Aged Woman Dies at New Hudson Dec. 1
1932
FUNERAL HELD SATURDAY AT HOME OF DAUGHTER— MRS. WELLS

Funeral services for Mrs. Frances Butterfield of New Hudson, who died last Thursday morning, Dec. 1, at the home of her daughter Mrs. A. C. Wells were held at the Wells home Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. D. C. Stubbs, of South Lyon and New Hudson Methodist churches. Burial was in New Hudson cemetery.

The final illness of Mrs. Butterfield began on August 22, and after a stroke on November 22, she lapsed into unconsciousness that preceded her final sleep. She passed her 92nd birthday on October 31st, and her health as a whole had been good until the last year.

Frances Covey was the daughter of Hiram and Hannah Fuller Covey, and was born Oct. 31, 1840 on what is now the Martindale farm on Grand River, just west of New Hudson. When seventeen years of age she became the wife of John R. Sherman and their home was what is known as the Cogger farm south of New Hudson. His death left her with two daughters, Lucia, now Mrs. R. Long, and Nora, now Mrs. Wells. In 1881 she became the wife of Chester Butterfield of Milford and for twenty-five years their home was in Milford. She was a member of the Milford Presbyterian church and an active worker therein, also a member of Whiting Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star. After Mr. Butterfield's death she made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Wells in Detroit, and since 1922 in New Hudson.

In addition to the two daughters she leaves a sister, Mrs. Mary Pennell of Traverse City; five grandchildren, six great grandchildren and one great great grandchild. Other members of the family circle are two step-sons, W. H. Butterfield of LeFaria, Texas; Chas. Butterfield of Appalachicola, Fla. and

Letter from Mrs. Herbert Warner (Laura Fuller Warner)

FULLER

Milford, March 4, 1963.

Mrs. George U. Goerlich
24570-- 24 Mile Road
Mt. Clemens, Michigan

Dear Mrs. Goerlich:

I have here a letter given to me by Mr. Jarvis Gaye that was written by you asking for information concerning the Fuller family. He thought I might be able to help you as I am connected to the family.

Your great grandfather Nelson Fuller was my grandfather and his first wife, Laura Covey Fuller was my grandmother. I was named after her.

Nelson Fuller's Birthdate--Jan. 4, 1806m and date of death May 15, 1894.

Laura Covey Fuller was born Nov. 7, 1811, and died Aug. 13, 1842,

Amanda Gillman Fuller was born Feb. 26, 1820, and died March 20, 1898.

Other members of the family buried in Kensington Cemetery are my father, William Fuller, my aunt Elizabeth Fuller Foote, also Frank Fuller, a grandson of Nelson and Amanda Fuller whom they adopted.

Am I right in assuming that you were Helen Fuller, the grand-daughter of Uncle George Fuller?

There were ten children in Granpa Fuller's family. Six by his first wife and four by his second wife. If you would like the list of names I would be glad to send them to you.

They are in the old family bible that belonged to Grandpa Fuller.

I wish you success with your attempt at writing this history.

I remain

Yours truly

Laura Fuller Warner

Milford, Michigan, May 5, 1963.

Dear Cousin Helen:

I know that it has been quite some time since I received your letter. But time slips by so fast with me that I can't keep up with it.

It is correct that I lived with Aunt Lib. I was brought there when I was seven years old, and it was my home until I married. Now I only live 1 1/2 miles from the old home.

I faintly remember your mother. Your Aunt Sybil used to come to Aunt Lib's about every summer so I remember her very well.

As for giving you much information about the family, I am afraid I won't be much help. When I could of gotten this information I wasn't very interested. I was told the Fuller's were English descent. They came from New York. Nelson and Laura Fuller had six children, my father "William Fuller" was the youngest. His mother, which was Laura Fuller, died when he was six weeks old. After a year had passed Nelson Fuller left his six children in the care of a neighbor and returned to New York. When he returned he brought a new wife Amanda. She is the one I can remember of seeing once.

Most of the children as they grew up went out west. They married and raised their families there. So I never knew any of them. But I do have a few old family pictures I would like to show you sometime. I would love to have you come and see me some time this summer.

Date of Birth Nelson & Laura's children. This is the list of children in their order =

Mary Fuller----- July 14, 1834 ← was postmistress of Kent P. O.
 Martin Fuller----- Oct. 14, 1835
 Elizabeth Fuller-- June 23, 1837
 Charlotte Fuller-- Jan. 23, 1839
 Jane Fuller----- - Sept. 3, 1840
 William Fuller- -- June 4, 1842 *****

Nelson & Amanda's children.

Lucy Fuller----- Nov. 27, 1844
 George Fuller----- May 1, 1849
 Aletha Fuller----- Aug. 10, 1850
 Louis Fuller ----- Nov. 20, 1851 (or 1857?) *****

These are the only children deaths recorded:

Louis Fuller-----April 20, 1918
 Lucy Fuller Hodges-----Jan. 1, 1876 *****

This is the extent of the information that I have. William Fuller died Nov. 12, 1936. I will be looking forward to your coming to see me before too long.

Sincerely,

Laura Fuller Warner.

Mrs. George O. Goerlich

24570, 24 Mile Road,

Mt. Clemens, Michigan.

Dear Mrs. Goerlich:

Thank you for your kind letter and the data you have shared with me.

I haven't gotten beyond my great-grandfather but some of your names seem to fit my list of relatives. For instance my great-grandfather was George Fuller (I) and he had a son, Charles Fuller who married a Ette, Ettor Ettie Covey. I have two death certificates for a G. O. Fuller. One says he was born in Ohio and the other says he was born in Canada. I believe the one born in Ohio is my Gr. Grandfather. He was born about 1827 or 1828 and died Dec. 31 1891 in Benton Harbor, Mich. The certificate doesn't give either one of his parents names.

Geo. Fuller married, Mary Austin Conkright, about 1866. They had the following children,

Orpha Ann Fuller, B. 26 June 1868. (My Grandmother).

Charles Fuller, B. about 1872. Married Ettie Covey, No date.

Ross Fuller, B. about 1874, M. Herman L. Davis 18 Mar. 1892

Mamie Fuller, B. about 1876, M. 12 Dec. 1894 to a man by the name of Main or Mann Goff.

Mann Goff was born in 1866. His father was Morris Goff and mother was Clarinda

Olas tead.

Their children were; Fred Main, Dertney, Marian Francis and Malvin Margaret Goff.

If you know any of these people I sure would like to get a line on them.

It is believed that one of these Gr. Aunts of mine remarried. I have every reason to believe his name was DeForrest.

Mary Austin's first husband was Albert Conkright and they had a daughter whose name was Moranda. She married a man by the name of Alfred Darling. They had 7 girls.

If you know anything about the Covey family and know anyone by that name who are living today I surely would like to get in touch with them.

I don't know of any Fullers who moved here in the west. We moved here to Calif. when I was 10 yrs. old from Battle Creek Mich. All of my mothers folks lived in Mich.

My mother still lives very near us here in Oakland. She is 75 yrs. old and it is quite a chore to get her to remember any dates. Her mother was Orpha Fuller, and her father Oren Lewis. Oren Lewis was born there in Mich. His father was I believe born in N. Yas was his mother who was Agnes Keeler.

The other George Fuller I have ~~to~~ was married to a Adaline Conkright in Barry co. Mich. on the 13 of Apr. 1870. He was 36 yrs. at the time and was born in Canada. His wife was born in Vermont. I don't know whether there is any connection between that Conkright and the first husband of my Grandmother or not. It seems such a coincident that all these names would be the same. There were no names of fathers or mothers on that marriage. They both could have been married before being both were in their thirties.

I can't find a marriage certificate for my Gr. grandparents but maybe I haven't Hit the right county they were married in.

That is about all I can tell you. I am sorry to say. Do wish I could help you more.

Do hope you can help me. There are hundreds of Fullers in the Oakland Phone book and it would take me a year to copy them but if you have any name that would be living here I would be glad to look them up for you.

Am sending you a clipping I cut out of the paper. Maybe you could get an address from this and find out something.

Hoping to hear from you soon,

FULLER, August Senior, in Alameda, July 11, 1943; of 1413 7th Street, Berkeley, loving husband of the late Frances May Fuller; beloved father of August C. Fuller Jr. of Berkeley, Clarence Fuller of Sausalito, Mae V. Bradson of Vacaville, and F. Dear Cousin Helen,

I certainly was pleased to have you come and call. I was also very pleased to see your mother. Hope your mother is feeling much better.

I also hope you can come again and stay longer next time. The item about Kensington Baptist Church is interesting. Gardiner Spring was still active in the church when I first went there to Sunday School. I haven't any idea where you could find out about the first church. Perhaps it might be in Howell.

My mother's maiden name was Keziah Losena Smith. She was born Dec. 27, 1852 in Brighton Township, died April 7, 1938 in Pontiac, and was buried in Rochester Cemetery. Where or when she and dad were married I never knew.

My father, (William Fuller) is buried on the west side of the cemetery and there is a headstone at his grave. The grave with the star-and-flag marker is Frank Fuller's grave. He was a World War I Veteran.

The Conway Cemetery you speak of is located in Conway township and there are Fullers buried there but are no kin of ours. There is no Conway cemetery in Brighton township as far as I know. Martin Fuller of our family died in one of the western states and was buried there.

I was born November 26, 1886, one-half mile east of Aunt Lib's old home on Spenser Road. I was married at Aunt Lib's Home April 20, 1910, and have lived in our present home ever since.

My children:

The item about Ina Warner is interesting because I have heard my husband's father tell about them. They settled in North Brighton but was no relation.

I am sorry about being so long in answering your letters. I hope the information I have written you will be of some help.

I hope this finds you and your family all well, and I hope you have a Happy Thanksgiving.

Dear Ms. Templeton:

Thank you so much for your letter of Nov. 21st. I do not know what information you are looking for in the Fuller line, but since your address is New Hudson, and my people all came from around Brighton, I'm hoping that we are interested in the same people, and can share our information.

My great-grandfather was Nelson Fuller. He came to Michigan from Dutchess County, New York around 1837 and settled near Brighton. He was married twice. His first wife was Laura, and their children were:

- Mary, born July 14, 1834
- Martin, born Oct. 14, 1835
- Elizabeth, born June 23, 1837
- Charlotte, born Jan. 23, 1839
- Jane, born Sept. 3, 1840
- William, born June 4, 1842.

His second wife was Amanda Gillman, and their children were:

- Lucy, born Nov. 27, 1844
- George (my grandfather), born May 1, 1849
- Aletha, born Aug. 10, 1850
- Louis, born Nov. 20, 1851.

Do any of these names sound familiar to you? I located a cousin of my father's a few years ago, who lived in Milford (she died 8 or 9 years ago) and asked her for any information she could give me. Here is part of her answer: "As for giving you much information about the family, I am afraid I won't be of much help. When I could of gotten this information I wasn't very interested. I was told the Fullers were English descent. They came from New York. Nelson and Laura Fuller had 6 children, my father "William Fuller" was the youngest. His mother, which was Laura Fuller, died when he was 6 weeks old. After a year had passed, Nelson Fuller left his 6 children in the care of a neighbor and returned to New York. When he returned he brought a new wife Amanda. She is the one I can remember of seeing once. Most of the children as they grew up went out west. They married and raised their families there. So I never knew any of them."

I am going to write to Dr. Gerald Fuller--perhaps he has more information now. It must be 10 years at least since I had correspondence with him. Thanks for sending me his address.

I would love to hear from you again.

Dear Ruby:

I received your note, and was sorry to learn that your father had died, but glad to know that you had an opportunity to spend Christmas with some of your family. You mentioned a postcard from Pauline Fuller of New Mexico. I don't know the name, but in one of her letters, Cousin Laura Fuller Warner mentioned that several of Nelson's children "went West and raised their families there, so I didn't know them"---so, Pauline might be a daughter of one of them.

I wrote to Dr. Gerald Fuller and he send me the names of the descendants of Edward Fuller, the Mayflower passenger, from whom we are descended, according to Dr. Gerald Fuller. I added that information to what I had from other sources, and have made a copy, which I enclose, of all the information I have so far. He (and two other people to whom I write and have never met) told me of a book written in 4 volumes which proves our ancestry, and told me the Detroit Public library probably has a copy. I am leaving tomorrow for a two week visit with my brother Bob who lives in Florida, and when I come back I'm planning to go to Detroit one day, and see if they do have the book. If so, I'll copy any information that relates to our branch of the Fullers (if there really is some) and I'll send you a copy of whatever I find. In the meantime, would you have time to copy whatever you have, and send it to me---perhaps we can get some more pieces of the puzzle together.

The Michigan State Library has two books which I found fascinating reading, although I didn't get much information out of them. They are "Portrait and Biographical Album of Ingham and Livingston Counties" (published in 1891) and "History of Livingston County" (published in 1880). You have to request your local library to borrow them for you--State Library won't lend direct to an individual.

Another piece of information I want to pass on to you. I had a letter from Mrs. M. Carleton Chase, 5346 Chase Lake Road, Fowlerville, Mich. 48836. She identified herself as Laura Fuller Warner's oldest daughter, and said her father had asked her to write a thank-you note for our Christmas card to him. She also is looking for Fuller information.

Enough for now. Please let me know what information you have on the family.

Sincerely,

Lucie (Fuller) Guerlich

COVEY—On Sunday, May 26, 1893 of a combination of heart trouble and Bright's disease, ANTHONY J. COVEY, aged 43 years, 1 month, 26 days. The deceased was born in Eaton Rapids township on April 29, 1853, and was the only son of the late Benjamin Covey. His early life was spent upon his father's farm, during which time he received a good common school education, after which he taught for several terms in various district schools in Eaton county. He was married on April 18, 1879, to Miss Ella Holcomb of Eaton Rapids township, and to them were born four children, of whom two sons and one daughter survive with the widow to mourn his loss. His survivors also include a mother and sister.

Mr. Covey was a member in good standing of the Eaton Rapids Masonic lodge and Royal Arcanum, in the latter of which he held a life insurance policy of $3,000. He became a member of the Baptist church of this city on January 21, 1894. Throughout the entire vicinity he was well and favorably known, the large concourse of people attending the funeral, which was one of the largest ever held in Eaton Rapids, being an eloquent tribute of esteem in which the community held the deceased.

The funeral was held at the Baptist church, the pastor, Rev. C. S. Lester, officiating. The Masons and members of the Royal Arcanum were present in a body. The former took charge of the burial services at the city cemetery. MAY 26, 1895

Frances Covey was the daughter of Hiram and Hannah Fuller Covey, and was born Oct. 31, 1840 on what is now the Martindale farm on Grand River, just west of New Hudson. When seventeen years of age she became the wife of John B. Sherman and their home was what is known as the Cogger farm south of New Hudson. His death left her with two daughters, Lucia, now Mrs. R. Long and Nora, now Mrs. Wells. In 1881 she became the wife of Chester Butterfield of Milford and for twenty five years their home was in Milford. She was a member of the Milford Presbyterian church and an active worker therein, also a member of Whiting Chapter, O. E. S. After Mr. Butterfield's death she made her home with Mr. and Mrs. Wells in Detroit and since 1922 in New Hudson.

In addition to the two daughters she leaves a sister, Mrs. Mary Pennell of Traverse City, five grandchildren, six great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren. Other members of the family circle are two stepsons, W. H. Butterfield of LeFaria, Texas, Chas. Butterfield of Appalachicola, Fla., and two step-daughters, Mrs. Helen Young of Winters, Cal., and Mrs. E. C. Arthur of New Hudson.

DEC. 1-1932

Death of Hiram Covey.

Hiram Covey of Saginaw passed away Wednesday, Aug. 1, at the residence of Spencer Renwick at New Hudson. With his wife he came from Saginaw last Saturday to visit among relatives and old friends in this vicinity and on Sunday he was stricken with paralysis.

Hiram G. Covey was born in Oswego county, N. Y., March 31, 1830. Came to Michigan with his parents when seven years of age and located near New Hudson. He continued to live in Oakland county until 1882 when he moved to Saginaw where he entered the employ of the F. and P. M. R. R. He was married Nov. 10, 1853 to Margaret Marlatt of Lyon. Two children have been born to them, a son now living at Saginaw and a daughter residing at Sault Ste. Marie. Besides the widow and children four sisters survive him: Mrs. Juliette Button of New Hudson, Mrs. Leonia Andrews of Holly, Mrs. Mary E. Pennell of Ludington and Mrs. Frances Butterfield of Milford. The remains were taken to his home at Saginaw for interment Sunday, Aug. 5, 1901

Death of Mrs. Juliet Button

New Hudson lost one of its old and prominent residents Wednesday night when the death of Mrs. Juliet Button occurred after a long illness. Mrs. Button was a daughter of the late Hiram Covey, a pioneer resident of this section and was born Aug. 2, 1828 in Oswego county, N. Y. The family came to Brighton in 1837 and in 1839 moved to Lyon township.

Her marriage to George W. Button occurred March 7, 1847, and the young couple bought a large farm in West Bloomfield township where they resided until 1854 when they went into the mercantile business at New Hudson. After several years they purchased the farm on the Grand River road which has since been her home.

Her husband died some years ago and she is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Orpha Woodman of Caro and Mrs. S. A. Renwick of Milford and one son, Marion Button.

Mrs. Button was one of the original members of the New Hudson Universalist church which was organized in 1858.

The funeral service was held at the home at 11:30 this Friday in charge of Rev. Lee S. McCollester of Detroit.

Mrs. Hannah Covey, who died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Chester Butterfield on the 31st of December, was one of the earliest settlers of Oakland county. She was born in Columbia county, N. Y., on the 15th of March 1802. She leaves one son and four daughters to mourn her loss: H. Covey of East Saginaw, Mrs. Button of New Hudson, Mrs. Andrews of Holly, Mrs. Pennell of Ludington and Mrs. Butterfield of Milford. What is their loss is her gain. She lived to the ripe old age of nearly 90 years, and was glad to be called to meet her aged companion who was called home some three years ago. During her illness of five weeks she was a great sufferer, but was ever patient. Her son and his wife from Saginaw, and her daughter from Ludington were here to care for her in her last sickness, and everything that loving hands could do for her was done. The funeral services were held at the Universalist Church at New Hudson, her old home. By request Rev. S. Calkins of South Lyon officiated, assisted by Rev. A. G. Wilson of Milford. Dec. 31, 1892

New Hudson Cemetery

Mr. Hiram Covey died Tuesday morning. He has been failing for the last six months and last week had an attack of inflammation of the bowels. Dr. Tucker was called but medical skill proved unavailing. He was well known to all in this vicinity, having been a resident of this village for over fifty years. His aged companion is left to mourn his loss. —(New Hudson Cor. South Lyon Picket B. SAGINAW
Covey—Mrs. Margaret Covey died at 1:36 o'clock Monday evening at the residence of her son, Phillip M. Covey, 601 North Franklin street, of paralysis of the brain after an illness of nine days. Margaret Mariette was born in Farmington, Oakland county, Michigan, July 19, 1833. She was married Nov. 11, 1855, to Hiram G. Covey who died August 1, 1901. She had been a resident of Saginaw since 1882 and was a well known member of the First Baptist church. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. J. W. Button of Sault Ste. Marie; one son, Phillip M. Covey of Saginaw; and one sister, Mrs. Spencer Renwick of Oakland county; and three grandchildren, Lillian Button of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.; Ray and Ethel Covey, Saginaw. The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of her son, Rev. S. Q. Boone officiating with burial in Forest Lawn

Dear Raymond,

Sorry I can't help you with an Obit for Luther Covey. I checked the Oakland County Genealogical Society records at our Library (Lyn Township Library, New Hudson) and they have no records ^{on him}. I do think some one should have answered your letters!

#7 on chart is the person who kept the scrap-book and none are that old. Sorry. Our local newspapers are not available, either, for that long ago.

Had Donald Avery found out where Luther's wife, Ann, died? I need that info for my family sheet.

Sincerely
Ruby Tempton

HOMER B COVEY GIVES HIS LIFE TO FREE THE CUBANS.

Impressive Memorial Services Held at the Baptist Church Sunday Evening Last.

One of the largest congregations that ever assembled in the Baptist church gathered there last Sunday evening, the occasion being the memorial services of the late Homer Covey, who gave his life for his country in the late Spanish-American war.

The City Band and the Pingree Guards met at the headquarters of the Guards and attended the services in a body. Directly in front of the pulpit the drum of the dead hero was beautifully arranged. The church was finely decorated with the stars and stripes and very appropriate memorial services were conducted by C. H. Lester, of Muskegon. Homer was Eaton Rapids first sacrifice to the war and the whole city mourns. A widowed mother, one brother, a sister and a host of loving friends deeply feel and mourn his loss. The heartfelt sympathy of the Journal is extended to the bereaved relatives. The following obituary was read by Rev. L. D. Pettit:

Homer B. Covey was born July 7th, 1881, one and one half miles west of this city.

His home during the first fourteen years of his life was upon the farm, where he was born, with the exception of two year during which his parents resided in this city. His school life, however, has been almost entirely connected with the public schools of Eaton Rapids, only one year having been passed the district school. During this period he spent much of his time at the home of his grandparents, thus taking advantage of the school privileges here afforded.

In the spring of 1894, while yet under thirteen years of age, he accompanied his father to the weekly prayer-meeting, where, under the influence of that sacred hour, he openly confessed the Lord Jesus Christ as his Saviour. He was baptized by O. B. Lester, then pastor of the Baptist church, in the following June. Unassuming and modest, he won and maintained the love and respect of teachers, schoolmates and all who knew him. A casual meeting was sufficient to convince one that he was truly a gentleman.

He was a member of the Eaton Rapids City band, and the Pingree Guards, the members of which mourn his loss.

When the call of the President came for volunteers he responded, leaving school about the middle of April and taking his departure from home May 14, for Camp Eaton, Island Lake, where he enlisted as drummer boy, in Co. F. of the 84th Michigan Regiment. With his company he went to Camp Alger about June 9th, setting sail for Santiago on the Auxiliary Cruiser, Yale, about June 22 and was present in the second day's fight before Santiago.

His last letter to his mother was dated August 1st, from Santiago, at which time he was in good health and spirits. He was returning with others of his company on the Olivate when he was taken off by malarial dysentery August 19th and was buried beneath the waves of the old Atlantic.

The universal comment of old and young, near and remote, dearest friend and casual acquaintance is, that Homer was a good boy. In one of his recent letters to his mother he said: "You need not worry about my forming bad habits, or being led astray by bad company. It was never so easy for me to be so good as it is here, if this is a rough life." He will be missed in school, in the band, among the Guards, on the street, and most of all in the home, but we may think of him as having exchanged the tent of the army camp for the celestial palace.

The following letter from Homer's Captain was received a few days since, and is published to show the esteem in which the boy was held by his comrades at the front.

CAMP WIKOFF,
MONTAUK PK., AUG. 25, '98

Mrs. COVEY, Eaton Rapids Mich.

Dear Madam:

I am sorry I have on this occasion to relate to you the sad news of the reported death of your son, Homer. The news was imparted to me by the press through the columns of the N. Y. Sun. It is not official, but I fear true. When last I saw him he was at the hospital at Santiago, down with Typhoid Fever, and was taken from there to Hospital Ship Olivette on Aug. 15th, which arrived here on Sunday, Aug. 21st. I have not learned what disposition was made of the body, but I am inclined to think he was buried at sea.

Well, my dear Mrs. Covey, you have my heartfelt sympathy in this hour of your sad bereavement; but we must all remember it is the will of our Almighty Creator, who has taken him home and remember this dear boy of yours has gone to his father in Heaven. I feel deeply your loss as well my loss, for I had learned to love him for his manly, true, faithful, patriotic spirit and his ever willing attention to duty as a soldier, as he was good, kind, and true, and ever ready to help his comrades whenever needed. His comrades feel very deeply the loss of one so dearly loved by all and all join in extending to you their heartfelt sympathies.

Yours most sincerely,

GEO. MILLAN,

Capt. Co. F., 84th Mich. Vol.
