ANCESTOR'S SERVICES

My ancestor's ( Col Joan Houghton ) place of residence during (Name) the Revolution was New Jersey  Gol Joab Houghton , assisted in the establishment of American Independence during the War of the Revolution as follows:
Colonel Joab Houghton is the ancestor who assisted in establishing American Independence while acting in the capacity of Captain, Lieutenant Colonel and Colonel. He was commissioned a captain in the first regiment Hunterdon Co. New Jersey Militia, Col. Phillip Johnston's Battalion, Brig. General Nathanial Heard's Brigade New Jersey State Troops, July 1776, where he served for five months. He was attached to the Major Gen. Nathaniel Green's division in the Continental Army. He was at the Battle of Long Island New York Aug. 27, 1776 and White Plains New York, Oct. 28, 1776.  He was commissioned Colonel, First Regiment Hunterdon Co. New Jersey Militia, March 15, 1777. It was under his supervision that the first company for the war was made up after service at the old Hopewell, Baptist Church, when news of the Battle of Lexington reached them. He was with Washington's army at Long Island, and across the short hills of New Jersey and the Delaware.  The above information was received from the Adjutant General of Trenton New Jersey, as recorded in the War Department at Washington D.C.

Dear Irene:

In looking through the Colonial Governors Roster I was reminded that you are descended from Gov. Francis Lovelage of New York. Do you have the proof that he is the son of Sir William Lovelace and Anne Earne? Or who were his parents? Could you let me know? I am interested, not for ryself, in this particular situation. Anne Lovelace who married the Rev. John Gorsuch is, of course, the daughter of Sir William Lovelace and Anne Earne. Or by chance, is Francis the son of Sir William Lovelace and Elizabeth Aucher, the parents of the Sir William Lovelace who is the father of Anne Lovelace. Please Clarify for ma.

IF -- Francis was the son of Sir William Lovelace and Elizabeth Allerer then he is descended from St. Margaret of Scotland as follows (abbrev.):

Elizabeth Aucher m. Sir William Lovelace Edward Aucher m. Mabel Wroth Affra Cornwallis m. Sir Anthony Aucher william Cornwallis m. Elizabeth Stanford Philippa Tyrell m. Thomas Cornwallis Anne Pashley m. 2nd Edward Tyrell Philippa Sergeaux m.1st Sir Robert Pshley Philippa Fitz Alan, m. Sir Richard Sergeaux Sir Edmund Fitz Alan m. Sibyl Montagu Isabel Despenser m. Sir Richard Fitz Alan Alianore de Clare m. Joan Plantabenet Edward I, King of Eng. m. Eleanor of Castile Henry III m. Eleanor of Provence John Lackland m. Isabella of Angouleme Henry II m. Eleanor of Poitou Matilda of England m. Geoffrey Plantagenet Margaret of Scotland m. Henry I of Eng. St. Margaret of Scotland m. Malcolm III Canmore of Scotland

I do hope that your Francis is descended as above from Elizabeth Aucher because if he does then you could become an hereditary member of the Guilc of St. Margaret of Scotland. Let me know -- and if you do -- for & $10.00 genealogist fee -- payable to the Guild of St. Margaret of Scotland lineage forms will be sent to you to fill out, with proofsas in DAR, DFPA, Col Govs. etc. notarized, then Richard Coe, our Genealogist should have no trouble okaying your papers since you have your linear established in Col. Govs. Only the line through Elizabeth Aucher is acceptable -- the Barne ancestry is not. This new Lovelace line is found in the 35d edition of Magna Charta Sureties by Weis.

Be hearing from you

(Mrs. Lloyd Franklyn Wheeler)
