NAUVOO BAPTISMS
FOR THE DEAD
INDEX

Compiled by the Genealogical Society of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

NAUVOO BAPTISMS FOR DEAD

The Nauvoo baptism for the dead index is an alphabetical card listing of baptisms for the dead performed in Nauvoo. They are arranged in two categories:

1. Cards filed under proxy's name, showing the deceased persons for whom baptisms were performed.

2. cards filed under the deceased persons name giving the name of the proxy, his relationship to the deceased, and the date of the ordinance.

The above baptisms were performed in Janu. by order of Pres. Joseph Smith, or in other words, he permitted the same to be done on the earnest request of the saints on the west side of the river, partly under my direction, as I was presiding in that branch at the time, but the circumstances were such that I am not accountable for any errors that might have been made in the administration or reading. I give it as my opinion that every person should attend to the same ordinance over again when the baptismal font is prepared in regular order, and have the same duly witnessed and recorded.

Jan. 28, 1845 John Smith

Baptism for the Dead.

"I first mentioned the doctrine (baptism for the dead) in public when preaching the funeral sermon of Bro. Seymour Brunson." Doc. Church History 4;231

Col. Seymour Brunson died 10 Aug. 1840, Nauvoo, Ill.

NOTE: This family was the most difficult to find any information on, yet absolutely necessary to establish the direct pedigree line. They lived in sparsely populated Dutchess Co., New York after their mother died at Stonington, Conn. Also lived through the Revolutionary War which made record keeping difficult to record or preserve. Many records were destroyed at Albany, New York. This family group is far from being complete. We are fortunate to have what we have shown here. The exact nature of "Nauvoo Baptisms" would make it correct as to names and relationship.
