OPPORTUNITY FOR A SOLOMON

Whether or not the court will dis- ay the wisdom of Solomon in a ther novel suit is attracting the ention of the people of Portland. is case is pending in the Municipal irt. Perhaps a mathematican ay be found to solve the pblem. I. T. Willett of South Portland and orton M. Kaslin are at law. The aintiff is a dog leader and he asks e equal division of three puppies tween two parties.

Should the court decide that the aintiff and defendant are equally tited to the puppies, then the rvice of a Solomon or one well rsed in mathematics will be re- quired.

The papers in the case show that illett took a Pomeranian to Bos- n for Kaslin. It was for breeding rposes, and the understanding was at the puppies should be divided a basis of "50-50."

The agreement was carried out ly it ran up against a snag. There re three puppies.

The plaintiff claims that the de- ndant has not carried out his part

SOME OLD TIME MARRIAGES

To the Editor of the Times:—

Last year there were two Alder- men of the City of Bath who sat the year through as acquaintances. One day this year as I called at the Post- office on buisness, the two were at their different mail boxes. For a joke I called them to me and said. "Are you two men related " They said no. I said, "Joshua Winslow of Boston, Mass., who owned one of the cargoes of tea, thrown overboard by Paul Revere and his Indian-dressed companions, was the great-great- grandfather of you both, also of my- self, and you, sir, are my first cousin and you, sir, are my second cousin. We meet here three of a kind."

For this reason and the general ignorance and carelessness of our first families about their ancestry. I will from time to time furnish you copy to set them thinking, and as only one in one thousand can make others think, if I succeed I shall be one of ten allowing that the popula- tion of the berg is 10,000.

In addition to the thousands of bushels of potatoes which F. W.
Carlton raised this year are 10,000
heads of cabbage which are ready

have certainly been doing well this

there was this.

there will be preaching by Rev. W. L.

morning at which the subject of the sermon will be, "Our Inheritance and What Shall We Do With It?" At the North Methodist church the ser-

subject will be, "The Beauty of Holiness." The 7:30 o'clock meeting will have as its subject, "Agrippa's

A number of Woolwich men are already planning to build launches
this winter for use on the Kennebec
another summer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sturtévant of Richmond have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Shaw.

A number of our Woolwich marketmen wil miss Joseph B. Vaughan who died in Bath this week. His restuarant, near the Ferry, was quite a popular place for our Wool-wich farmers to dine when they carried produce to the Bath market.

We hear good reports of the po-

how about the acres of corn?

Some vandals have been smash-houses. It will be a trifle unpleasant for them if such acts are repeated.

W. Wright, Mr. Goldinger's able man of business, is soon to leave town, we are sorry to learn, as he has made friends and will leave the record of an honorable, obliging
gentleman.

Mrs. George Kennerson.

Nebraska papers announce an exceptionally large crop of hay in some sections of that state.

We fear a good deal of Western hay will find its way to Maine; that is fear from the farmers viewpoint
of high prices.

Why do not more of our folks raise geese? We have just heard of one lady, who took an abandoned
New Hampshire farm and has made not only a good living, but a little more, in raising geese and nothing else, but such an amount of hay as the worn out land afforded. As a side issue, geese might add some to the income of almost any farm, however small.

The present season for hunting shooting the game is at Wolf Pond, at the east end of the town. This pond is private property and consequently only a few are privileged to get there. Among those who have had permission to shoot there are two prominent Woolwich men. One morn-

to meet there at an early hour

EDWARD W. VAUGHAN

One of Bath's Oldest and Best Known Citizens Dies In Sleep

Edward W. Vaughan, 63, was found dead in bed at his home, 68 Oak street, Wednesday morning. Neighbors, concerned with his non-appearance by mid-forenoon, contacted relatives, who, with a physician found the well known Bath man had died during his sleep. The physician said he apparently had been dead about four or five hours.

Mr. Vaughan was born in Bath, Jan. 2, 1870, a son of Joseph and Annie Chase Vaughan. He attended Bath schools and Portland Business college, following which he was employed as a bookkeeper by a number of concerns. One of his last positions was with the old time J. A. Winslow & Co., stove and heating dealers, in Bath. Active in sports during his school days, Mr. Vaughan was an ardent roller polo enthusiast and was a member of the original Alamedas, which represented Bath for a number of years in the Maine State Roller Polo league.

Serving as Second Assistant Engineer of the Bath Fire department under Chief Frank Morse, in the early 1890s, Mr. Vaughan always retained an exceptional interest in the fire department and its welfare. A reliable source of information on any matters pertaining to past and present history of the department he was often consulted on such matters and frequent contributions to the press have been real contributions to an accounting of past Bath history.

He was a member of the Universalist church.

Surviving are his daughter, Mrs. Gwendolyn Vaughan Caverly; two grandchildren, Herbert T. Caverly, 2nd and Lardina Ann Caverly.

Funeral arrangements will be announced.

OBITUARY

MRS. CECELIA ANN VAUGHAN

Much Respected Bath Woman Dies
Thursday From Broncho-Pneumonia.

Mrs. Cecelia Anna Vaughan died early Thursday morning from broncho pneumonia at her home, 66 Oak street, after only a few days illness. She had been in failing health for the last few years but had been free from any serious illness until last Friday when she took cold that developed into bronchitis and pneumonia followed.

Mrs. Vaughan was born in Baltimore, a daughter of Capt. William and Cecelia Dorry Chase. Her mother died during her early childhood and she was brought North to enter the home of her uncle and aunt, Elbridge G. and Ann E. Chase, in Sheepscoot where her early childhood was passed. She had lived practically her entire life in Bath since 1862 and in 1866 married the late Joseph B. Vaughan. She was of a retiring home loving disposition and a wonderful mother. Her son, Edward W. Vaughan, was also most devoted, faithfully caring for her many years.

Besides her son she is survived by one grand-daughter, Mrs. Herbert T. Caverly of Bath, and by one half brother, Augustus C. Chase of Visalia, Calif.

The funeral will be Sunday afternoon at two at her home.

A GRANDMOTHER BY ANY NAME IS JUST AS SWEET

The Woman has been making an informal list of all the modern children call their grandmothers, because the old-fashioned name seems seldom used. Some are very poetical, as "Dear-Deer," "Sweetly," "Amo" and others are just plainly baby attempts at the big word, such as "Amma," "Nanny," "Grandee" or even "Granny," which outlast babyhood. Once in a while grandma is again over birth of his second child, a boy. Mother nicely" in a New York hospital. Mr. and Mrs. horn are shown.

PREDCTS JULY WILL PROVE NORMAL MONTH

Sam Morrill Expects to See Showers on the Fourth With Last of Month Hottest

The Fourth of July, Sam Morrill of Lewiston agrees, will be noisy, and it is also likely to be showery he prognosticates, which, he says "is better than though it rained all day." This weather forecaster says the Summer is likely to be like that of the fast disappearing June right up to Oct. 1. You can't get much satisfaction from his long range weather predictions for, after taking a look-in to the future he declares that next Winter will very much resemble last Winter. He thinks snow will come early. "I can't say it will be any worse," said Mr. Morrill, "but it will be just as bad."

If it is true that some like it hot and some like it cold everybody should be satisfied by this report, Sam believes. "I have spent a great deal of time and thought on my Summer predictions," stated Mr. Morrill. Not having been very busy, Mr. Morrill has worked day and night, to prepare good and sufficient weather prognostications for Summer vacationists.

Some time ago Mr. Morrill blasted the ground hog theory to the skies, stating he not only did not believe in it but thought little of anyone who took it seriously. Now, Mr. Morrill, takes a step further along the path of rugged individualism that many think is disappearing. Says Mr. Morrill "That stuff about the wet and dry moon is the bunk." Sam checks, then double checks his own.

As for July in general temperature and precipitation will be normal to below normal. The warmest part of the month will be the last 10 or 12 days. There will be two storm periods, and if there is any difference between them, the worse period will be the second. The storm periods will be from the 7th to 13th and from the 18th to the 24th. This does not mean, Mr. Morrill explains, that it will rain all these days, merely that it may rain on any one of them.

The month will come in with showers, but go out fair, he reports. Although persons in these parts won't have to worry, there will be earthquakes during the last week. The last half of the month will be the worst for thunder showers.

Cpl. Joel A. Merry, who keeps the crime data for the Bath Police Department, echoed Brooks, and said Bath has recorded 450 more complaints the first half of this year over last. Car break-ins are also a big problem in Bath, Merry said, both in the downtown area and at Bath Iron Works lots.

Merry said that although the Bath department's drug arrests are up this year, that fact is not shown on the official Uniform Crime Reporting system, which is used to generate the crime statistics at the state and federal level.

The system also records some attempted crimes as actually occurring, which Merry said can give an inaccurate picture of crime.

The Maine State Police biannual report on crime showed that overall domestic violence assaults increased 30 percent in the first six months of this year, compared to the same period in 1986.

The state's crime rate actually declined during the reporting period. This year 36 crimes occurred for every 1,000 people, compared with 38 crimes during the six months last year.

The crime rate was highest in Cumberland County, more than 60 per 1,000 population this year, compared with 66 last year. Crimes rates declined in all the area counties, with Androscoggin County down to 49 crimes from 52 last year and Lincoln County with 16.6, one less than last year.—Sagadahoc County police agencies reported the biggest decline, with 28.8 crimes per 1,000 people this year the rate was more than six points.

Statewide, violent crime increased because of murders, a total of 14 the first six months of this year compared with 10 last year, and because of an increase in aggravated assaults. Rape and robbery, the other violent crimes in the police reporting system, declined slightly in the state totals.

Early letters donated to Bowdoin

BRUNSWICK — A collection of 1,300 letters and documents dating from 1774 to 1875 has been given to the Bowdoin College Library, special collections Curator Dianne M. Gutscher announced.

George B. Vaughan of Boothbay donated correspondence between members of his ancestral family, prosperous English merchants with estates in Jamaica and land along the Kennebec River. Some of the family settled in Philadelphia, Boston, and Maine after the American Revolution.

The collection consists primarily of letters between Charles Vaughan (1759-1839) and his father, Samuel (1720-1802), and brothers, Benjamin (1751-1835), William (1752-1850), John (1756-1842) and Samuel (1762-1827).

The Vaughans, who adopted the United States as their home, worked actively for its advancement. During the peace negotiations between the fledgling nation and Britain in 1782, Benjamin Vaughan acted as an unofficial contact between the Earl of Shelburne, then secretary for the colonies, and Benjamin Franklin, a family friend of the Vaughans. John Vaughan, who settled in Philadelphia, was active in the American Philosophical Society. Charles Vaughan worked to improve the Kennebec Purchase lands and built a settlement in Hallowell.

The donation complements Vaughan family material in the Bowdoin Library collection, says Gutscher.
