A. Sibley's book will be coming to us in October.

On the 1st of August I started out from the village of Ching in the direction of the mountains and after a walk of about two hours arrived at the village of Tschon where I found a number of people who had come to buy salt. The salt was brought from the village of Tschon which is situated on the bank of the river Tschon.
The salt is obtained by boiling the water of the Tschon in shallow pits and the salt is left behind when the water has been boiled away.

The return of the frequency of Joseph's visit to England was probably due to the increased demand for his services.
