STATES:

Zachary (1) Lewis, of Brecon, or Brecknock, in Brecknockshire, Wales, was the first of his line known to have come to Virgin. Who he married is not known. Among the many grants of land to the name of Lewis recorded in the Virginia Land Books there are only two to Zachary Lewis - one for 500 acres in King & Queen County, April 20, 1694, and 450 in King William County, Oct. 23, 1703. This corroborates the statement of Rev. Ivison Lewis that he was "the son of John Lewis, whose father, Zachary Lewis, came from Brecknock, Wales, to Virginia, 1692, at which time he settled in the county of King and Queen."

HISTORY OF AUGUSTA COUNTY VIRGINIA By J.L. Peyton

STATES:

The Lewis family wre originally French Huguenots, and left France after the revocation of the Edict of Nantes, 1685. Three brothers, namely William, Samuel and John, fled to England. Shortly thereafter William removed to the north of Ireland, where he married a Miss McClelland. Samuel fixed his residence in Wales, while John continued in England. Descendants of each of these three brothers are supposed to have settled in Virginia by the late Mrs. Agatha Lewis Towles, who mentioned the fact that Samuel Lewis emigrated from Wales to Portugal, and was never again heard of.

William Lewis, who settled in Ireland, at his death left issue one son-namely: Andrew who married Miss Calhoun and left issue - namely:

- 1- John born 1678.
- 2- Samuel born 1680.

John Lewis (propositus) married Margaret Lynn, died of the Laird of Loch Lynn, and left, at his death in Virginia, the following issue - namely --

- 47
- 1- Samuel, born in Ireland 1716. Served with distinction as a captain in the war between the English and French colonists. His brothers Andrew, William and Charles, were members of his company, and all four were at Braddock's defeat, and three of them wounded. Samuel was afterwards conspicuous in the defence of Greenbrier county and the border settlements from the Indians. He died unmarried.
 - 2- Thomas, born in Ireland, 1718. (see later)
 - 3- Andrew, born in Ireland, 1720. (see later)
 - 4- William, born in Ireland, 1724. (see later)
 - 5- Margaret, born in Ireland, 1726; died unmarried.
 - 6- Anne, born in Ireland, 1728; died unmarried.
 - 7- Charles, born in Virginia 1736. (see later)

Thomas Lewis was short-sighted, and therefore did not figure so conspicuously as his brothers as an Indian warrior. He was a man of much learning and ability, a member of the House of Burgesses, and a member of the Virginia Convention of 1776. His library was one of the most extensive and well selected in the colony. Thomas Lewis, married Jane, daughter of William Strother, of Stafford county, Va., Jan. 26, 1749, and left the following issue ----

- 1- Thomas born 1749.

- 13- William Benjamin, born 1778.

General Andrew Lewis, "the Hero of the Point," married Elizabeth Givens, of Augusta County, in 1749, and left issue ----

SHENANDOAH VALLEY PIONEERS AND THEIR DESCENDANTS by T.K. Cartnell
STATES:

The writer can only mention this distinguished family to show their presence in the Valley about the Revolutionary War period. They have a direct line from Col. Fielding Lewis, whose marriage with his two cousins, Kate and Bettie Washington, has always given the Lewis family prominent notice by historians of the Washingtons of Westmoreland.

One of Col. Lewis's sons, Major Lawrence Lewis, married Eleanor Parke Custis, the adopted daughter of General Washington; and Major Lawrence became the grandfather of the Lewis family found in Clarke and Jefferson within the last thirty years. One of his sons was Lorenzo Lewis, who married a Miss Coxe of Philadelphia. Two of his daughters, Frances Parke and Angela married respectively General Butler, of Louisiana, and Hon. Charles M. Conrad, of the same State. (President Filmore's Secretary of War.)

Mr. Lewis had six sons, three of whom were familiar figures in the Lower Valley. They were J.R.C.; Edward P.C.; and H.L. Dangerfield Lewis. The former was an officer in Commodore Perry's expedition to Japan, and also an officer in the Confederate Army 1861-65. After this service, he retired to his farm in Clarke County. Edward P.C. became prominent in business in Hoboken, N.Y. The youngest son, Dangerfield Lewis, was president of the S.V. Agricultural Society. His home was in Clarke, the old Audley homestead. After his death, his widow and children removed to New York.

HISTORICAL SOUTHERN FAMILIES VOL. IV by J. B. Boddie
STATES:

The first one of this family so far discovered was Rowland Jones, Vicar of Wendover of County Bucks, England. He was very probably educated in Cambridge or Oxford and no doubt this family could be accurately traced back to to its origin in Wales or England. Rowland Jones, the Vicar, made his will Sept. 1, 1665. He desired to be buried in the Parish Church of Wendover, mentions wife Alice, and gives to son Rowland his books and manunscripts. His children from the will were: Rowland, Anne, married Heritage, Jane, married Gooch; Mary married Thompson; Elizabeth, Michael. His daughter Elizabeth was sole executrix, and in case she died her cousin (Nephew) Michael Thompson was to succeed her. On Feb. 14, 1667, a commission was issued to Rowland Jones because bothe Elizabeth Jones and Michael Thompson were deceased.

The Reverend Rowland Jones of Bruton Parish, Williamsburg, Va., matriculated at Merton College, Oxford, Nov. 13, 1663, aged 19, as the son of Rowland Jones of Kimbell, Bucks. He was the first minister of Bruton Parish. His epitaph in the churchyard states he was a native of Swinbrook, near Burford, son of Rowland Jones, Clerk; died April 23, 1688, in his 48th year.

The first wife of the Rev. Rowland Jones was "Elizabeth," family name unknown. She was buried Oct. 29, 1678. His second wife was Anne Lane. He made his will Aug. 15, 1687, probated Dec. 13, 1688. Edward Jones, Jr., of Isle of Wight, was not mentioned in the will of Edward, Sr., as he had already received his portion.

It is evident from the wills of the Rev. Rowland Jones & from that of Edward Jones that the two men were related. The Rev. Rowland Jones makes his "loving kinsman Edward Jones" a trustee of his will. Edward Jones, dying about two years later, leaves a ring "to my cozen (Niece) Ann Jones, widow". who was the widow of the Rev. Rowland Jones.

Edward Jones, following the custom of those days, was Godfather to Orlando Jones, son of Rowland. Orlando Jones married Martha Macon, Jan. 31, 1703, dau. of Gideon Macon.
