 he arrived at Boston from London, where on 24 Feb. he had, says Sewall in his Diary, stood upon the scaffold on Tower Hill and witnessed the beheading of Lords Derwentwater and Kenmore for complicity in the late Jacobite uprising.† In 1716/17 Savage was appointed a constable of Boston. In Apr. (probably the 19th) 1720 he was appointed naval officer of the port of Annapolis Royal in Nova Scotia and also secretary of the province, thus becoming the first provincial secretary of Nova Scotia. To him as well as to the collector of customs all masters of vessels arriving at or departing from Annapolis Royal were required to report. On 6 May 1720 a council was formed at Annapolis Royal, of which Savage was made a member. On this council, among others, were also Savage's brother-in-law, Gillam Phillips, Paul Mascarene, and Cyprian Southack of Boston. Savage's immediate successor as naval officer has not been discovered nor is it clear just how long he remained a member of the council; but the following extract from Niles's History of the Indian and French Wars (4 Mass. Hist. Soc. Coll., vol. 5, p. 341) proves that he was in Annapolis Royal in 1722:

Captain Savage, Captain Blin, and Mr. Newton, were at this time coming from Annapolis; and . . . went into Passamaquoddy for water. They were no sooner ashore, but they found themselves hemmed in by a great body of the savages; the French basely standing by, and suffering them in their insults. Captain Savage got off, and returned to Boston. Those he left behind, after some difficulty and expense, were released.

Savage was living in Boston in 1725, in which year he bought pew numbered North 23 in Christ Church. In 1728 he was appointed a coroner in Boston, and in May 1729 we find that he took oath as a marshal of the Court of Vice-Admiralty for Rhode Island. In "The New-England Weekly Journal" for 8 Apr. 1728 he ad-

* On 9 Nov. 1713 the General Court of the Province voted to sell the vessel known as the Province Galley, "with or without her Guns," and in 1714 John Oulton and Savage's brother-in-law, Cornelius Waldo, both merchants of Boston, were owners of three-quarters of this vessel, Savage being the commander. In May 1714 Savage, under orders from Oulton and Waldo, sailed in this vessel from Marblehead with a cargo of fish for Gibraltar, Lisbon, and Bilbao. He was to proceed to London or elsewhere, if he found it necessary in order to procure a good freight. On 18 May 1716 Oulton and Waldo brought suit in the Inferior Court of Common Pleas against Savage to recover damages of £2000 sterling, he according to their statement having "misapplied and Embezelled the Plant's [Plaintiffs'] money In that Also he put into Fyall, Majorca, Minorca, Saloe, Tarragonia, Mataro [Mataró] Also by Loading Salt 1st from Juasa to Villa Franco Second Load of Salt from Azzne in Barbary to Holland, and in Sailing to and from and touching at Marseilles Toulon and Several other Ports & places in the Streights without any manner of freight or freights," and "it manifestly appears That the Plant's are truly damnified by the Defts. Breach of Orders the Sum of one thousand fifty-two pounds nine Shillings Sterling The Nonpaym^t whereof is To ye Damage of ye^sd John Oulton and Cornelius Waldo as they say ye Sum of Two Thousand pounds Sterling." (Suffolk Court Files.) Savage was ordered by the Court to pay £184. 12s. 3d. 11. He appealed to the Superior Court of Judicature, which confirmed the decision of the lower court. (Lewis Coll., MSS., in the Library of the N. E. Historic Genealogical Society.)

† The following advertisement appeared in the Boston News Letter of 31 Mar.-7 Apr. 1718: "All Persons having the Curiosity of seeing the noble and Royal Beast the Lyon, never one before in America, may see him at the House of Capt. Arthur Savage near Mr Colman's [Brattle Square] Church, Boston, before he is transported for London. But to prevent all disputes with the negro at the Gate who constantly attends each Person (whether seen him before or not) is desired to pay to the said Negro six pence a piece."

vertises "Choice New Coffee To be Sold at his House Brattle-Street, Boston for Eight Shillings per Pound." In 1717 he became a member of the Third (Old South) Church, but as before stated he bought a pew in 1725 in Christ Church. This pew remained in his possession until his death, and in 1732 he presented a silver christening basin to this church, which still owns it.

In 1710, six days before his marriage, he bought of Elizabeth widow of Thaddeus Mackarty of Boston, land on the westerly side of Brattle Square, with the house standing thereon, known then and for many years afterwards as the "White House,"* which was his home for the remainder of his life, with the exception of his absence in Nova Scotia, when he rented a house in Annapolis Royal.

He married in Boston, Rev. Ebenezer Pemberton officiating, 6 June 1710, FAITH PHILLIPS, his first cousin once removed, born probably in Boston, in 1690, died there 6 June 1775, daughter of Samuel and Hannah (Gillam)† and sister of his brother Habbij Savage's wife.

He died in his house in Brattle Square, Boston, after a long illness, 20 Apr. 1735, and was buried three days later. In his will dated 10 Dec. 1733, Savage appoints his wife executrix; and in his codicil, dated 6 Jan. 1734/5, he desires that a tenth part of the annual income from his estate be given to the poor in quarterly payments. The will was proved 3 June 1735. The inventory shows property real and personal, amounting to £5263. 7s. 5d. The real estate consisted of his "Mansion House" in Brattle Square, together with house and land adjoining, half of a brick house and land in Collin Hill, "fronting ye Town House," and 20 acres of land in Dedham. Among the items of personal property are the following: 10 "magnificent Pictures" of the Royal Family; a model of a ship; a leather chaise, and a white horse; "a China [Chinese] Bedstead"; a silver hilted sword and belt; a blunderbuss; a pair of pistols; 260 4 dwt. of wrought plate; a negro man named Sharper and a negro woman named Nancy, each valued at £75; a silver watch, valued at £20; and a pair of silver spurs.

His widow was married in Boston, 13 May 1736, to Hon. Daniel Russell, born at Charlestown in 1685, died there 6 Dec. 1763, son of Hon. James and Abigail (Curwen) (Hathorne) of Charlestown by whom she had no issue. Her second husband had previously married Rebecca Chambers, only daughter of Hon. Charles of Charlestown, and had several children. During her second husband's life she lived at Charlestown, but after his death she lived either with her son Samuel at Weston or with her niece Mrs. Moses Bass in Rainsford's Lane, Boston. In 1773 she went to live with her younger son Arthur in Auchmuty's Lane (now the southern part of Essex Street), where she died suddenly during the siege of Boston, and was buried in King's Chapel Burial-Ground, 9 June 1775.

15. ii. ARTHUR, b. 9 Oct. 1731.

9. THOMAS⁴ SAVAGE (Thomas,³ Habijah,² *Thomas*¹) was born in Boston Jan. 1692/3. Nothing definite concerning his early life appears, but it is probable that he accompanied his parents to Bermuda in 1705 or 1706 and that he remained there the rest of his life. He was called of Bermuda in Mar. 1717 and also in his brother Benjamin's will of Apr. 1750. He learned the goldsmith's trade probably from his father, but later in life became also a merchant in Bermuda.

He married in Bermuda, probably about 1714, ELIZABETH FOWLE, born and died probably in Bermuda, daughter of Rev. John and Love (Gibbons) (Prout) of Bermuda. Mrs. Love Fowle was the only child of Jotham Gibbons of Boston, who removed to Bermuda before 1656 and died there, and from him Mrs. Fowle inherited Squasachem Farm in Charlestown, Mass., a tract of land containing 480 acres, lying on the west shore of Mystic Pond, within the present limits of the towns of Winchester and Arlington.* Of this farm, also known as Scarlet's Farm, Mrs. Savage received, as her share of her mother's property, 53 acres, which she and her husband sold in 1717.

No record of the death of Thomas Savage has been found. Family tradition credits him with being the father of nineteen children, but thus far the existence of no more than eight of these has been proved, with a probability of Richard making nine.

Children, all except Richard and Thomas born in Southampton Parish, Bermuda:

16. i. JOHN,⁵ b. 4 Nov. 1715.
- ii. THOMAS, b. 26 Jan. 1717/18; d. young.

- viii. RICHARD, date of birth not found; m. MARY CLIFFORD. He was a physician of Charleston, S. C. In his will, made 28 Oct. 1788 and proved 15 Jan. 1790, he mentions his brother John Savage, and gives a legacy to the Independent Church of Charleston. He probably had no children.
17. ix. THOMAS, b. in Bermuda 18 Sept. 1738.

10. HABIJAH⁴ SAVAGE (Thomas,³ Habijah,² *Thomas*¹), born in Boston 22 Oct. 1695, probably accompanied his parents to Bermuda in 1705 or 1706. The following passage, taken from the History of the Island of Antigua, vol. 1, p. lxxxix, may refer to him: "November 30 [1716] Habbijah Savage of the sloop 'Bonetta' deposes that he was taken by two pirates between St. Thomas and St. Croix with eight guns and 80 or 90 men each, the one the 'Mary Anne,' the other French."

* In 1655 Jotham Gibbons "of Bermuda" was in Boston and signed a power of attorney constituting Thomas Lake and Joshua Scottow his agents to look after his land called "Squasachem hill." This land, also known as "Squasarknis Farm," had been given to him, 13 of 11 mo. 1639/40, by the Indian Sachem or Squasachem Webicowits or Wee-Web-Cowet, in gratitude for the many kindnesses which the Indians had received from Gibbons's father, Edward.

Savage was dead in 1750, and is called late of Norfolk, Virginia in the will of his brother Benjamin. Neither the record of marriage nor the name of his wife has been found, but at least daughters survived him.

Children:

- i. MARY,⁵ m. in or bef. 1750 — CALNET.
- ii. JANE, unm. in 1750.

11. BENJAMIN⁴ SAVAGE (Thomas,³ Habijah,² *Thomas*¹), born in Boston Oct. 1699 and baptized at the First Church on the same day. He probably accompanied his parents to Bermuda in 1705 or 1706 and returned with them to Boston in 1714, where he is found in 1716/17 and in Oct. 1721. Between this last date and 1730 he removed to Charleston, S. C., and in the latter year bought a lot in the Independent Church in that town. He was appointed justice of the peace 7 June 1734. In 1738 he was appointed tenant of the Fourth Company of the Charleston militia, and in 1743 he is called a merchant of Charleston.

He married at Charleston, 16 Jan. 1737/8, MARTHA PICKER, a widow, with several children, whose first husband was probably Samuel Pickering, an English merchant resident at Charleston who died there in 1737.

Savage's will, made 25 Apr. 1750 and proved 3 Aug. following, is on file among the Charleston probate records, as is that of his widow, who died in Charleston between 2 Mar. and 3 Apr. 1750. There were apparently no children of this marriage.

12. THOMAS⁴ SAVAGE (Habijah,³ Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), born in Boston Jan. 1709/10, became a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company in 1739, and was appointed its first sergeant 1744, its ensign in 1752, its lieutenant in 1755, and its captain 1757. He was a constable in 1735, clerk of the market in 1736, purchaser of grain in 1748-9, and a fireward from 1755 to 1756 inclusive. He made a general visitation of the town in 1754-1755-6, was a member of the Boston militia, and was appointed captain in 1756. He became a justice of the peace 13 Nov. 1756.

He married first, in Boston, 26 June 1735, DEBORAH BROWN, born in 1713, died between 5 July 1747 and 30 Nov. 1749, daughter of John and Deborah (Cushing) of Boston and granddaughter of Judge John Cushing of the Superior Court of the Province of Massachusetts, at Charlestown, Mass., 30 Nov. 1749, Rev. Hull officiating, SARAH CHEEVER, born at Charlestown 21 July 1711, died at Milton, Mass., 6 Dec. 1812, daughter of Ezekiel and Deborah (Jenner) of Charlestown.

He died in Boston, intestate, 19 Dec. 1760.* His inventory amounting to £7122. 6s. 4½d., was taken by Jonathan Cushing, Newman Greenough, and John Tudor, and includes 375 oz. of silver, a "Scrutire with Delphon on it," "48 Chairs various bottomed," "Megogony Desk & Book Case," "3 Small Arms & 1 pair

7. WILLIAM⁶ SAVAGE (Habijah,⁵ Thomas,⁴ Habijah,³ Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), born in Boston 30 Aug. 1779, was placed after his mother's death in 1787 in the care of his maternal grandparents in Boston, with whom he lived until he was fourteen years old. He attended school at the North Grammar School, and was one of the six Boston boys who in 1792 received the first Franklin medals. On the fourteenth anniversary of his birth he left Boston, and entered a store in Alexandria, D. C., where he remained four years. He then returned to Boston, and eventually established himself in business. In 1812 he suffered financial reverses, and in 1813 he left Boston and for five years was supercargo and commission-merchant, much of his time being passed in voyages between Hamburg and Havana. On one of these voyages his vessel was boarded by pirates, between the Bahama Bank and Key Sal Bank, 9 Dec. 1818, and he barely escaped with his life, but finally reached Havana 26 Dec. 1818 (N. E. Hist. Gen. Society's Memorial Biographies, vol. 1, pp. 273-6, and Mass. Hist. Soc. Proceedings, vol. 44, pp. 454-6). The mo: of June 1819 Mr. Savage passed in Massachusetts, but on 3 July of that year he sailed for Europe, returning to Boston in June 1822, when he established himself there as a commission-merchant. After his second marriage, in 1823, he bought a house on Mt. Vernon Place, where he lived until 1835, when he again became financially embarrassed, and, selling his house, he lived until 1847 in various boarding houses. In that year he bought a house at 37 Essex Street, where he lived the remainder of his life. He was for some time president of the Columbian Insurance Company. He died in his house on Essex Street after a six-weeks' illness, 30 June 1851.

He married first, in Boston, 21 Oct. 1806 (Boston records, but Manchester, Mass., records say 7 Dec. 1806) MARY INGERSOLL, who died in Boston in May 1812, daughter of Nehemiah and Elizabeth (Smith); and secondly, in Boston, 4 June 1823, Rev. John Gorham Palfrey officiating, HARRIET MARIA HOOPER, baptized at Newburyport, Mass., 30 June 1793, died in Boston 21 Nov. 1868, daughter of Thomas Woodbridge and Harriet (Bradbury) of Newburyport.

28. JAMES⁶ SAVAGE (Habijah,⁵ Thomas,⁴ Habijah,³ Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), born on Winter Street, Boston, 13 July 1784, obtained a Franklin medal in 1795, and was fitted for college at Washington Academy, Machias, Me., and at Derby Academy, Hingham, Mass. He was graduated at Harvard College in 1803, and was for four years before his death the sole surviving member of his class. In 1805 he accompanied his cousin, William Tudor, on a trip to the West Indies, returning to Boston in 1806. He then studied law in the office of Isaac Parker at Portland, Me., and was admitted to the Boston bar in Jan. 1807, after further study in the Boston offices of Samuel Dexter and William Sullivan. He had previously become a member of the Boston Anthology Society, was one of the founders of the Boston Athenæum, and for five years was the editor of the Monthly Anthology, the first purely literary magazine in New England and the forerunner of the North American Review. He delivered the Boston Fourth of July oration in 1811, and was a representative to the General Court in 1812 and again in 1821. In 1816, with Elisha Ticknor, he founded the Provident Institution for Savings, the first savings bank in Boston, and during a period of forty-five years was successively its secretary, treasurer, vice-president, and president. He became a member of the Massachusetts

auth or
Gen. Dict.

Historical Society in Jan. 1813, and was its librarian from 1814 to 1818, its treasurer from 1820 to 1839, and its president from 1841 to 1855. In 1819 he made a trip to Demarara. In 1824 he was elected a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He was elected to the State Senate in 1826 and to the Executive Council in 1830, and he was also a member of the Boston Common Council and of the Board of Aldermen. He revised the volume of charters and general laws of the Massachusetts Bay Colony and the Province of Massachusetts Bay, and from 1838 to 1853 was an overseer of Harvard College, receiving from his alma mater the degree of LL.D. in 1841. In May 1842 he sailed for England, returning to Boston in the following October. For many years he devoted much of his time to genealogical and antiquarian research, which resulted in over one hundred pages of contributions to the Collections of the Massachusetts Historical Society. He prepared for publication from the original manuscripts John Winthrop's History of New England, which was published first in 1825-6, with a second edition in 1853, and in 1828 he edited Paley's Works in five volumes, a second edition following two years later. The crowning work of his life was A Genealogical Dictionary of the First Settlers of New England, published in four volumes in 1860-64. Of this work the North American Review said: "Considering the obscurity of most of those whose names are mentioned, their number and the difficulty of obtaining information respecting them, it is the most stupendous work on genealogy ever compiled." During his early married life Mr. Savage lived on Hayward Place, Boston, but in 1831 he removed to 1 Temple Place, where he lived until 1870, when he moved to the Hotel Berkeley, corner of Boylston and Berkeley Streets, where he died. For many years he owned an estate known as Sunny Hill in the town of Lunenburg, Mass., where he was accustomed to pass his summers. He died in Boston 8 Mar. 1873, and was buried from the Arlington Street Church (Unitarian) two days later.

Mr. Savage's characteristics were straightforwardness, punctuality, accuracy, and "uncompromising directness." He had a strong religious faith, and was unswervingly devoted to his country. His conversation was full of oddities of speech, but with all his impulsiveness of feeling and manner he "was ever quick to cover with humor and good nature the shafts he sent."

He married, in Apr. 1823, ELIZABETH OTIS (STILLMAN) LINCOLN, born at Machias, Me., 22 May 1792, died in Boston 30 Jan. 1850, daughter of George and Rebecca (Crocker) of Machias and widow of James Otis Lincoln of Hingham, Mass. (Cf. REGISTER, vol. 1, pp. 81-84; Mass. Hist. Soc. Proceedings, 1871-1873, pp. 433-442; Charles Deane's Brief Memoir of James Savage, Cambridge, 1874.) Children, born in Boston:

- i. EMMA,⁷ b. 4 Mar. 1824; d. s.p. at her winter home, 117 Marlborough St., Boston, 18 May 1911; m. in Boston, 20 June 1849, PROF. WILLIAM BARTON ROGERS, b. in Philadelphia, Pa., 7 Dec. 1804, d. in Boston 30 May 1882, son of Patrick Kerr and Hannah (Blythe) of Philadelphia. Prof. Rogers was graduated at William and Mary College in 1821, and in 1861 became the founder of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, serving as its president from 1862 to 1870 and 1879-1880. From 1879 to his death he was president of the National Academy of Sciences. (Life of William Barton Rogers, edited by his wife, Boston, 1896, 2 vols.). For many years Mrs. Rogers spent her summers at "Morningside," Newport, R. I. From her father she inherited "a strong and original mind and a profound love of accurate scholarship. . . . It was given to her, as to very few men or women of her time, not only to have lived in a notable circle throughout the whole of the Victorian Age, but, so far at least as America is concerned, to have been able to say of it—what her modesty would never have allowed her to say—'quorum magna pars fui.'"

- ii. HARRIET, b. 10 Oct. 1826; d. in Boston 28 July 1854; m. in Boston, 6 Nov. 1851, AMOS BINNEY, b. in Boston 30 Jan. 1830, d. at Newport, R.  - iv. JAMES, b. 21 Apr. 1832; A.B. (Harvard) 1854; lieut.-col. of the Second Massachusetts Volunteers; wounded in the battle of Cedar Mountain 9 Aug. 1862; d. unm. at Charlottesville, Va., 22 Oct. 1862. A fellow-soldier wrote of him at the time of his death: "He was universally acknowledged to have entered the service simply and entirely from his sense of duty and conviction of the right. . . . To an almost feminine gentleness, refinement and amiability, he joined the indomitable pluck, energy and resolution which become the man. . . . When before the regiment had yet been in action, officers around their camp or picket fires at night would discuss its probable behavior, there was one universal sentiment, that 'Jim Savage at least would fight until his sword clove to his hand,' and this prediction he well fulfilled at Newtown, Winchester, and Cedar Mountain, on which last disastrous field he fell struck by two bullets. . . . He was the only man ever known to the writer who seemed fully to deserve the title given to the model of French knighthood, 'Chevalier sans peur et sans reproche.'" (Harvard Memorial Biographies, vol. 1, pp. 328-359; Brook Farm to Cedar Mountain, by George H. Gordon, 1883, pp. 12, 229, 231-233, 311, 312 note, 332.)
29. THOMAS⁵ SAVAGE (Habijah,⁵ Thomas,⁴ Habijah,³ Thomas,² *Thomas*¹), born in Boston 11 Feb. 1786, was settled as early as 1813, and perhaps earlier, at Havana, Cuba, where the remaining years of his life were passed and where he was for many years U. S. consul. He died at New Orleans, La., 18 July 1836.

Eliz. m. 23 Nov. 1680, Solomon Veazie. || ROBERT, Cambridge 1636, ar. co. 1638, freem. 23 May 1639, rem. it is thot. to Boston soon, and aft. to Dorchester, where, in 1680, he was a poor man. TOBIAS, Taunton 1643, rem. to Newport, there was one of the freem. in 1655, and of Stonington 1669, yet on the R. I. side of the riv. now Westerly, and had to sustain many yrs. the claim against Conn. usurpat. His w. was Mary, d. of the first Joseph Clark of Newport. WILLIAM, Hampton, a carpenter, had been in this country 2 or 3 yrs. bef. he went to plant there, Sept. 1638, with Rev. Stephen Bachiler and others. Of this name, oft. spell. without u, Farmer says, eight had, in 1829, been gr. at N. E. coll. of wh. six were of Harv.

SAUNDERSON, BENJAMIN, Watertown, s. of Robert, by w. Mary had Mary, b. 29 Nov. 1677; and Bond tells no more. EDWARD, Watertown, m. 15 Oct. 1645, Mary Eggleston, by Bond thot. to be eldest d. of Bigod, but she was not (for that d. was only 4 yrs. old), and prob. was his sis. had Jonathan, b. 15 Sept. 1646; and Esther, call. strange. a young person, when bapt. 20 Mar. 1687, Bond constr. the phrase to mean only unm. But he may have had other ch. bef. or aft. rem. to Cambridge, and, perhaps, went home. In the vicin. of W. num. descend. are found. HENRY, Sandwich 1643. JONATHAN, Watertown, s. of Edward, perhaps the only one, m. 24 Oct. 1669, Abia, youngest d. of Thomas Bartlett of W. had Abia and Jonathan, tw. b. 28 Oct. 1673; Thomas, 10 Mar. 1675; John, 25 Mar. 1677; Benjamin, 28 May 1679; Samuel, 28 May 1681; Edward, 3 Mar. 1684; and Hannah, 31 May, bapt. at W. 14 July 1689; was constable 1695, selectman, and deac. many yrs. His w. d. 13 Sept. 1723, and he d. 3 Sept. 1735. JOSEPH, Boston, s. perhaps, of Robert the first, by w. Mary had Mary, b. 6 July 1666. ROBERT, Hampton 1638, freem. 7 Sept. 1639, by w. Lydia had Mary, bapt. 27 Oct. 1639; rem. to Watertown 1642, prob. aft.-m. Mary, wid. of John Cross of H. and had Joseph, b. 1 Jan. 1643; Benjamin, bapt. 29 July 1649; Sarah, 19 Jan. 1651; Robert, perhaps 3 Oct. 1652; and John, wh. d. 17 Sept. 1658; rem. next yr. to Boston, and was partner in gainful business, with John Hull, the mint master. He had, also, eldest ch. by first w. perhaps b. in Eng. Lydia, wh. was m. (by Gov. Bellingham), 13 Dec. 1654, to Thomas Jones; but as no more is told of either of the young couple, I conject. they went to Eng. He had sec. w. Eliz. was deac. and d. 7 Oct. 1693, not 6, as Farmer gave it. By his will, of 18 July, pro. 20 Oct. his w. was made extrix. and in her will of 15 Sept. 1694, pro. 21 Nov. 1695, is evid. proof, that ch. and gr.ch. nam. in the will of her h. were not his, but hers. No blood relat. of his, exc. br. Edward, and s. Robert can with confid. be found in his own will. ROBERT, Cambridge, s. of the preced. by w. Eliz. had Joseph, b. 10 Oct. 1684; and he took sec. w. in Boston, 21 Dec. 1693, Sarah Crow. EDWARD, Dorchester, if it be truly giv. 1664, as sign. the petiti. to the Gen. Ct. in vindicat. of our liberties. See Hist. of D. 200. But I doubt the name is wrong, and the writer in Genecal. Reg. V. 395, giv. the same list, in wh. this is No. 40, when he aft. publ. acco. of all the subscrib. to that docum. on p. 465, omits him. Of such a man in other connex. nothing is kn. and the same Hist. 38, gather. 134 first sett. of the town, includes but one Edward, and his surname was Raymond. * || EPHRAIM, Boston, s. of the first Thomas, by w. Male descent fail. here, but his ds. both diffus. the blood; Hannah, by m. with Rev. Nathaniel Gookin of Cambridge, and Mary, by m. with Rev. Thomas Weld of Dunstable. He was never m. and might have been omit. in this place, but for the events of his life, and chief. the curious incid. grow. out of his wills. He was never m. and might have been omit. in this place, but for the events of his life, and chief. the curious incid. grow. out of his wills. Bef. go. to London, from wh. he carr. on trade to Spain, he made one, 8 Sept. 1690, nam. brs. Thomas (made excor.), Ephraim, and Benjamin, with sis. This instrum. may be read in Vol. XVII. together with revocat. by our Judge Addington, 10 Nov. 1708, of the former admin. gr. by Judge Stoughton, when A. had been the Reg. the former decree in support of the Mequinez will, and set up the right of the appellant under the Boston will, perhaps with concur. of Thacher. All may read the curious law Latin abbreviat.
