Dear Mr. Porter:

Thank you for your letter. Researching by mail an Irish family in Chicago can be a difficult project. Since 1803 the Irish have resided in Chicago in large numbers. In 1900, for example, the 1900 U.S. census counted over 200,000 persons who were either born in Ireland or who had at least one Irish born parent. Grandchildren of Irish immigrants were not listed in the census as Irish, but were, nevertheless, Irish and had Irish names. Hence the Irish portion of Chicago's population was even larger than the census indicated.

For the past fifteen years I have been collecting biographies, obits and stories of mostly pre-1920 Chicago Irish men and women. Generally, my sources are standard histories of Chicago and Cook County and a variety of different types of newspapers. I hope someday to write a history of the Irish contribution to Chicago. I haven't collected every reference to every Irish person I've come across. To do so would require the resources of a staff of several people. However, I've collected the stories, biographies and obits which give some biographical information about the person's life in Chicago or about his involvement in Irish activities. Some of my major sources are the Chicago Inter-Ocean, a downtown Republican daily. I've read most of the issues from 1872 through 1904. Another source is the New Works, the official, weekly newspaper of the Archdiocese of Chicago. I've read the issues from 1892 through 1930.

In addition I have on microfilm three newspapers: the Chicago Citizen, the Lake Vindicator, and the South Side Sun. The extant issues of the Citizen, a weekly Irish paper, run from September 29, 1883 through May, 1914 and from February 9, 1917 through November 9, 1928. The issues of the Citizen from 1917 on are on the whole not generally helpful for genealogical purposes.

The Lake Vindicator was a weekly paper for the Town of Lake. I have issues from January 13, 1883 through December, 1885. The South Side Sun, a daily paper published near the Stock Yards for the Irish neighborhoods surrounding the Stock Yards and for the largely WASP neighborhoods of Englewood and Normal Park. I have issues for May 2, 1883 through August 31, 1904.

On microfilm I also have the city directories for Chicago from 1839 through 1857. The directory for 1857 gives the country of birth and the length of time the person lived in Chicago. If the entry in the 1857 directory is correct, it can be a useful in determining what year the person emigrated from Ireland.

I have listings for approximately 8,000 persons and am continually adding more names. As a practical matter I may not have any information on the particular persons you may be researching. However, there is a good chance I might have something on someone in the family you are researching. For $3.00 I will send you a list of the persons with that surname. I will also include a brief description of the information I have on each person as well as the source of the information. For a good number of people the only information I have is the citation for the source of the information. I don't have any additional information on them. Since there are so many common Irish surnames it may be difficult to tell if I have any information on the family you are researching, consequently, a family group sheet giving siblings, other relations in Chicago as well as the addresses your relatives lived would be most helpful.

The fee for checking an event in a newspaper is $3.00 per event. For a search in either the Citizen or the Late Vindicator, I will search four issues after the event; both were weekly publications. For an event in the South Side Sun I'll check for three issues before or after the event, e.g. marriage or death. (Frequently there was more information about a person dying of an illness or the result of an accident than there was after the death.)

Please note that I can only check obits, etc in the Citizen, the South Side Sun, and the Late Vindicator. For the others in my index all I have is a cite for an article or obit and in some cases an extract of the information.

I am able to do only a limited amount of research outside my home. I am close to a National Archive Branch, a LDS genealogical library and, of course, the Newberry Library. Please write for rates, if you might be interested.

If you have not done so already, you should consult Loretto Sucz's book Chicago and Cook County Sources for an excellent compilation of the types of material available in the Chicago area.

Thank you again for writing.

Sincerely yours,

John E. Corrigan
