A Little Step Away
To close the eye, to fall asleep, &
To draw a labored breath,
To find release from daily cares
In what we know as death...

Is this the crowning of a life,
The aim or end thereof?
The totaled sum of consciousness,
The ripened fruit of love?

It cannot be, for works of God
Are wrought for nobler ends,
And those away continue on
In the hearts of kin and friends.

It cannot be, for they live on
A little step away, &
The soul, & the everlasting life,
Has found a better day.....

The Twenty Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me: thy rod and thy staff they comfort me: Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Dear Glacie,

I'm writing to tell you that Ellen went home to be with the Lord Jan. 21st of this year.

She had gone through a lot the last few years; the month after Lester my husband passed away Feb. 6th 1991. Ellen was very sick in March; her diabetes condition, then a heart attack, and pneumonia; she recovered from this but, the following year her leg was amputated below the knee after more surgery to remove some bone it healed.

Ellen was at my place for Christmas dinner, and at Zula's in the evening.

Wed. after Christmas my daughter Reba took Ellen to the dr.; she was diagnosed as having bronchitis but, she got worse and, Reba and I went with her to the emergency room and she was admitted in the hospital with pneumonia; she lived almost three wks after she entered the hospital.

I didn't miss many days going to see her in the hospital; I stayed two nights some of my daughters and grand-daughters were there with me.

Love, Myrtle Burton

Comfort

The Power who pities man has shown
A blessing for the eyes that weep.

The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears;
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happier years.

There is a day of sunny rest
For every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide an evening quest,
But joy shall come with early light.

For God hath marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear,
And Heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all His children suffer here.

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for thou art with me; Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Twenty-third Psalm

Comfort

The Power who pities man has shown
A blessing for the eyes that weep.

The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears;
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happier years.

There is a day of sunny rest
For every dark and troubled night;
And grief may bide an evening quest,
But joy shall come with early light.

For God hath marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear,
And Heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all His children suffer here.
