Box 333
Pelican Lake, Wis. 54463

Dear Mr. Porten;

Your letter of 12 October 1960 to the Ainsworth Memorial Library, Sandy Creek, was passed on to me by the librarian. As acting director of our area historical society, I receive all sorts of similar requests, and I am just now breaking up a perfect "log jam" of family tree inquiries.

Enclosed, is a typewritten transcription of material from one of our county's histories, which should help you with your family history. We do have some information about the Rice family in our files, as well, but no specific mention of Micajah Henry Rice jr.

I would suggest that you contact Mr. & Mrs. Otto Lilley, Lake Road, Pulaski, New York 13142 for more information on the Lilley family. Mrs. Lilley is an active member of the DAR, and has done quite a bit of family history research.

Sincerely,

Marie K. Parsons
Acting Director
Half-Broire Historical Society

Part III Family Sketches, pp. 73-74

Lilley, Dexter M., was born in the town of Richland September 23, 1865. The great-grandfather...Abner Lilley was one of three brothers that came from Scotland to this country. He settled in Cambridge, Connecticut, and in 1777, March 3, married Sibble Hale. To them three children were born, Olive, Phineas and Abner. He was a soldier in the great struggle for Liberty in the Revolutionary war and was killed near its close. Phineas Lilley, the grandfather, was born at Cambridge, Connecticut, November 29, 1779. He married Amy Sampson November 1, 1802, and settled in the town of Sandy Creek. He was a farmer and carpenter, also a member of the Presbyterian Church. Their children were Cynthia, Abner, Levi, Oren, Dyanthia, Alfred, Emily, Olive and Mary. He was a soldier in the war of 1812, and died February 2, 1855, in the town of Richland at the age of eighty-seven years....

Lilley, Amy. Wife of Phineas Lilley. Died Feb. 16, 1846. Aged 60 years, 3 months.

Lilley, Phineas. Died Feb. 5, 1867. Aged 87 years, a months, 7 days.

(The Lilley farm was located in Lot 89, Town of Sandy Creek, on today's Opton Road. A son-in-law of Phineas, Smith Trumbull, who married Cynthia Lilley, owned the farm in the mid-1800's. I grew up just a mile or so west of the site, and my father always called that section, "the Trumbull lot," and a huge old maple tree with a clump of orange lilies around it used to mark the site of the house. In January 1978 "Yankee Magazine" wrote the "Genealogical Column" seeking information on the Lillie, Lilly or Lilley families.

1st address - Mr. Charles Lilly - other addresses.

8800 State Highway 133, Carbonate Co. 81623

I exchanged information with him through January 1983. I haven't heard anything lately. We were the same early family then branched off. He didn't give me stated proofs but stated Lilly Biographies.

He is suppose to have turned his Lilley, Lillie or Lilly family files to the:

Lilly Historical & Genealogical Society in Charleston W. Va.

Enclosed front cover of Newsletter.

Sorry can't come up with Parters family. Hope you are able to use some of this material.
