

Dutchess County, New York Supervisors Records and Tax Lists
1717-1779

The following is a summary of the information gleaned from the microfilmed Supervisors and tax records of Dutchess County covering the years 1717 to 1779:

Film 0925907. Dutchess Co., New York Records of Supervisors and Tax Lists, Vol. A-B, 1722-29.

Film 0925054. Dutchess Co., New York Records of Supervisors and Tax Lists, Vol.C-E, 1729-57.

(Volume D, 1749-1752, is missing from this film.)

Film 0925902. Dutchess Co., New York Records of Supervisors and Tax Lists, Vol. F-G. 1757-64.

Film 0925055. Dutchess Co., New York Records of Supervisors and Tax Lists, Vol.H-I, 1764-79.

(Vol. I contains only tax lists; the Supervisors records for these years are in Item 1 of Film 0925056.

Film 0925056. Dutchess Co., New York Supervisors Proceedings, Meetings, and Accounts, 1771-94, etc.

In addition to Volume D being missing, some records are missing in other volumes (either missing altogether, or blank pages where records were not copied), so the record is incomplete. Tax lists end after 1779, except for some undated records for Pawling, Philipsie, Clinton, and Washington at the end of Vol I.

Covey

Hope Covey (Sr.) (b. 15 Sep 1712 per Quist) first appears in the Southern precinct in February, 1748. He last appears in June, 1748. Records are missing from 1749 to 1752, so he may have been there as late as 1752.

Hope Covey, Jr. first appears in the Southern precinct in February, 1748, immediately following his father. Records are missing from 1749 to 1752. In 1753, he is listed as Hope Covey, Jr., perhaps implying that his father had just recently died (or moved on), and his assessed valuation (£3) is the sum of his and his father's in June, 1748. He is listed thereafter as Hope Covey (no Jr.) until June 1766. His assessed valuation increased to a maximum of £7 in February 1760.

Joseph Covey (b. 16 May 1719 per Quist) first appears in the Southern precinct in February, 1748, immediately following his brother and his nephew. He last appears in June, 1748. Records are missing from 1749 to 1752, so he may have been there as late as 1752.

John Covey first appears in the Southern precinct in June, 1748. He could be Hope and Joseph's brother (b. 16 Mar 1717 per Quist) or Hope's son. He last appears in February 1762. His assessed valuation remained at the minimum (£1) for the entire period.

James Covey (b. 24 Jun 1715 per Quist) first appears in the Southern precinct in February 1761 and last appears there in June 1767. His assessed valuation remained at the minimum (£1) for the entire period.

James Covey, Jr (b. 5 Nov 1743 per Quist) first appears in the Southern Precinct in June 1768. He is listed as James Covey, Jr. until 1771, then as James Covey (no Jr.) until the records end in 1779.

Amos Covey appears in North East precinct in 1774, immediately followed by Benjamin Covey. He does not appear again until 1779. The juxtaposition suggests that he is Benjamin's brother, but he is not in Quist, except in a tax list index extract.

Benjamin Covey (b. ca. 1751) appears in North East precinct in 1774 and 1775. The records for 1776 are missing. He appears again in 1777, but his assessed valuation has been changed from £1 to 0.

Walter Covey (b. ca. 1750) first appears in Fredicksburgh precinct in 1778. (Fredericksburgh records are missing for 1776 and 1777.) He appears again in 1779, the last year of the records.

Hatch

Richard Hatch appears in the Southern precinct in 1745 and 46.

Nathaniel Hatch appears in the Southern precinct in 1753 and last appears there in June 1757. A Nathaniel Hatch appears in Beekmans precinct in June 1759

Isaac Hatch appears in Southern precinct in 1753 and in Beekmans precinct in 1754 to 56. An Isaac Hatch appears in Rumbout precinct in February 1759 to February 1763.

Malthia Hatch appears in the Southern precinct in 1755. He is apparently listed as Schoolmaster hatch in February 1757 in Beekmans precinct, then as Malthia in June 1757. He is listed in Southern precinct from February 1758 to June 1765.

Schoolmaster Hatch appears in Beekmans precinct in 1756. This is evidently Malthia, who is subsequently listed in Beekmans precinct.

Nathaniel Hatch, Jr. appears in Southern precinct in February 1758 to June 1759.

Benjamin Hatch first appears in Southern precinct in June 1758 and last appears in June 1765. A Benjamin Hatch appears in 1770 and 1771 and in Fredericks Burgh in 1773 and 1775.

Mallathiah (various spellings) Hatch appears in the Southern precinct in February and June 1760. Malthia is also listed in the same lists. He is listed in February and June 1761 with no Malthia in the list, then as Malthiah in February 1762 and as Malthia in June 1762. It is impossible to separate him from Malthia.

Timothy Hatch first appears in Southern precinct in June 1768, then in Fredericks Burgh in 1772 and 1779.

Hawley

Joseph Hawley first appears in Beekmans precinct in 1744

(Van) Vredenburg

William (Van) Vredenburg (Sr) first appears in 1722 in the North Ward with a valuation of 7 pounds. His farm was in Rynbeck precinct when precincts were formed about 1739. He is listed until June 1760 with an assessed valuation of £1. apparently his last listing.

William (Van) Vredenburg, Jr. first appears in the North ward, near his father, in 1727, then in Rynbeck precinct until he apparently died about 1748. Catalina, apparently his wife, replaces him starting in 1748. She last appears in June 1759.

Jacobus Vredenburg, possibly another son of William, Sr. first appears in the North ward in 1730, then in Rynbeck precinct. His name changed to Jacob Van (crossed out) Vredenburg in 1773, the year Jacob, Jr. first appeared.

Arrye Vredenburg, possibly another son of William, Sr. first appears in the North ward in 1732 and last appears in 1734.

Isaac Fredenburg (sic), possibly another son of William, Sr. first appears in the Middle ward in 1735, then in Beekmans precinct starting in 1739. The spelling of his name changed to Vredenburg in 1739. He is listed in Poughkeepsie in 1741, then in Rynbeck from 1742 to 1748. Records from 1749 to 1752 are missing so he could have been there as late as 1752.

Abraham Vredenburg, possibly another son of William, Sr. first appears in the North ward in 1737, then in Rynbeck precinct until 1753.

Johannis Vredenburg, possibly another son of William, Sr. first appears in the North ward in 1737, then in Rynbeck precinct until 1740. Hans, below, may be the same person.

Hans Vredenburg, possibly another son of William, Sr. first appears in Rynbeck precinct in 1742 and last appears in 1746.

Benjamin Vredenburg, possibly another son of William, Sr. first appears in Rynbeck precinct in 1743, then in Crum Elbow precinct (when it was set off?) in 1745. In June 1760, he is listed in Rynbeck precinct again in June 1760 and appears through 1778.

Mathais Vredenburg, possibly a son of William, Jr. first appears in Rynbeck precinct in 1753 (records for 1749-52 are missing) and last appears in February 1760.

Wilhelmus Vredenburg, possibly a son of William, Jr. first appears in Rynbeck precinct in 1754 and appears through 1778.

Abram (Abraham) Vredenburgh first appears in North East precinct in June 1757. His farm is listed in 1760 and 1761 in North East, but he is listed in Rynbeek precinct until June 1762.

Petrus Vredenburgh first appears in Rynbeck precinct in June 1758 and appears through February 1760.

An Isaac Vredenburgh showed up in Crum Elbow precinct in June 1760. but did not appear thereafter.

A William Vredenburgh showed up in Crum Elbow with an assessed valuation of £6 in June 1761, the last year that William Vredenburgh of Rynbeek was listed. He is listed in Crum Elbow in February 1762, then in Charlotte when it was formed in June 1762. His valuation rose to £8 in February 1763, then his farm was listed in June 1763 with a valuation of £4.

Johannis Vredenburgh first appears in Rynbeek precinct in February 1763. He last appears in June 1766.

Benjamin Vredenburgh, Jr. first appears in Rynbeek precinct in June 1766 and appears through 1778.

Petrus (Peter starting in 1773) Vredenburgh first appears in Rynbeek precinct in June 1766 and appears through 1775 (1776 records are missing).

Abraham Vredenburgh first appears in Rynbeek precinct in June 1766 and appears through 1774.

Jeremiah Vredenburgh first appears in Rynbeek precinct in June 1771 and appears through 1773.

David Vredenburgh first appears in Rynbeek precinct in 1772 and last appears in 1773.

Jacob Van Vredenburgh (afterwards Vredenburgh), Jr. first appears in Rynbeek precinct in 1773 and appears through 1778.

Petrus B. Vredenburgh first appears in Rynbeek precinct in 1774 and appears through 1778.

Petrus Vredenburgh appears in Rynbeek precinct in 1778.

Simon 5, son of Timothy 4 and Elizabeth (Brown) was born at North Stonington, Conn., September 16, 1772. He died at North Stonington, May 1, 1821. Married June 23 1794, Martha York, daughter of Bell and Ruth (Maine) York. She was born according to the records Dec. 16, 1780, but she is recorded at her death, Feb. 15, as aged 79 years and 2 months, which would make her birth as Dec. 16-1779. After Simon's death his widow married John Stanton. The Stanton Genealogy gives his birth date as December 16, 1779.

Sebbeus 5, son of Joshua 4, and Rachel (Peckham) Maine was born probably at North Stonington, Conn., about 1753. Lived at Carmel, Putnam County, N. Y. One account says that he married Mary Hovey, but a grandson states that he feels sure his grandmother's name was Nancy Carey. This grandson gives but one child, besides his father, Joshua 6 Maine. It is possible that Sebbeus 5 Maine was married twice. It would appear that his son Sebbeus 6 must have been born some 20 years or more prior to the birth of his other son Joshua.
