MARRIAGE REGISTER
Sandy Creek
Oswego Co., N. Y.
J. Hadley

"Just 100 years ago, Rev. Jacob Hadley entered the first marriage solemnized by him in a little book made by his own hands. It has a faded blue paper cover, the inside pages, which were once pure white, are now slightly yellowed with time, and the whole is held together by a heavy thread doubled and sewn through the sheets.

"On the first white page is the (above) inscription in ink, nicely shaded and spaced on the page, as if the hand that designed it wished to add to the dignity and beauty of the messages which it was destined to contain.

"Below this there was a design made with a flourish, and this design appears with variations at the bottom of nearly every page..." Sketches, October 20, 1927

"...The entries are neatly written in ink, one to a page, and all follow the same form..." Sketches, May 19, 1932

"This little book is now the property of Mrs. Nellie Hadley Scott, the granddaughter of the Rev. Jacob Hadley."
(1927)

Re-transcribed May 31, 1978 by Marie K. Parsons, from Vol. 6 No. 22, Dec. 1962 YESTERYEARS, in which it appeared under the title, 'Marriage Records of Sandy Creek, N. Y. 1827-68 Oswego County.' Courtesy of Louise W. Lynch, Chula Vista, Calif., with annotations and corrections from, "Sketches," a column in The Sandy Creek News, in which the Marriage Register was transcribed May to September, 1932.

Whereabouts of the original book is unknown as of this date. ("Sketches," does not quote each entry exactly. Lynch seems to have corrected the spelling and grammar. The older transcription updates the spelling of surnames, but was done with a familiarity with local families which Lynch does not seem to have.)

Questions

10-89

Any vital records "buried" in town minute books?

When and where did Elizabeth Rogers Porter die? (wife of V.R. Porter)

Are Phoebe Baker Rogers and her brother, Thomas, children of the Thomas and Mary Baker who are buried in Noyes cemetery?

Who were the parents of Mary Smith Rogers? Did they move from Jefferson Co. to Sandy Creek?

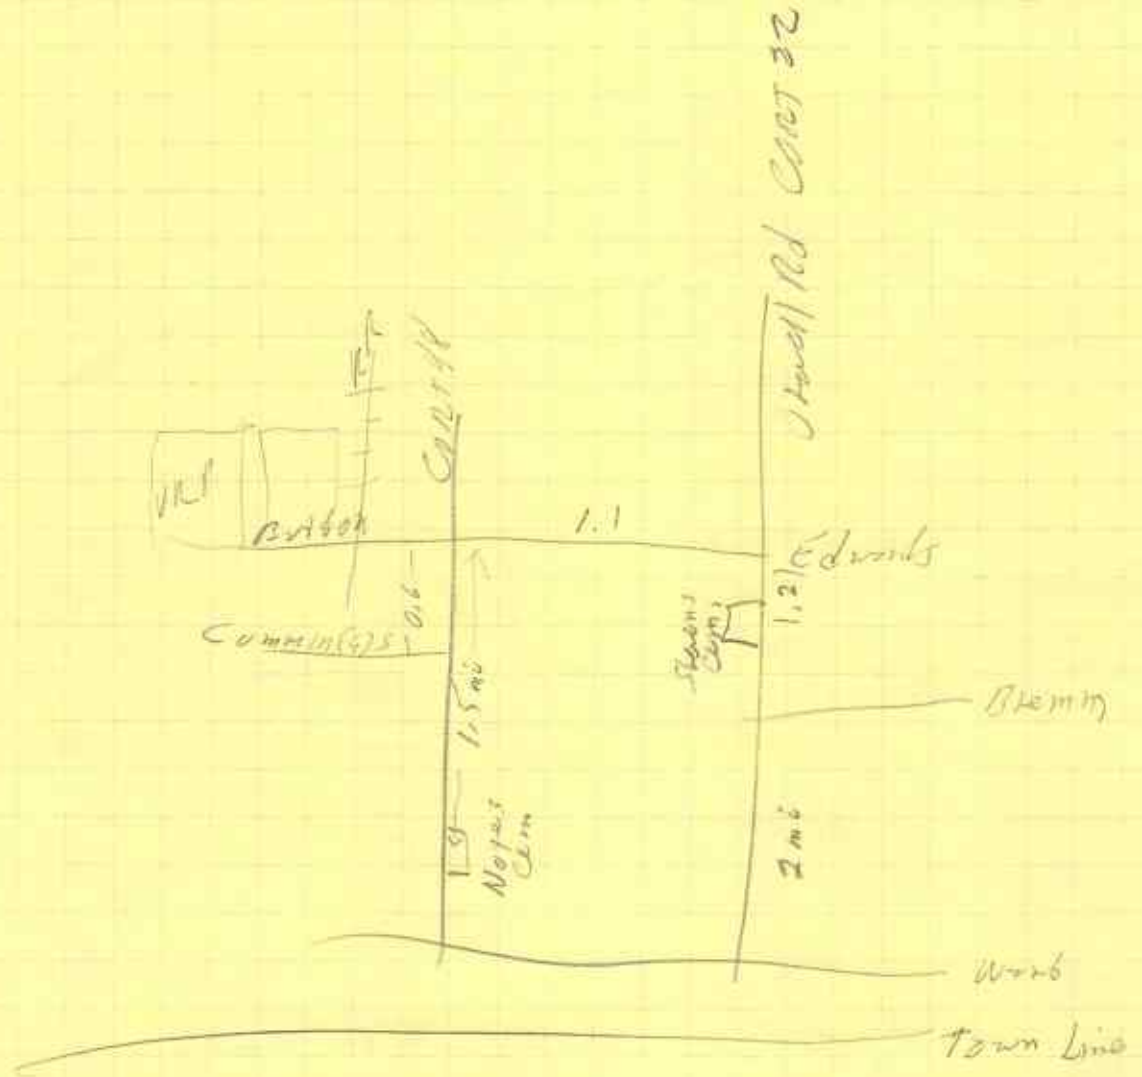

When did Rhoda Porter's parents, Luther H. Carey and Hans Vredenburg Carey die? Who were their parents?

How did Wm. Constable promote his land sales? What brought groups of families from eastern NY to Sandy Creek rather than to some other place?

Was Thomas Baker Sr.'s wife Mary Caswell?
