Later this John is identified as the one who married Nancy Shepherd and fathered 7 children, including James, the youngest.

BIRTH YEAR-CHILDREN-DEATH: Paul W. Gregory, EARLY SETTLERS OF REDDIES RIVER; early 1700-1976; pub. by Wilkes County North Carolina Genealogical Society; Society; pages 103, 104; copy in possession of Wayne and Ruth McQuerry; NOTES: (1) Birth year estimated on basis of when John became exempt from poll tax. (2) Gregory notes that a Clarence McQueary, a descendent of William, told him William's father was born in Scotland, possibly Iona Isle. (2) Death date based on fact he was not on 1800 U.S. Census and last time his name is known to have appeared on tax records and court documents. (3) Came to Wilkes Co., NC, during Revolutionary War. Exact date unknown. but assumed to be by 1779 when he made an entry (Entry # 1104) for 100 acres on Mill Creek below Thomas Owens' spring. (4) No proof that the John McQuerry (Jr.) and William McQuerry in Wilkes Co., NC, during late 1700s-early 1800s were brothers. (5) No records found indicating that John Sr ever owned land in Wilkes Co.

- (1) A very old, fragile and faded slip of paper stating "John McQuary (or Quary) enters one hundred acres of land in Wilkes County being below a spring known by the name of Thos. Owen Spring and running so as to include the head of the branch of said Owens Mill Creek". As noted by Gregory, there was no record showing that this entry had been granted or why it was not granted.

- (2) No John McQueary/McQuary/Query, etc., listed.
- (3) William McQuery (sic) listed — 1 male, between 21 and 60; 1 male either under 21 or over 60; 1 female.
- (4) COMMENTS: a) Surprising no John McQ___ listed. Tax Lists show a John McQuery/McQuerry for the years 1784, 1785 and 1787. In 1788 John McQuery (sic) Sr and John McQuery Jr were both listed along with William.
  - b) Who was the "under 21 or over 60 male" in William's household? Could this be the father of William? Nancy's parents both living, listed.
  - c) Where was John Jr.? Could be in William's household if born in 1767.

RESIDENCE-CENSUS: 1790 U.S. Census, Wilkes Co., NC; 1790; page 129;; viewed at National Archives, Laguna Niguel, CA; NOTES:

- (1) John McQuerry (or Querry) SENIOR listed; 1 male under 16, 1 male over 16 and 5 females.
- (2) William McQuerry (Query ?) listed; 1 male over 16 and 2 females.
- (3) COMMENTS/QUESTIONS: a) Who was male under 16 in John Sr's household? Too young to be John Jr per later census data, the fact he paid poll tax in 1788 and birth dates of record. Also he would be too old to be the Martin McQuery/McQuary located near John Jr, John III, Morgan and Andrew in Indiana, 1832 to 1850.
  - b) Who were the 5 females in John Sr's household? Did John Jr have 4 or 5 sisters hitherto unidentified by all researchers?
  - c) Where was John Jr? Per records available he and Nancy were married by census time and he was on the 1790 tax list.

RESIDENCE-CENSUS: 1800 U.S. Census, Wilkes Co., NC; 1800;; viewed at National Archives, Laguna Niguel, CA; NOTES:

- (1) Only one John listed — a John McQuerry with 2 males under 10, 1 male 26 to 45, 3 females under 10 and 1 female 26 to 45. Number of children and ages of children and adults consistent with data for family of John Jr and Nancy.

BIRTH-SPOUSE-CHILDREN: Dorothy Powers Elliott of Muscatine, Iowa, personal correspondence; abt 1733-1850; letter to Ruth McQuerry dated 2 July 1981;;;

NOTE: Believed, but "did not have proof yet", that:

- (1) John Sr. was born about 1733 in Scotland, possibly Iona Isle.
- (2) John Sr. married a Sarah ??? and they had (at least) 2 sons:
  - (a) William, m: Nancy Shepherd, dau of Robert and Sarah (????) Shepherd.
  - (b) John, b: 5 Aug. 1765 in Spotsylvania Co., Virginia; m: Nancy Shepherd, dau of John and Sarah (????) Shepherd.

- (3) Sources not identified but she noted a book "about Wilkes Co., NC, where the Mcq's went from Albemarle and Spotsylvania Counties, Va."

COMMENT: The "book" probably was Gregory's EARLY SETTLERS OF REDDIES RIVER. Most of the above, plus other information in the letter, is the same as shown in Gregory's book. However, the notations that the McQuerrys went to Wilkes Co., NC, from Albemarle and Spotsylvania Counties, VA, that John Jr was born in Spotsylvania Co., VA, and that John Senior's wife was a Sarah ??? do not appear in Gregory's book.

BIRTH-SPOUSES-CHILD: John H. McQuerry, Tulsa, Oklahoma, personal correspondence; Abt 1733-1992; letters to Ruth McQuerry dated 4 Oct. 1987, 27 Nov. 1987 and 22 Sept. 1992 with enclosed FGSs (dated 6 Oct. 1987) and Pedegree Charts;;; NOTES:

- (1) Identified William (RIN 1081) as son of John and Elizabeth McQuarry. John was b: about 1733 in Scotland; lived in Virginia and Wilkes Co., NC. Elizabeth's maiden name unknown.
- (2) Shows that William's father had another wife, a Sarah Hansford.
- (3) Identified no other children of John.

NAME-SPOUSE-CHILD: Vera M. Niemiec, Durant Oklahoma, personal correspondence; early 1700s to 1950; letter to Mrs. Wayne H. McQuerry, received Jan., 1995;;;

- NOTES: (1) Enclosures to letter included pedegree charts showing ancestors of Margie Ruth (Harry) Campbell with one page write-up of McQueary (sic) line listing four generations from John Sr to William Jasper McQueary.
- (2) Write-up for John McQueary Sr included the following:
    - a) "...probably born around 1745...exact date, place of birth unknown".
    - b) Married Sarah "Kitty" _____ (maiden name unknown)
    - c) John and Sarah "Kitty" had son named John McQueary Jr, b: 5 Aug. 1765, in Pittsylvania Co., Virginia.
    - d) John McQueary Jr married Nancy Shepherd in Wilkes Co., North Carolina, on 17 March 1790; 7 children of this marriage listed — same given names as Mattie Louderback but Morgan listed first.

Wife: Kitty (unknown)-1080

Mr. & Mrs. LaMar McQuerry
40 East Cedar, Apt. 6D
Chicago, IL

Dear Mr. & Mrs. McQuerry:

I have much too little information about John McQuerry, Sr., of the Reddies River community, to share with you. I have never tried to research the McQueary records in Virginia, and all the information I have about the Virginia records is second hand. For a long time it has been my desire to go to Virginia and abstract all pertinent McQuerry family information; but since this family is not in my direct line, I have never committed the time, energy and expenses necessary to do the job. Therefore, what information I can give you is based on my research in North Carolina, Kentucky and Missouri.

One John McQuery came to Reddies River as early as 1779, at which time he entered 100 acres of land. Apparently, he did not establish his home here until sometime later although he continued to be taxable. In 1788, John Sr., John Jr., and William were all in the household together or, at least, on adjoining property. In 1790, John Sr. was shown in the Federal Census as being poll-taxable in age (16-60) with one son under 16 and five females. Since no other McQuerry family was on Reddies River, there seems to be little doubt in my mind that this is one and the same family. John Sr. was not listed in the 1800 Census, although William and John Jr. were. Did he go back to Virginia or die? Quien sabe?

In 1965, Clearence McQuerry of Somerset, Kentucky, age 80 plus at that time, told me that his ancestor William, was born in Virginia. This is the nearest thing I have to prove that this family came from Va.

To solve the mystery of the two Nancys: Nancy Shepherd, daughter of John and Sarah Shepherd, married John McQuerry Jr. ca 1791/92. Nancy Ann Shepherd, daughter of Robert and Agness Shepherd, married William McQueary 11 February 1787.

The name, McQuerry, has been spelled many different ways, as many as eight that I know of. Perhaps, we will find out in Virginia the true spelling.

If I can help you further, do not hesitate to ask. Should you want me to go to Virginia, the cost would be nominal: $25.00 per day plus expenses. It would take one night and two days to do this research.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. McQuerry :

As per our agreement, Ruth and I spent four days and three nights in Virginia and most of this time was spent searching for your ancestors. When you digest the enclosed materials, I believe you will agree that we had right much success with this elusive family. I did underestimate the scope of this project; nevertheless, my estimation and quotation as I sent you was firm and no additional costs will be included in my final bill to you.

To help you understand the scope of this project, a short description of our trip is in order. Our first stop was in Pittsylvania County but all our research in this county was negative. Since Lynchburg is an independent city and flanked by the counties of Campbell, Amherst and Bedford, we researched all these <sup>COUNTIES</sup> records. It was in Bedford County that we found your John. In 1772, Bedford included all the area in and around Lynchburg, but only one record the sale of his stock and furniture- was found. It would seem that John did not live long in this county and had not purchased land; and that he was in the process of leaving this county. Later research confirmed this.

Realizing that John had apparently lived only a short time in Bedford County, we sought him elsewhere. It was in Louisa County that we found, what we believe to be the same family. Documentary evidence has not been found to prove this. However, circumstantial evidence strongly suggest that this is the same family. Thus, the evidence found there suggest or actually shows that this family disappeared from Louisa County ca 1760/1770 and they had to go somewhere.

Louisa came out of Hanover County in 1742. Unfortunately, most records of Hanover County have not survived. However, at the State Library in Richmond, we found an old Circuit Court Record wherein contained an order showing a deed for 100 acres of land conveyed by John McQueary which the order revealed that this was a portion of a grant to John McQueary the 20 Feb., 1723... property on So. Side of Anna River. When Louisa was formed in 1742, that property patented in name of John McQuary in 1723 was cut off and became the same property but was now in Louisa County. Here is the shocker !!! John Shepherd Sr. lived on Anna River just across the line in Spottsylvania County, before moving ti North Carolina.....

Information found at the University of Virginia revealed that John <sup>McQuary</sup> left Bedford County and was in Henry County in 1777. We know that he was in Wilkes County as early as 1779.

It was a pleasure running down your John McQueary; and when the enclosed information is digested, you might want to follow up with war and immigration records.

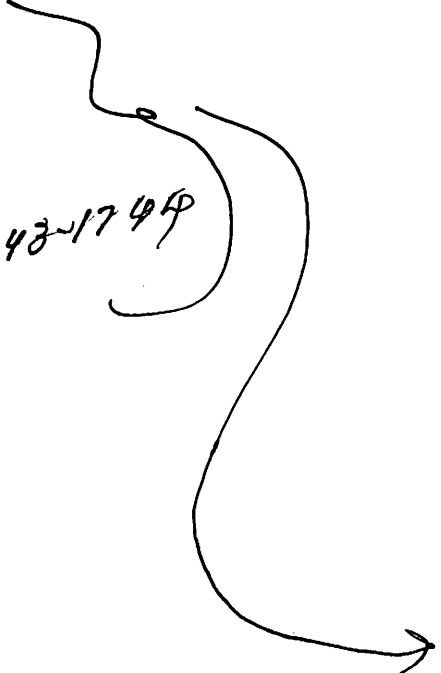

Just another thought: The John who was given a land grant in 1723 may have been the father of the John who was born near Lynchburg,; or possibly grandfather. Since no other McQuary family has been located in Virginia, I am satisfied that this is your family.

Sincerely yours,

Paul W. Gregory

on site

The John McQuary research project included a close/examination of all pertinent records in the counties of : Pittsylvania, Bedford, Campbell, Amherst, Louisa and Hanover. We also scrutinized available records in the independent cities of Lynchburg and Danville. Our search also took us to the University of Virginia Library at Charlottesville and the Virginia State Library in Richmond .

Records closely scrutinized in the above counties included: Marriage Record, Land Record and Conveyances, Circuit Court Records, Wills and Estates, Guardian Bonds, Tithables and County Histories. In Virginia the public records are at best fragmentary and all the above records were not found in all the above counties and towns. However you can be sure that records that survived were carefully read and you now have all the information in the public records of the above counties.

In the University Library and the State Library, we concentrated on well known genealogical books and magazines. We scanned several old publications written about the wars of Scotland and early USA conflicts with negative results

I think that sometime in the future , further concentration on immigration records as well as books about the Jacobite uprisings in Scotland in 1714/1715 might be worth while. Many of the Jacobites were expelled from Scotland about this time.

The John McQuerry Family

(Wilkes County)

- 1779 John McQuerry, Sr., entered 100 acres of land on Mill Creek, a tributary of Reddies River. There is no evidence that he ever owned this property as no deed of conveyance has been found. The official tax records confirm that he never owned any land in Wilkes County.
- 1780/ 1783
No documentary evidence that John McQueary was in Wilkes County during this time period has been found.
- 1784/ 1785
The official tax records show that John McQueary lived on Reddies River, was poll-taxable, but owned no land.
- 1786 Only William McQueary lived on Reddies River this year. He was poll-taxable but owned no land. John has not yet been found this year.
- 1787 Both John and William were living on Reddies River this year. Both were poll-taxable; neither owned land.
- 1787 William McQuery and Nancy Shepherd were married in Wilkes County 11 February 1787.
- 1787 North Carolina State Census
William McQuery was listed with wife and one male child under 21.
John McQuery not found on this census.
- 1788 John McQuery, Sr., John McQuery, Jr., and William McQuery were all living in the same household, or next door to each other, when this census was taken. All of these men were poll-taxable and neither owned land.
- 1790 Federal Census
William McQuery 1 0 2 (one female in addition to father and mother)
John McQueary 1 1 5 (The male child was under 16 years of age. This was John Sr)
- 1792/93
John Sr., John Jr., and William were each poll-taxable. William had 140 acres while John Jr., had 100 acres.
- 1792 John McQuery Jr. was married to Nancy Shepherd, daughter of John and Sarah Shepherd by this date. (see Deed Book D, page 297, Wilkes County)
Note: The final document in which John McQuery is listed is the 1793 tax list. 1794, 1795, and 1796; and 1797
John McQuery and William McQuery lived on Reddies River, both taxable; and both owned land.
- note: later tax lists are either incomplete or missing completely.
- 1800 Federal Census
John McQuery 20010- 30010 (John was born between 1756 and 1774)
William McQuery 10001 - 31010 (William was already 45 years old or older)
- 1810 Federal Census
John McQuery 22010 - 012101 (John was still not 45 years old. He must have been born between 1766 and 1775. Since he was married ca 1792, it is likely that he was born between 1766 and 1772)
Wm. McQuery 21101 - 300101
- note: William McQuery moved his family to Kentucky in 1811.

James McQueary 10001 ----- 20001

note: John McQueary Sr., and Jr., along with James McQueary moved to Hancock County, Indiana in 1830.

Note: Since John McQueary Sr., paid no poll-tax after 1793, it would suggest that he became 60 years of age on this date, moved or died. Since his two sons remained in Wilkes County for many more years, it is unlikely that he moved.

Since John McQueary Jr. became poll-taxable ca 1788, it suggests that he was born perhaps later than many descendants have suggested.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. McQuerry:

I am very grateful for your prompt response to our McQuerry Report. I also realize that there are many gaps; and that there must be additional information found before these gaps can be filled. As time moves on, I will certainly try to help fill these gaps.

I also am grateful for the remuneration you sent to cover the project.

Now to answer some of your questions:

"mark" means one's signature. During the period of time in question, very few people of the working class could write, including your ancestor. He therefore, ~~is~~ leagalized his documents by making his mark in lieu of a normal signature. Your ancestor's mark was not the usual "X" that most people made. This is significant because a document containing one's mark identifies the maker of the indenture.

The document signed by both John and Elizabeth indicates that they were man and wife, holding joint ownership to the given property. Now we must try to find out who Elizabeth was and when <sup>and where</sup> she and John were married.

PATENT: In virginia, a patent was the same as a land grant except it usually was granted by the Land Office in London. This information might be recorded in the Mother County somewhere.

Jacobites: Although I reviewed several books while in the State Library on the Jacobite uprisings in England and Scotland during the early 1700's, nevertheless, I found nothing concerning your ancestor. One might have to go to th Library of Congress in Washington to find much material on the Jacobite Uprisings. In fact, I am not sure that this information is available there. You might try some good library in a large city somewhere. A good librarian might know where to find this information. This is what I also plan to do. Of course, if one were in England, this information could readily be found. As time permits, I hope to move in this direction.

Immigration Records: The National Archives in Washington has all the immigration records that have been printed; or they would know where they can be found. Since we do not know where John debarked in this country, it is difficult to know where to begin. I would suggest that all the immigration records for 1700/ 1725 be carefully searched. Of course all these records have not been preserved, making the task more difficult.

When John sold all his furniture to settle a debt in 1772 in Bedford County, he no doubt was getting ready to move on West. These British Merchants during this period of time would "stake" the settlers but they were notorious for methods of collecting. Since no additional records in Bedford Co., of John's activities were found, we must assume he left the Co. about this time.

Friday A.M. Received your card today. The " Marks " of John and Elizabeth were their individual signatures, or their individual mark which was used for a signature. This mark is somewhat one's fingerprint--- it is supposed to be one of a kind. If and when additional documents are found, these marks will identify them as belonging to the same people who legalized the documents in your possession.

It seems almost impossible that the John who received the land patent in 1723 was the John who came to Wilkes County in 1779 or before. Of course it is possible; but only if he had a second or third family. It is my opinion that the recipient of the land patent was the immigrant; and that he raised his family in Louisa County. It is likely that this John was born ca 1700, most likely in Scotland; that he came to Virginia ca 1720/23 and became a planter on his land in what later became Louisa County. Of course I can not prove this and emphasize that this is conjecture. It is also my opinion that the John who was in Bedford County, near Lynchburg, in 1772, is a son of the Louisa County John, and that this young man was struggling to establish himself; and that he began to move with the tide of people Westward, stopping briefly in Henry County, which at that time, bordered the area that later became Wilkes County, North Carolina. This conjecture is validated by the tradition found in Kentucky that the McQueary families came from near Lynchburg, Va. Since this is the only McQueary family in that part of Virginia, What else could it be ?

I hope to have another trip to Virginia in the Fall; and I certainly am going to do some more searching for your family. Please keep in touch and share with me any " facts or fancies " you may have; and I will do likewise. I still think more information about your family is available; and that it must be found!!!

Many of the Jacobites came to America in 1716/1719. I have a strong feeling that your ancestor was one of them.

Sincerely yours,

Paul W. Gregory

Notes and Source Citations:

Mrs. Louderback only says "John McQuerry, son of John McQuerry and Kitty McQuerry, his wife, was born in...1765 in Pittsylvania County, Virginia State". Later this John is identified as the one who married Nancy Shepherd and fathered 7 children, including James, the youngest. Sarah is identified as "their oldest child"; birth date shown as 3 Sept. 1791. Morgan is listed as their 3rd child but birth date is shown as 11 Nov. 1790. The "1790" date believed to be an error; Census data and tombstone indicate birth year was 1795.

BIRTH-MARRIAGE-CHILDREN: Louise Taraba, Transcript of records from an old McQuerry Family Bible; 1765-1866; Bible printed in New York, NY, by E. and J. White for the American Bible Society; Stereotyped in 1818; photocopy of transcript and pages of the Bible with the family records received from LaMar McQuerry in July, 1983; NOTES:

- (1) Family records were badly faded when Ms. Taraba located the Bible in Jan., 1972; some names and dates unreadable even with a magnifying glass. Photocopy of the actual record is even less readable
- (2) Birth year only given for John; most other entries, including that for Nancy Shepherd, show day and month as well as year where readable.

BIRTH DATE: Connie E. Stephens, private communication; 1765; letter to Ruth McQuerry dated 19 Feb. 1976;;; NOTE: Shows birth date for John McQuerry as 5 Aug. 1765; no source for the day and month given. Dorothy Powers Elliott listed the same day, month and year in letter dated 2 July 1982.

PARENTS-BIRTH-MARRIAGE-CHILDREN: Veda Hamilton, MCQUERRY FAMILY; Abt 1730-1990; unpublished family genealogy, 5 pages, both typed and hand written entries;; photocopy received from Wilma (McQuerry) Slaughter in March, 1992; NOTES: (1) Shows John McQuerry Jr and Nancy Shepherd married on 3 March 1790. (2) Most of earlier data essentially same as that shown by Mattie Louderback and/or Louise Taraba except marriage date for John Jr and Nancy added.

PARENTS-BIRTH-MARRIAGE-CHILDREN: Vera M. Niemiec, Durant, Oklahoma, personal correspondence; mid 1700s to after 1950; Letter to Mrs. Wayne H. McQuerry received in Jan., 1995;;; NOTES:

- (1) Enclosures included pedigree charts showing ancestors of Margie Ruth (Harry) Campbell plus a write-up identifying McQueary (sic) ancestors back to a John McQueary Sr and wife Sarah (Kitty) _____ (maiden name unknown).
- (2) John Sr and wife Sarah (Kitty) had son named John McQueary Jr, born in Pittsylvania Co., Virginia, on 5 Aug. 1765

 (2) Gregory postulates (Page 103) that William and John McQuerry Jr. (RIN 1071) were brothers. Although this relationship has not been verified (birth dates we have preclude it), it is reflected in this write-up.

PARENTS: Dorothy Powers Elliott, Muscatine, Iowa, personal correspondence: Abt 1733-1886; letter dated 2 July 1981 to Ruth McQuerry;;; NOTE: Believed, but had not verified, William and John Jr. (RIN 1071) were sons of a John McQuary/McQueary/McQuerry (b: Scotland about 1733) and wife Sarah xxxx.

NOTES: (1) Page 3: William McQuery (sic) household consists of one male, 21-60; one male under 21 or over 60; one female.

- (2) The one male 21-60 believed to be William — age about 22 in 1787. The one female is probably Nancy Ann. They were married 11 Feb. 1787 per records.
- (3) The male under 21 or over 60 cannot be accounted for. John McQ____Sr. paid poll tax as late as 1793, so he was not over 60 in 1787. Unlikely William and Nancy had a child at this time and no child of theirs born 1787 or earlier has been identified. He is much too old to be the 38 year old Martin McQuary (sic) listed on the 1850 U.S. Census, Green Twp, Hancock Co., IN. Could this be the father of William, hitherto unidentified? Could be John Jr if he was born about 1767.

- (2) No John McQueary/McQuary/Query, etc., listed.
- (3) William McQuery (sic) listed — 1 male, between 21 and 60; 1 male either under 21 or over 60; 1 female.
- (4) COMMENTS: a) Surprising that no John McQ_____ listed. Tax Lists show a John McQuery/McQuerry for the years 1784, 1785, 1787 and 1788. Possibly omitted because he owned no land but William owned no land per Tax List.
b) Who was the "under 21 or over 60 male" in William's household? No record of William having a son born 1787 or before. The John Sr of Wilkes County paid poll tax through 1793 so he would not be over 60. Could this be William's father? Nancy's parents both living, listed.
c) Where was John Jr.? Was he the "stray" in William's household??? If he was born in 1767, instead of 1765, he would have been under 21.

BURIAL:::;: NOTE: Burial place unknown but believed to be the Hays Cemetery, Brown Twp, Hancock Co, Indiana, once known as the McQueary Cemetery. It is partly on land once owned by John Jr., and, later, James. James was a Trustee of the cemetery — see page 108, Deed Book L, Part I, Jan. 1848–Dec 1849, County Clerk's Office, Hancock County, Indiana. The cemetery has been vandalized many times over the years per verbal and written information received in Hancock Co., Indiana. When we visited it in July, 1994, we found most of the cemetery well kept but some of the older section was overgrown with brush. Many broken stones were piled in the brush thickets. Several McQuerrys (however the name is spelled) are buried there including Rachael, 1st wife of James. When the cemetery was "catalogued" in 1980, the oldest grave identified was that of "Rachael McQueary, wife of James, died 29 Oct. 1834, age 26 y, 7m, 10da". Ref. ## DEATH:::;:; NOTES:

- (1) Last positive record that Nancy (Shepherd) McQuerry was alive was land sale recorded in Hancock Co., IN, Deed Book C, Page 107. (Nancy and husband, John McQuary (sic) sold 40 acres to James McQuary on 22 Dec. 1832.)
- (2) Vera Niemiec shows death date as 12 July 1833. (See above.)
- (3) 1840 Census, Hancock Co., IN, shows a 70 to 80 year old female in the John McQuary (sic) Sr. household. Believed to be Nancy.
- (4) Hancock County, IN, Probate records for John McQuerry (Jr.) do not mention a surviving spouse. James Mcquearry (sic) submitted claim against Estate of John Mcqueary, deceased, for board and care of the deceased from August, 1842 to October, 1846. No mention of care for Nancy in this claim. (See Note for John McQuerry Jr. tagged "PROBATE-DEATH".)

SUPPLEMENTARY NOTES, JOHN McQUERRY Jr. and NANCY SHEPHERD

1. TIMELINE:

- 5 Aug 1765 John McQuerry Jr. born to John and Kitty McQuerry in Pittsylvania County, Virginia. [References: 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6] NOTES:
- o Mattie Louderback [1] does not show birth month and day.
  - o Louise Taraba [2] shows birth year only -- parents, place of birth not shown.
  - o Connie Stephens [3] lists birth date only; -- a William listed as father of John Jr.
  - o Veda Hamilton [4] does not show birth month and day.
  - o Gregory [5] shows birth year per discussion with Ms. Taraba but speculates it may have been later. He does not identify place of birth or mother's given name.
  - o Vera Niemiec identifies mother of John Jr. as Sarah (Kitty) McQuerry.
  - o Source(s) used by references 1 - 6 not identified -- unknown.
  - o Pittsylvania County, Virginia, was formed from Halifax County in 1766-67.
- 17 Nov 1765 Nancy Shepherd born to John Shepherd Sr. and Sarah (Musicnow) Shepherd in Spottsylvania County, Virginia. (References: 1, 2, 4, 5, 6 and 7.) NOTES:
- o Only Mattie Louderback [1] and Veda Hamilton [4] identify maiden name of Nancy's mother.
  - o Mrs. Simpson [7] shows Nancy's birth date as 17 Nov. 1775. This is believed to be in error. Nancy would have been only 15 years old when her first child was born per Mrs. Louderback and tombstone data for Sarah (McQuerry) Baldwin per ref. 16, page 96.
  - o See notes for Sarah Musicnow, wife of John Shepherd Sr., re Sarah's maiden name.
- 1788 A John McQuery (sic) Sr. and a John McQuery Jr. both listed on Wilkes County, NC, Tax List. [Ref. 8] NOTES:
- o First identification of two John McQuerrys, a Senior and a Junior in Wilkes County.
  - o Neither John Sr. or John Jr. had land; both assessed one pole.
  - o Indicates John Jr. was born in 1767 or before.
- 3 March 1790 John McQuerry and Nancy Shepherd married in Wilkes County, NC. [References 1, 4, 5, 6 and 7.] NOTES:
- o Mrs. Louderback [1] and Mrs. Hamilton [4] both show marriage date as 3 March 1790 and state John and Nancy were married at the father's house on Reddies River by Nathaniel Vannoy of Lewis Fork. {Whether "father" was father of groom or bride not identified.}
  - o Gregory [5] and Mrs. Simpson [6] lists marriage date as about 1792.
  - o Mrs. Niemiec [7] shows marriage date as 17 March 1790.
- 1790 (Census) Listings in the 1790 US Census of Wilkes County, North Carolina [Ref. 10] include:
- o Qurry, Jno Sr; one male under 16, one male over 16 and 5 females over 16.
  - o Querry, William; one male over 16 and two females over 16.
  - o Comments/Questions: i) Who was the male under 16 in household of John Sr.? This person is too young to be John Jr. and too old to be the Martin McQuary in Hancock County, Indiana, later.
    - ii) Who were the 5 females in the household of John Sr.? Did John Jr. have some sisters hitherto unidentified by all researchers?
    - iii) Where was John Jr.? Per records found to date he was married by census time and he was listed on the 1790 Tax List. It is possible that John Jr. and Nancy were in the household of John Sr. and the wrong age bracket was checked.

SUPPLEMENTARY NOTES, JOHN McQUERRY Jr. and NANCY SHEPHERD

- 1790 (Tax List) John McQuery (sic), John McQuery Jr. and William McQuery listed on 1790 Tax List. All shown as 1 pole, no land. [Reference 8]
- 3 Sept 1791 Daughter Sarah born to John McQuery Jr. and Nancy (Shepherd) McQuery. [Ref. 1, 4 and 16, page 96]
- 23 April 1792 John McQuary Senr. (sic), John McQuary, and others, appointed by Wilkes County Court to "view" road from Deep Ford on Reddies River to Elijah Denney's place. [Ref. 11, Vol. III, page 31.] NOTE: The "John McQuary" is, undoubtedly, "our" John McQuery Jr.
- 1792 (Tax List) 1792 Tax List [Reference 8] shows the following entries:
- o John McQuary (sic): 1 pole, no land
  - o John McQueary (sic) Junr: 1 pole, 100 acres of land
  - o William McQuary (sic): 1 pole, 140 acres of land.
- {Earliest record found indicating John McQuery Jr. (and William) owned land. It is interesting to note that the compiler/transcriber spelled surname of John Jr. different from surnames of the "other John" and William.}
- 11 June 1793 Daughter Lucy born to John McQuery Jr. and Nancy (Shepherd) McQuery. [1 & 4]
- 11 Nov 1795 Son Morgan born to John McQuery Jr. and Nancy (Shepherd) McQuery. [1 & 4]
NOTE: Mattie Louderback [1] and Veda Hamilton [4] show birth year as 1790 but Mrs. Louderback says Sarah was the first child of John Jr. and Nancy and lists Morgan as their 3rd child. Morgan's age (54), as listed on the 1850 US Census, Hancock Co., IN, indicates birth year was 1795 if the November birth month is correct. His age bracket (10-16), as shown on the 1810 Census of Wilkes County, North Carolina, shows he was born later than 1790 and supports the 1795 birth year.
- 4 Feb 1796 John Query (sic) appointed "overseer" by Wilkes County Court for road "from Deep Ford on Reddies River to ford below William Colvard's place on said river". [Ref. 11, Vol. IV, page 28]
NOTE: "John Query" is believed to be, "our" John McQuery Jr.
- Feb 1797 John Query (sic) and others ordered by Wilkes County Court to report as jurors. [Ref. 11, Vol. IV, page 44] NOTE: "John Query" is believed to be, "our" John McQuery Jr.

- 3 May 1797 John Quarry (sic) ordered by Wilkes County Court to "keep Mille Woolbanks until next court." [Ref. 11, Vol. IV, page 47] NOTE: "John Quarry" is believed to be, "our" John McQuery Jr.
- 25 Jan 1798 Daughter Elizabeth "Betsy" born to John McQuery Jr. and Nancy (Shepherd) McQuery. [Ref. 1, 4 and 18, page 105] NOTE: Peggy Gregory [18] shows birth year only.
- 27 Jan 1798 John McQuery Jr. bought 150 acres of land from his father-in-law, John Shepherd Sr., for 50 pounds (sic). Land described as being on the Reddies River near the Deep Ford and near, or adjoining, land owned by Lewis Shepherd. Wm. Sebastian and Wm. B. Lenoir were witnesses. [Ref. 12]

(See Timeline entry dated Sept. 1830.) No other entry shows a John McQuerry/McQuary/etc., joining the church. By 1804 John was well enough established in the Church to be a Delegate from the Reddies River Church to the Baptist Association. (See Timeline entry dated 1804) No record of Nancy joining the church has been found. Her parents were Charter Members when the church was formed in 1798. Nancy received a letter of dismissal at the same time John Jr. so she obviously was a member. (See Timeline entry dated Sept. 1830.)}

- 1810 (Census) 1810 US Census of Wilkes County, North Carolina, [20] shows the following in the John McQuerry Household: (names in brackets {} believed to be persons enumerated)

 o two males under 10 {John III and James}; two males, 10-16 {Morgan and Andrew} o one female, 10-16 {Elizabeth "Betsy"}; two females, 16-20 {Sarah and Lucy}

  - o Witnesses were J. Smith and John Judd.
  - o John and Nancy signed document with "his/her mark".
  - o John and Nancy and Larkin McNeil identified as residents of Wilkes Co., NC; Nathaniel and Delpha Judd identified as residents of Adair Co., KY.
  - o John Judd (witness) was another brother of Nathaniel Jr.; he married Rhoda Shepherd, daughter of Robert and Sarah (Rash) Shepherd. Larkin McNeil was a son of James McNeil and Mary "Polly" Shepherd, daughter of Robert and Sarah (Rash) Shepherd. [5, page 100]

SUPPLEMENTARY NOTES, JOHN McQUERRY Jr. and NANCY SHEPHERD

- 1820 (Census) 1820 US Census of Wilkes County, North Carolina, [25] shows the following in the John McQuerry Household: (names in brackets {} believed to be persons enumerated)
- o one male over 45 {John Jr.}; one female over 45 {Nancy}
  - o one male, 10-15 {James}; one male, 16-18 {John III}; one male, 16-25 {Andrew}
  - o one female, 16-25 {Elizabeth "Betsy"}
- NOTES/COMMENTS: Considering the overlapping age brackets and the age of John III, it is possible he was counted in both the 16-18 and 16-25 age brackets and Andrew was already gone from the household. If Andrew were the 16-25 male, all 7 of the known children of John Jr. and Nancy are accounted for in 1820; Morgan, Sarah "Sally", and Lucy were married and Lucy had died by 1820.
- 10 June 1823 Daughter Elizabeth married Perry Judd in Wilkes Co., NC. Joseph D. Baldwin was bondsman. [Ref. 5, page 106] {Date of Marriage Bond.}
- 21 Sept 1825 Son John married Lucinda Kilby in Wilkes Co., NC. [26] NOTES:
- o Date is date of Marriage Bond.
  - o Gregory [5, page 106] shows year as 1821. Bond clearly shows year as 1825.
  - o Groom's name shown as "John McQuerry" in text; signature is "John McQuerry Jr."
  - o William Hart was bondsman.
- 14 March 1826 Son James married Rachel Jennings in Wilkes Co., NC. [26]
- 1829 (Tax List) Wilkes County, North Carolina, Tax List for 1829 [27] shows the following:

  - o McQuerry (sic), John Jr.: 1 pole; no land; no stud horses.
  - o McQuerry (sic), James: 1 pole; no land; no stud horses.
- NOTES: No record found yet showing how/when John McQuerry Sr. (our John Jr.) acquired the 357 acres, except for the 41 acre Grant noted in Timeline entry dated 1 Nov. 1814. Also have no record showing he sold this land.
- The fact that the John McQuerry Sr., above (our John Jr.) was not poll taxable in 1829 indicates he was born no later than 1769.
- July 1829 John McQuerry Jr. appointed Deacon in the Reddies River Church. [5, page 106]
- Sept 1830 John and Nancy McQuerry, James and Rachel McQuerry and Sarah "Sally" (McQuerry) Baldwin received letters of dismissal from the Reddies River Church. [5, pg 106 and 13, pg 5]
- 7 Sept 1831 John McQuery (sic) entered claim for 80 acres of land in Hancock Co., Indiana. [28, page 45] Land described as the E1/2 of SW1/4 of Section 13, Township 17, Range 7.
- 22 Dec 1832 John McQueary Sr. (sic) and Nancy his wife, sold 40 acres in Hancock County, IN, to James McQueary (sic) per Hancock County, IN, Deed Book C [29], page 107.
- o Property described as N1/4 of E1/2 of Section 13, Twp 17, Range 7. This would be only 20 acres. Later (1839 and 1842) Tax Lists described land as NE1/4 of SW1/4 of Sect. 13, Twp 17, Range 7.

SUPPLEMENTARY NOTES -- MCQUERRYS IN WILKES CO., NC, per RECORDS
Discussion and Comments re Data in Attached Table

The attached table summarizes records found showing McQuerrys (McQueary/McQuary/Querry/etc.) in Wilkes County, North Carolina from the earliest record found (1779) to 1805 except for items such as land boundaries when used to describe location of another party's property, witnessing transactions, etc. Records reflect three variations of the given name for entries pertaining to John McQ_____ -- i.e. "John", "John Sr." and "John Jr." -- as shown in the table.

Gregory postulated the John Jr. and William McQ_____, whose names appeared in early records along with "John" and "John Sr.", were sons of John Sr. In this context the John McQ_____ listed in the attached table for records from 1779 to, and including, 1787, would be John Sr. and all John McQ_____ listings for the years 1794 and subsequent appear to be for John Jr. Which "John" is involved is self evident for entries dated 1788 through 1793 except for the 1789 "Tax List" entry; this could be either John Sr. or John Jr.

Certain family legends passed down by descendants of John Jr. and William do not appear to support the hypothesis that John Jr. and William were brothers. Gregory found some data in Virginia during his McQuerry research there in 1984 that, if combined with family legends, suggests the possibility of two John McQ_____s that could be the "John Sr." of Wilkes Co. This note reviews the limited data available on the parents of John Jr. and William and points out certain interesting, and perplexing, items revealed by the Wilkes County records.

BIRTH DATA PER FAMILY LEGENDS -- Parents, Birth Date and Place and Marriage Date

	JOHN MCQUERRY Jr.	WILLIAM MCQUEARY
Parents:	John and Kitty McQuerry	John and (wife unknown) McQuerry
	Father's birth place not identified	Father's birth place identified as Scotland
Birth Place:	Pittsylvania Co., VA	Near Lynchburg, VA
Birth Date*:	5 Aug. 1765	9 Feb. 1765
Marriage Date:	March 1790	Feb. 1787

- * Birth dates, per family records, preclude John Jr. and William being brothers. The date William first paid poll tax (1786) tends to confirm his birth year as 1765. However, per Wilkes Co., NC, Tax Lists, John Jr. first paid poll tax in 1788 so his birth year could have been as late as 1767. A 1767 birth year would be consistent with all census data for John Jr. 1829 Wilkes Co., NC, Tax List indicates John Jr. born before 1769.

VIRGINIA DATA ON JOHN MCQUARY per PAUL W. GREGORY.

Two entries located by Paul Gregory during his 1984 research of McQuerrys/McQuarys/McQuearys in Virginia appear applicable to this discussion. They are:

- 1772 A John McQuary of Bedford Co., VA, turned over personal property, including some livestock and household furniture, to the John and Daniel I. Hilton Co. to pay debt.
- 1777 A John McQuary of Henry County, VA, along with others, took the Oath of Allegiance to the State and Nation.

Gregory postulated the above items pertained to the same John McQuary and that he was the father of John Jr. and William. Gregory further postulated this John McQuary may have been the son, or grandson, of the John and Elizabeth McQuerry of Hanover and Louisa Counties, VA. Fitting this data with family legends pertaining to birth places for John Jr. and William could be indictative of backtracking that does not seem reasonable. Locations/moves would be something like this:

SUPPLEMENTARY NOTES -- MCQUERRYS IN WILKES CO., NC, per RECORDS
Discussion and Comments re Data in Attached Table

- 1765 Lived "near Lynchburg" where William was born.
- 1766/7 Moved south to Pittsylvania Co., VA, where John Jr. was born. (This is predicated on John Jr. being born later that family legend says.)
- By 1772 Moved back north to Bedford Co., VA, where John turned over personal property to pay debt.
- By 1777 Moved back south to Henry County, VA, where John took oath of Allegiance.

Bedford Co., VA, was formed in 1753 from Albemarle and Lunenburg Counties. In 1772 Bedford Co. included Campbell Co. which wasn't formed until 1781/1782. Bedford and Campbell Counties are contiguous to the western and southern boundaries of Lynchburg, VA. The John McQuary in Bedford Co., VA, in 1772 could be the papa of William who was born "near Lynchburg, VA, on 9 Feb. 1765".

Pittsylvania Co. was formed in 1766/67 from Halifax County and, in 1776/1777, Henry County was formed from Pittsylvania County. Both Pittsylvania Co. and Henry Co. border North Carolina and are (were) some distance from Lynchburg. The John McQuary living in Henry Co., VA, in 1777 could well be the father of John Jr. and he may not have moved between 1765 (or 1767) when John Jr. was born in Pittsylvania County and 1777 when he took the Oath of Allegiance; if he lived in the area of Pittsylvania County that latter became Henry County he could have "stayed put" but his county of record changed.

The absence of a John McQuerry/McQuary/etc., from the 1786 Tax List and the 1787 State Census is hard to understand. A "far fetched" scenario could be as follows:

William's father became tax exempt (reached age 60) by 1786 and by 1787 had moved in with son William. In this case the under 21 or over 60 male in William's household would be over 60. Sometime after Census time, and before Tax List time, John, the father of William, moved elsewhere or died and John, the father of John Jr., moved into the area.

It is interesting to note that both John Jr. and William showed up on Tax Lists before they were married.

The absence of one John McQuerry, either Sr. or Jr., from the 1789 Tax List and the absence of John Jr. from 1790 Census records is perplexing. John Jr., and wife Nancy, could be in the John Shepherd Sr. household for the 1790 Census or in John Senior's household and John Junior's age erroneously entered as "under 16." And they may have gone elsewhere temporarily.

1790 Census data for the John Qurry (sic) Sr. household indicate John Sr. and Kitty may have had 4 or 5 daughters no one has identified to date. Also, the under 16 year old male in the household is unidentified. It is possible he is the same "under 21 or over 60" male in William's household in 1787. It is also possible the unidentified male in William's household in 1787 was John Jr.

Tax Lists show both John Jr. and William with land we have not been able to correlate with purchases and/or land entries. This shows up in the table.

SUPPLEMENTARY NOTES
 TWO JOHN McQUERRYs WHO DIED IN HANCOCK CO., INDIANA IN THE 1840s

Two men named John McQuerry/McQuary died in Hancock County, Indiana, in the 1840s. The first John McQuerry/McQuary died in the fall of 1840; the second died in the fall of 1846. James McQuerry and Eli Baldwin were Administrators of the Estate for the first John McQuerry/McQuary to die; Otho Gapen was the Administrator of the Estate for the second John McQuerry/McQuary to die. It was originally believed that the first to die was "our" John McQuerry Jr., father of both James and the second John. Barbara Ward [Ref. 1] reached the same conclusion per her letters. Further review of data found to date led to the conclusion that the first John McQuary (sic) to die was "our" John McQuerry III, son of John McQuerry Jr. and brother of James.

The purpose of these Supplementary Notes is to document records found to date and conclusions reached from these records. Records found pertaining to these two deaths and disposition of the estates [References 2 and 3] are rather sparse, sometimes inconclusive and, in many cases, not legible. Data found to date are presented below in a "timeline" format. Subsequent sections show how death dates and places were arrived at for John McQuerry Jr., Nancy (Shepherd) McQuerry, John McQuerry III (brother of James) and Lucinda (Kilby) McQuerry (wife of John McQuerry III). Certain unresolved items (and conflicting information) are also addressed. These unresolved items include (a) Children of John III and Lucinda (Kilby) McQuerry and (b) land records. Census records for 1830 and 1840 show several children in their household of John and Lucinda McQuerry but, to date, only two children have been identified as issue of John and Lucinda. Some land records reviewed to date indicate land was acquired but no sale or other disposition of this property has been found and vice versa -- i.e. land was sold, or transferred, but no record found showing how, or when, it was acquired.

- 22 Dec 1832    John McQueary (sic) Seignor (or Seignior) and wife Nancy, sold 40 acres to James McQueary (sic) for $50.00. Land described as N 1/4 (sic) of E 1/2 of SW1/4 of Section 13, Township 17, Range 7. [7, page 107] NOTES: a) Justice of the Peace who authenticated transaction was Morgan McQueary. b) To make 40 acres, description should read "N 1/2" vs. "N 1/4". c) This is the north half of land John filed for on 7 Sept. 1831. d) John and Nancy signed document with "his/her mark". e) John McQueary Seignor is "our" John McQuerry Jr.
- 12 July 1833    Nancy (Shepherd) McQuerry died per Vera Niemiec. [19] {This date of death is believed to be incorrect. The 1840 Census of Hancock County, Indiana, shows a female, 70 to 80 years old, in the household of John McQuary (sic).}
- 16 Dec 1833    John McQuery Jr. (sic) filed for 40 acres of Government land described as SE 1/4, NW 1/4 of Section 13, Township 17, Range 7. [6, page 45] {This is "our" John McQuerry III.}

- 11 May 1836 John and Lucinda McQueary (sic) sold 40 acres described as SE 1/4 of NW 1/4 of Sect. 13, Township 17, Range 7, to Henderson Baldwin for $175.00. James' personal property valued at $150.00. No entry for a John McQuerry/McQuary found in Brown Township. He would have been exempt from "pole tax" (age) but why wasn't he assessed for the south half of the land he filed on in 1831?

[2 and 3] Also, no records found in references 2 and 3 that Papers of Administration were granted to James McQueary and Eli Baldwin but numerous subsequent entries in the Probate Order Book identify them as Administrators of the Estate of John McQueary/McQuary, deceased. - 17 Aug. 1841 A Lucinda McQuary (sic) married John C. Cook in Hancock County, Indiana. [20] {This Lucinda probably was the widow of John McQuerry III. If this Lucinda were issue of John III and Lucinda (Kilby) McQuerry she would be no older than 15. John C. Cook married Elizabeth Cushman on 8 Feb. 1846. [20] Thus it appears Cook remarried some 4 months after Lucinda died. See item 2.4 of these notes. NOTE: Have not found a John C., or John, Cook, wife Elizabeth, on 1850 census. Did find a John Cook, age 35, wife Caroline, age 27, in Brown Township, Hancock County, Indiana, in 1850. Children listed included a 6 year old female named Lucinda. ## TWO JOHN MCQUERRY WHO DIED IN HANCOCK CO., INDIANA IN THE 1840s

2 APPROXIMATE DEATH DATES, JOHN McQUERRY III, JOHN McQUERRY Jr. AND SPOUSES:

2.1 John McQuerry III: A preponderance of evidence indicates John McQuerry III died between 28 Aug. 1840 and early November, 1840. He most likely died on, or shortly after, Friday, 28 Aug. 1840, when Madison G. Walker made his third visit to see him within the week.

Rationale:

- o John McQuerry III was alive when the 1840 U.S. Census of Hancock County, Indiana, was taken. (See Timeline entry dated 1840, U.S. Census, John McQuary household.)
- o Statement/Claim by Madison G. Walker that Estate of John McQuary, deceased, owed him for visits on 23 Aug. 1840 (a night visit), 27 Aug. 1840 and 28 Aug. 1840. (See Timeline entry dated 1839, 1840) The fact that this claim was signed by Walker on 7 June 1842 proves that this John McQuerry/McQuary was the first to die. Otho Gapen was not appointed Administrator of the Estate of the other John McQuary, deceased, until 21 Jan. 1847. (See Timeline entry dated 21 Jan. 1847)
- o Statement/Claim by Cook and Gray against Estate of John McQuary, deceased, for items purchased in January, March and August, 1839, identifies recipient of merchandise as "John McQuary Jr." (See Timeline entry dated 1839.)
- o By early November, 1840, James McQuary and Eli Baldwin had been granted papers of Administration for the Estate of John McQuary, deceased, had inventoried the personal property of the deceased and found that the deceased's personal property was insufficient to pay the deceased's bills. (See Timeline entry dated Nov. 1840.)
- o John Mcquerry Seignr purchased two items at the sale of personal property belonging to the Estate of John Mcquerry, deceased. (See Timeline entry dated Late 1840 or 1841, List of goods sold.) The title given the purchaser by the writer of the sale record undoubtedly shows that he (the writer) was identifying the purchaser as the elder of the two John Mcquerrys.

2.2 John McQuerry Jr.: John McQuerry Jr. was the second John McQuerry/McQuary to die in Hancock County, Indiana, in the 1840s. He died between October, 1846 and January, 1847 -- most probably in late October, 1846.

Rationale:

- o John McQuerry Jr. was alive when the 1840 U.S. Census of Hancock County, Indiana, was taken. (See Timeline entry dated 1840, U.S. Census, John McQuary Sr. Household.)
- o John Mcquerry Seignr purchased two items at the sale of personal property of the first John McQuerry/McQuary to die. (See Timeline entry dated late 1840 or 1841.)
- o James McQuerry stated he cared for John Mcquearry (sic) from August, 1842 to October, 1846 in claim against the Estate of John Mcquearry (sic), deceased, submitted to Probate Court on 21 Aug. 1848. (See Timeline entry dated 21 Aug. 1848.)
- o Otho Gapen was appointed Administrator of the Estate of John McQuary (sic) on 21 Jan. 1847. (See Timeline entry dated 21 Jan. 1847.)

2.3 Nancy (Shepherd) McQuerry, wife of John McQuerry Jr.: Nancy (Shepherd) McQuerry died after December 22, 1832 and before August, 1842. She most probably died in the summer of 1842.

Rationale:

- o Nancy McQueary (sic) signed (with "her mark") the indenture stating she and her husband John sold 40 acres of land to James McQueary (sic) on 22 Dec. 1832. (See Timeline entry dated 22 Dec. 1832.) {This is the last record found to date proving positively that Nancy was still alive.}

TWO JOHN MCQUERRY WHO DIED IN HANCOCK CO., INDIANA IN THE 1840s

2.3 Nancy (Shepherd) McQuerry, wife of John McQuerry Jr., Rationale (Continued):

- o Nancy (Shepherd) McQuerry was, most probably, the 70 to 80 year old female in the household of John McQuary (sic) Sr. as shown on the 1840 U.S. Census of Hancock County, Indiana. (See Timeline entry dated 1840, 1840 U.S. Census of Hancock County, Indiana.)
- o James McQuerry, in his claim against the Estate of John Mcquearry (sic), deceased, for board, lodging, etc., of the deceased from August, 1842 to October, 1846, submitted no claim for care of his mother. (See Timeline entry dated 21 Aug. 1848.) This implies Nancy died prior to August, 1842.

COMMENT: Vera Niemiec [19] shows Nancy died 12 July 1833. If she died in 1833, who was the 70 to 80 year old female in the John McQuary (sic) household for the 1840 Census? It is possible Nancy died sometime before August, 1842 and her husband continued to care for himself until that date.

2.4 Lucinda (Kilby) McQuerry, wife of John McQuerry III: Lucinda (Kilby) McQuerry died after Census time in 1840 and before November, 1845. She probably died shortly before the November, 1845, term of Court - i.e., September or October, 1845, but may have died earlier.

Rationale:

- o Lucinda (Kilby) McQuerry was, most probably, the 30 to 40 year old female in the household of John McQuary (sic) reported in the 1840 Census of Hancock County, Indiana. (See Timeline entry dated 1840, U.S. Census, Hancock County, Indiana, John McQuary household.)
- o Lucinda Mcquerry (sic) purchased three items at the sale of personal property conducted by the Administrators of the Estate of John Mcquerry, deceased. This sale was probably in late 1840 or early in 1841. (See Timeline entry dated Late 1840 or 1841.)
- o The Lucinda McQuary (sic) who married John C. Cook on 17 Aug. 1841 was, most probably, the widow of John McQuerry III. (See Timeline entry dated 17 Aug. 1841.)
- o Otho Gapen was appointed Guardian of John McQuary (sic), son of John McQuary (sic) deceased and an orphan under 14 years of age, at the November, 1845, term of Probate Court. (See Timeline entry dated Nov., 1845.)
- o John C. Cook married Elizabeth Cushman on 8 Feb. 1846.

3. CHILDREN of JOHN MCQUERRY/McQUARY III and LUCINDA KILBY:

Only two children of John McQuerry III and Lucinda Kilby have been identified. They are:

- o Nancy McQuerry/McQuary, born 1826/1827, 2nd wife of Benjamin Gray. (See Timeline entry dated 1850, U.S. Census of Fall Creek Township, Madison County, Indiana, Benjamin Gray household.)
- o John McQuerry/McQuary (Our John McQuerry IV), born 1832. (See Timeline entries dated Nov., 1845, (Otho Gapen appointed guardian of John McQuary), 1850, (U.S. Census of Brown Township, Hancock County, Indiana, Sarah Baldwin household) and July, 1853, (Otho Gapen discharged as Guardian of John McQuary (sic).)

A possible child of John III and Lucinda is a Martha McQuary (sic), age either 17 or 19, in the household of Robert and Mary Wiley in Madison County, Indiana, for the 1850 Census. [1850 U.S. Census, Madison County, Indiana, pages 138B and 139, Family No. 877] A Martha Jane McQuary (sic) married Alexander Morris on 8 April 1852 in Hancock County, Indiana. [24, Hancock County, Indiana, Marriage Book C-3, page 275] {Information on Martha McQuary per notes in files; not rechecked/verified. This Martha, or these Marthas, does (do) not "fit" any of the unaccounted for children of John III and Lucinda McQuerry as noted below; she was born after 1830 and she would have been 7 or 9 in 1840. No known connection between the McQuerrys, or Kilbys, and the Wileys at that time.}

3. CHILDREN of JOHN McQUERRY/MCQUARY III and LUCINDA KILBY (Continued):

Census records for 1830 and 1840 show children in the household of John and Lucinda as follows:

1830 CENSUS WILKES CO, NC	POSSIBLE IDENTIFICATION	1840 CENSUS HANCOCK CO, IN
Female under 5	Nancy (b: 1826/1827)	Female, 10-15
Female under 5	???	???
Female under 5	???	???
Female, 15-20	(probably an "outsider")
	???	Female under 5
	???	Female under 5
	???	Female under 5
	John IV (b: 1832)	Male, 5-10
	???	Male, 5-10
	???	Male under 5

Nancy could be, probably was, John and Lucinda's firstborn; Marriage Bond for John McQuerry (sic) to marry Lucinda Kilby is dated 21 Sept. 1825. [16] {NOTE: Gregory [17, page 106] shows the date of this Marriage Bond as 21 Sept. 1821.}

Seven children, 5 girls and 2 boys, are unaccounted for. Were these 7 all issue of John and Lucinda or were some "outsiders"? Four children under 5 years of age, in 1840, suggests the possibility of "outsiders" or, perhaps, twins. It is also possible one of the 3 females listed as under 5 in the 1840 Census was the Martha noted above and should have been in the 5 to 10 age bracket.

It is conceivable that one of the two males, 5 to 10 years old, was Cally and that he was taken in and raised as their own by James and Lilly (Scott) McQuerry

4. LUCINDA McQUERRY -- RIGHT OF DOWER:

No evidence found to date indicating Lucinda claimed Right of Dower to land John III owned when he died or that she claimed, was entitled to, or received, any of the proceeds from the sale of this land. Court Order to sell property to pay debts was not contested. (Timeline entry dated Feb., 1841.) This seems odd.

5. MISSING LAND RECORDS:

There are several records of land being acquired by a particular individual but no records found to date showing this individual's disposition of it -- i.e. sold it, lost it due non-payment of mortgage or taxes, etc. Conversely, records have been found showing an individual sold property but no records have been found to date showing how/when he acquired it. Part of this problem could be due to reliance on indexes which may be incomplete. Also descriptions of property were sometimes incorrect; corrections were made later.

Some specific examples of missing records are listed below:

---

5.1 John McQuerry Jr.:DESCRIPTION OF LAND

E1/2 of SW1/4 of S 13, T17, R 7

RECORDS, ACQUISITION, DISPOSITION & MISSING

- o John filed for this 80 acres on 7 Sept. 1831.
- o He sold north half of this to son James on 22 Dec. 1832.
- o James sold entire 80 acres in 1860 but have no record of when/how he acquired the south half. South half not listed as property of John Jr. when he died.

5.2 John McQuerry III:

a) SW1/4 of NE1/4 of S 24, T 17, R 7

- o John McQueary (sic), believed to be John III, bought this land from Henderson Baldwin on 11 May 1836.
- o No record found to date showing this land sold or lost.
- o This could be same property sold to Reuben Garriott per item b) below.

b) SW1/4 of SE1/4 of S 24, T 17, R 7

- o John sold this land to Reuben Garriott on 23 Jan 1838.
- o Not sure whether this was John III or John Jr. (data from index; wife not listed.) but believe it was John III.
- o It is possible this is land John bought from Henderson Baldwin on 11 May 1836. See item a) above.

c) SE1/4 of SE1/4 of S 14, T 17, R 7

- o John III assessed for taxes on this land in 1839.
- o No record found showing he bought or sold this land.

d) NW1/4 of SW1/4 of S 13, T 17, R 7

- o John III owned this land when he died per Court Records.
  - o No record found to date showing when, or how, he acquired this property.
  - o James Wood filed on this land on 1 April 1833.
  - o James McQuerry received a deed for this land in 1847; James and Lilly sold it in 1860.

6. SOME QUESTIONS:6.1 John McQuerry/McQuary IV -- Guardianship:

Why did an outsider (Jonathan Dunbar), instead of a family member, advise Court that John IV was an orphan and needed a guardian?

Why was an outsider (Otho Gapen) appointed guardian instead of a family member? Gapen never performed as an active guardian per statement made to Court. (See Timeline entry dated July, 1853.)

6.2 Administrator, Estate of John McQuerry Jr.:

Why was an outsider (Otho Gapen) appointed Administrator instead of a family member? James served as a co-administrator for the estate of his brother, John III, and for the estate of his father-in-law, Harvy Scott.

---

6.3 James McQuerry -- Actions Concerning Estate of John Jr.:

Why did James wait almost two years after the death of his father before submitting a claim for board and care of the deceased?

Why did James file suit against Otho Gapen, Administrator of his deceased father's estate? John Jr. lived with, or very close to, James for over 4 years (per James' claim against the estate) so James must have known what assets and liabilities his father had. Could it have been to get clear title to the south half of the 80 acres John Jr. filed for in 1831? James sold this land on 6 June 1860 but no record found to date showing how/when he acquired it.

 (1) Letters of dismissal from Church received in Sept 1830 by: John McQueary (sic) and wife Nancy; James McQueary and wife Rachael (sic); Sallie Bingham (sic) and Nancy Baldwin.
 (2) The same information is shown in Gregory's book EARLY SETTLERS... (see above), page 106, except that "Sallie Bingham" is identified as "Sally Baldwin" and that she was daughter of John and Nancy McQueary.
 (3) Church records show that John McQueary (sic) was appointed/ordained Deacon in July, 1829 and that James and Rachel McQueary (sic) and Sally and Nancy Baldwin joined the church in 1829.
 (4) Withdrawal from the Reddies River Church was, apparently, in preparation for the move from Wilkes County, North Carolina to Hancock County, Indiana.

RESIDENCE-CENSUS: 1840 U.S. Census, Brown Township, Hancock County, Indiana; 1840; Film Roll # 82; page 374; viewed at National Archives, Laguna Niguel, California; NOTES:
 (1) Household headed by Sarah Baldwin consisted of one female, 30-40 {Sarah, appears to be in wrong age bracket}; one male, 10-15 {Elisha?}; two females, 15-20 {Elizabeth? and Lucinda?}.
 (2) Household headed by Sarah implies Joseph died between 1827 and 1840. No 1830 census record for Joseph Baldwin. This suggests he died before census time and that Sarah "Sally" (McQuerry) Baldwin was living with another family at that time.
 (3) Nearby, in Brown Township, were households headed by Henderson Baldwin, Jackson Baldwin and Thomas Baldwin. Eldest male in all three households in 20-30 age group. No females or or children listed for these households. A Thomas L. Baldwin, 40-50, was in Brandywine Township.

RESIDENCE-CENSUS: 1850 U.S. Census, Brown Township, Hancock County, Indiana; 1850; Dwelling # 158, Family # 161; household headed by Sarah Baldwin; viewed at National Archives, Laguna Niguel, California; NOTES:
 (1) Household included Sarah (64), John H. (35), and Martha Baldwin (9) and John McQuary (sic) (17). Ages for Sarah and John H. do not agree with other records.
 (2) Nearby, in Brown Township, were households headed by Eli Baldwin (37) and Thomas Baldwin (31).

RESIDENCE-CHILDREN: J. H. Binford, HISTORY OF HANCOCK COUNTY, INDIANA; 1818-1882; published by King & Binford, Publishers, Greenfield, Indiana, in 1882; page 92; viewed, photocopies of selected pages made. at the Greenfield Public Library, Greenfield, Indiana, in July 1994; NOTES:
 (1) List of "First Settlers" of Brown Township includes "...Sarah Baldwin and her family of seven children, Morgan McQuery (sic)..."
 (2) Question/comment: Who were the seven children of Joseph and Sarah (McQuerry) Baldwin? Tombstone inscriptions (see below) identify three. Barbara Ward (see above) lists six including the three identified by tombstone inscriptions, Eli Baldwin (born in Tennessee per census records), Thomas Baldwin and Elizabeth Baldwin. Were Henderson and/or Jackson Baldwin issue of Joseph and Sarah? Both Henderson and Jackson lived near Sarah (and the McQuerrys) in 1840 as shown in the 1840 census data and Hancock County land records which include transactions between them and the McQuerrys.

BIRTH-SPOUSE-CHILDREN-DEATH-BURIAL: 1791-1851; Sue Baker, HANCOCK COUNTY, INDIANA, TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTIONS: ONE HUNDRED YEARS; 1833-1933; Heritage Books, Inc., Bowie, Maryland, 1993; page 96; copy in possession of Wayne and Ruth McQuerry; NOTES:
 (1) Identifies two Sarah Baldwins, one as wife of Joseph, other as dau of Eli and Sarah
 (2) Shows Elisha, John H., and Lucinda as children of Joseph and Sarah Baldwin.

15 August 2002

Dear Phil,

Sorry to be so slow in responding to your messages of 5 August 2002. Our church building modifications and "visits" to the doctors have kept me bouncing around like a ping-pong ball!

You wrote "...I am looking for a photo of the Donaby School and Donaby Church. No one in Blythedale has one at this time. I copy the photos into my computer and then return the photos... I was also seeking a picture of the "Church picnics" under the trees that were described in some of the information that I had reviewed."

Sorry to say that we do not have a picture of either the school or the church -- or, if we do, we can't find it or them. There is a picture of Donaby School on page 24 of the book MEMORIES OF HARRISON COUNTY RURAL SCHOOLS. This book was published by the Harrison County Genealogical Society in 1986. It is a rather poor picture -- appears to be made from a photocopy of a picture. The caption under the picture includes "given by Sylvia Parsons." I do not know Sylvia Parsons or where she lives if she is still alive. Helen (Young) Cook, who lives in Blythedale, is probably the most knowledgeable person about such pictures or who may have them. Helen and her mother wrote the story about Donaby School.

I vaguely remember "basket dinners" at the Donaby Church but am not sure whether we attended some or I just heard Mom and Dad talk about them. Mom, Elizabeth, and I usually went to the Methodist Church in Blythedale when we went to church. However, the car was left in the garage on wood blocks a year or two during the Depression and droughts of the early 1930s. We attended activities closer home -- i.e., those more readily accessible via horse and buggy or team and wagon.

If we locate any pictures of Donaby School or Church, will send you a copy or an image.

Interesting sideline: While looking for a picture of Donaby School and/or Church, Ruth dug out a box filled with pictures and some of Mom's treasured books we got when we helped move the folks off the farm in 1983. She began thumbing through one of the books and a newspaper clipping fell out. It was the Death Notice for my 2nd great grandmother McQuerry published in the Bethany paper in March, 1923. Although we already had most of the information, we did not have residences for some of her children. Now we can, hopefully, find more information on three great aunts that just disappeared.

You wrote "I saw pictures of the Baldwins in some of the material that Lena Marie White Smith had collected."

Did these pictures include the Thomas C. and Nancy Ann (Dillard) Baldwin family in Monroe Co., IA? Have you found any local histories that included biographical sketches of Thomas or his children?

You wrote "The area of western NC, eastern TN and southwest VA was all the same at one time. It was 1796 that TN became a state. At one time a person could be in the same location and be VA, NC, and TN. There was a brief time that an area in eastern TN was not in ANY state when the boundaries were being settled."

Very interesting thought -- and one we haven't explored. However, I believe the boundary issues were settled before Joseph Baldwin and Sarah "Sally" McQ married in Wilkes Co., NC, about 12 Dec. 1810.

I believe the Joseph D. Baldwin listed on the 1820 census of Wilkes Co., NC, is the Joseph and Sarah (McQ) Baldwin family. At least the age brackets for the adults and the age brackets and sex of children fit what we have for the family except there is one unaccounted for male in the under 10 age bracket. We have identified only six children for Joseph and Sarah and one of these is the Eli we are uncertain about. Binford, page 92, shows "Sarah Baldwin and her seven children" in his list of "First Settlers" of Brown Township, Hancock Co., IN. The 1840 census of Brown Township includes three Baldwins living near Sarah and the McQs -- Henderson, Jackson, and Thomas -- but does not include Eli. Henderson, Jackson, and Thomas Baldwin are all listed in the 20 to 30 age bracket. I'm sure Thomas is the Thomas C. who married Nancy Ann Dillard. I have been unable to locate Henderson or Jackson on the 1850 Census and neither one is listed in Sue Baker's book, HANCOCK COUNTY, INDIANA, TOMBSTONE INSCRIPTIONS. I haven't searched land records for the latest transactions involving them. Also, I have been unable to positively locate Eli in 1840. An Eli Baldwin in Hendricks Co., IN, is a possibility. If the Eli Baldwin in Hendricks Co., in 1840 is the same person that was in Hancock Co. in 1850, he had to move soon after the census was taken. Eli Baldwin and James McQuary (sic) were granted papers of administration for the estate of John McQuary (sic), deceased, by early November, 1840.

The preceding information is essentially the same as that I previously sent you in a Family Group Record except for some census data. Thanks to Ancestry.com for making census records more friendly. Still dependent on indexes though.

Sincerely,

Wayne

- 31 July 1852 John Alexander mortgaged 2 yoke of oxen, 2 log wagons and 4 horses to secure debt of $325.00 due William M. McQuary (sic) and James A. Worster. Alexander to pay debt at the rate of $1.50 per day by delivering logs to McQuary and Worster at their saw mill in Greenfield, Indiana. Worster sold his interest in the mortgage to William M. McQuary on 31 Dec. 1852. Later (undated entry), William M. McQuary sold his interest in mortgage to John Barrett. He signed as "Wm. Martin McQuary". [9, page 217]
- 4 Nov 1852 Wm. Martin McQueary (sic) and Elizabeth McQueary "assigned and transferred to the State of Indiana" six lots -- lots 1, 4, 5 and 8 in Block 5 and Lots 1 and 2 in Block 12 -- all in first south addition to the town of Greenfield, Indiana. Lots mortgaged for $175.00 with interest at rate of 7% per year payable annually in advance. [9, page 206]
- 7 Dec 1852 Wm. Martin McQueary and Elizabeth McQueary borrowed $700.00 from Hugh Worster. Mortgaged undivided half interest in Lots 84, 85 and 86 in Greenfield, IN, and undivided half interest in a steam saw mill. [9, page 215]
- 10 Mar 1853 Martin McQuary (sic) mortgaged some saw logs, set of carpenter tools, bridge lumber and other property as security for unspecified debt owed A. T. Hart. [9, page 251]

2. OCCUPATION:

2.1 MORGAN MCQUERRY:

Morgan McQuerry was a farmer and a Baptist Minister. He started, or helped start, several churches in Indiana. See Item 3, CHURCH AFFILIATION AND ACTIVITIES below.

2.2 MARTIN, or WILLIAM MARTIN MCQUEARY/etc.:

William Martin McQ_____ was a farmer, a carpenter and, later, part owner/operator of a steam sawmill. It appears he bought and sold (speculated in?) lots in Greenfield, Indiana. (References: Land records identified in Timeline, 1850 U.S. Census of Hancock County and Mortgage records identified in Timeline.)

3. CHURCH AFFILIATION AND ACTIVITIES:

3.1 MORGAN MCQUERRY:

Mattie Louderback [11] shows that Morgan McQuerry, the third child of John McQuerry Jr. and Nancy (Shepherd (sic), was a Baptist minister. The 1850 Census of Rush County, Indiana, [4] shows his occupation as "Elder, Church". Binford [12, page 62] writes

"Elder McQuary...was one of Indiana's pioneers; a man of unusual energy and piety, and his preaching was considered powerful and impressive. His hallowed influence still survives in the hearts of many of the brethren."

Histories of early Hancock County, Indiana, abound with descriptions of his service in the ministry. Some of these articles are summarized below:

- o Elder Morgan McQuery (sic) organized Baptist Church in Green Township and "preached there several years." First church, a log cabin, built in 1830. [12, page 225]
- o Morgan McQuery (sic) and wife were charter members of Concord Baptist Church organized in Brown Township in 1838. Morgan was chosen Moderator. [12, page 100; 13, pages 532-533; 17, page 77]
- o Morgan McQuary (sic) was Moderator when Brandywine Church, in Center Township, changed it's name to Mt. Gilead (Baptist) Church in Aug., 1838. [12, page 201]
- o Morgan McQuery (sic) listed as the second of "early pastors" of Mt. Carmel Baptist Church located in Vernon Township. Apparently served there about 1839-1841. [12, pages 341-342; 13, page 789]
- o Morgan McQuary (sic) was Moderator for a council of several men from surrounding churches formed to help organize the Shiloh Baptist Church, Blue River Township, in 1841. He served as pastor of that church from 1841 to 1852. [12, pages 62-63; 13, pages 506-507]

NOTES AND COMMENTS:

- o Only one Morgan McQ_____ found to date in Indiana census records during this time period.
- o Number of children listed for 1820 and 1830 appear reasonable for "our" Morgan and Mary - Married about 18 June 1816
- o Number of children under 5 in 1830 seems unreal. Wrong age bracket for some? Twins?
- o Is male under 10 in 1820 and male between 10 and 15 in 1830, Martin or William Martin? The "Wm. N. McQuery" listed as an heir of Morgan McQuery in Shelby Co., IN, Probate Records?
- o It appears 5 or 6 children may not be accounted for. Died at an early age? Not unusual.
- o 1830 to 1840 and 1840 to 1850 correlation seems poor.
- o Where was Leander in 1840?
- o re female, 20-30, in 1840: Where was she in 1830? In wrong age bracket? An "outsider" in 1840?
- o The Morgan McQueary in Rush Co., in 1850 appears to be the same Morgan McQuery who died in 1854. (See Timeline entries dated 25 Oct. 1854 and 3 Jun. 1857)

NOTES and COMMENTS re Children of Morgan and Mary (Case) McQueary as shown on the IGI:

1. William Martin: Birth date obviously in error. Morgan died in 1854. Mary would have been about 62 years old in 1857. Wrong person??? Data entry error??? Name listed first because 1820 and 1830 Census records show a male child in household which could be this person.

SUPPLEMENTARY NOTES, MORGAN AND MARY (CASE) MCQUERRY

2. Hannah Case: Ref. 22, Book 2, page 14 shows marriage license issued for Jessie Jackson and Hannah McQuary (sic) on 30 April 1841 and that they were married 6 May 1841 by William Caldwell, J P. Birth date (1822) does not "fit" census data; possibly born 1817-1820.
3. Ellen: The IGI shows Ellen married John Allen. Tombstone data lists her as "Ellen McQueary, daughter of Morgan and Mary." [21, page 56] Tombstone inscription for Lavina, who married William L. Steers per the IGI, shows her as "Lavina Steers, wife of Wm. L. and daughter of Morgan and Mary McQueary". [21, page 77]
4. Shelby Co., IN, Probate Court records [10] show that, in addition to widow Mary, the following were heirs of Morgan McQuery, deceased: Wm. N.(sic) McQuery; Jesse G. Jackson and wife; Wm. L. Steers and wife; Patterson K. Parr and wife; Leander, Ellen and Wilson McQuery
5. It seems odd that 5 of the 7 children identified as issue of Morgan and Mary were born 13 or more years after they were married. Census data indicates Morgan and Mary may have had at least 11 children by 1840. Wilson was born about 1841 so they may have had 12 children counted on census records. What happened to other children? Died? The Shelby County Probate Records indicate no other living children or surviving issue of deceased children. Wilson T. could be a grandson -- i.e. only child of a deceased son. Mary would have been 45 or 46 years old when he was born.

8 MISCELLANEOUS NOTES, COMMENTS AND QUESTIONS:

- 8.1 It is interesting that Morgan signed his marriage bond with "his mark" but, by 1832, he was signing documents. Apparently Mary did not teach him to write -- she signed documents with "her mark". See Timeline entries dated 22 Dec. 1832 and 10 Sept. 1833.
- 8.2 Two land sales identified by Timeline entries dated 11 Jan. 1842 probably reflect the fact that Morgan had moved from northwest part of Hancock County to be closer to his new pastorate in the southeast part of the county -- the Shiloh Church in Blue River Township (See entry dated 26 June 1841) However, it seems surprising that he was residing in Henry County; the Shiloh Church area appears to be several miles southwest of the southwest corner of Henry County.
- 8.3 Leander is not a real common given name. Perry (son of James) and Charlotte (Reeves) McQuerry lost a son named Leander in 1852. Was Perry's Leander named for Uncle Morgan's Leander?
- 8.4 IGI listing of children of Morgan and Mary includes daughter Hannah Case McQuery. The middle name, "Case", could be for her mother's maiden name -- an indication that Hannah was daughter of the Morgan Mcquary (sic) who signed (with "his mark") bond for marriage to Polly Case in Wilkes Co., NC, on 18 June 1816.
- 8.5 The Morgan and Mary McQ_____ identified in census, land and probate records, histories of Hancock County, Indiana and Henry County, Indiana, cemetery records listed in these supplementary notes appear to be the same family and probably are "our" Morgan McQuerry and Mary "Polly" Case. However, if the Martin/William Martin McQ_____ identified in these notes is the "Wm. N. McQuery" listed as an heir of Morgan McQuery, deceased, in Shelby County probate records [10], the Morgan and Mary McQuery shown on the 1850 Census of Rush County, Indiana, the Morgan McQuery identified in the Shelby County probate records and the Morgan and Mary McQueary buried in the Old Knightstown Cemetery, Henry County, Indiana, may not be "our" Morgan and Mary (Case) McQuerry. See Item 8.6 below.

SUPPLEMENTARY NOTES, MORGAN AND MARY (CASE) MCQUERRY

- 8.6 The Martin, and William Martin, McQ_____ identified in census, land and mortgage records listed in these supplementary notes appear to be records of the same individual. He probably is not the son of "our" Morgan McQuerry and Mary "Polly" Case for the following reasons:
- o A son of Morgan and Mary would have been at most 16 years old in 1833 when William Martin was issued a marriage license and Martin filed on government land. (See Timeline entries dated 12 Aug. & 9 Nov. 1833)
  - o Assuming the children in the Martin McQ_____ household in 1840 and 1850 were his children, it is unlikely a son of William and Mary would have had a 5 to 10 year old daughter in 1840 and a 14 year old daughter in 1850. These children are, however, consistent with an 1833 marriage date.
  - o If Martin's age per the 1850 census (38) is correct, he was born about 1812 -- 4 years before Morgan and Polly Case were married per references 16 and 18.
- 8.7 Land records, Mortgage Book entries and the 1850 Census show given name of the wife of Martin, or William Martin, as "Elizabeth". What happened to the Mary Beeman/Beechman identified in the Hancock County, Indiana, marriage license dated 12 Aug. 1833? Or, was her name Mary Elizabeth and she went by the name "Elizabeth" after marriage??? When and where were Martin and Elizabeth (surname unknown) married if she was a second wife? The fact that no wife was listed when Wm. M. McQueary (sic) sold land on 22 Nov. 1836 could indicate Mary had died. However, on 13 Aug. 1837 William Martin McQueary and wife Elizabeth, of Hancock County, Indiana, sold land. No marriage record has been found in Hancock County for a William Martin, or Martin, McQ_____ and an Elizabeth Somebody. The IGI does not show any marriage for William Martin, or Martin, and an Elizabeth Somebody.
- 8.8 The Morgan McQ_____ tracked in the Timeline moved frequently. Places of residences noted included the following:
- o 1820: In Randolph Co., IN, per census record. [1]
  - o 1830: In Wayne Co., IN, per census record. [2]
  - o 1830: In, or near, what is now Green Township, Hancock Co., IN. [12, pages 225]
  - o 1831 to 1841: Various places in northwest Hancock Co., IN. (See Timeline entries)
  - o 1842: In Henry Co., IN, per land records. (See Timeline entries dated 11 Jan. 1842)
  - o 1850: In Rush Co., IN, per census record. [4] (Also see 8.9 below)
  - o 1854: Buried in Old Knightstown Cemetery, Henry Co., IN. [21] Estate probated in Shelby Co., IN. [10] {NOTE: Knightstown is just north of the border between Henry and Rush Counties and about 2 miles east of the northwest corner of Rush County.}

The places of residence listed above appear to be inconsistent with birth places listed in the IGI [20] for children Hanna Case, Lucy, Leander and Wilson T.

- 8.9 Hancock County, Indiana, Probate Records for John McQuary (sic), deceased, indicate "our" Morgan McQuerry was in Rush County, IN, sometime during the period between 1848/1849 and January, 1853. [19, Probate Order Book 1, Court of Common Pleas, pages 89-90 and Loose Papers File] These records include the following: {This John McQuary was "our" John McQuerry Jr., father of James and Morgan.}

James McQuary (sic) filed suit against Otho Gapen, Administrator of the estate of John McQuary, deceased, in late 1848 or early 1849. Gapen submitted a report to the Court in Jan., 1853, showing estate receipts and disbursements. Expenses listed included $50.00 for obtaining witnesses in Hancock, Madison and Rush Counties because of the suit by James McQuary. Date expense incurred not shown but it had to be within the time period indicated -- probably the latter part. Morgan is believed to be the only family member in Rush County during that period.

SUPPLEMENTARY NOTES, MORGAN AND MARY (CASE) MCQUERRY

- 8.10 Records found to date indicate Morgan held pastorates in Hancock County, Indiana, continuously from 1830 to 1852. Did he preach regularly before coming to Hancock County? If so, where? Where did he preach from 1852 until his death in 1854?
- 8.11 Morgan McQuerry may have been the "point man" for the migration of John McQuerry Jr., his sons John and James and daughter Sarah (McQuerry) Baldwin from Wilkes County, North Carolina to Hancock County, Indiana, in late 1830 or early 1831. However, there are many gaps and questions concerning the "comings and goings" of son Andrew who, apparently, was in Hancock County in the 1830s. Also, James' sister, Elizabeth "Betsy" (McQuerry) Judd is believed to have died in Madison County, Indiana, in 1834.
- 8.12 Were two, or more, Morgan McQ_____s, about the same age, in Indiana during the period 1820 through 1850?

No census records showing two Morgan McQ_____s in Indiana during this period have been found.

The fact that the Morgan in Wilkes Co., NC, signed his marriage bond with "his mark" but the Morgan in Hancock Co., IN, signed documents could indicate they were two different men. However, it is more likely that the Wilkes County Morgan learned to write.

A Morgan M'query (sic) was in Wayne County per the 1830 Census. [2] Elder Morgan McQuery (sic) organized the Baptist Society that built the first church in Green Township, Hancock County, in 1830. (Ref. 12, page 225) Wayne and Hancock Counties are some 40 miles apart (center-to-center) -- a "fur piece" in 1830. {Boundaries of these counties were the same in 1830 as they are today.} It is possible Morgan moved from Wayne County to Hancock County after "Census Time". If so, he had to "get things going" very quickly and "push hard" to complete a church in 1830. At this time of year, farmers would be quite busy harvesting crops and preparing for winter while coping with inclement weather. To date, we have not confirmed, from another source, either the construction date of this church (located 1 1/2 miles west of Eden, IN) or the date(s) Morgan served this congregation.

"Elder Morgan McQueary" died 25 October 1854 and was buried in Old Knightstown Cemetery, Henry Co., IN. [21, page 56] An Administrator for the Estate of "Morgan McQuery, deceased" was appointed in Shelby Co., IN, on 12 Dec. 1854. [10] These two Morgan McQ_____s and the Morgan McQueary listed on the 1850 Census of Rush Co., IN, are, most probably, the same person.

1. TIMELINE -- INFORMATION KNOWN TO, OR MAY, PERTAIN TO "OUR ANDREW":

- abt 1797 Lucy Jennings born to Elijah and Sarah (Shepherd) Jennings. [11]
- 11 April 1800 Andrew born to John and Nancy (Shepherd) McQuerry in Wilkes County, North Carolina. Mattie Louderback [1] gives parents, day, month and year of birth but not place. Gregory [2, page 106] gives name, parents and parents residence at time of birth but not birth date.
- 1810 Andrew in parents household, Reddies River area, Wilkes Co., NC, for 1810 Census [3]. Residents of the John McQuery (sic) household listed as 2 males under 10 {John III, 7 and James, 2}; 2 males 10-16 {Morgan, 14 and Andrew, 10}; 1 male 26-45 {John Jr., 44}; 1 female, 10-16 {Elizabeth, 11}; 2 females, 16-26 {Sarah, 18 and Lucy, 16}; 1 female, 26-45 {Nancy, 44}. Names, numbers, within braces { }, are believed to be the person the enumerator counted in household and their age in 1810. John, Nancy and all 7 of their identified children appear to be in the household.
- 7 May 1818 An Andrew McQueary (sic) married a Lucy Sutherland in Lincoln County, North Carolina. [20 (a)] {Unconfirmed. Probably not "our Andrew".}
- 1820 Andrew in parents household, Reddies River area, Wilkes Co., NC, for 1820 Census [4]. Residents of John McCurry (sic) household listed as 1 male 10-16 {James, 12}; 1 male 16-18; {John III, 17}; 1 male 16-26 {Andrew, 20}; 1 male over 45 {John Jr., 54}, 1 female, 16-26 {Elizabeth, 21} and 1 female over 45 {Nancy, 54}. Names, numbers, within braces { }, are believed to be the persons the enumerator counted in household and their ages in 1820. By 1820 Sarah was married and is in the Joseph D. Baldwin (sic) household [4] along with 4 boys and one girl all under 10. Morgan was married and had gone to Indiana. Lucy was dead. Thus John, Nancy and all 7 of their identified children appear to be accounted for in 1820.
- 1820 No Andrew McQueary/McQuerry/McQuary found in Lincoln County, North Carolina, on U.S. Census
- 1820/1821 Andrew married Lucy Jennings. Date estimated -- based on 1820 census of Wilkes Co., NC, showing him still in parents household [4] and 1840 Census of Hancock Co., Indiana, [9] showing three children (2 girls, 1 boy) in the 15-20 age bracket. Spouse's name per Marjorie McQueary [11]. {A note to the FGS for Andrew McQueary (sic) and Lucy Jennings identifies Lucy's parents as Elijah and Sarah Jennings. Dorothy Maxfield cited as source for this note. See notes 6 and 7 below.}
- 1829 Andrew does not appear on 1829 Wilkes Co. NC Tax List [5]. His father, John, does (taxed on 357 acres but no poll tax); brothers John and James are on list -- no land, paid poll tax.
- 1830 Andrew does not appear on 1830 Census, Wilkes Co., NC, [6] as head of a household or in households of father (John Jr.) or brothers John III and James. Brother Morgan already in Indiana. Gregory [2, page 106] says he probably went to Indiana before John Jr. and James went in late 1830 or early 1831.

- 1830 No Andrew McQ____ found in Kentucky on U.S. census.
- 24 Nov. 1836 Andrew McQuery (sic) received Kentucky land grant; 100 acres in Russell and Pulaski Counties, on Slones Fork. [7]. Date is date of survey. "Our Andrew"???
- 1839 Andrew McQuary (sic) paid tax on 40 acres in Green Twp, Hancock Co., IN. [8] This 40 acres adjacent to west side of the 40 acres John III lived on at time of death and which James eventually acquired. A John McQuary (sic), believed to be John III, paid tax on 40 acres adjoining southwest corner of Andrew's 40 acres. James McQuary paid tax on 40 acres 1/2 mile east of Andrew's "40". Morgan McQuary paid tax on 80 acres approximately 5 miles southwest of Andrew's place. Based on proximity to John III, James and Morgan, it is believed this is "our Andrew".
- 1840 Andrew McQuary (sic) listed on 1840 U.S. Census, Green Twp, Hancock Co., IN. (Ref. 9) Household consisted of two males under 5, two males 5-10, one male 15-20, one male 40-50, two females 10-15, two females 15-20 and one female 40-50. Three children between 15 and 20 indicates marriage no later than 1821.
- 1840 No Andrew McQ____ found in Kentucky on U.S. Census.
- 13 May 1846 A Lucy McQuerry bought an undivided half interest in the E1/2 of SW1/4 of Sect. 28, Twp 16, Range 8 (80 acres) in Hancock County, Indiana, from John Cook. [20 (b)]

- 1854 Andrew McQueary (sic) and Lucy McQueary listed as members of the Friendship Baptist Church, Russell Co., KY. [2, page 129]
- 1864 Neither Andrew nor Lucy listed on membership list for the Friendship Baptist Church. [2, page 130] Where did they go??? Had Andrew died??? Marjorie McQueary [11] shows death date as "after 1860".
- 16 Jun. 1878 Lucy died, age 81. [11; source identified as CEMETERIES AND DEATH RECORDS, RUSSELL Co., KY, per correspondence with Dorothy Maxfield.] NOTE: Death date and age indicate birth date of 1796/1797; age per 1850 Census, Russell Co., KY, indicate birth date of 1792/1793.

SUPPLEMENTARY NOTES, ANDREW MCQUERRY, RIN 1077

3. CHURCH AFFILIATION: Andrew, and wife Lucy, identified as members of the Friendship Baptist Church, Russell Co., KY, in 1854 by Gregory [2, page 129]. Gregory also noted that Elijah Jennings (father of Lucy Jennings per reference 11), donated one acre of land to the Trustees of the Friendship Baptist Church for a "meeting house" and cemetery on 24 Feb. 1831. Transaction recorded in Russell Co., KY, Deed Book B, page 280.

4. POLITICAL AFFILIATION and CIVIC SERVICES: No record of political affiliation or civic service found.

5. MILITARY SERVICE: No record of military service.

6. COMPARISON, 1840 and 1850 CENSUS DATA and DATA per REFERENCE 11:

1 Andrew's birth date per Mattie Louderback [1] and Vera Niemiec [18]; other entries in this column are per Marjorie McQueary's Family Group Sheet (FGS) for Andrew and Lucy (Jennings) McQueary. [11] Andrew's birth date as shown in reference 11 FGS (11 Nov. 1800?) would put him in the 30-40 age bracket in 1840 and age 49 in 1850.

2 John, and wife Susannah, listed as a separate family on the 1850 Census. See below.

3 Vera Niemiec [18] shows a William Jasper McQueary (sic) Sr. as a son of Andrew; b: 8 July 1837, Russell Co., KY; m: Sara Jane Roy in Nancy, Pulaski Co., KY, on 29 Jan. 1857; d: 31 Aug. 1915 in Columbia, Adair Co., KY. Reference 11 shows the same information for Andrew's son William except marriage date is listed as 7 Jan 1857 and place of death as Purdy Community, Adair Co., KY.

It appears the three families identified above -- i.e. the family per Marjorie McQueary's FGS [11] and the families listed in the 1840 and 1850 Census records -- are one and the same. Ages of adult male and ages and sex of children appear to "fit" all three families as shown above if all older children enumerated in 1840 were in their own homes, in other households or deceased, by 1850. This assumption appears realistic. The reference 11 FGS shows Mary, Nancy, Harvey, Sarah and John were married before 1850. The John McQueary living next door to Andrew could be one of the two 5 to 10 year old males in the household in 1840 and Marcus D. the other. However, age listed for Lucy in the 1850 Census (57) is not compatible with the 1797 birth date shown for Lucy in the FGS. Also the FGS shows son Marcus D. born in Rush Co., IN, rather than KY. Birth place for all other children either not indicated on the FGS or listed as Russell Co., KY.

Two sojourns from Kentucky to Indiana and back would be required if the Andrew in Hancock Co., IN, in 1840 was the same Andrew in Russell Co., KY, in 1850 and if birth place for Marcus D. shown in the reference 11 FGS is correct. First between 1830/1831 (when son John was born in Russell Co., KY) and 1835/1836 (when son A. J. was born in Russell Co., KY). Marcus D. was born 1833/1834 per census age and in Rush Co., IN, per the reference 11 FGS. The second sojourn to Indiana (and only one if birth places per the 1850 Census are correct) would be later to cover the 1839-1840 time period when Andrew was in Green Twp, Hancock Co., per Tax List and Census data but returning to Kentucky by 1843 when son Morgan was born in Kentucky per the 1850 Census.

7. SPOUSE (LUCY JENNINGS) -- PARENTS, RESIDENCE, etc. PRIOR TO MARRIAGE:

Marjorie McQueary, in the FGS for Andrew McQueary [11] shows Andrew married Lucy Jennings, daughter of Elijah and Sarah Jennings per information received from Dorothy Maxfield. Gregory [2, page 95] shows that Sarah, daughter of John and Sarah Shepherd, was born about 1774 and married Elijah Jennings, "presumably in Wilkes County, about 1797". In his write-up about Elijah Jennings, Gregory [2, page 127], notes "it seems certain that Elijah was one of the younger sons of John Jennings" and that he married Sarah, daughter of John and Sarah Shepherd. Thus Andrew married a first cousin; Lucy's mother, Sarah, and Andrew's mother, Nancy, were sisters -- both daughters of John and Sarah Shepherd.

Gregory [2, page 95] goes on to say that Elijah and Sarah (Shepherd) Jennings moved to Ashe Co., NC, shortly after they were married and lived there for about 20 years before moving to Kentucky. In his Elijah Jennings write-up, Gregory [2, pages 128, 129], notes the following:

- a) Elijah Jennings, born 1770-1774, m: Sarah Shepherd "about 1795 or maybe a little earlier".
- b) Elijah had moved to Ashe County, NC, by 1800. {See comments, 1800 Census, below.}
- c) Elijah still Ashe County in 1810; had accumulated several hundred acres of land.
- d) "By 1820 Elijah had moved back to Wilkes County and was preparing to move to Kentucky".

It seems odd that Elijah would move back to Wilkes County after being established in Ashe County. The 1820 Census of Wilkes Co., NC, does list an Elijah Jennings but so does the 1830 Census -- well after the Elijah who married Sarah Shepherd was in Kentucky. A review of the 1800 to 1830 Census data, summarized below, indicates the Elijah Jennings listed on the 1820 and 1830 Wilkes County, North Carolina, Census records was Elijah F., son of Luke Jennings, {b: about 1790, m: Elizabeth Abshire (sic) on 25 July 1812} per Mrs. W. O. Absher [12] and not the Elijah who married Sarah Shepherd.

CENSUS DATA, ELIJAH JENNINGS HOUSEHOLD

1800 Census, Ashe Co., NC (per Gregory, page 128):

Oldest male:	26-45	Est. birth date:	1754-1774
2 males:	Under 10		1790-1800
2 males:	10-16		1783-1790

1810 Census, Ashe Co., NC (per Gregory, page 129)

Oldest male:	26-45	Est. birth date:	1764-1784
1 male:	under 10		1800-1810

1 female:	16-26		1783-1794

1820 Census, Wilkes Co., NC (per ref. 4):

1 male:	under 10		1810-1820
3 females:	under 10		1810-1820
Oldest female:	16-26		1793-1804

1830 Census, Wilkes Co., NC (per ref. 6):

Oldest male:	40-50	Est. birth date:	1779-1790
1 male:	5-10		1819-1825

2 females:	15-20		1809-1815
Oldest female:	30-40		1789-1800

1800 Census, Wilkes Co., NC: Gregory's note that the number, and ages, of children "seems unreal...Evidently other people were living in the household..." is appropriate! The two 10-16 year old males and two of the under 10 females cannot be accounted for in 1810. Ages of the oldest male and female in the household are compatible with identified birth dates for Elijah and Sarah. One of the 4 females under 10 could be Lucy. Gregory noted that Elijah Jennings had moved from Wilkes Co., NC, to Ashe Co., NC by 1800. It is possible he never moved. Ashe County was formed from Wilkes in 1799 so he could have just "stayed put" but his home was in Ashe County after it was formed. Elijah first appeared on Wilkes Co., NC, Tax Lists in 1794 -- in the same district the McQuerrys/ McQuearys were in. His assessment was for 30 acres of land and one poll. 1795 and 1796 Tax Lists show him having 50 acres of land. His name does not appear on the 1797 Tax List and there is no List for 1798. He was on the 1799 list, with 140 acres of land, but does not appear on later Wilkes County Tax Lists. [19]

1810 Census, Ashe Co., NC: Ages of oldest male and female are compatible with identified birth dates for Elijah and Sarah. The 16-26 year old female (b: 1783-1794), which could be one of the under 10 females in 1800, suggests Elijah and Sarah may have been were married earlier than the 1795/1797 time period postulated by Gregory. This age bracket is compatible with Lucy's age shown on the 1850 Census for Russell Co., KY, but is incompatible with birth date (1796-1797) derived from death date and age shown in the Cemetery record. [11]. No Elijah Jennings listed in 1810 Census for Wilkes Co., NC. The one 16-26 male in Luke Jennings' household could be either his son Elijah F. or son John. Elijah F. was not married until 1812 per the Luke Jennings write-up [12].

1820 Census, Wilkes Co., NC: Age of oldest male fits the range of birth years estimated for Elijah but also fits age of Elijah F., son of Luke, born in 1790, per the Luke Jennings data, [12]. Oldest female could be Lucy (Sarah obviously is not in household) but could also be Elizabeth Abshire Jennings. It is very unlikely that Elijah and Sarah would have four children under 10. These children could be "outsiders" but it seems much more likely they were children of Elijah F. and Elizabeth.

1830 Census, Wilkes Co., NC: Age brackets for the oldest male and female and age and sex of children in the household indicate they are the same family enumerated in the 1820 census. The fact that the oldest male and oldest female were in different age brackets in both 1820 and 1830 helps support this conclusion. Furthermore the age of the oldest male is compatible with the age of Elijah F. as shown by Mrs. Absher.

Thus it appears we do not have Elijah and Sarah Shepherd Jennings located in 1820. Of course they could have been residing with another family in the Reddies River area at Census time in 1820 but no candidate family has been identified.

It is somewhat perplexing where, and when, Andrew and Lucy met, and courted. The nearest border of Ashe County appears to be several miles from the Reddies River area where the McQuerry's lived with lots of "hills and hollers" in between -- a "fur piece" for courtin' in those days! However, Elijah Jennings and the McQuerrys were in the same "Tax District" from 1794 to 1799 as shown in the tax lists [19]. If Elijah Jennings didn't move, but changed county address when Ashe County was formed in 1799, they could have lived within courtin' distance. Andrew's sister Lucy, and husband Jonathan Faw, lived in Ashe County for a while (their son, Abraham, was born there in 1814) but Lucy (McQuerry) Faw died in 1816 "at her father's house". [1] If Andrew went to Kentucky to seek his fortune sometime after the 1820 Census (instead of going to Indiana where brother Morgan lived as Gregory postulated) where he met (or resumed acquaintance with), and married, Lucy Jennings, it seems unlikely they would have had three children in the 15-20 age bracket plus 2 more in the 10-15 age bracket as listed for the Andrew McQuary household, 1840 Census, Hancock County, IN. Of course, some of these children could be "outsiders"

8. RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN LUCY JENNINGS, WIFE OF ANDREW, and RACHEL JENNINGS, FIRST WIFE OF JAMES:

Parents of James McQuerry's first wife, Rachel Jennings/Jennens/Jinnings, have not been identified. Rachel was born 18 April 1808 per Family Bible record [13] and 19 March 1808 per tombstone inscription [17, page 101]. Her surname is spelled "Jennens" in Mattie Louderback's family history and a Family Bible record [1 and 13], "Jennings" by Gregory [2, page 106] and "Jinnings" (possibly "Jennings") in James' Marriage Bond [14]. Households having similar surnames with females in Rachel's age bracket in 1810 and 1820 Wilkes Co. Census records include:

1810 Census (Rachel under 10):

Elijah Jennings	(4)	[2, page 129]
Luke Jennings	(2)
Charles Ginnins*	(1)
William Jennings	(1)

1820 Census (Rachel between 10 and 16)

Luke Jinnings	(2)
Charles Jennings*	(1)
William Jennings	(1)

* Spelling of this surname varies. Census records show it as "Ginnins" in 1810, "Jennings" in 1820 and "Gannins" in 1830. Similar surnames listed in 1830 were "Ginons" and "Ginnons". No Charles Ginnins/Gannins/Jennings/Jinins found on the 1787 Census of Wilkes Co., NC, but a John Jinins (sic) and a Luke Jinins (sic) are listed. NOTE: The above data from transcriptions of Census records. Two different "transcribers" for 1830 records and two households in addition to Charles with similar surnames, all beginning with a "G", enumerated in 1830.

Elijah Jennings moved to Kentucky about 6 years before James and Rachel were married so it seems unlikely that he was Rachel's father -- unless she came back to Wilkes County for a visit. According to Mrs. Absher [12], Luke had no daughter named Rachel and none of his daughters married a McQuerry/McQueary/McQuary so he cannot be Rachel's father. Charles Ginnins/Jennings/etc. probably was not Rachel's father. He was not in the same Tax District as the McQuerrys and Rachel's surname was spelled with a "J", not a "G", in family records and James' Marriage Bond. William Jennings appears to be a candidate for Rachel's father.

Mrs. Absher [12] shows Luke Jennings and his first wife, Letty Townson, had a son named William M. He was born in 1785 in Wilkes Co., NC, and married a Patsy Joines. Thus Andrew's wife, Lucy Jennings, and James first wife, Rachel Jennings, were not closely related. Gregory [2, pages 126, 127] postulates Elijah was a son of John Jennings Sr. and Luke "possibly" a son of John Sr. If Elijah and Luke were brothers, Lucy and Rachel would be 1st cousins once removed; if John Sr. and Luke were brothers, they would be 2nd cousins.

The possibility that Rachel was a daughter of Charles Ginnins/Jennings/Gannins raises the questions of "Who was he?" Where did he come from?" Gregory did not include him as one of the John Sr. and Luke Jennings tribe despite the somewhat similar sounding surname. No Charles Ginnins/Jennings/ etc., was listed in the 1787 Census of Wilkes Co., NC, [16] but John and Luke Jinins (sic) were. Census data indicate Charles and Luke were about the same age -- i.e. both were listed in the over 45 bracket in 1810 and 1820 and in the 70-80 age bracket in 1830

If Elijah and Sarah Jennings were Rachel's parents, James and Andrew married sisters who were their first cousins.

ADDITIONAL RESEARCH -- ANDREW MCQUERRY

- o Census records: Verify data in files. Try to find Andrew in 1830, 1860.
Look for other Andrews about same age in Indiana and Kentucky 1830 to 1860.
  - o Land records in Indiana. Have him on 1839 tax list but no record of buying or selling land.
Especially need sale to get given name of spouse.

One of the 2 males in the 5-10 bracket could be John IV. His age was listed as 17 in the 1850 Census of Hancock County, Indiana, Sarah Baldwin household. The female in the 10-15 bracket could be Nancy who married Benjamin Gray; age bracket fits her age (23) as listed in the 1850 Census of Madison Co., IN. Five 5 children in household unaccounted for — 1 male under 5; 1 male 5-10; 3 females under 5. Also have discrepancy between 1830 and 1840 records. The 1850 Census of Madison County, IN, shows a Martha McQuary (sic) age either 17 or 19, in the household of Robert and Mary Wiley. (Census pages 138B and 139, Family No. 877.) A Martha Jane McQuary (sic) married Alexander Morris on 8 April 1852 in Hancock County. (Marriage Book C-3, page 275.) She could be one of the unaccounted for females under 5 in 1830 but, if so, where was she in 1840? No known connection between the McQuerrys, or Kilbys, and Wileys at that time.

JAMES MCQUERRY 1806/7-1876

INTRODUCTION

Spelling of the surname in this sketch is that presently used by most, if not all, of James McQuerry's descendants. It should be noted, however, many different spellings of the surname have been found in records reviewed -- e.g., census records, land records, court (including probate) records, tax lists, etc. Spellings in these records included Mackquerry, McQuary, McQueary and just Quarry or Query. The Scottish spelling of the name during the heyday of the clans is shown as MacQuarrie. [4] The MacQuarrie Clan then occupied the island of Ulva, part of Mull and parts of several other of the Hebrides islands.

"John" was the given name of four successive generations of McQuerrys mentioned in this sketch. The following designations are used herein (and in our PAF data base) to differentiate between these "Johns":

John Sr.	Grandfather of James
John Jr.	Father of James
John III	Brother of James
John IV	Nephew of James and son of John III

James McQuerry was born and grew up in Wilkes County, North Carolina, along the upper reaches of the Reddies River that tumbles down the rugged eastern slope of the Blue Ridge Mountains. He was the youngest of seven known children born to John McQuerry Jr. and Nancy (Shepherd) McQuerry. [1] Family records [1; 2] show his birth date as 22 December 1807. Death date and age at death shown on his tombstone [7] translate to a birth date of 22 December 1806. The age James listed on an application for a pension in behalf of four, orphaned, grandchildren [8] indicate he was born in 1806.

James was a farmer -- first in Wilkes County, later in Hancock County, Indiana, and, finally, in Mercer County, Missouri.

MARRIAGES AND CHILDREN

Family records show James fathered 14 children -- four by first wife, Rachel Jennings and ten by second wife, Lillian "Lilly" Scott.

James married Rachel Jennings in March, 1826, in Wilkes County. [1, 2, 9] and The wedding probably took place shortly after he signed a Marriage Bond [9] on 14 March 1826 as James Mcquerry. James' brother-in-law, Perry Judd, co-signed the Marriage Bond. Rachel's birth date was 18 April 1808 per Family Bible record [2] and 19 March 1808 per tombstone inscription. [16, p 101] The tombstone inscription shows Rachel, wife of James, died 29 October 1834 at age 26 years, 7 months, 10 days. She was buried in the Hays (formerly McQuerry) Cemetery in Brown Township, Hancock County, Indiana.

JAMES MCQUERRY 1806/7-1876

James and Rachel had four children:

James married Lillian "Lilly" Scott following Rachel's death. [1, 2] No record has been found of this marriage other than Matte (McQuerry) Louderback's family history [1] and Family Bible records [2] which do not show date or place of marriage. They probably married in either Hancock or Madison County, Indiana, in late 1834 or early 1835. At that time Lilly's parents, Harvy Scott and Kissiah (Clark) Scott lived a few miles north of James in Fall Creek Township, Madison County, Indiana. Lilly was born 18 July 1813 in Pasquotank County, North Carolina. [2]

Family records [1,2] and verbal family history [27] identify ten children born to James and Lilly -- all in Hancock County, Indiana. They were as follows: (Note: Some marriages and death dates are from, or confirmed by, sources other references 1, 2 and 27.)

JAMES MCQUERRY 1806/7-1876

~~LIFE IN~~ WILKES COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

Life of "country folks" living not far from the head waters of the Reddies River in the 1820s was primitive--sparse. Well-to-do families had two log houses -- one for living and known as the "big house" and one for the kitchen. [11, p 5] Lesser affluent families generally had only one house. Nevertheless this remote area, approximately 20 miles from Wilkesboro, provided inhabitants with food and shelter and a certain degree of isolation, or freedom, from government interference -- first the British landlords and tax collectors, later county and state authorities.

Corn, tobacco and other crops grew abundantly in the narrow, fertile, valleys alongside mountain streams once they were cleared of brush and timber. We were amazed at the small fields suitable for farming when we visited the area in 1994. These two to five or six acre fields, and an occasional plot of 10 to 20 acres, were a "far cry" from the large fields in Missouri, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska we were familiar with. Small fields were appropriate for the farm tools and equipment available at the time. Plows pulled by a yoke of oxen, or by a team of horses, and guided by the farmer walking behind the plow and holding onto two wooden handles were used to turn the soil. By the mid-to-latter 1820s, when James was old enough to do a "man's work" in the field, cast iron plows were probably used in Wilkes County. The cast iron plow, patented in 1797, slowly replaced wooden implements sheathed with metal surfaces despite fears that the iron would poison the soil. [28, p 157; 29, p 6422] Most other tilling was by hand using hoes.

Forests covered the steep, rocky, hills extending high above the valleys. Wild berries grew on these mountains. Deer and wild fowl were abundant. Thus timbers for cabins, wood for fireplaces, fresh meat and some fruit were available "for the taking." "Taking" involved much manual labor. No chain saws existed at that time. Trees were cut down with axes. Axes, hand saws and other hand tools were used to cut timbers to length and shape.

The forested mountain side also provided grazing for live stock. Live stock were "belled" and turned loose to graze on wild pea vines that were plentiful there during the spring, summer and fall months. These wild peas disappeared sometime about 1850. [11, p 5]

Pioneer women cooked food and otherwise cared for their (usually) large families. They spun, carded, wove and knitted cotton, flax and wool for garments, bed covers, etc. In addition, they frequently worked in the fields alongside their menfolk. [11, p 5]

Inhabitants of Wilkes County in the early 1800s were largely self sufficient. Tea made from spicewood twigs, sassafras roots and sage leaves and a hot drink made from parched corn or rye were generally used in place of scarce, and expensive, "regular" tea and coffee. Entertainment consisted of singing and dancing to music provided by fiddles and, sometimes, banjos, flutes and fifes. In the fall, corn shucking frequently preceded dancing. These "husking bees" were held at various farm homes until all the neighborhood corn was shucked. Most inhabitants regularly attended worship services when held. [11, p 5, 6; 3, p 9 to 13]

Wilkes County residents were not bothered by Indians in the 1820s. Indians had virtually disappeared from the area by 1776. [3, p 1]

James and Rachel joined the Reddies River Baptist Church, by baptism, in 1829. It seems surprising they waited this long to officially affiliate themselves with the church James' father had been very active in since 1804 or earlier. John Junior's church services included being a delegate to the Baptist Convention at least eight times and numerous other duties. He was elected Deacon in 1829. [12, p 5; 3, p 105, 174]

James was listed on the 1829 Tax List for Wilkes County [14] which showed he owned no land. James appeared as a head of household on the 1830 US Census of Wilkes County. This census record shows three children under age 5 in the household -- one boy and 2 girls.

~~MOVE FROM~~ WILKES COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA, TO HANCOCK COUNTY INDIANA

James, Rachel and their small family along with his parents, his sister, Sally Baldwin (by now a widow), his brother, John III, and wife Lucinda, and probably others moved from Wilkes County, North Carolina to Hancock County, Indiana, either in late 1830 or early 1831. James, John Jr. and John III were listed on the 1830 US Census of Wilkes County. In September, 1830, James and Rachel, John Jr. and Nancy and Sally Baldwin received letters of dismissal from the Reddies River Church. [12, p 5] John Jr. filed for 80 acres of land in what is now Brown Township, Hancock County, Indiana, on 7 September 1831. [13, p 45] It seems likely that the McQuerry party departed Wilkes County shortly after they received letters of dismissal from the church.

The reason(s) the McQuerrys left Wilkes County for Hancock County is (are) unknown. In some ways, this move is mystifying. Although James, and his brother, John III, owned no land in Wilkes County, their father, John Jr. was assessed for 357 acres of land valued at $400.00 according to the 1829 Tax List. [14] On a per acre basis, John Junior's land was valued about the same as most surrounding land. Some property was valued as low as about $0.25 per acre; one large farm, 525 acres owned by a Shepherd, was valued at $3.00 per acre. Thus, apparently, John Junior's land was relatively productive. It seems that amount of land should provide a good living for the families involved. The fact that they left so soon after James, Rachel and Lucinda (wife of James' brother John) joined the Reddies River Church could imply the decision to move was made rather suddenly.

JAMES MCQUERRY 1806/7-1876

James' brother, Morgan, went to Indiana about 1816 and was in Hancock County by 1830. James' brother-in-law, Perry Judd, probably moved to Indiana before 1830. Wilkes Countians that went to Indiana in the late 1820s wrote letters filled with praises for the opportunities in Indiana. [3, p 142, 144] The first two men to file on government land in what became Brown Township in 1833, filed claims in July and December of 1830. This suggests new land had just been "opened" to the public. Thus "greener pastures" may have been the only motivation for the McQuerrys move to Indiana.

Another possible reason for the McQuerry move is that either John Jr. did not own the 357 acres he thought he owned, and was taxed for, (i.e., someone else claimed, and was awarded title to, the property ) or that the property was mortgaged and he lost it. No record of John selling, or otherwise disposing of, the 357 acres has been found to date. A letter, dated 4 August 1830, by a former resident of Wilkes County then residing in Wayne County, Indiana, [3, p 143] includes a statement indicating title disputes were not uncommon in Wilkes County. The statement reads "Land is good and cheap in this country and no dispute in the title at all". (Underline added) Economic depression during the 1820s may have resulted in John Jr. loosing his land. The "Panic of 1819," which lasted two to three years, was followed by a less severe recession from 1825 to 1830. [15, p 1957] This prolonged period of somewhat unfavorable business conditions could have led to foreclosure if the 357 acres were mortgaged.

Like the reason(s) for the McQuerrys leaving North Carolina, the route they traveled to Indiana and their means of transportation are unknown. Migration paths described in various history books, and other books, suggest they may have proceeded in a westerly direction over the Blue Ridge Mountains to the Wilderness Road. US Highway 421 presently crosses the Blue Ridge Mountains at Deep Gap, North Carolina, not far from the McQuerrys' former home on the Reddies River. Wilkes County Court Records [33] show that a jury was ordered to "view": a road to Deep Gap on 4 August 1801. The Wilderness Road, blazed by Daniel Boone about 1769, passed through the Cumberland Gap. It was a major route for early settlers of Kentucky and Tennessee. Once through the Cumberland Gap, several, lesser known, trails headed in a northerly direction. It seems quite possible the McQuerry party crossed the Ohio River at Cincinnati, Ohio, and then proceeded north and west to Hancock County.

The McQuerry party probably traveled by wagons, on horseback and on foot. It is possible they used a Conestoga Wagon. These large, unwieldy, vehicles with their very high front and back end-gates and canvas covers, were used extensively during and after the Revolution. They did not completely disappear from the scene until about 1850. Conestoga wagons required four or six horses or oxen to pull them. It would not be surprising if the McQuerrys used oxen for some, if not all, of their draft animals in the 1830s.

JAMES MCQUERRY 1806/7-1876

~~LIFE IN~~ HANCOCK COUNTY, INDIANA

The McQuerrys were among the early settlers and land owners of the area that became Brown Township, Hancock County, Indiana, in 1833. [13; 17, p 92; 18, p 2; 19, Part I, p 20 and Part II, p 17] As noted previously, John Jr. filed for 80 acres in September, 1831. By the end of 1833, Morgan McQuerry, John McQuerry III and Eli Baldwin had filed for land in the same section John Junior's land was in or in the section adjoining his land. [13, p 45, 47] Elder Morgan McQuerry, a renowned Baptist preacher, was James' brother. [1; 17, p 62, 100, 201, 341] Eli Baldwin was son of James' oldest sister, Sarah "Sally" (McQuerry) Baldwin. A Martin McQuery (sic) filed on a 40 acre tract lying one half mile south of Morgan's property in November, 1833. [13, p 47] The relationship of Martin to other McQuerrys in Hancock County is unknown. Some researchers have identified him as a son of Morgan but several records indicate he was too old to be Morgan's son.

James never filed for government land. However, he purchased the north half of John Junior's 80 acres in December, 1832. [20] Purchase price was $50.00. Morgan was the Justice of the Peace who verified Nancy agreed to the sale "of her own free will" and authenticated the transaction.

The flat, or very gently rolling, terrain covered with forests of large trees and dense undergrowth indicating deep, fertile, soil must have made the settlers from the rugged mountains along the Reddies River feel that they were in "hog heaven." Of course a hefty price tag was attached to this new "land of plenty" - namely that of starting all over again. New homes -- cabins -- had to be built. Land had to be cleared for cultivation. Roads had to be constructed. In addition, early settlers soon found they faced a new problem - a problem not encountered in Wilkes County and, probably, never even dreamed of by these early settlers from the Blue Ridge Mountains. This problem was coping with, and reclaiming, swamp land.

Harlan and Harlan [18, p 1, 2] describe Brown Township, problems faced by the pioneers and their life style at the time James arrived there as follows:

...The area which is now Brown Township was virgin wilderness. Stalwart, untouched, trees, primarily of oak, ash, walnut, birch, sugar maple, elm and hickory, with an undergrowth of spice, hazel, pawpaw, and thorn, made a home for wild game that soon became a substantial part of the pioneers' diet as it had been for the area's earliest inhabitants, the Indians of the great Miami Confederacy. The abundance of maple trees was a blessing to the early settlers as it had been to the Indians...They used maple products in their cooking and medicines...

The three major problems that confronted the early settlers were the forest growth to be cleared for homes and cultivation, marshes and swamps to be drained and roads to be built for communication...

JAMES MCQUERRY 1806/7-1876

The pioneers had only the barest necessities. They lived in crude log cabins with puncheon floors and oiled-paper windows. Furniture was crude and home-made. Clothing was homespun. A spinning wheel and a loom were in every household...Fireplaces and candles lighted the homes. Crops were planted and cultivated with a hoe. Harvest was gathered with a scythe and cradle. Horses, mules and oxen were beasts of burden. Wolves, bears, panthers and snakes -- and at times, Indians -- were threats to safety.

Only an occasional family owned a clock or a watch. Because a watch was a luxury in Hancock County in 1836, tax on one watch regardless of its age or condition was 25% more than the tax on 100 acres of "first class land."

Other authors describe the environment faced by early Brown Township pioneers much the same way as Harlan and Harlan but dwell more fully on the swampiness of the land, diseases, especially malaria, and problems encountered reclaiming swamp land. Apparently the magnitude of the job of draining swamps was not comprehended by early settlers and either not understood or "soft peddled" by the "promoters" of the day. Promises of rapid development of drainage systems were made but could not be implemented. In fact, real drainage of the area did not come to pass until the late 1800s -- some three decades after James and family moved to Missouri.

We visited the Indiana home of the McQuerrys in July, 1994. The land formerly owned by James, which he eventually increased to about 120 acres, is either flat or very slightly sloping. Most of it is currently farmed -- grass or grain. Large trees have reclaimed, or still claim, several acres along the north and east boundaries of the property. Sugar Creek, which meanders through Brown Township, cuts across the northeast corner of the 40 acres James first bought but mostly runs along the north and northeast borders of what was once his property. Some wet spots, or seepage areas, were noted. From the lay of land, it was easy to visualize the expanse of swamp land on the north and east sides <sup>of James' ~~land~~ property</sup> if the water table were just a little higher -- i.e., before the area was drained. It is no wonder that malaria was rampant.

Civilization came to Brown Township bringing some of the "comforts" enjoyed by James and his family in Wilkes County before they left that sanctuary. Brown Township "firsts" include the following:

Church, School: Many of the early settlers were Hardshell Baptists. They worshipped at the homes of fellow believers until 1834 when a prominent member of the group built a log structure that served as both a church and a school house. [18, p 77; 21, p 528] This church and school was about 5 miles southeast of James' farm. No record has been found indicating the church, or churches, James and family attended in Indiana. Morgan organized a congregation in Green Township that built the first church in that township in 1830. [17, p 225] This small log church was located some five or six miles west-southwest of what later became James' home. Morgan preached there several years.

Town: Warrington, founded in 1834, was the first town in Brown Township. [18, p 6] Warrington was also one of the earliest towns in Hancock County. It was about four miles from James' home. This frontier trading post greatly reduced the distance James had to travel to purchase "store-bought" necessities.

JAMES MCQUERRY 1806/7-1876

Grist Mill: Brown Township's first grist mill, built in 1835 on Sugar Creek, was about five miles east of James' 40 acres. [17, p 92; 18, p 4] This small mill, referred to as a "corn cracker," was powered by an "undershot water wheel."

Saw Mill: In 1836 a small saw mill was erected on Sugar Creek not more than three miles northeast of James' home. Undoubtedly this was a boon for James and other settlers.

Little has been found pertaining to James' civic services in Indiana. It is suspected he followed the example set by his father in Wilkes County by helping with road building, building of schools, churches, etc. James was identified as a Trustee of the "Union Meeting House Association" when he and Lilly donated land to the Association in June, 1841. The donated land was for a "meeting house and public burial ground". [22] This land is part of what is now Hays Cemetery. James and Lilly donated additional land to the cemetery in 1858. [23] James was identified as a Trustee of "Garriot Grave Yard" in that transaction.

John McQuerry III died about September, 1840. James and Eli Baldwin were Administrators of the estate. [30, Probate Order Book, p 217] Later (November, 1844, and afterwards) James was identified as the Administrator for the estate of John III. [30, Probate Order Book A, p 85] The Administrators advised the Probate Court in November, 1840, and again in February, 1841, that the personal estate of John McQuerry III was insufficient to pay decedent's debts. They requested the Court's permission to sell the decedent's real estate. It should be noted that quinine and just "medicine" accounted for a large part of the outstanding debts. Real property owned by John III when he died consisted of about 40 acres adjoining the 40 acre tract James bought from his father in December, 1832. This property was appraised at $120.00. [2, Loose papers file] The Court eventually authorized the Administrators to sell the real property of the deceased but no buyer could be found. The Administrators then requested, and were granted, permission to sell the property "on time" instead of cash.

The decedents land was sold in January, 1842, for $81.00 -- two thirds of the appraised value. However, the buyer failed to make the payments and sold his interest in the property to a Conrad Rudesel. Mr. Rudesel also failed to make the payments and sold his interest to James on condition that James pay off balance due. James advised the Court at the February, 1847 Term of Court [30, Probate Record Book A, p 275-277] that he (James) had purchased the property formerly belonging to John III and that he had paid all outstanding debts left by John III. He then requested the court to appoint a commissioner to draw up a deed showing that he (James) had lawful title to the land. A commissioner was appointed by the court and James received a deed to the property formerly belonging to John III. [31, p25]

Nation wide economic conditions undoubtedly contributed to, if they were not entirely responsible for, the long, drawn-out, settlement of the estate of John III. Economic depression, triggered by the Panic of 1837 [29, p 1957], continued almost unabated from 1837 through 1845 except for a brief respite during 1839. The lengthy proceedings associated with settlement of John III's estate reflect economic hardships endured by James and his family during this period. James obviously wanted the land formerly owned by John III but simply could not come up with the money required to buy it and pay off the decedent's debts. It appeared to us, when we visited the area in 1994 and tried to visualize the extent of swamps and marshes in the days before the area was drained, that John III's land was the most desirable land for home site and for farming of the 120 acres eventually acquired by James.

JAMES MCQUERRY 1806/7-1876

James was named co-Administrator of the estate of his father-in-law, Harvy Scott, about April, 1845. [31, p 403] It appears this estate was settled without the delay and turmoil associated with the estate of John III.

James' father, John McQuerry Jr., died in October, 1846. An outsider, Otho Gapen, was named Administrator of his estate. [30, Loose Papers file, bond] {At that time James was Administrator of two, still open, estates -- namely those of John III and Harvy Scott.} James submitted a claim against his father's estate in November, 1848, for "Maintenance, boarding, lodging, washing, clothing, etc.," provided the deceased. [30, Loose Papers file] Amount claimed was as follows:

o From August, 1842 to August, 1845, 3 years at $100.00 per year;	$300.00
o From August, 1845 to October, 1846	$200.00
Total claim against estate:	$500.00

This establishes the death date of John Jr. as October, 1846. Apparently James' mother, Nancy (Shepherd) McQuerry died between census time, 1840 and August, 1842.

The inventory and appraised value of the personal estate of John Jr., submitted to the Court at the February, 1847, term of Court [30, Loose Papers file] included the following items:

Black Horse	$20.00
Three sheep and one lamb	3.00
Cow	8.00
Two coverletts	4.00
Cupboard	3.50
Three bedsteads and two bed cords	2.50
Large Wheel	1.25
One skillet and stew kettle	0.25
One pair of shears	0.0625 (yes, 6 1/4 cents!)

In addition to personal property such as noted above, the inventory of assets included two personal notes. One, dated 7 February 1844, was by James for $100.00 This note was shown as "payable one year after the death of John McQuary (sic) now deceased."

JAMES MCQUERRY 1806/7-1876

James bought all personal property belonging to John Jr., deceased, except for one saddle, at the sale of the decedent's property held in March, 1847. Incidentally, he paid only $1.00 for the "large wheel."

Sometime late in 1848 or early 1849, James filed suit against Otho Gapen charging delay in settling the estate of his father. [30, Loose Papers file, letter, dated February, 1849 to Court by Otho Gapen pleading "not guilty" to charges and a Court Order, dated 7 July 1852, to Otho Gapen to appear in Court and "show cause" for the delay in settling the estate.]

Otho Gapen submitted an accounting of income and disbursements pertaining to the estate of John Jr. to the Court in January, 1853 and noted that the estate was insolvent. [30, Probate Order Book 1, p 89, 90] Disbursements listed included $7.50 to Gapen as his five percent fee for selling personal property and $50.00 to Gapen for his efforts in obtaining witnesses pertaining to the suit filed by James. The fee for selling personal property ($7.50) indicates the personal property of John Jr. sold for about $150.00 -- somewhat more than that shown on the inventory and appraisal of personal property submitted to the Court in February, 1847. Unpaid bills were not identified. The only unpaid bill known from records found was the $500.00 claim submitted by James for "Maintenance...etc.," of the deceased.

The Court ordered the case of the Estate of John McQuerry Jr. stricken from the docket at the July, 1854, Term of Court. [30, Probate Order Book 1, p 293] No explanatory comments or other notes recorded.

MOVE TO MERCER COUNTY, MISSOURI

James, Lilly and their younger children moved to Mercer County, Missouri, in the summer or early fall of 1860 -- less than a year before the Civil War began. James and family were listed on the 1860 US Census of Brown Township, Hancock County, Indiana. In June, 1860, James and Lilly sold their land -- [32, p 504, 520] Four months later James listed his residence as Mercer County, Missouri, when he bought 160 acres of land in Mercer County per a transaction filed for record on 18 October 1860. [24]

The motive for leaving Indiana and moving to Mercer County, like that for moving from Wilkes County, ~~Indiana~~ <sup>North Carolina</sup>, to Hancock County, Indiana, is not known. James seems to have been the "point man" for this move. It is possible frustration with lack of progress in building drainage systems and the ever present malaria contributed to the decision to "pull up stakes." His new home in Mercer County was on "high ground" -- ground that was rough/hilly but well drained. And, it could be that James was just looking for "greener pastures" so that he could better provide for his children. He sold his Indiana land for just twice what he paid for the Mercer County land.

JAMES MCQUERRY 1806/7-1876

The route traveled to reach Mercer County is also unknown. The McQuerrys left no diaries or letters describing their travels and their life in the three places they lived that we know of. They, undoubtedly, traveled the National Road from Indianapolis to St. Louis, Missouri. By 1860 the National Road had become a much traveled route to Missouri and beyond. Apparently several lesser, and lesser traveled, roads led to, or to the vicinity of, Mercer County by 1860. The McQuerrys could have taken any of these.

Like their earlier move, they probably traveled by covered wagon, on horseback and on foot. Records of the travels by pioneers during this time period indicate horses were probably the draft animals used to pull wagons. Apparently oxen were not widely used as draft animals by then.

~~LIFE~~ IN MERCER COUNTY, MISSOURI

By 1860 when James and family arrived, living, and life style, in Mercer County was, probably, not greatly different from that in the Hancock County they left.

Mercer County, Missouri, a part of the Louisiana Purchase obtained from France in 1803, is one of the northern tier of Missouri counties and near the middle of the state in east-west direction. The Missouri Compromise allowed Missouri to be admitted to the Union in 1821 -- just five years after Indiana achieved statehood. Although Missouri was admitted as a slave state, slave holders were reluctant to move to the northern part of the state because slaves could easily to Iowa, a free state. Anti-slavery people did not want to live in a slave state. Thus northern Missouri developed rather slowly at first. The first permanent settlers of Mercer County arrived in 1837 and 1838. [25, p 5] Mercer County was formed in 1845. Several roads had been laid out by the mid 1850s. [25, 8] Prairie grass flourished. Large trees grew along rivers and creeks. Large game -- buffalo, elk, whitetail deer, black bears and gray wolves -- had become scarce by 1860 but small game was plentiful. [25, p 6] The town of Modena, only a few miles from James' property, had been founded in 1856. A grocery store opened there a year or two later and the Modena Post Office began operation in 1858. [26, p 3, 12, 19] There were churches and schools in the vicinity. [26, p 6, 19]

The James McQuerry farm in Mercer County is about 20 miles southeast of the farm I grew up on in Harrison County, Missouri. Mercer County is still rural -- a farming community. James' land, and the surrounding area, is, as previously noted, rough -- hilly. It is high above rivers that traverse the area on the west, south and southeast of what was James' land. The soil is shallow -- not very productive. Today it is primarily grazing land. It seems surprising James would settle on such land after living on the flat, fertile, land in Indiana for 30 years. Of course, drainage was no problem for his Mercer County farm. Unlike the flat fields of Hancock County, heavy spring and summer rains cause severe erosion of cultivated land.

JAMES MCQUERRY 1806/7-1876

Mercer County was, however, much more hospitable to farmers than the rugged Reddies River area in Wilkes County!

James' daughter, Nancy, homesick for her Indiana relatives and friends <sup>and</sup> returned there, probably in 1862, for what was to be a short visit. [27] Civil War action prevented her from returning as planned. The extended stay in Indiana resulted in her meeting, and marrying, Mich Collier. The Colliers remained in Hancock County for the rest of their lives.

James bought another 160 acre farm within two miles of his home in February, 1864. Two months later he sold this second farm to son Cally. Cally's home, according to this transaction, was Madison County, Indiana. Cally and family, and others moved to Mercer County in 1865. Cally later moved to another farm, even closer to James' farm, that became his home for the rest of his life. My father and some of his siblings identified this place as "the old McQuerry home place".

James daughter, Betsy (McQuerry) Sample Power, died in September, 1866, leaving four orphaned children by her first marriage. James became guardian of these children. He applied for, and received, pensions for his wards. Three of Betsy's children were listed in the James McQuerry household on the 1870 US Census of Mercer County, Missouri. Very other child, daughter ~~name~~ <sup>mary catharine</sup> was in the home of her aunt mary "Polly" (McQuerry) Caldwell in 1870

James McQuerry died at his home in Mercer County, Missouri, on 14 December 1876. He was buried in the Hamilton Cemetery, Madison Township, Mercer County, Missouri. Lilly died 14 January 1888 in Mercer County and was buried in the Hamilton Cemetery.

JAMES MCQUERRY, FAMILY MAN

It appears that James was one the family depended on and that he accepted this responsibility readily. Some examples, identified in the preceding text, include the following:

- o James was co-administrator of the estate of his brother, John McQuerry III
- o James was co-administrator for the estate of his father-in-law, Harvy Scott
- o James took care of his father during the last five years of his father's life.
- o James was, apparently, the "point man" for the move to Missouri. After the Civil War was over, Cally and other relatives and neighbors came to Mercer County or nearby counties.
- o James became guardian of his orphaned grandchildren when daughter Betsy died leaving them orphans.

In view of the above, it is somewhat perplexing that, when the widow of John McQuerry III died, leaving John IV an orphan, an "outsider" notified the Hancock County Court of this situation and another "outsider", Otho Gapen, was appointed guardian of John IV. {Lucinda had remarried before her death.}

JAMES MCQUERRY 1806/7-1876

in July, 1853,

When Otho Gapen requested the Court release him as guardian of John IV, he stated that he did not know where John IV was and that he had never seen him. John IV was in the household of his aunt, Sarah (McQuerry) Baldwin for the 1850 US Census of Brown Township, Hancock County, Indiana.

PHYSICAL CHARACTERISTICS OF JAMES MCQUERRY

No photographs or descriptions (verbal or written) of James McQuerry have been found. However, some physical characteristics of three of his sons are known.

- o Perry's military papers show that, when he enlisted, he was 5 ft, 10 1/2 inches tall, had a light complexion, blue eyes and red hair. Weight not listed.
- o Photographs of John Harvy, in later years, show he was tall and somewhat lean.
- o Photograph and verbal descriptions by his grand children indicate Cally, in his later years, was of short to medium height and somewhat "stocky" build.

JAMES MCQUERRY AND SLAVERY

James, and his father, never owned slaves. Whether this was due to beliefs or economic status is not known but it appears it was due to the former. Although James moved to a "slave state" in 1860, he moved to the northern part where there were no slaves. The family supported the Union cause during the Civil War. Son Perry and son-in-law, Quincy Sample, enlisted in the 99th Regiment of Indiana Volunteers -- a part of the Union Army. Son John Harvey enlisted in the 35th Missouri Infantry that served with the Union Forces.

TRAGEDIES IN THE LIFE OF JAMES MCQUERRY

Most of the pioneers that lived a long life saw many of their family members die. It seems that James faced more death of family members and other tragedies than usual.

- ~~1820-1830~~ 1816 Sister Lucy (McQuerry) Faw died at her father's home leaving a 15 month old son
- ~~1827-1840~~ 1820 Brother-in-law Joseph Baldwin died

- 1834 Sister Betsy (McQuerry) Judd died in Madison County, Indiana
- 1840 Brother John III died in Hancock County, Indiana
- 1840-1842 Mother, Nancy (Shepherd) McQuerry died in Hancock County, Indiana

A NOTE ON ANCESTORS OF JAMES MCQUERRY AND SPOUSES

Put this at beginning - add spouse where they are indicated

James was the youngest of seven known children of John McQuerry Jr. and Nancy (Shepherd) McQuerry. [1] John Jr., born in Pittsylvania County Virginia according to Mattie Louderback [1], came to Wilkes County from Virginia with John Sr. during the American Revolution. The name of James' immigrant McQuerry ancestor and when he came to the colonies are unknown. Gregory [5] concluded James' grandfather probably was a grandson of a John McQuerry that received a patent for 400 acres of land in what was then Hanover County, Virginia, in February, 1723. This John McQuerry possibly came to Virginia either as a direct result of the 1715 Jacobite Rebellion or, more likely, it's aftermath. [4, p 100] Monro [4, p 100] notes that "...the MacQuarries as a clan didn't take part in the 1715 Rising although some may have been 'out' with the MacLeans..." Monro further notes that no MacQuarries have been found in the lists of those transported to the Colonies because of the 1715 Rebellion.

Another branch of McQuerrys, whose ancestor may be an uncle of James, place the date their immigrant ancestor came to the colonies much later. Two McQuerrys appear on various Wilkes County records during the late 1700s and early 1800s -- John Jr. and a William. {John Sr. also appears on records for the late 1700s.} Family histories prepared by descendants of William say William's father, a John McQuerry, came from Scotland, possibly Iona Island, and settled near Lynchburg, Virginia. [3, p 108] Incidentally, John Jr. and William married first cousins -- both named Nancy Shepherd! The postulation of some researchers that John Jr. and William were brothers cannot be correct if birth dates of record are correct -- 9 February 1765 for William and 5 August 1765 for John Jr. However, the first year John Jr. is known to have paid poll tax, 1788, suggests his birth year may have been 1767. William first paid poll tax in 1786 which indicates he was born in 1765. It seems unlikely that John Jr. and William were first cousins since family histories show their father's name as John. William moved to Kentucky about 1810. Most of his descendants spell their surname as McQueary.

James' mother, Nancy (Shepherd) McQuerry came to Wilkes County, from Spotsylvania County, Virginia, about 1776. She was about ten years old at that time. Her parents were John Shepherd Sr. and Sarah Musicnow. [1] Her grandparents, George Shepherd senior and Mary Elizabeth Angelick Day, were in Spotsylvania County, Virginia, well before George's will was probated in 1751. [6] It is not known when the Shepherds came to Spotsylvania County or whence they came. It is interesting to note that the Shepherds, in Spotsylvania County, were just across the Anna River from the area in Hanover County (later Louisa County) where John McQuerry patented 400 acres in 1723.

Nothing is known about the ancestry of Rachel except that the Jennings came to Wilkes County from Spotsylvania County, Virginia, shortly after the Revolution and were of English descent. The only Jennings living within "courting distance" of the McQuerrys appears to be an Elijah Jennings. Courting, in those days, required the beau to walk or ride a horse to his sweetheart's home for an evening of spooning with papa and mama nearby pretending to be asleep. If they were going to a dance, beau and sweetheart usually rode double on a horse. [11, p 6] Records show an Elijah Jennings lived in Wilkes County and later in Ashe County, North Carolina. It appears he lived in the part of Wilkes County that later became part of Ashe County. Census records indicate this Elijah Jennings had at least one daughter that could be Rachel. However, this Elijah moved to Kentucky about 1820 -- before James was old enough for "serious courting". If Rachel was, in fact, a daughter of Elijah, James married a first cousin. Elijah's wife was a sister of James' mother. Also, James and his brother, Andrew, married sisters.

The Scotts and Clarks were in Pasquotank County, North Carolina, by the late 1700s and probably much earlier. One of Lilly's nephews, Winfield Scott, wrote a letter, dated 28 July 1895, to a cousin describing the results his root-searching visit to Pasquotank County in fall of 1894. He found several Scotts and Clarks but most of them knew little of their ancestry except that both Scotts and Clarks were of Scottish descent. An exception was an 80-year-old gentleman whose surname was Scott. The legend this gentleman told Winfield is paraphrased below:

The Scotts descended from a Scottish sailor named Scott who gave up the sea and settled in the new world in a very early day. Later the colony proprietor brought over a boat load of European women to be wives of the colonists. This Scottish seafarer-turned-colonist named Scott picked a woman from Denmark to be his helpmate. The Danish woman proved prolific. She made many Scott babies that grew up and made many, many, more Scott babies.

where their sailor lives and works during his or her assignment. Years ago I was aboard the docked carrier, Kearsarge, following deployment to Korea, but this time we were going on a short cruise.

Grandpa Pettibone Squadron and guests assembled at the gate awaiting escorts. We watched a group that served in "Desert Storm" gather and be escorted aboard. Numerous personnel with their families entered the gate, climbed the ladder, and crossed the bridge to the hangar deck. We anxiously waited about twenty minutes for our escorts to arrive and take us aboard. We split into two groups. The other group chose to eat a continental breakfast while our group went on the tour.

Our guides, two sailors neatly dressed in their working uniform, took us up and down many steep ladders (stairways). We saw the galley, mess hall, and fire fighting equipment. They showed us where ordnance was stored, counted, and checked before transported to the flight deck for waiting aircraft. Lastly, we climbed ladders to the flight deck for a short explanation of activities that take place on a daily basis when underway.

After our tour, we returned to the hangar deck for a cafeteria style breakfast. It consisted of English muffins with cream cheese, apples, oranges, cookies, coffee, water or juice. The poorly labeled juice containers kept us guessing as to what poured into our cup. I pushed the faucet on the one that said "water," but it came out black! What a surprise that was! After tasting it, I found it was grape juice. There were no tables available so we ate sitting on chairs trying to balance paper plates on our laps.

About 9:00 a.m. the ship got underway escorted by the destroyer, USS Higgins. Movement was extremely smooth. The only way we could tell the ship was moving was to compare it with a bridge or building on shore. The day was perfect--warm, sunny, with calm waters, and not a cloud in the sky.

The remainder of the day, we were free to tour any of the areas open to visitors. We went up and down many ladders. It seemed like it was six to eight between decks, and eight to ten steps per ladder. I grabbed the chain rails with both hands to prevent falling and embarrassing myself!

After sailing out of the channel and past Point Loma, the ship picked up speed. About two hours later, nearly everyone proceeded to the flight deck to observe landing and launching of four different jet planes.
