Dear Mr. Porter,

I just read your query in the Feb.-Mar. issue of Nexus about John Rogers. I can't answer your question but perhaps you could answer mine. I have a Jonathan Foskett born in Charlestown, Mass. 12 Nov 1703. He died in Sturbridge, Mass. 1 Nov 1764. He married in Medford, Mass. Hannah Crouch on 9 June 1724. They lived in Grafton awhile and then in Sturbridge. They had these children: Jonathan b. 10 Aug 1724; Nathan b. 9 Apr. 1733; d. 31 June 1753; Mary b. 17 Feb 1735/6; d. 16 June 1744 and Caleb b. 18 June 1739; d. 18 June 1739. Jonathan left a will and he names wife Hannah, son Jonathan, grandsons Joshua and Daniel, under 21; granddaus Esther and Elizabeth Foskett; wife's son Samuel Rogers; my wife's grandsons Caleb and Moses Rogers. Do you have anything like this in your Rogers family? His widow Hannah was probably the Widow Fosket who d. Stafford, Ct. 30 Apr 1782 age 83 years.

Enclosed is a SASE for your reply. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Marilyn Labbe

Dear Marilyn:

Thank you for your reply to my query. I don't quite know what to make of your information. It appears that there could be a connection to my Rogers line, but I'm not sure.

I will enclose a copy of my (not quite up to date) FGS for Samuel Rogers, Sr. He married 22 Jun 1742, at Sturbridge, Captivity Peters, daughter of Henry and Captivity (Jennings) Bartlett Peters. Captivity Jennings was born in Canada 14 Mar 1678 while in captivity. The famous story of the capture of the captives and their subsequent ransom by Benjamin Waite and Stephen Jennings is told and retold in all of the histories of the western Massachusetts towns of the era. The fact that she married Henry Peters after her first husband, Abijah Bartlett, was killed by Indians is not in the histories, but I have ample evidence to document it.

I have no vital records of a daughter named Captivity born to Henry and Captivity, but she is named in deeds from her mother and her marriage to Samuel Rogers is recorded in the Rogers family bible. This Samuel Rogers (he had a son Samuel also) is the "dead end" of my Rogers line and is the one who I was trying to get information on in my query.

On 11 May 1757, the family of Samuel and Captivity Rogers of Charlton were warned out of Brookfield. Named among their children were Caleb and Moses. Four of the children named in the warning, including Caleb and Moses, have not been found in any of the vital records of the area. The Rogers Bible names only son Samuel and his descendants, so is of no help.

Since Captivity Rogers survived until 1810, Caleb and Moses could not have been from a second wife of Samuel, but they could have been from a first wife, and Captivity would then be Samuel's second wife.

Your extract of the will of Jonathan Foskett mentions his wife's son, Samuel Rogers. I construe this to mean that his wife married [-----] Rogers before she married Foskett and they had a son, Samuel Rogers before [-----] Rogers died; and that Jonathan then married Hannah (Crouch) Rogers 9 Jun 1724. Presumably Samuel and [-----] Rogers had sons Caleb and Moses Rogers before the date of Jonathan's will. That date was not in your letter, but had to be before 1 Nov 1764.

My Samuel Rogers, Sr. was born 20 Jan 1718/9; place unknown. He was born about five years before the Foskett-Crouch marriage, which makes it possible that he was the son of [-----] and Hannah Rogers and that Hannah married Foskett after Rogers died. You didn't give me any dates to test this hypothesis against.

While writing this, I looked through my file of Worcester Co. deeds and found a deed from Samuel Rogers (Jr. or Sr.?) to Jonathan Foskett, Jr. for land formerly belonging to Jonathan Foskett, Sr., which land had been sold at vendue to Samuel Rogers. While this does not establish a clear connection between the Rogers and Foskett families, it does add a circumstantial link to the above hypothesis.

I have no birthdates for four of the children in the warning: Mary, Lucy, Caleb, and Moses, and they are not mentioned as children of Samuel and Captivity in the Rogers Bible. They all could be children of a first wife. The girls, if Hannah's grandchildren, may have died or been married and so were not included in Jonathan's will. However, Samuel Rogers was only about twenty-three when he married Captivity, so it is unlikely that he could have had more than two children by a supposed first wife.

I think that we definitely have something here worth exploring. I am leaving tomorrow for a research trip in the East and will work further on this when I am in the Sturbridge area. This may be the breakthrough I've been looking for years in the Rogers line (or it may be just a "flash in the pan"). It looks like we might be half-cousins of some degree.

I'm enclosing copies of my Rogers FGS, the warning, and the Rogers-Foskett deed. If you have any more detail on what you sent me, I would appreciate receiving it so I don't have to do it over. Don't delay writing because I'm on a trip; my mail will be forwarded to me. My replies may be delayed by circumstances, but I will eventually reply.

Sincerely,

Raymond J. Porter

Rogers

Rev. J. B. Benson
7-2-95

20 June 1995

Dear Ray,

Your letter came today and I feel I should answer right away as I'm going to be busy for the next week and may not be able to get to it. Thank you for all the things you sent me re the Rogers family and that Deed from Samuel Rogers to Jonathan Foskett Jr. I'll give you what I know of the Foskett family so you can better judge what is what.

Jonathan Foskett was born in Charlestown, Mass. 12 Nov 1703; died in Sturbridge, Mass. 1 Nov 1764; m. Medford, Mass. 9 June 1724 Hannah Crouch both of Charlestown. That is from the Medford vital records. No mention of Hannah being Hannah (Crouch) Rogers. I believe her to be the Hannah Crouch b. Charlestown 23 Aug 1698 dau of Jonathan and Elizabeth (Foskett) Crouch. A widow Foskett died Stafford, Ct. 30 Apr 1782 age 83 yrs. I think that she is Hannah widow of Jonathan Foskett. She was older than Jonathan by 5 years. It's very possible that Hannah Crouch married first Samuel Rogers but why would she be married under her maiden name? Anyway here are the children I have for Jonathan & Hannah Foskett. All recorded Sturbridge vital records.

Jonathan Jr. b. 10 Aug 1724

Nathan b. 9 Apr 1733 bp Grafton, Mass. 3 June 1733; d. 31 June 1753

Mary b. 17 Feb 1735/6; bp Grafton 18 Apr 1736; d. 16 June 1744

Caleb b. 18 June 1739; d. 18 June 1739

At the time of the 2 childrens baptisms the parents are called "of Medford".

I don't have the date of Jonathan's will but it wasn't too much before his death I'm sure. I think he married Hannah Crouch in 1724 and she died between the birth of Jonathan Jr. in Aug. 1724 and the birth of Nathan in Apr 1733. Seeing as there is a gap of 9 years between children it seems as tho he must have married his second wife Hannah () Rogers then. What do you think?

I looked in Medford, Sturbridge, Grafton, Charlton, Charlestown and Brookfield and didn't find anything on these particular Rogers. They sure did keep things a secret. I think we are on the right track with this. I hope you have good luck on your research trip. If you have time when you are out here call me up. Phone 1-203-564-3657. The only thing I have coming up next week is company coming on Wed. the 28th. I think I will have to stay home for a change and get some much needed dusting, etc. done. I am quite busy this week. Tomorrow I'm going to Boston to NEHGS to do some research and Thursday is busy and then I'm getting ready for a yard sale on Sat. the 24th.

Will be looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Marilyn

Your letter came today and I feel I should answer right away as I'm going to be busy for the next week and may not be able to get to it. Thank you for all the things you sent me to the Rogers family and the food from Sammie Rogers to Jonathan Rogerson. I'll give you what I know of the Rogers family so you can better judge what is what. Jonathan Rogerson was born in Chester, Mass. 12 Nov 1752 died in Cambridge.

Jonathan Rogerson was born in Chester, Mass. 9 June 1754 - Hannah Rogerson wife of Jonathan Rogerson. I believe her to be the Hannah Rogerson of Chester, Mass. 23 Aug 1699 dau of Jonathan and Elizabeth (Rogerson) Rogerson. A widow Rogerson died Hartford, Ct. 30 Apr 1782 age 83 years. I think that she is the same widow of Jonathan Rogerson. She was older than Jonathan by 2 years. It's very possible that Hannah Rogerson married first Samuel Rogerson but why would she be married until her maiden name? Any help you can give children I care for Jonathan & Hannah Rogerson. All records Cambridge that records.

Jonathan b. 10 Aug 1754
Hannah b. 9 Apr 1752 of Chester, Mass. 3 June 1753 of 31 June 1753
Mar. b. 1755; of Chester, Mass. 10 June 1754
Child b. 18 June 1757; d. 18 June 1780

All the case of the 3 children Rogerson the names are called "of Chester".

I don't have the date of Jonathan's will but it wasn't too much before his death in 1780. I think he married Hannah Rogerson in 1754 and she died between the birth of Jonathan in Apr. 1754 and the birth of Nathan in Apr. 1755. Being as there is a gap of 9 years between children it seems as tho he must have married the second wife Hannah Rogerson then. What do you think?

I looked in Atchard, Sturbridge, Grafton, Chester, and Brookfield and didn't find anything on these particular Rogersons. They sure did keep things a secret. I think we are on the right track with this. I hope you have good luck on your research trip. If you have time when you are out here call me on phone 1-507-264-3627. The only thing I have coming up next week is company coming on Wed. the 28th. I think I will have to stay home for a change and get some much needed resting, etc. done. I am quite busy this week. Tomorrow I'm going to Boston to help Bill to do some research and Thursday is busy and then I'm getting ready for a race on Sat. the 30th.

Will be looking forward to hearing from you.
Sincerely,
Marilyn Ladd
