Mr. James Dean Lewis
6021 Summerdale Drive
Huntington Beach, CA 92647

Dear Mr. Lewis:

Mr. James Emerson told me of your interest in the Order of the Founders and Patriots of America. I am enclosing two worksheets for your use in applying for membership.

Each applicant must prove his own line of descent on the forms provided. These applications must be typed and accompanied by two sets of proof of descent and service to the United States. One set of documents is for the State of California Society, and the other set is for the National Society. Copies of membership applications for other organizations are not acceptable.

The proof of descent must be in a straight male line, from an ancestor who was in America prior to 1657. There is also a requirement to provide proof of some sort of service in the Revolutionary War by one or more of the descendants of the original settler. The line of descent may be in either of the applicant's grandparents's line, as shown on the enclosed chart.

The application forms do not call for data regarding the applicant; however, two copies of the birth record for the applicant; two copies of the marriage record for him and his wife (if there is one), and two copies of the wife's birth record must be supplied.

The enclosed preliminary applications should be typed and sent with two copies of the proof to me. The proof should be photocopies of books, birth certificates, marriage licenses, documents, etc. Be sure to include the title pages of any book. I will examine these documents, and send them on to the Registrar General. When the Registrar General approves the application, and returns the preliminary papers to me, I will send the approval to the applicant.

SENT 1/23/97

Then two of the regular application forms must be typed, and be signed by several members, voted upon, and resubmitted to the Registrar General. I will obtain all of the signatures and so forth. The applicant is to only fill out the formal applications.

In addition to the application fee of $25, which should be paid with the formal application, there is $20 per year dues, which includes the State and National Societies. This is to be paid to the California Treasurer, but I will tell you about this when the time comes.

The Founders and Patriots meet quarterly, in conjunction with the Society of Colonial Wars, here in the Los Angeles area. There is a program, which follows the lunch. Both organizations have fine members.

Please do not send mail to me by insured or registered mail. The mail is delivered at a different hour each day (if at all), and it is difficult to be here for the mail arrival. If I miss, it is required that I drive 3 miles each way to our postoffice, to obtain the mail. This postoffice is in a very undesirable area, and I have decided that I will not return there for mail.

Sincerely,

LETTER WRITTEN TO JOHN W. LEWIS
BY HIS BROTHER SYLVANUS D. LEWIS
(BROOKLYN, NY APRIL 24, 1870)

Brooklyn April 24 70

Dear Brother

Yours of the 12th inst. is rec^d and it pains me much to learn that your excellent wife is in delicate health.
You may well say her loss would be irreparable. Of the thousands of wives whom I have known in my life, she fulfils my ideal of what a wife should be as nearly as any woman I ever knew.
Heaven spare her many happy years to you and the children. In regard to your suggestion about removing out west
I doubt its propriety. I think generally an old settled country is more healthy than a new one. Ohio is much more healthy than it was thirty or forty years ago. I would sooner advise you to move East than west for health. But I have always been so healthy I have paid so little attention to the subject that I am not a very good authority on sanitary matters.

Mr. & Mrs. Butler who have lived in my house for two years and given us a home moved to Cooperstown in the Centre of this State three weeks ago and left Maria & I alone. So we have been furnishing the house and are keeping house with one servant girl. It is just twelve years since I broke up keeping house when I and my wife dissolved copartnership; and although I offered Mr. & Mrs. B. a present of $250. to stay another year over & above the liberal terms I was paying them their business required removal & now it is over we are not sorry. It is the only way, to be independent, to keep your own house and table. So now when you come to see me, I shall have a home to receive you in. It will take a month yet perhaps before we get every thing to suit us; but we have a house with 12 Rooms and it is mine and paid for, and we will have it furnished before long. Maria is delicate, not strong - but not sick often. If I can restrain her from going beyond her strength in cleaning up & getting up the house ^{in order} I shall be glad.

I am quite busy in Court almost daily, and am making & saving money. But sometimes lend to accommodate clients & friends and fear that some of my earnings may never come back to me. If I were more cold & selfish I could save more; but I should despise myself if I was a miser.

I regret very much Bruner's misfortune. I fear he will never be the strong vigorous active man he has been. I fear he was too ambitious, and worked too hard. Lauretta is still at school at Granville at my expense, and I do what I can to make Mary independent & happy.

I shall be 59 years old in May; but I enjoy better health than I did from 20 to 30.

Give my Love to your wife & children and believe me as ever

Your affectionate Brother

of William, Bishop of Evreux. He with his father fought in the Battle of Hastings. His father became a monk in the Benedictine Abbey of Bec. Gerard de Gournai died in Palestine in 1086. They had

19. Hugh, Baron de Gournai, who married Millicent de Maria, daughter of Thomas, Lord of Gouvy. He had
20. Hugh de Gournai, Baron, married Lady Julia Dumphartin, sister of Reginald, Count de Boulogne. He lost his Norman estates through political troubles, and took refuge in England. He was buried in Langley Abbey, Norfolk, and was Lord of Beverston. He had

22. Robert de Gournai, Lord of Beverston. He had
23. Anselm de Gournai, Lord of Beverston. He had
24. John de Gournai, Lord of Beverston, He married Lady Olivia, daughter of Henry Lovel, Baron of Castle Cary. They had
25. Elizabeth de Gournai, who married Sir John Ap Adam (son of Ap Adam) of Beverston and Tidenham, Lord Ap Adam by writ, who was called to Parliament by Edwal I as "Baron of the Realm" from A. D. 1286 to 1307, and he came out of the marches or borders of Wales into Devonshire, Lords of the Marches were noblemen, who in the early days inhabited and secured the Marches of Wales and Scotland, ruling as independent kings, with their private laws. Lady Elizabeth de Gournai was, it is historically stated, related to all the reigning houses of Europe. Sir John Ap Adam's estates were large, not only in his own right, but he received valuable estates from his wife. Their names are found in many books on heralds and peerages. He was engaged in the Scottish wars. There remains to this day a beautiful stained glass window to his memory in the church of Tidenham, with his name, coat-of-arms, and the date in the upper part. His coat-of-arms is given as: "Argent; a cross gules, 5 mullets or. Crest; out of a ducal coronet, a demi-lion." This means that on a silver ground, was a red cross which extended from the top to the bottom and to each side, and on this cross were five golden stars. The crest is given in Fairhairn's (!sic - Fairbanks) Crests; and is the head and principal part of the body of a lion, rampant guardant—that is: erect, and the right paw raised; facing front. In the upper part of a Gothic window in Tidenham church, near Chepstow, the name of Lord Ap Adam, 1310, and "Arms, argent, on a cross gules, five mullets or" is still to be found, beautifully executed in stained glass of great thickness, and in a perfect state of preservation. This church, well preserved, originally stood within the boundary of Wales, but at a later period the boundary line was changed, and it now stands on English soil.
The children of Sir John Ap Adam and Elizabeth de Gournai, his wife, were (a) Sir Thomas Ap Adam (who married, and had issue;) (b) Sir John Ap Adam, (Knight, heir to his father); (c) William Ap Adam (who married, and had issue); and (d) Sir Roger Ap Adam (of Lancaster).

"To be buried according to the disposing of executors. Loving wife, Sarah, confirmed in the agreement I made with her before marriage, and having allowed her the annuity belonging to her by the will of her former husband which she had reserved to her own proper use, I do allow it to her and her right not to be questioned; also I give her my great chest and the highest chair in the room wherein we live, both of which she is to restore again at her death, or if she shall marry again, also all the money I leave, and not to be accountable to any one, to live and dwell in the house, enjoying the parlor wholly for one year. To eldest son, John Adams (beside what has been given him) twenty pounds to be paid by executor within 12 months. To son Isaac Adams five pounds by the year during life in good merchantable pay, as English corn, pork, beef and such like; also my wearing clothes and the bed in the north garret and all the furniture belonging to it, and the least brass pot and pot hooks and liberty to make use of said garret during life, unless he marry, then he shall leave it. To daughter Hannah Adams twenty pounds within a year. To Joanna and her child, the bed and furniture to it in the parlor, and the bigger brass pot, and the chest, and the chair which formerly mentioned is returned—to have said legacy when full 18 years of age, or be married.

	11	Hazen's History of Billerica lists 9 children with the following five as probable: Thomas, Sarah who married Samuel Kemp, 1662, at Billerica, John, Increase, and Jonathan. The Foster Genealogy lists Sarah as daughter of Andrew and Ann of Andover (p.1032). History of Weymouth lists Thomas, John, Hopestill, and Joseph in this family and states the last two were born at Braintree, but the births were not found recorded in the Braintree vital records. Hazen definitely places Experience as a child in this family.--fb

Mayflower Families 1st 5 generations
She was Sec Gen of Mayflower Society

221 (Our number) JONATHAN⁴ White (Jonathan³, Peregrine², William¹), living as late as Jan. 1739/40 when he signed a release on the estate of his father.

He married, Yarmouth record, 1717, DORCAS (GODFREY) HAMBLIN, no month or date given, but the marriage is entered between those of 1716 and 1717. Dorcas was daughter of John and Martha (Joyce) Godfrey and a 5th generation descendant of John Howland. Dorcas married first at Yarmouth, 29 Mar. 1715, Israel Hamblen. There is no probate of his estate, but the Yarmouth records, after listing the children of Jonathan and Dorcas White, immediately give "Israel son to Irall(sic) Hamblin and Darcas b. 15 Feb. 1725 (sic)." This is the custom in the Yarmouth records for listing children of a remarried widow, by her first husband. It is probable that this Israel was actually born in 1715 and the one who married at Yarmouth in 1738 to Bathsheba Bakor and had Thankful (1739) and Isral (1741). The will of John Godfrey of Yarmouth, dated 7 Aug. 1735 names grandson John Godfrey, son Uriah, daughters Elizabeth, Priscilla and Dorothy Godfrey, daughters Casly (Godfrey?) and Martha Bassett deceased, daughter Darkis White, daughter Elizabeth Godfrey, children of daughter Thankful Hakes, children of daughter Mehitable Parkins. The witnesses deposed 23 Oct. 1735 (Barnstable PR 5:253).

There is no record of Dorcas or Israel Hamblin in the land records of Barnstable Co.

The family apparently moved away from Yarmouth, as there is no further record in the land, probate or vital records of the town or county.

Children (WHITE) born in Yarmouth were:

- 2211 i Dorcas⁵ b. 8 Dec. 1717, married in Yarmouth, 29 May 1740, JOSEPH THORP of Barnstable, possibly the one born at Chatham, 16 Apr. 1720 to Thomas and Mehitable (----) Thorp. There is no record of Dorcas or Joseph in the Barnstable Co. PR or LR.
- X - ii John b. 15 Feb. 1719
iii Martha b. 1 Sept. 1722
iv Temperance b. 8 Apr. 1725
v Susanna b. 25 July 1727
vi Thankful b. 18 Aug. 1729 (not the one who m. Eben. Paine at Y in 1756) vii Desire b. 1 Oct. 1732
viii Fear b. 14 Apr. 1735

QUAKER CEMETERY

The following stones were read in the Quaker Cemetery, located off Turkey Hill Road in Newburyport, in 1931 by Mr. Dean Poor of West Newbury, Mass. The original transcription, which he recorded, is in the possession of the West Newbury Historical Society.

Very few stones can be found in the cemetery today.

Quakers did not usually place stones on graves, so it is believed there are many unmarked graves in this cemetery.

LINDA KAY RADER

P.O. Box 27391

December 4, 1997

Mr. James D. Lewis
6021 Summerdale Dr.
Huntington Beach, CA 92647

Dear Mr. Lewis:

Thank you for sending in your query on the Benedict and Granger lines. I am an avid amateur researcher of that area. In my major current project, I am reconstructing many cemetery records near your Blendon area. Actually, I just returned yesterday from my nearly monthly visits for just that purpose. Both names are known locally. Both should be relatively easy to track. Both are eligible for the Pioneer Families of Franklin County, Ohio. That is where you just lucked out! I just was inducted into the Pioneer Families myself - on 20 families before 1830, but 19 of those were in Franklin Co. prior to 1820. Below are the names of a couple folks with the surnames Granger and Benedict that I have recorded in Franklin County, as well as a couple folks/places who should be able to help you in your search. In the interim, while I am not (to my current knowledge) of those lines, they were certainly swimming, eating, schooling, and attending religious services with many of my family. These days, nothing surprises me.

KNOWN GRAVES:

GRANGER: There was a _____ Granger, dau. of M. Granger, who died 28 Jan 1834, aged 4-5 years. She was buried in St. John's Episcopal Cemetery, Sharon Township, bordering Blendon Twp to the west. It is east of both the Olentangy River, and Rt. 23, but west of I-71; and just along Rt. 161 (an early transport route), by Howard Rd. The Howards were also part of the Duvall clan (see "Background"). The Wetmore, Rice, Phinney/Pinney, Beach, Kilbourn, Goodrich and Taylor families are all, I believe, from the same CT/VT area. The Mock (Mauck), Stump (Stumpff) families also in that cemetery are both well represented in the Riverside Cemetery down along Sunbury Road. That is where my families in that part of the city are centered. All these names came from Vol. XI, Corrections and Addenda published by the FCGS in 1997. Granger was on p. 136. I went to Ohio State with some Grangers, so I know they are still in central Ohio.

BENEDICT: There are two Benedicts in what is known as the old Ridenour Cemetery, now a part of the Mifflin Cemetery, Mifflin Township, Franklin County, Ohio. These plat maps were burned in a fire in 1936. "Benedict, Pheobe 1855-1919; and Albert 1846 - ____." p. 31 of Vol. XI, publ. 1997 NOTE: The Ridenours married, coincidentally (?), into the Agler/Baughman family.

BENEDICT: Mifflin Cemetery, Mifflin Township, Franklin County, Ohio. "Benedict, Louvina 1852-1931 (Mother); and Levi 1851-1919 (Father)." Interestingly, they are buried near the Wolf, Kitzmiller, Ulry, and Swickard Families, all of whom married into the Agler/Baughman family, which are also represented at Riverside.

BENEDICT: Maplewood Cemetery, Blendon Township, Franklin County, Ohio. "Benedict, J.W. b. 8 July 1871; d. 16 June 1897." Also listed as numerous Baughman, Swickard, and Ulry burials. Enough said on that point. Also in that cemetery are Dent and Brooks graves. I am of the Dent and Brooke (often seen as Brooks) lines (also tied in with this Mareen Duvall clan, but with a twist of royal blood lineage through several of the Brooke lines - as well as a gaggle of signers of the Declaration of Independence. The Needles family of this cemetery is also seen at Riverside, as are descendants of both Dent and Brooke. This section of Vol. XI identifies corrections to the previously published Vol. IV, Blendon Township. Sounds like you just need to peruse that book. NOTE: The Central Blendon (the Old Church) Pioneer Cemetery covers Noble and Perry, known Connecticut families which are intermarried with several of my cousins' families.

BACKGROUND:

Westerville, Ohio, and the name Sophronia tell me two immediate things. First, Sophronia is an extremely fortunate name for research since a) it was common in that community, including the variations of Sophronica and Sophia, and b) it was common in that community among only one family grouping, so the ancestors should be easy to pinpoint. "Sophronia et al." is found heavily among the Agler, Denune/Howard/Griffith/Page (all part of the Duvall clan of MD.), Baughman (Bachman way back then), Eaton/Hazelett, and Beckwith/Dill and allied families. Allied in an extreme understatement!!! Many had been "allied" for two hundred years before they ever even arrived in Franklin County. Many are buried in the Riverside Cemetery, Mifflin Township, (immediately east of Alum Creek) Franklin Co., Ohio. These early records were burned in a fire in. Many meandered up the river to the next settlement in Westerville and have remained there ever since.

As for your specific families of Blendon, I have found trends. One big group came from Prince Georges County, and Ann Arundel County, Maryland. Another came from Connecticut/Vermont. A third came from the Mennonite communities in Bucks County, PA. A fourth came, also from Bucks County, PA., and Burlington, NJ, as Quakers. Most all came on Revolutionary War Land Grants (those are all available on microfilm through your local Latter Day Saints (Mormon) family history research library - no need to be LDS to use it. Even the Quakers fought; therefore, they were forced to leave the Meeting. Many stopped in Western PA in what they thought was Virginia, but in 1784 turned into Pennsylvania Counties of Westmoreland and Allegheny due to the implementation of the extension of the Mason-Dixon Line. Two to five years together in one place and there are many marriages BEFORE they ever came to Ohio. Knowing that, these family trees just start looking like bowls of spaghetti. Ah, but the flavor of that spaghetti is a different as pasta sauce is to pesto sauce is to marinara. That is where the fascinating personalities and individual characters make their permanent mark on their own branches.

1. You can call Marjorie Winn at the Franklin County Genealogical Society and ask to see if anyone else has turned in their family lineage on Granger +/or Benedict lines. She kiddingly refers to me as her "lady from Houston," so tell her I sent you if you would, please, as it pleases me to send researchers to the right place - for free - when so many people have to spend small fortunes to find relatively easy data. Ask for the family files with those surnames. They now have - brand new - an internet surfing offer to study, for 1/2 hour, any Franklin County historical family for free. They only have two volunteers who know the internet, so don't expect much yet on that front. (614)
 2. "Cemeteries of Franklin County, Ohio." by the Franklin County Genealogical Society has published twelve books of cemeteries in the county. Ask them for advise. They are only $20.00. I'll check mine for you, but I only have a couple so far. Blendon Township cemeteries are recorded in Vol. IV with the "catchy" subtitle, "Blendon Township."
 3. Meg Scott. She is the expert's expert on these Pioneer Families. She has astonishingly complete records. I am in total awe of her. Marjorie can give her name and number. The only possible glitch is that she is a bit worn out doing this research, so Marjorie will need to run interference.
 4. 1825 Chattel Tax List from Franklin County, Ohio. See the Franklin County Genealogical Society under Blendon/Mifflin/Sharon Tp.
 5. 1810, 1820 and 1830 Census of Ohio. If you do not have access to these, they are at the Ohio Historical Society on 17th Ave. in Columbus. They are also at the local genealogical library here in Houston. If you get stuck, just give me a buzz and I'll run them down for you.
 6. Franklin County, Ohio Marriage Records. Available at the Ohio Historical Society. Note spelling changes to and/or misspelled German, Swiss, Scottish and/or Irish names transcribed by English clerks of questionable spelling experience with non-English names.
 7. Westerville's library has a bunch of information on those old settlers. If they are related to the Rugg's of CT, then they are probably buried in the old pioneer section of the Westerville Cemetery on Route 23 (High Street as it approaches Columbus).
 8. Connecticut Soldiers who fought in the Revolution (close on title, but not exact). I found it last week at the Fletcher Free Library in Burlington, Vermont.
 9. Ohio Genealogical Society. Like every other place I wish to visit this winter, they have closed for a year, starting this week. They have a society for early Ohio families, but this time, pre-1820. Your families may qualify. They are located in Mansfield, Ohio (just an hour north of Columbus). They, too, have family files and way-cool family chart sections. But as that was where I found your query, it is just FYI.

OFFER TO ASSIST/TRADE INFORMATION:

If you send me what you know of the ancestors (including any charts you may wish to share), then I shall be glad to plug them into my trusty computer and see what shakes out. These families with whom I believe your family came in contact came as early as 1797 and as late as 1820 to Franklin County. They founded Westerville, Gahanna, and practically everything else up on that North side (now mostly gobbled up by Columbus). They are also all my own families. As a fourth and/or fifth generation amateur genealogist (depends whether it was maternal or paternal, respectively), I am writing the history of over twenty of the early Franklin County families - from the original ancestor down to the current day. I am only 1-1/2 years and 8000 persons into submitting them into the computer programs, but my best guess is that I already have about 15,000 folks tied in. I run an energy consulting firm and I input on the road, in airplanes and airplane terminals, and scour libraries and old book stores in nearly all of the cities I visit.

Quite coincidentally, I often run across letters from local researchers in the Columbus/Franklin County area (my home town) as well as their descendants (scattered far and wide). People just invite me into their homes and I dissect their records for a day or a weekend, often with squeals of delight. At first glance, many names are not familiar to me. The entire family might not fit into my current knowledge base, so I return the letters/documents/deeds to the appropriate file and continue my reading. Then I record what I can and go about my merry way until it strikes me where they fit in - often weeks or months later. The widow of one of the late, but great, fabulous Agler researchers copied some of these letters for me to continue my research as she went south for the winter, and it turns out that one writer was the mother of another one of the people with whom I was communicating - one was in Columbus, and the other was in Prospect, Ohio, just NW of Westerville; and the one in Prospect's daughter worked with yet another Agler/Baughman/Denune/Duvall heir, and diligent researcher, in Sunbury (literally just up the old Westerville Pike and seriously interrelated with all the Blendon folks.) Many of these folks moved to California in the gold rush. Many more moved on to Delaware, Auglaize, Logan, Champaign, and Hardin Counties, Ohio, before they moved west to Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, etc. So many stayed, however, as to make genealogy quite simple once the inner circle has been broken.

What can this lady in Houston add, you might ask. For starters, I would be glad to catalog what you share of whatever you know of dates of birth/marriage/death/burial & the place each occurred (city or township, county, and state), for as many of these persons as possible. I'll just stick them into my query base when I go in researching. Right time. The Sophronia part is all the clue I need, so If you wish to join forces, then I'd be glad to help. When I see matches, then I shall put you in touch with the others of your line. Pretty straight forward.

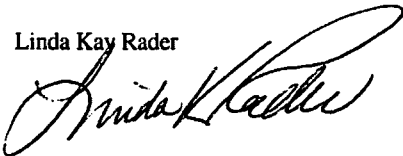

REQUEST FOR FAMILY DATA:

All I do ask for, in return, is information. Beyond the basics of "who" and "where," I am looking for the "why" and "how" questions as well. What do you know that adds personality to a name on a piece of paper? Color Commentary. Personality. Depth. Warmth. Passions. Dreams (both realized and shattered). What did these people do? What were their hobbies? Why did they live where they did? What possessed them to move, if in fact they did? Why California? Did they serve in the military? Why did each family come to Columbus/Franklin County? From where? Are families buried together? Who were the spouses? What was important in their lives? Did they attend church? All the same one? As the marriages occurred between the nationalities, how did it affect church beliefs? Were they political? Which party? (Funny question, perhaps, but I always thought all Agler's were Republicans, and now I realize that they were split right down the middle (still are). Big surprise to me was that many were Democrats. Perhaps we lost touch with some because of those sentiments.)

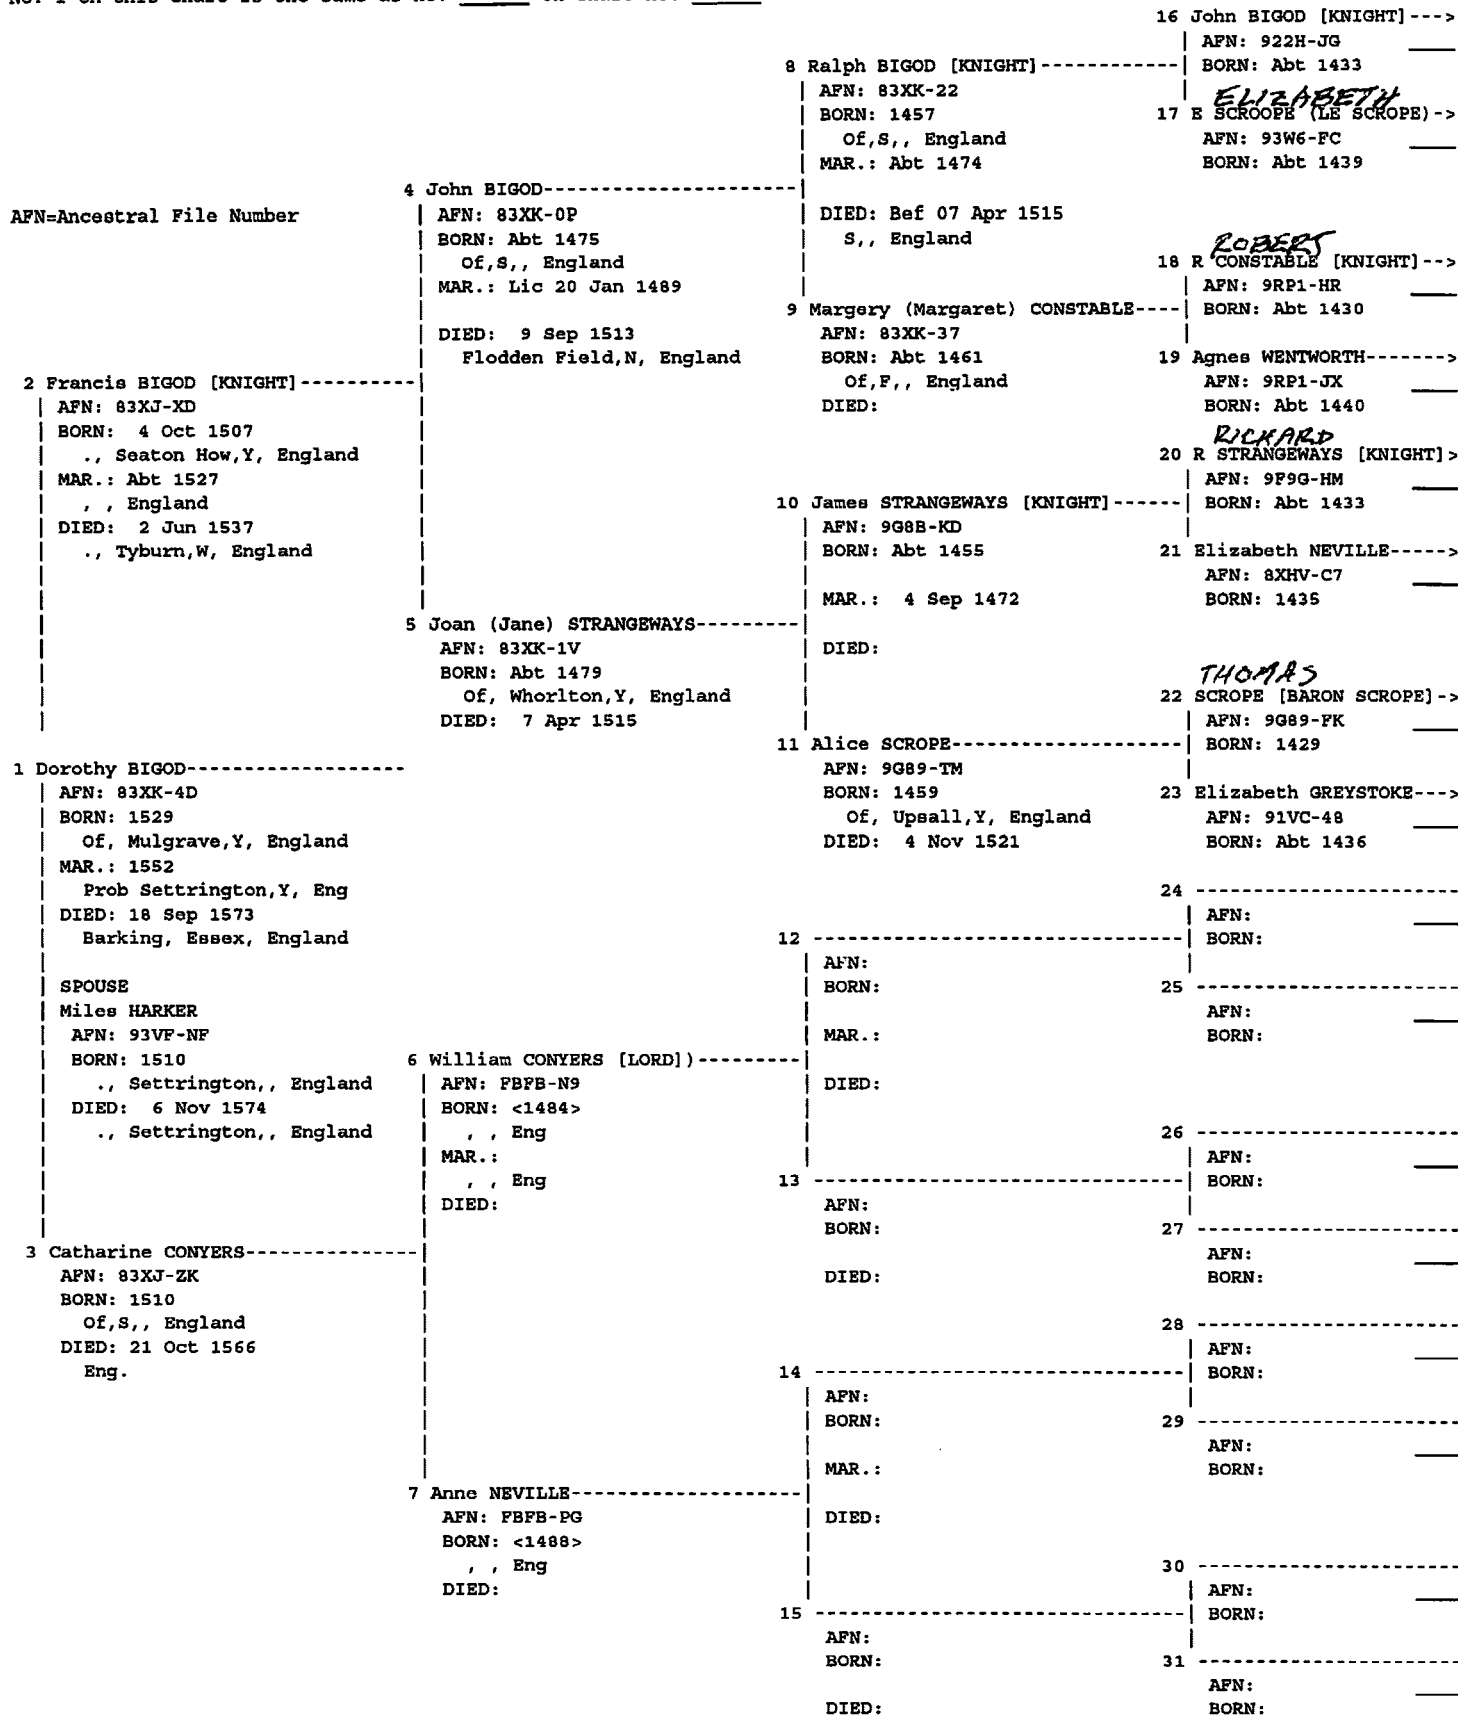

I work out of my home, and need to get back to it. In Houston, Texas, my phone number is (713) 621-0808. My fax number is (713) 621-9404. My e-mail is natgas101@att.net. I enclosed a simple chart taking you back 6 generations on my family in Columbus/Franklin County. That should be a clue to you of their locations - literally surrounding the city, and spilling over into/from the neighboring counties. As a reference, I have filed this letter under "Agler" in my computer. That is how sure I am that you fit in there somewhere. Maybe not on my direct line, but certainly on one of the laterals. I may be taking a temporary assignment in another city, but the mail would be forwarded and the e-mail would still work.

Sincerely yours,

and their friends were many. Their children, with the exception of our subject and Michael, who is a resident of Wisconsin, all make their home in Iowa.

In the common schools of Wisconsin Henry W. Nippert obtained his education; when twenty-three years old he moved with his parents to Pottawattamie county, Iowa, where he was married five years later, February 18, 1880, to Miss Augustina Grone, who was born in Honey Creek, Sauk county, Wisconsin, September 22, 1856. Her parents, John F. and Wilhelmina (Albertus) Grone, were also natives of the fatherland, and emigrated with their respective parents to America, the former at the age of fourteen, the latter at the age of nine. They were united in marriage in Wisconsin and to them were born fourteen children, of whom eight are still living, namely: Augustina, Frederick, Paulina, Arthur, William, George, Joseph and Matilda, all of whom are now living in Nebraska. Several years ago three of the children removed to Furnas county, Nebraska, but, preferring this section of the state, they returned thither, where they are now comfortably situated. Mr. and Mrs. Grone are now living retired in Bruning, Nebraska, at the ages of seventy-five and sixty-four years, respectively, and enjoy good health. Here they are surrounded by loving children and a host of warm friends. Mr. and Mrs. Nippert have an interesting family of five children: John, Oscar, Warde, Joseph and Pearl.

Our subject and his wife began their domestic life upon a rented farm for one year, when he purchased one hundred and twenty acres of raw land for nine dollars per acre, and to the improvement and cultivation of that place he devoted his time and attention until the spring of 1887, when he sold it for twenty-eight dollars per acre. He then brought his family to Fillmore county, Nebraska, one hundred and sixty acres at sixteen dollars and fifty cents. It was only partially improved, and the only buildings standing thereon were a very small house and a smaller straw stable, but the place is now under a high state of cultivation and improved with good and substantial buildings, which stand as monuments to his thrift and industry, for he has worked hard to make it one of the best farms of the locality. It is all conveniently arranged in modern style and testifies to the enterprising and progressive spirit of the owner, who is recognized as one of the most thorough and skillful farmers of the community. Both he and his wife are held in high regard by all who have the pleasure of their acquaintance.

CLARENCE H. POST.—Perhaps no man in all York county is so well known for his intelligence, active public spirit and thorough appreciation of the wants of his locality as the gentleman whose name heads this article. He came to the county at an early day, and has since been identified with all matters pertaining to the improvement and upbuilding of the better interests of Thayer township, in which he makes his home. His active participation in the public affairs has not been confined to his own township, but he has thoroughly acquainted himself and has been associated in all matters relating to the affairs of the entire county.

Mr. Post is a son of John T. and Elizabeth A. (Chapin) Post, who were both natives of New York, and they settled in Illinois in 1853. The father followed the occupation of farming in Illinois until 1883, at which time he removed to Stromsburg, Nebraska, where they remained for awhile, and then removed to California, where Mr. Post now makes his home, his wife having died August 14, 1898. John T. Post was a

Mrs. Poynter Dies In Klamath Falls

Mrs. Maud Grace Poynter, wife of Omar S. Poynter, passed away in Klamath Falls Saturday, April 25, where she had gone to be with her daughter, Mrs. Leatha Tousley. She was taken sick, supposedly with influenza, in Vernonia about eight weeks before, and thinking that the change would do her good she went to Klamath Falls. After being there only about a week pneumonia set in and afterwards Bright's disease. Her husband gave her a blood transfusion in the hope that it might lead to her recovery. She was in the hospital there until she entered into rest.

Interment was in the Hood River cemetery in a marble vault under a profusion of beautiful flowers. She leaves to mourn her going her husband and three daughters, Leatha E. Tousley of Klamath Falls, Myrna M. Drorbaugh of Vernonia and Gwendolyn Poynter, who is attending the Northwest School of Commerce at Portland, two bro-

MAUDE GRACE POYNTER

Maude Grace Poynter, a native of Dixon county, Neb., and a resident of Klamath Falls the past 30 days, entered into rest Saturday noon, April 25, her demise terminating an illness of three weeks. She was in her 41st year when called. Mourners, after passing, she leaves her husband, Omar S. Poynter, three daughters, Leatha E. Tousley of Klamath Falls, Myrna M. Drorbaugh of Vernonia, Ore., and two brothers, Dave and Alfred Fuller; five sisters, Mrs. Della Tubbs, Daisy Hennagan, Blanche Kautz, Bertha Peterson, Cora Isenberg.

The funeral will be held at the Methodist church in Hood River Friday, at 2 o'clock.

Omar Poynter Taken by Death

Omar Poynter, 80, who had lived on his present farm home on Keasey Route since 1920, passed away in Portland very suddenly Sunday morning while visiting at the home of his daughter for the week end. His death was attributed to a heart attack.

Funeral services for him will be conducted today, Thursday, August 30, at 11:00 a.m. at the First Christian church with arrangements entrusted to Fuiten's Chapel in the Hills Mortuary, Vernonia.

The Rev. Bruce Roebrts, the church pastor, will officiate at the services with Mrs. Frank Serafin serving as soloist accompanied by Mrs. Lloyd Thomas as organist. Lodge rites at the services will be under the auspices of Vernonia Lodge No. 246 I.O.O.F. Concluding rites and vault interment will be at the Idlewild cemetery at Hood River at 2:30 p.m.

Mr. Poynter was a native of Bath county, Kentucky where he was born July 24, 1882. He spent his early years there and as a young man came to the Hood River area where he worked in the logging industry. After his marriage he moved to Portland and continued in the logging industry in the Northwest.

In 1919 he was one of a group of men who took the contract to clear the right of way for the railroad to come into Vernonia and he moved his family here a short while later. After the railroad employment, he worked for many years for the Koster Wood Products logging division. From 1939 until its closing he worked at the Oregon-American mill in Vernonia. He had always enjoyed living here and took pride in the outdoor sports of hunting and fishing.

He was united in marriage at Vancouver, Washington on February 10, 1939 to Eva Tindall who survives. Also surviving are his three daughters, Mrs. Herbert (Leatha) Peterson, Oakland, California; Mrs. Virgil (Myrna) Drorbaugh, Yucca Valley, California and Mrs. George (Gwendolyn) Blanton, Portland; two step children, Mrs. Lyle (Betty) Hildreth, Portland and Robert Tindall, Newport; eight grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

GEORGE RILEY HALL

BY G.R.H.

SAMUEL HALL, my father was a native of New England, born in Thompson, Vermont on the 8th of October, 1807. We have no accurate record of his ancestors as his father died when he was a child. His father, my grandfather, may have been the Lyman Hall who signed the Declaration of Independence. If not we believe that Lyman was our uncle.

BETSEY WYMAN HALL, my mother, was born in the Province of Upper Canada on August 9, 1813. She and my father were married on January 31, 1833. They had eight children, five boys and three girls. (Listed on the first page).

I, GEORGE RILEY, the second son of Samuel Hall and Betsey Wyman Hall, was born in Compton County of Stansted, Canada East, June 29, 1836. I lived with my parents on a farm, attending school until sixteen years old when we moved to Racine County, Wisconsin where they lived for two years. We then moved to Waukesha County, town of Vernon, where I worked on a farm in the summer and going to school in the winter. In the spring of 1856 our family traveled by prairie schooner over land to the town of Plainview, Minnesota, where we arrived, after a journey of seventeen days, on June 11th. We located on government land in Sec. 4, Plainview Township, and started a farm. I enlisted in the Federal Army in 1863 for three years during the war. Discharged on May 22, 1865.

On the 17th day of October, 1858 ELECTA AUSTIN and I were married at Honey Creek, Wisconsin. Born of this union were four girls. (Listed on first page).

I was a member of the House of Representatives of the Minn. Legislature in 1877 and 1878. We moved to the village of Plainview in 1880, engaged in the lumber business, was agent for Laird Norton Company for fourteen years. Since then I have been in the milling and elevator business, forming a partnership with F. L. Meachum and Sons., built an elevator and a flouring mill which we operated for ten years, when I gave up active work in 1905. As an active Republican I served in many town offices--Chr. of Supervisors, assessor, Justice of the Peace, a member of the Bd. of Education, Plainview School Dist. for 15 years, Prs. of the Bd. for 6 years. I am a Royal Arch Mason, united with the order in 1868, have a high regard for the institution of Masonry.

My next birthday, if I succeed in reaching that date, will land me at three score and ten mark, a septuagenarian, so my habits must have been nearly as regular as Mark Twain's. On his 70th birthday Twain said his regular habits would account for the many years he had attained--he always went to bed when he could find no one to sit up with, and got up when he had to. He only smoked one cigar at a time, and never had indulged in smoking cigars while asleep. I am trying to practice this strict economy myself, and by so doing I may get add a few more years to my life.

Enough for my necrology. Perhaps when you have the time you can improve on this, but perhaps this can supply some of the data you wanted for your purposes.

G.R.H.

This family history was contained in a letter from George Riley Hall ~~in a~~ to his daughter Nellie Hall Lewis (Mrs. Charles D. Lewis) in answer to her request for her family history. The letter was dated March 29, 1905.

G.R.H. died on October 8, 1915.

ISABELLA HEIRESS OF

Courtenay, and maternal grandmother of Isabella of Anjouleme, wife of King John of England, married Peter de Courtenay, son of Louis VI., King of France and his wife Adelaide, daughter of Humbert II., count of Maurienne. Wanted, antecedents of Isabella of Courtenay and also of Adelaide, wife of Louis VI.

4537 4/31.2

3. COURTENAY, Adelaide, wife of Louis VI, king of France, was daughter of Humbert II. Count of Savoy, Maurienne, and Piedmont, probably by Gisela, his wife, daughter of William II, Count of Burgundy; though some say his wife was Laurentia, daughter of the Count of Venica. Humbert II (died 1103) was son of Amadeus II (died 1095?); grandson of Odo or Otto (died 1060); great-grandson of Humbert I Alblmanus, or Umberto Blancamano, "Humbert the White-Handed," founder of the House of Savoy, who died 1048 (or another accounts says died after 1056).
ALASKA

(1080) ELINOR 1181/35

2. COURTENAY, de BOHUN. Simon Hadley, Sr., was descended from Sir Phillip Courtenay and Margaret de Bohun. I would like the Courtenay and de Bohun ancestry. How was Sir Phillip Courtenay related to Sir Hugh Courtenay, one of the founders of the Most Noble Order of the Garter?

1080. 2. COURTENAY, de BOHUN. E. D. H. S., Nov. 8, 1935. I find in Vol. 2 of "The Conqueror and His Companions": "Humphrey, 4th Earl of Hereford, married Princess Elizabeth Plantagenet, daughter of Edward I; daughter Margaret

Auxema. Browning's "Magna Charta Barons" gives: "Henry de Bohun, Surety, had Humphrey (2, 3, 4, 5), had Margaret, married Sir Hugh de Courtenay, son of Sir Hugh."
My records do not mention any Phillip in this line of descent. Shipworth's "Magna Charta Lines" also gives this data as above. I am of this clan.
G.T.K.

MARRIED HUGH DE COURTENAY, COUNT OF

(7486.) Will someone please comment on the following line which I believe comes from a Drake genealogy in the New York General and Biographical Record, Vol. 27. Dates and further genealogy on the distaff lines and families are requested.

Robert Courtney married Mary de Vernon.
John Courtney (successor to title 1242) married Isabella de Vere (I have this line).
Hugh Courtney married Eleanor _____?

Hugh Courtney, First Earl Devon.
Hugh Courtney, Second Earl Devon, married Margaret Bohun. The Encyclopedia Britannica says she was named Margaret, I have her ancestry.
Edward Courtney of Goderston, married Emaline daughter of Sir John d'Awney.
Sir Hugh Courtney of Haccomb married Maud, daughter of Sir John Beaumont.

Margaret Courtney married Sir Theobald Grenville of Stowe (have no older Grenville genealogy and would appreciate additions).
Sir Thomas Grenville married Phillipe, daughter of Lord William Bonville.
Sir Thomas Grenville married Elizabeth, daughter of Sir Theobald Gorges.

of Ormond, married, second, Sir Thomas Dagworth. Does anyone know the name of the fourth daughter and whom she married?

The mothers of the Bohuns, beginning with the wife of Humphrey II, were: Maud, daughter of Edward de Saresbury; Margaret, daughter of Miles de Gloucester, created Earl of Hereford; Margaret, daughter of Prince Henry of Scotland and sister of William the Lion; Maud, sister of William de Mandeville and daughter of Geoffrey FitzPiers, Earl of Essex; Maud, daughter of Raoul "de Issodoun," Count of Eu (of the Lusignan family); Allanore, daughter of William de Briouze; Maud, daughter of Ingelram de Fiennes; Princess Elizabeth, mentioned above.

The Courtenay line is from "Genealogical History of Courtenay," by B. Cleaveland, B. D. (1735), and agrees with G. E. Cockayne's Complete Peerage (revised edition) except for Reginald (4) and Robert (5). G. E. Cockayne gives Reginald; Renaud; Robert and, as mother of Robert, Hawise d'Avranches (died 1219), daughter of William de Curcy by Maud d'Avranches, Lady of Okehampton, daughter of Robert d'Avranches of 1130 by a daughter of Gilduin de Dol. The Robert, son of Reginald, was of Sutton and his only son William died without issue, 1214, when his property was inherited by William de Cantelupe and Vitalis d'Engaine. A. S. Ellis in Notes and Queries, Sixth series, 3:1, 52, discusses this point of the pedigree at some length but names Renaud as Reginald II.

(The Bohun ancestry is from the G. E. Cockayne's Peerage, beginning with Humphrey III, the first two generations are from Her. and Gen., 6:488, and Gen. 28:122.)

I should like to sound a strong note of caution as to the descent of Hadley from de Courtenay. This ancestry is one of the most illustrious and most ramified, with the exception of that of Edward III and Phillipa of Hainault, and the student can well spend months of careful study charting the various roots. However, the whole line breaks down if a single link is incorrect or unprovable. Extreme care should be exercised in examining and verifying the Courtenay-Hadley descent before becoming too deeply involved in medieval nobility.

NORTHWESTERN.

Mar. 25, 1936

1080. 2. COURTENAY, DeBOHUN, HADLEY. "Northwestern." Feb. 27, 1936. I am a descendant of George Bonum who married Sarah Morton, Dec. 20, 1644, through his son George, born Feb. 2, 1655, and married Elizabeth Jenney April 17, 1681 or 1683. I have often wondered if "de Bohun" and "Bonum" are the same. I shall be very thankful if "Northwestern" or some one else will inform me. If so, was George Bonum connected with the de Bohuns, and if so, how?

18. BENEDICT. Can A. C. D. G. or E. G. S. give me the maiden name and ancestry of the wife of Lieutenant John (4) Benedict (Captain John 3, James 2, Thomas 1)? She is called Lydia in the Bonedict Genealogy.

Keeler, and lived in Ohio. Wanted, the ancestry of Rev. Russell Keeler and the name of wife of Joel C. Howe.

2. BENEDICT. Esther Benedict, married Joseph Ives, May 11, 1697 (Cheshire-Wallingford, Conn., records). Who were her parents?

DEF 12/27/26
(4945.) 1. BENEDICT. Lieut. John Olmstead (baptized Hartford, Conn., Dec. 30, 1649, died 1704), married Mary Benedict, daughter of Thomas and Mary (Bridgum) Benedict. Wanted, parents of Thomas Benedict.

8. BENEDICT. John Benedict of Norwalk, born about 1705, married about 1730, Elizabeth —. What was her ancestry?
R. W. W.

(4945.) 1. BENEDICT. D. E. F., Dec. 7, 1926. Lieut. Thomas Benedict, 1617-1690, came with his stepsister, Mary Bridgum (Brigham), to Massachusetts Bay Colony in 1638. He married Mary — in 1640. Between 1640 and 1665 he lived in Southold, L. I., Hassamawac and Jamaica, although his name appears on the list of settlers of Norwalk in 1656. He was lieutenant in Capt. Byron Newton's Foot Company, Jamaica, in 1665, member of the Colonial Assembly at Hempstead in 1665, Deputy from Norwalk to the General Court 1670-1675. His daughter, Mary, married Lieut. John Olmstead, July 17, 1673. Thomas Benedict came from Nottinghamshire, Eng., where his father, grandfather and great-grandfather, all named William, lived and died. The names of their wives are not known. Authorities: List of ancestors, Colonial Wars Society; Connecticut Genealogy; Olmstead Genealogy.

2. BENEDICT, MEYERS. Barbara Benedict married Conrad (Henry) Myers, who was later in the War of 1812. They were living in Northumberland County, Pa., in 1804, where a daughter Mary was born. Barbara died in Mercer County, about 1866. Can anyone give us any data concerning her parents?

3. William Benedict, only son of above, lived in Nottinghamshire. Nothing further known of him.
3. William Benedict, only son of above. Henry Huillocke of Darbyshire (next to Nottinghamshire) in his will of 1610 mentions his wife (whose name was either Margaret or Edith, probably one succeeded the other) and his son (in-law) William Benedict, gentleman, and daughter Ann. This William Benedict later married a widow Bridgum (Bridgeham) with a daughter. He must have died somewhere between the birth of his son in 1617 and the emigration of the latter in 1638.

4. BENEDICT, HOWE. Harriett Benedict, born Dec. 5, 1801, probably Shoreman, Vt., married Jan. 15, 1825, Joseph Hall Howe, born Sept. 5, 1802, probably Newfane, Vt. Wanted, their ancestry.

5. HOWE, KEELER. Joel Carleton Howe (Joseph Hall Howe), born Dec. 29, 1825, in Vermont and moved to western New York with his parents. Their daughter, Annie Summer, married Rev. Russell

4945. 1. BENEDICT. O. E. F., Dec. 27, 1926.
1. William Benedict (probably Guillaume Benoit or Bènoist) is said to have gone from France through Holland to Nottinghamshire, England, about 1550. It is possible that this emigration may have occurred as late as the St. Bartholomew Massacre in 1572.

2. William Benedict; only son of above, lived in Nottinghamshire. Nothing further known of him.

3. William Benedict, only son of above. Henry Huillocke of Darbyshire (next to Nottinghamshire) in his will of 1610 mentions his wife (whose name was either Margaret or Edith, probably one succeeded the other) and his son (in-law) William Benedict, gentleman, and daughter Ann. This William Benedict later married a widow Bridgum (Bridgeham) with a daughter. He must have died somewhere between the birth of his son in 1617 and the emigration of the latter in 1638.

JOHN LEWIS HELD NEWPORT LAND GRANT

sometimes other ways of ascertaining some of the desired facts at least. In this case it happens that Edward H. West prepared, in 1932, a Land Grant Chart of Portsmouth, for the State Library at Providence. This chart reveals that John Lewis—it seems extremely unlikely that it could have been any other than the one who later came to Westerly—had a grant of land at some time between 1633 and 1637 in Portsmouth, on the mainland, in the southern part of the town close to the Newport boundary line. That it appears fairly certain that John Lewis, forerunner of the extensive family which spread out from Westerly after his residence there, was another one of the numerous colonists who first lived for a time in the region around Newport and then moved slightly westward.

Even Austin, in his "Genealogical Dictionary of Rhode Island," says, regarding John Lewis of Westerly, "there has been no relationship found between him and Robert Lewis, of Newport, who made his will 1682, April 12 (having but two witnesses, though the law required three). Nothing more is learned of this Robert, nor of his will except that it was named in a list of others as deficient in witnesses." Austin, when he wrote, did not know of the discovery made through the work of Mr. West. While of course there is no evidence at all to prove a relationship between John Lewis and Robert Lewis, the fact that the two were contemporaneous and were residents for a time of the same place, does at least make the probability of a definite relationship very great.

Lewis, published in "Lewisiana," Vol. I, Nos. 1-12, page 45, merely says, "It is supposed that he came from Newport, but nothing definite can be ascertained, as the records of Newport were captured by the British during the Revolutionary War and carried to New York. When they returned, they were in such condition (having been in the water) that they were worthless."

NOTE: By Constitutional Amendment adopted May 17, 1927, Article III, Section 1, quoted below, was changed so that any man of 18 years of age is eligible to membership. Junior memberships have been abolished entirely.

ANCESTOR'S SERVICE

"SECTION 1. Any man shall be eligible to membership in the Society who, being of the age of eighteen years or over, and a citizen of good repute in the community, is the lineal descendant of an ancestor who was at all times unflinching in his loyalty to, and rendered active service in, the cause of American Independence, either as an officer, soldier, seaman, marine, militiaman, or minute man, in the armed forces of the Continental Congress, or of any one of the several Colonies or States, or as a signer of the Declaration of Independence; or as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence; or as a member of any Continental, Provincial, or Colonial Congress or Legislature; or as a recognized patriot who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain."—Constitution of National Society S. A. R., Article III, Section 1, adopted June 3, 1907, and as amended.

Membership is based upon one original claim; when the applicant derives eligibility by descent from more than one ancestor, and it is desired to take advantage thereof, separate applications, to be marked "Supplemental Application," should be made in each case and filed with the original.

State fully such documentary or traditional authority as you found the following record upon, and also the residence of ancestors, with dates of birth and death, if known.

By order of the Board of Trustees, May 3, 1911, the recipient of a certificate granted on this application agrees to surrender his certificate upon failure to pay his membership fee, unless his membership shall cease by reason of death or actual disability, to be determined by the Society of which he is a member.

My ancestor's services in assisting in the establishment of American Independence during the War of the Revolution were as follows:

"Zebulon Lewis, was a Private in the Regiment of Colonel John Topham, Rhode Island, 1776; pay due him £ 16, 5, 3."

Ref: Cromwell's "Spirit of '76," p. 64

Vital Records of Rhode Island, Vol. III, p. 205

This Roll (of which the foregoing is an abstract, i.e., the original is not found among the archives of R.I.) is thought to have been sent to the War Department, Washington, and was burned, many years ago when there was a fire in that Department.

This abstract was made about 1785 when the General Government was called upon to pay Colonial debts.

The amount due to Zebulon Lewis must represent a considerable service, but unless something additional is found, this is all known of the service of Zebulon Lewis.

As he was probably of Westerly at that time, this service may have been in R.I. guarding the harbours against incursions of British fleets. At least this is family history.

After the Revolution he was made Captain of Flanders County N.Y. Militia (Regimental). He remained in service until 1809.

This service has been accepted by the N.S. I. R. R., Nat. No. 155547 and N.S. U.S. Daughters of 1812, Nat. No. 7925.
