- (2) Abraham also supposedly told Tom that he and 5 brothers served in the Union Army during the Civil War and that he (Abraham) was wounded in the Battle of Shilo and had his hat shot off in the Battle of the Wilderness.

to pay $6.48 due John R. Stewart by the Estate of Adeline Bius from her part of A. Miller's personal estate. In another place John R. Stewart, under oath, states that he has credited the estate of Adeline Bius for all payments or offsets which it is entitled to.

BIRTH YEAR;;;;;NOTE: 1860 & 1880 U.S. Census records and pension application support birth year as 1826; military records showing age as 35 when he enlisted in April, 1862, indicates birth year as 1827. 1850 U.S. Census for Ohio, Allen County, Bath Twp, family headed by an Abraham (54) and Catherine (45) MILLER, with a 26 year old Abraham Miller in the household indicates a birth year for the younger Abraham as 1824. The younger Abraham listed in this census record may not be the Abraham Miller who married Deborah Maxwell.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE;;;;;NOTE: Certificate of Disability Discharge from U.S. Army cited above, shows: height: 5 ft, 9 in; complexion: red (sic); blue eyes; brown hair. Grace Vanderpool, in letter to Ruth C McQuerry dated 13 April 1973, writes that her Uncle Tom Miller said he weighed 240 pounds. James Madison McQuerry, father of Wayne H, recalled seeing his grandfather Miller when he was a young child. He described him as big and "pussy" — his expression for heavy, overweight, men.

- (2) Age listed as 70.
- (3) Birth place of Deborah and parents listed as "Ohio".
- (4) Shows she was mother of 11 children and that all 11 were living.
- (5) COMMENT: All other records we have list only 8 children; one of the 8, William, died in 1884. "Gaps" in birthdates could be due to deaths of infants.

BIRTH;;;;; Birth year based on age per above referenced U.S. Census records varies but all indicate it was between 1829 and 1831. All census records show she was born in Ohio.

ILLNESS: James Madison McQuerry, personal communication;; verbal;; NOTE: Deborah (Maxwell) Miller went to pick wild blackberrys on a hot, muggy, day. When she did not return as expected, the family went looking for her. They found her just slowly wandering around in a daze. She did not know where she was, what she was doing, or the family members who found her. Grandma Miller was "never right" after that experience.

- McQuerry viewed them in July, 1995; unable to make photocopies. Readable records included: (1) Affidavit dated 16 April 1877 stating that Deborah Miller "is insane, that her insanity is less than one year's duration...that she has no estate sufficient to support her at the State Lunatic Asylum". This affidavit signed by J. R. Hamilton, Edward Gibson and Dr. W. F. Buren.
- (2) Reports and statements showing that Abraham Miller was guardian until his death and that Robert Miller was appointed guardian after Abraham's death.
 - (3) Reports/receipts showing Deborah received a widow's pension. One showed she received $188.20 for period 28 Sept. 1899 through 17 Aug. 1901.

COMMENT: Markings on tombstone for Abraham Miller in the Hamilton Cemetery include "Deborah, wife of Abraham Miller" but do not show a death date for her. Since body was shipped from St. Joseph, it is concluded that Deborah was buried beside her husband.
 - (6) An affidavit stating "We the undersigned heirs of Deborah Miller, deceased, hereby waive the provisions of the statute requiring the guardian of Deborah Miller to make a just and true exhibit of his accounts..." Signed by Phillip Miller, Martha Jane McQuerry, Charles Miller, Sophrona Place and John H. Miller. See notes for Adaline Miller.
