SOURCE NOTES for Thomas:

Thomas is first mentioned in his brother John's will as being from "Longe Sutton," England. He originally settled at Braintree, MA and removed to Southold, Long Island, in 1646 (Helmes, F.R., "Directory of the ancestral Heads of New England Families: 1620-1700," Baltimore: Gen. Pub Co., 1964 (Orig. 1923). In Dec. 1638, Thomas was ordered by General Court Order to appear at the next Court Session (source: Savage, J., "A Genealogical Dictionary of the First Settlers of New England," p. 269). According to Weyland Jefferson, Official Town Historian (Jefferson, W., "A Short History of Southold, 1938), Thomas was an early settler at Southampton who came to Southold about 1655. Howell (Howell, G. R., "The Early History of Southampton, L.I., N.Y.," Albany: 1887, p. 439) stated that Thomas was an "undertaker" of Southampton but did not remain there very long, "if he came at all." In 1662, Thomas, of Southold, was accepted as a freeman of CT. Thomas' will was proved 2 July 1672. In his will Thomas mentioned his wife but did not name her. Thomas also neglected to appoint an executor so the Court of Session appointed his son Daniel on 5 June 1672 (for further information regarding Thomas, see his brother Richard).

6. Robert<sup>2</sup> TERRY {2433} (1. James<sup>1</sup>) was born about 1610. He married Sarah FARRINGTON {11174} about 1640 in Massachusetts. She was born about 1621 in Olney, Buckingham, England. She was the daughter of Edward PFARRINGTON {11175} and Eliza [---?---] {11176}.

No children have yet been identified.

SOURCE NOTES for Sarah:

Sarah arrived in America on the ship "Hopewell" on 1 April 1635. Aboard the "Hopewell" were: Edward PFARRINGTON, aged 47, his wife Eliza, aged 48, and their children Sarah, 14, Mathew, 12, John, 11, and Eliza, 8.

SOURCE NOTES for Robert:

Robert arrived in America in 1635 on the ship "James". Also arriving on the "James" were his brothers Thomas TERRY and Richard TERRY. On 18 Dec 1640, a Robert Terry witnessed a deed (indenture) with the Indians on Long Island (Adams, J.T., "History of the Town of Southampton," Port Washington, NY: Ira J. Friedman, Inc., 1962 (original 1918); Moore, C.B., "Address delivered at the Celebration of the 250th Anniversary of the Formation of the Town and Church of Southold, L.I., August 27, 1890"). Robert was one of the original patentees to the town of Flushing, NY. This patent was confirmed by Gov. Nicholl in February 1666 (Patents, I. 64, V, 222, 325, Sec. Office). Robert was also listed in the Dougan Patent of 1685 (source: "Historical Collections of the Borough of Queens, New York," NY: WPA, 1938, Vol. 6, p. 46). This last entry was not identified by French. A Robert Terry (Robart Terry or Robart Tery) was a witness in a case in 1660 (source: "Transcripts of Early Town Records of New York: Minutes of the Town Courts of Newton 1656-1690," New York: The Historical Records Survey, August 1940, p. 18). A Robert O. Terry was a witness to the will of John Maston, of Flushing, dated 14 Feb 1670 at Flushing (NYG&BR, Vol. 20, No. 4, Oct. 1889, p. 171). This was also recorded in the "Collection of the New York Historical Society, 1892: Abstracts of Wills - Liber 1-2," p. 15. Also, on 23 Oct 1670, Robert was again a witness to a will (same reference, p. 13). The last known recorded mention of Robert was in the will of Edward Farrington which was entered at Flushing in 1673 (W. Z. Terry). Information regarding Robert's marriage and spouse is from Pope, C.H., "The Pioneers of Mass.," Baltimore: Genealogical Pub. Co., 1900 (as referenced by Bower, A., "Terry Tales," Vol. 2, No. 4, August 1996).

On 13 July 1635, Richard (age 17), along with his brothers Robert (25) and Thomas (28), sailed from England in the ship "James" bound for America (Salem, MA). From Salem, Richard went to Springfield, MA, and then to Lyme, CT in the New Haven Colony (Quinnipioc) and with his brother Thomas, eventually arrived in Southold (originally known as "Yennicot") on Long Island.
