Subject: re: Schweinheimer genealogy

Dear Fred,

Below you'll find some of the history I've found on my family.

As you well know, we find the name of Schweinheimer/Swinehammer/Swinamer/Swinimer, etc., etc., etc. spelled many, many ways. Every document I look at, I find a different spelling.

My grandfather was John Aubrey FANNING b. March 25, 1875, Windsor, NS.
 His father was James Edward Fanning b. 1846, Hantsport, Nova Scotia, son of Patrick Fannin/Fanning b. 1805, NS and Mary (?surname).

James Edward Fanning married Mary Alice SWINEHAMMER on Oct. 21, 1880, in Nova Scotia. I have their marriage record. There were at least 5 children born to James Edward Fanning before he and Mary Alice married. My hypothesis had been that James Edward was married before he married Mary Alice, and I had thought the first wife was Mary Alice's sister. You confirmed there was a wife before Mary Alice with a marriage date of April 1, 1871 for James Edward FANNING and an ELIZA SWEINHAMMER. You had no name of parents on Eliza at that time, nor where they married, or where you found that information.

James Edward FANNING and his first wife (?Eliza Sweinhammer) had the following children:

1. George b. August 1, 1872, Waterville, Maine!!!! (I know nothing about him.)
2. Monson Henry b. June 21, 1874, Windsor, NS, d. Dec. 2, 1916, Barrington, NH, married Jenny Day, 1912, Rochester, NH.

3. John Aubrey b. March 25, 1875, Windsor, NS, d. July 2, 1954, Tewksbury,
 Mass.

Married - Mary Jane Metcalfe b. 1878, Middlesbrough, England, on Aug. 24, 1908, Farmington, NH. (My grandparents). Both buried in Barrington, NH.

4. Thomas Edgar b. Apr. 20, 1876, Windsor, NS, d. Dec. 27, 1883, Boston,
 Mass.

5. David B. McKinley Fanning, b. Oct. 15, 1877, Windsor, NS, d. Feb. 18, 1950,
 Barrington, NH. Never married.

You found that Eliza Sweinhammer and James Edward Fanning were married on Apr. 1, 1871. Do you know where?

James had another baby, James Edward FANNING, Jr., b. April, 1880, d.

6/29/2003

Nov. 25, 1880. This is in our family bible (however there was a death date only, and I didn't know if it was James, Jr. or James, Sr.) Then I have this document of deaths from the "Presbyterian Witness", Nova Scotia, January 1, 1881, Vol. 34, No. 1, Page 8:

"At Windsor, Nov. 25 (my birthdate), James Edward Fanning, Jr., aged 7 months."

"At Windsor, Dec. 5, James Edward Fanning, Senr, aged 24 yrs."

Family had told me that James Edward Sr. & Jr. died just days apart.

James Edward Fanning married Mary Alice Swinehammer on Oct. 21, 1880, Nova Scotia. Baby James Edward Fanning, Jr., was born in April of 1880 - before James E. and Mary Alice married. I'm wondering if James 1st wife died giving birth to James Edward, Jr. and Mary Alice married James Edward to rear his children. She would have to have been a relative of James 1st wife, as my mother and aunt said she was "worlds best grandmother". My grandfather and his brothers adored her also. To be able to mother these children as her own, leads me to believe she was their aunt. I don't think my mother and aunt ever knew Mary Alice was not their grandmother.

The 1850 census of Lubec, Maine lists James Edward Fanning living with his parents, grandmother and half siblings:

Fannin, Patrick, 45, Laborer

Fannin, Mary, 26 (wife)

Fannin, Oatman, 15, fisherman

Fannin, Thomas, 14

Fannin, David, 12

Fannin, Anna E., 11

Fannin, James E. 4 (my gr. grandfather - who married the Swinehammer girls)

Fannin, Catherine, 77

All born Nova Scotia. Some documents state James Edward Fanning, Sr. was born in Eastport, Maine. Others say Nova Scotia.

The 1871 census of Windsor show James Edward Fanning living at home with his parents in Windsor, NS.

The 1881 census of Windsor, NS lists the following:

Fanning, Mary, 25, Methodist, English, Widow

Fanning, Monson, 7

Fanning, Aubrey, 6

Fanning, Thomas, 5

Fanning,

Mary Alice Swinehammer b. June 23, 1858, Nova Scotia, d. Feb. 21, 1931, Barrington, NH, was the daughter of Nicholas Swinehammer b. May 1, 1827, NS, d. 1893, Windsor and Elizabeth Boyd, b. 1826, Windsor.

Nicholas SWINEHAMMER and Elizabeth BOYD had the following children:

1. Alexander Swinehammer b. abt. 1842, m. (first wife ??). Theresa Gilles (2nd wife) Nov. 16, 1875 - from information I received of marriages on the Internet.
 2. Henrietta b. abt. 1852
 3. Daniel b. abt 1854
 4. Susan b. abt 1857
 5. Mary Alice b. June 23, 1858
 6. Margaret b. abt 1860
 7. Lorenza b. 1862
 8. James b. 1864
 9. Elizabeth b. 1865
 - *10. Jacob b. Feb. 14, 1872, NS, d. Dec. 31, 1946, Eureka, NS.
- And probably the ELIZA you found to be married to James E. Fanning.
(All born in Windsor, NS)

*I've had contact with Jacob's (b. Feb. 14, 1872) granddaughter, Anne Swinamer Avery, of Nova Scotia. A lovely lady. Jacob married Annie Ross after 1891. They raised their family in Eureka, Pictou County, NS.

Nicholas SWINEHAMMER's given name of "Nicholas" is unique in the Swinehammer family. He is the only one I've seen with that name. His parents were John JACOB Swinehammer and Maria (Mary) Magdalena Refuse (Rehfus) mar. Aug. 7, 1810.

I believe you know the history from Jacob Swinehammer and Mary Magdalena Refuse back to Philip who married Catharina Pentz, 1755, Lunenburg.

It might be of interest to you to know that my youngest son, Tim, has four beautiful daughters. They ALL train oxen (working steers) for a 4-H project, as Tim did when he was young. My husband has oxen also. Oxen were used to do a lot of the work in Lunenburg years ago. There are still very dedicated ox people in Lunenburg today. I met a few of them at the Eastern States Exposition in Springfield, Mass. a few years ago. They were competing and were very busy so I didn't get a chance to talk with them about their heritage. It could have been real interesting.

Did you know that the beautiful St. John's Anglican Church that Philip Schweinheimer and Catharina MARGARETHA Pentz were married in, in Lunenburg, 1755, was torched on halloween of 2001 by some teens? Very sad.

If you have any questions regarding the above information, or anything you might know that would help me in this research, I'd appreciate hearing from you.

Thank you for your offer to take this letter to the Nova Scotia gathering next month. I so regret not being able to get up there.

Incidentally, I started this letter the evening of the day I spoke with you and just now had the time to finish it. Would you please just confirm that you received it. Many thanks.

Keep well and try to stay cool. It's real hot down here.

Very sincerely,
Gerie Huppe

After Sylvia was her only companion the latter she kept from society, consented to her marriage, at thirty, to Matthew Astor Wilks, New Yorker of fifty-seven years. Her mother then removed herself to a suite of rooms in one of the fashionable Fifth Avenue hotels, and her body was soon given up.

Conditions for Her Son

More Particulars Concerning this Hero's Death a Few Days Before the Fighting Ceased

Mr. Geo. W. Lantz, Bridgetown, N. S.

Dear Sir: Just a note to tell you how deeply we sympathize with you all in the loss of a gallant son.

He was loved by all who knew him as a soldier because he was so fearless and careful for every man in his command.

But no words of mine can do justice to him or lift your load of sorrow. His death is one more bond that binds earth to heaven above.

He is buried with nineteen others in the beautifully kept cemetery of the fine old city of Valenciennes.

May God ease your sorrow and rejoin your broken family in heaven when your hours shall come.

Yours in sympathy,

K. C. MacLEOD,

Capt. and Chaplain 35th Canadians.

France 8-11-18

My Dear Mr. Lantz: Long before you receive this letter you will hear the sad news of the death of your son, Lieut. O. L. Lantz. He was killed early in the morning of Nov. 6th, about 5.30 a. m. He was just "going over the jump off" when a high explosion shell landed near him. Killing three persons, Lieut. Lantz, his batman, and his Platoon Sergt. It was a costly shell for my company. The only thing we know is they were all killed instantly so did not have to suffer.

I was very fond of Mr. Lantz. He has been with the Battalion as a non-commissioned officer and had proved himself a good true brave soldier in every respect.

He won his Commission in the field and when he went for his course and returned to us an officer we were all so pleased. He was a most efficient soldier, and knew no fear. No task was too difficult for him and danger, or thought of it, never seemed to enter his mind. He was recommended for the "Military Cross" and he certainly deserved it. If ever an officer did. Your hearts I know are sore, and your grief deep, but you have the proud knowledge that your boy died nobly-leading his men to victory. His men loved and trusted him. I know no better compliment than that for an officer.

I extend to you and all his loved ones my deepest sympathy.

R. C. JACKSON

Major 35th Battalion, Canadian, B. E. F. France.

Somewhere in France, Nov. 9, 1918.

Dear Mr. Lantz: Some day, or probably weeks, before you receive this letter you will have received official notification of the death of your son Orrin Lantz.

For me to say I sympathize with you and your family is commonplace and sounds hollow, but I assure you I can realize your loss as I realize my own as I can say that by his death I have lost one of my best friends and certainly the one of whom I thought the most.

I never knew your son until he came to our Bn. and then not very well until we went to Bexhill for our commissions at about the same time. Later when we got through we came to France and were posted to the same company. Altho that is only a short six weeks ago we have lived during that time, and he and I have slept, ate, and fought together, and I can only say to you and yours that to know your son was an honor and one that I will hold dear to my dying day.

It might interest you to know that he was recommended for conspicuous bravery at Passendale. Well it is only a few weeks ago that we saw in the "Canada" where he had been awarded the "Croix De Guerre." Since the last month I know he has been recommended for the M. C. and I hope it comes through as I know that never was it more deserved.

Perhaps at some time in the not far distant future I may have the privilege of telling you personally of the action for which he was recommended. You will be glad to know that it was at the head of his men and without suffering he died and in the Canadian soldiers' grave yard at Valenciennes he lies, in the centre of that beautiful city which he laid down his life that the Hun might be driven back to his own borders.

I have seen that his kit is sent home and should reach you sometime within two months, also I will settle any loose ends he has left here and if

Hi Cousin Muriel, nice to meet You!

The names that you sent me are in my data base also.

Your generation No. 1, John Spidel who married Mary, is actually Johannes Speidel (b. August 07, 1793, d. March 04, 1877) and she is Mary Catherine Dufney/Dauphinee (b. September 28, 1796, date of death unknown). He is the brother of my great, great, great grandfather whom I showed a picture of yesterday, the one who was born in 1796.

So, our common ancestor would be their father and mother, John Nicolaus Speidel, Sr. (b. October 28, 1759, d. October 25, 1849) and Eva Catherine Dymong/Demone (b. February 17, 1770, d. October 07, 1854)

I have lots of info on these guys that I can send you if you are interested.

But, even more interesting, I have also have a photo of your ancestor, Johannes Speidel who was born in 1793 that I will be happy to share with you if you are interested.

Dear Cousin Bob,

Now, I am delighted to hear that we are "cousins"!! I would be very interested in receiving a picture of Johannes Speidel, b 1793. If it is possible to send it as an attachment before tomorrow afternoon, I will print it out and give it to my brother. He has already left for Lunenburg this morning - from Maine.

Hi Bob,

When I got home from the OCCGS meeting yesterday, I looked up in my LANTZ database and found some Spidels. Below are descendants of the earliest Spidel I found. There may be more but the LANTZ database only has the 1st generation for Allied lines. My brother in Maine has the original database and may know of more. I am going to meet him at Lunenburg's 250th Reunion this week. Do any of these names look familiar to you? Maybe we are "cousins!!"

Mrs. Grace B. Wallace,
P.O. Box 158,
Windsor, Nova Scotia

Dear Mrs. Wallace:

I was so surprised to note your letter to the editor of the Chapleau Sentinel regarding information on possible ex Windsorites who might be living here.

My family lived in Windsor when I was a very little boy. When we first came to Canada from England, my mother (who was American born) landed the first job that came up...it was to be camp cook at a quarry, (plaster) just a few miles from Windsor...Dad didn't know it but she hired him on as the cookie at the same time and he had to help her in the kitchen.

Just across a small stream from our place was a family called Swinimer...Frank and Lawrence I remembered. They were afflicted with a problem that made them shake continually. Imagine how surprised I would be to find these two fellows working in a lumber camp, in the village of Sultan, about 50 miles east of Chapleau, on the C.P.R., they have passed on but only recently. Perhaps within the last 10 years.

When we moved into Windsor I was about 6 years old and am now 76. We lived in a tiny white house that is still there, right at the foot of the drive up to Kings College. My dad was an excellent cricket player and bowler and he was hired to be among other things, the cricket instructor at the college. Mother was an excellent seamstress and milliner and I think I remember names like Tremain, Sangster, Kehoe, Murns and someone who ran a big store there. My dad got very ill, was in the Payzant Memorial Hospital for a long time and finally worked there for a bit on very light work. He came on to Chapleau with us, settled down here with his family, Helen and I and Mother and became a business man. I too went into business, and when retiring in '63 I owned the largest retail wholestore in Northern Ontario, 125 on the staff. I am presently active on the boards of 2 Govt. commissions for Ontario..

There now...that tells you a bit about an ex Windsorite. When I was back in Windsor last year for the first time in 40 years I left a card in the mail box of the cottage where we lived. I also had quite a talk and took some pictures of Swinimer's store. He was an interesting man and remembered his uncles had moved north into Upper Canada. I was the mayor Chapleau, and my present wife was a mayor of Sudbury, Ont.... Pop. 200,000. She is a very well known Ontarioan.

Best wishes for a big Centennial Party.

Yours sincerely,
Art Grout

Sally Swinamer of Windsor got a surprise last month when she found her Japonica Tree (botanical name Chaenomeles) with a reddish bloom on it. The tree blooms in the spring but never in November. (Cleary)
