AGEE

James Agee, son of Mathieu Agee, Huguenot immigrant, was a man of fine reputation, and stood for that which was good and upright in his community. He and his wife had a long life together, seventy-five years of wedded life, and both died the same year, namely, 1821, having lived in the same house all these years. Their home was a meeting place for the neighborhood, and religious services were conducted there from time to time, a custom prevalent in pioneer days when church meeting-houses were anything but numerous. Bishop Asbury, the first Methodist bishop from England, conducted meetings there. James Agee was a large landowner and a successful man. He served his country in the Revolutionary war, as did his son, John Agee. Many of his descendants still live in Virginia as well as in Kentucky and Missouri. His Missouri descendants are not limited to those of his son, John Agee, but of other sons and daughters. It is a heritage of which we descendants should be proud, and, although we must shape our own destinies, yet it is good to have a noble ancestry; if we love our children, their children and our posterity yet unborn, we should none the less love and revere our ancestry, emulate their good qualities and avoid their mistakes, if any. It cannot be denied that heredity plays a great part in our lives and its influence has been scientifically proven, hence we are glad that ours is such as it is. The love of family, the loyalty to our country and the adoration of God should be no less prevalent in our lives than in the lives of these early pioneers, whose labour and sacrifices made possible the enjoyment of our present-day civilization. Elizabeth Ford, the wife of James Agee, was also a French Huguenot descendant and no doubt possessed the same sturdy characteristics as those of her husband.

John Agee was the fourth son of James and was born, lived and died in Virginia. He married Sicily Ann Hall, who had a long line of noble as well as royal ancestors, thirty-two generations having been recorded.

Pleasants Ford Agee was the fourth son of John Agee. He was born in Virginia, married there and came to Missouri about one hundred years ago. He married Mary E. Thomas, daughter of Elliott R. Thomas and wife, Mary Polly Trent, who was the daughter of Captain Thomas Trent, Revolutionary soldier of Virginia, and Elizabeth Edwards. Elliott R. Thomas was the son of Captain John Thomas, Virginia Revolutionary soldier, and wife, Susan Roberts.

Pleasants Ford Agee was born in Virginia, May 21, 1806; died in Missouri, Nov. 6, 1866; married Jan. 20, 1831, Mary E. Thomas, born in Virginia, May 2, 1813, died in Missouri, June 30, 1893.

Their children were:

1. Andrew E. Agee, born Dec. 18, 1831; died Jan. 31, 1871; married 1st: Jan. 8, 1857, Welthy Legran Green, who died Dec. 22, 1857; married 2nd: Sallie Minor, born Aug. 6, 1840, died March 8, 1922. They were married April 14, 1859, and were the parents of one son and three daughters.

6. Joseph Booker Agee, born Jan. 30, 1838; died Aug. 19, 1910; married Amelia Herrin, born Apr. 10, 1838, died July 4, 1913. They had 10 children, 7 sons and 3 daughters.

Huguenot Society of the Founders of Manakin in the Colony of Virginia

Agee, Cabiness, Chastain, DuPuy, Flournoy, Fontaine, LeGrand, Martin, Maupin, Maury, Michaux, Salle, Sublett, Trabue—these names and many more would be instantly recognizable to most Virginians, especially those in central Virginia. These families are rooted in the French Protestants, called Huguenots, who settled in Virginia over three hundred years ago.

In 1700 and 1701, four ships came from England to Virginia carrying Huguenots who had escaped to the Continent after the Revocation of the Edict of Nantes in 1685. Many chose to settle at Manakintown, about 20 miles west of the Fall Line in Richmond, in a wilderness recently vacated by the Monacan Indians. At Manakintown they were given a grant of 10,000 acres, freedom from taxes for several years, and especially, freedom to worship as Protestants in a French-speaking church with their own ministers.

To honor these settlers as well as other French Huguenots who came to Virginia to find new lives and religious freedom, the Huguenot Society of the Founders of Manakin in the Colony of Virginia was founded in 1922. The National Society has had around 5000 members, including more than 1000 presently active. At this time, it has branches in Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, Tennessee, Texas, Kentucky, and Oklahoma as well as Virginia, which has several hundred active members.

The National Headquarters is on Powhatan Trail (Robious Road), beside the present Manakin Episcopal Church, which—along with Beulah Baptist Church—has many members who are Huguenot descendants. Headquarters includes a small but choice research library, with over 500 volumes of books and periodicals for genealogical research, including many on Huguenot families, and Virginia and Huguenot history. It also stores the extensive applications and documentation of the members. The library is presently staffed by a part-time librarian, Ms. Sarah Hudson, and open for research ten hours a week, with regular hours and by appointment.

Also on the grounds, which include a large forest, is a small but beautiful wooden church, the fourth built by the Huguenots in 1895. It is a simple building, focused on a large stained glass window. Even though the French lands are fast turning into housing developments, especially with the advent of highway 288 cutting through the original grant, there are still a number of homes built by Huguenots in the area.

The National Society has a General Assembly each summer, and it will be meeting in Richmond on 22–25 June 2005. The Assembly will convene in Jamestown in 2007 to celebrate the quadricentennial. The programs include speakers, banquets, and visits to sites related to colonial and Huguenot history. Each society chapter has one or two meetings each year. The Virginia branch will be meeting at Headquarters on Saturday, October 16, with a speaker and a luncheon. Interested visitors and prospective members are welcome. Details will be posted on the Internet.

There is much information about the Society, its history and activities, and library hours on the Internet at <<http://www.huguenot-manakin.org>>. Those interested in joining—and doing the research necessary for application—are urged to call the Virginia branch at 804-794-5702 or e-mail virginia@huguenot-manakin.org.

JOHN FLOYD AGEE BIBLE RECORD

The family information typed below was hand copied from the John Floyd Agee Bible at home of Minabelle "Mina" (Jackson) Nunes, Fresno California, in September 2003. This information was hand written in a section between the old and new testaments identified as FAMILY RECORD. Page numbers listed are the page numbers of the FAMILY RECORD section where the information was found.

The cover was a brown hardback with a lightly tooled design. The bible, approximately 7 x 4 x 2 inches thick, was obviously old and well used. Many pages were loose. Front and back were held together with scotch tape; however, there was no evidence of water or insect damage.

The title page contained the following information:

Holy Bible, American Bible Society, New York, 1852.

Original ownership of bible not indicated.

The listing of John Floyd Agee's children led Mina and me to believe the bible belonged to him. We didn't believe the faded hand-written record would photo-copy.

John F. Agee Dead

John F. Agee was born in Floyd county, Virginia, May 12, 1842, age 86 years, 10 months and 10 days old. Died March 24, 1929. He was the son of Samuel and Mary P. Agee.

He moved to Butler county, Mo., in 1860. was married to Susan Faulkner in 1866. To this union 9 children were born 6 preceding him in death. The living are William Agee of Hutchinson, Kansas, H. E. of Stockton, and Margurite Cox of Tarkio, Mo.

The departed ones are Lucy, Cora, Nettie, John and J. W. Agee and one dying in infancy. He was converted and united with the Primitive Baptist church over 50 years ago. He was a man of conviction and his religion was sacred to him. He lived his convictions and his every day life was always exemplary. He never enlisted in the civil war on account of the older brothers going and left him to take care of his parents.

He moved to Cedar county in 1877 and with the exception of two years spent the remainder of his life here.

Uncle John Agee as he was called helped to make Cedar county what it is today. He was a pioneer wrestling from the virgin soil a living for his family.

His wife died about 45 years ago and left him with seven children, most of them small, but he clung to his children and kept them together and made a home for them. He took the place of father and mother to them. He was making his home in Stockton with his son H. E. Agee at the time of his death and had all the care and attention by his son and daughter-in-law that was possible to give. No daughter could have been more kind and attentive than was the daughter-in-law.

Uncle John had many friends in Cedar county and will be missed by all who knew him, but he wrought well, fought the battle bravely and came out more than conqueror through him that loved him.

H. E. Agee Dies Suddenly

H. E. Agee, prominent merchant and the present mayor of Stockton died suddenly Sunday morning, the immediate cause of death being apoplexy. Although he had not enjoyed the best of health for some time he appeared to be in as good health as usual Saturday, working in the store until a late hour Saturday night and the news of his death came as a shock to the entire community.

Mr. Agee was a son of John and Lucy Agee and was born in Butler county, Mo., March 15, 1871, being at the time of death 58 years, 7 months and 27 days of age.

He was married to Minnie Fain in August 1896. No children were born to this union, but they reared an infant niece of Mr. Agee's when the death of the mother left the child homeless.

He was converted and united with the Baptist church in 1894 and was an active and faithful member until death. He was also a member of the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges who took part in the burial ceremonies as a tribute to his memory.

Mr. Agee was ever ready to help those who were in need and his assistance and kindness in sickness and distress will make his memory more lasting in the hearts of his friends.

His wife, a brother, William, of Hutchinson, Kansas, a sister Margaret Cox, Phelps City Missouri, a niece Mrs. Blon Jackson, Tiffin, and a number of other relatives and a host of friends mourn his departure.

THE Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters; He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Mina J. Nunes

Minabel Pauline Jackson Nunes was born in Stockton, Missouri on November 20, 1922 to Blonde and Ethel Jackson. She passed away on August 11, 2004, after a long and active life.

She lived on a farm for the first few years of her life, but when she was about four years old, her family moved to California. Uncertain that they wanted to live in California at first, and missing the farm, they moved back to Missouri briefly and then came to California to stay, settling in the San Joaquin Valley. They lived in several central California towns: Hanford, Corcoran, and Porterville. In Porterville she was in high school where she met many friends, including her future husband, Waldon L. Nunes. Finishing high school in Missouri, she came back to California and when she was eighteen she and Waldon were married.

Described as the love of her life, they were married 62 years from 1941 until 2002 when Waldon passed away. Together, they had three children, Maria in 1943, Sarah in 1946 and John in 1954. They lived most of their lives in Fresno, but they also lived in Porterville, Berkeley, and Alameda.

When Mina was in her mid thirties, she went back to school and became a Licensed Vocational Nurse and worked for several years at local hospitals and doctor's offices. Later, she continued on to school and achieved her RN at age 50. The remainder of her work life, for over 20 years, was spent working with young children in the Head Start program of Fresno County where she was influential helping to provide health care for children and their families who are otherwise underserved in the health community. Her co-workers and the children and families will remember her fondly. She worked for Head Start until she was 72. After retirement, she spent time with her beloved dogs, Maggie, and more recently Hannah. She enjoyed many hobbies such as drawing, genealogy, and writing to friends and family in email. She enjoyed traveling, going to England, The Netherlands, Germany, and later to Russia and Far East on nursing education tours. Recent travel was limited first by Waldon's health and then her own.

The last seven months of her life was in Camarillo California, with her daughter and she passed away there surrounded by her family. Some of her greatest joys were in having her family with her and reminiscing and laughing.

She is survived by her family; Maria Nunes and her husband Brian Kane, Sarah Griffin and husband Keith Griffin, John Nunes and wife Sarah Nunes. Also by grandchildren Ted Howell; Eric Griffin and wife Desiree Griffin and great-grandson John; Catherine Griffin; and Cristina Nunes.

*Received from son John Nunes via e-mail
Monday, 23 August 2004*

Also survived by brother Gary Jackson and wife Helen Jackson, nephew Geoff Nunes, and niece Barbara Williams. She is also mourned and remembered by many of her friends that she shared good times in Fresno.

Graveside services will be held at St. Peter's Cemetery in Fresno on Monday, August 30 at 1:30PM.

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to Canine Adoption and Rescue League or to the giver's favorite charity.

Elder Walter P. Acton—Kirksville, Mo.

The son of Arthur E. Acton and Lola B. Acton, was born August 13, 1910.

Elder Acton has recollections of a happy childhood in which his parents would get the song books, after evening chores, and sing of the wonderful works and love of God and His Son. When his father read from the Bible, young Walter's heart would rejoice over the precious promises God had made to His children. He cannot remember the time when he did not have a sweet hope and assurance that Jesus loved him and died for his sins.

When he was sixteen years old and working in the field, he heard a voice so clearly saying, "Comfort ye, comfort ye my people saith your God" that he looked toward Heaven and answered, "O, Lord not me, I'm just a boy."

Although he had wanted to join the church for a long time, he postponed it two years thinking if he did he would have to preach and could not. He did join at the Hazel Creek Association and was baptized the fifth Sunday in September, 1928.

Elder Acton first introduced services in October 1931 and felt that the only cure for his burden of so many years was to tell others of "The Wonderful Works of God."

On May 15, 1932, Elder Acton married Miss Faye Tracy at Winterset, Iowa. They have one adopted son. He states that although mixed with sorrow, God has blessed them more than tongue can tell.

For several years, Elder Acton did not wish to submit to ordination but traveled many miles filling appointments in Iowa, Illinois, Nebraska, and Missouri.

He says that he was finally made to see his error and was ordained at Hazel Creek Association in 1945.

Elder Acton is pastoring four churches at present.

Elder Clayburn Columbus Agee (Deceased)

Elder Agee, son of C. D. Agee and Clearcie Agee, was born in Southeast Missouri on January 11, 1867. He was raised by Primitive Baptist parents.

He was married to Miss Minnie Dooley and to this union ten children were born.

He was a firm believer in the faith and practices of the Primitive Baptists from early manhood. He obtained a hope in Christ when he was 16 or 17 years of age. He united with Round Prairie Church at Louisburg in 1898. In 1901 he was chosen moderator of Ozark Association, which place he filled faithfully until his death.

He was also pastor of the following churches: Fellowship, Ozark, Zion, and New Bethel, having served each consecutively, from 13 to 34 years, and was also pastor of Pisgah Church for many years.

He died Jan. 23, 1934 at Springfield, Mo.

DR. JAMES LEE HARWELL

A descendant of one of the first pioneers of Butler county and one of the most highly respected members of the medical profession in the county is Dr. James Lee Harwell, the son of James Houston and Sarah Catherine Agee Harwell who was born on a farm five and one half miles southeast of Hendrickson on March 29, 1874. Dr. Harwell's grandfather, William Agee, was a member of a family that migrated to the county from Virginia several generations back. The Agee community and school house were named after William Agee.

Dr. Harwell was reared on his father's farm and, upon completion of his grade school education in the rural schools of his district, passed a teacher's examination and was given a certificate on which he taught the Davidson school near Wilby for five years. At the end of his fifth year as a teacher he was accepted as a student at the American Medical College in St. Louis because of his unusual record as a school teacher. Dr. Harwell received his degree in medicine from the American Medical College in 1906, was licensed by the State Board of Health and returned to Hendrickson where he started his practice and remained for 15 years.

He came to Poplar Bluff and established an office in the old William Ferguson building on Vine street in 1918 where he remained until 1935 when he became associated with his son, Dr. J. Lester Harwell, and moved to their offices in the Dalton building. Dr. Harwell, always interested in new discoveries in his profession, has taken several post graduate courses since his graduation. He attended Tulane in 1918 and 1920, St. Louis University in 1914, Chicago Post Graduate School of Medicine in 1926 and Washington University in 1927 and 1929.

Dr. Harwell was married to Miss Lula Magill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Magill of Hendrickson in October of 1905. They had two children Mrs. Haskell Foard of Poplar Bluff and Glen Allen Harwell who is married, resides at Osceola, Mo., and is employed as State Sanitary Engineering supervisor for 10 Central Missouri counties. Dr. Harwell's first wife died in 1905. Two years later he married his first wife's sister, Miss Dora Magill. They have one son, Dr. J. Lester Harwell, Poplar Bluff physician and surgeon who was educated at Washington University's Medical College prior to interning at St. Luke's Hospital in St. Louis and the Fitzsimons Tuberculosis Hospital in Denver, Colo. Dr. Harwell was a member of the Chamber of Commerce and the Kiwanis club until 1935. He is a member of the local Masonic lodge, the Eastern Star, the I. O. O. F. and the Rebekah lodges. Dr. Harwell is a loyal attendant of the Baptist church and has been a member of the Men's Bible Class since 1918.

He is a former president of the Southeast Missouri Medical Society, the oldest medical organization in the state; a former president of the Eclectic Medical Society and was president of the Butler County Medical Society for 7 years. When he came to the city Dr. Harwell bought a home at 944 Oak street where he lived for 22 years before moving to his new home at 1407 North Main street in January of 1940.

Dr. Harwell's main hobbies are his grandchildren, J. Larry Harwell, son of Dr. and Mrs. J. Lester Harwell and Sherra Do and Edward Lee Foard, children of Mr. and Mrs. Haskell Foard.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF MANAKIN CHURCH

The Huguenots, a French Protestant group who followed the teachings of Calvin, for many years enjoyed religious freedom protected by the Edict of Nantes of 1598. During the reign of Louis XIV, however, they were subjected to more and more persecution, and finally in 1685 Louis XIV revoked the Edict of Nantes, thus outlawing their religion in France and in effect driving them out of the country. William III of England did all he could to help these religious refugees, and in 1700 he and the Protestant Relief Fund financed the settling in Virginia of a large group of Huguenots who were then in England.

During the summer and fall of 1700 several shiploads of Huguenots landed at Hampton, Virginia. They were immediately sent up the James River to a point twenty miles west of Richmond where William Byrd had arranged for them a grant of 10,000 acres stretching for five miles along the south side of the river and centered around Manakin Town, an abandoned townsite of the Monacan Indians. In early 1701, under the leadership of Benjamin de Joux, who had been ordained by the Bishop of London and sent as minister to Manakin Town Huguenots, they built the first church at Manakin, a small octagonally-shaped building probably located near the river and about half-way between the two creeks now known as Bernard's Creek and Norwood Creek, the boundaries of the Huguenot grant.

In 1710 a new church was built, apparently as a community effort rather than by one builder. Later, since the Huguenots had moved out of their village and were now living on land they farmed, it was decided in 1730 to build another church at a more central location at the junction of River Road and the Ferry Road, close to the location of the present church.

In the years that followed a third church and then a fourth were constructed. With the emergence of modern lighting and heating facilities the congregation decided that the fourth church was no longer adequate. Therefore in 1954, with the generous financial help of the Huguenot Society, Founders of Manakin in the Colony of Virginia the fifth Manakin Church was built. It is modeled after William Byrd's church at Westover, and thereby serves as a reminder of the help which Byrd gave the original settlers at Manakin Town.

EASTER DAY

April 22, 1984

10:00 A. M.

Easter is many things. It is a young man in white uttering the greatest words of hope ever spoken: 'He is risen!' It is a breathless sprint to the cemetery by Peter and John. It is a conversation that burns during an afternoon walk on the road leading to Emmaus. It is a prayer meeting in the Upper Room, suddenly broken up by the entrance of the Savior. It is a thousand church bells in a thousand cities. It is a day vibrant with faith, song, and worship around the world. It is, above all, God at work behind the scenes, working the law that good is stronger than evil, love more powerful than hate. It is that feeling of newness and hope that every person senses when, once again, the Word comes: 'He is not here! He is risen! Behold, he goeth before you.'

There are many symbols and traditions that help express the meanings of Easter and remind everyone of the first Easter.

Symbols include the cross which universally symbolizes the Christian faith. Bulb flowers express new life and new hope. The lily especially is a symbol of joy and resurrection. Chickens and rabbits are ancient symbols of fertility and birth. Lambs symbolize the resurrected Christ. Light (candlelight, the sun, the color white) express Christ's triumph over darkness. The life cycle of the butterfly symbolizes Christ's transformation. Eggs symbolize spring's return, new life and the Resurrection.

Traditions include the coloring of Easter eggs. According to one legend, some eggs were colored when Mary's tears fell on them. It became customary to decorate eggs to symbolize the end of the penitential season, the beginning of springtime and renewal of life. For many, the preparation of different foods became associated with different parts of the Easter story. For example, hot cross buns (usually baked on Good Friday) are reminders of Jesus' cross. Baked goods shaped like lambs symbolize Christ as the Lamb of God. The ancient German custom of blessing a new fire was adopted as a Christian tradition. Outside the church, fire is struck from a flint, symbolizing the light that comes from the risen Christ. Many churches follow special Easter traditions to bring alive the meaning of Christ's Resurrection...for example, lighting the Paschal Candle and outdoor sunrise services.
