Bettye Williams, great granddaughter of George Washington Williams, eventually obtained possession of these papers. We, Wayne and Ruth McQuerry, reviewed these papers with Bettye and Harrold Williams, Humeston, Iowa, in June, 1984. Specific papers and letters included the following: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (1) Affidavit by William C. Williams of Blair County, Pennsylvania, dated 25 March 1893. (Identifies Margaret as mother of William C Williams and some of his descendanta) (2) Affidavit by John Stanton of Harrison County, Missouri, dated 6 November 1894. (Identifies Margaret as mother of William Henry Williams and some of his descendants.) (3) Letter from John Satterfield to George W. Williams dated 17 October 1894 (Identifies Margaret as mother of William Henry Williams and some of his descendants) (4) Another letter from John Statterfield, Union, Ohio, to George W. Williams, undated or date not recorded, identifies Margaret's daughter by second husband, Charles McLain, daughter's husband (Benjamin Satterfield) and daughter's son, John Satterfield. (5) Another letter from John Statterfield, West Union, Ohio, to George W. Williams, Knowlton, Iowa, dated December 30, 1892, identifies Margret's five husbands, says she raised seven children, five by Williams and two by McClain. Margaret died in 1844 and was buried in the old Carroway Cemetery Scioto County, Ohio. No stone on grave. (6) Document listing certain descendants of Anx Jans Webber Roeloffson Bogardus (given names and surnames as listed on document). Margaret's parents: Adam Brower and Mary Witt, married 27 March 1755. Lists 8 children--Henry, Daniel, Charles, Mary, Margaret (b: 3 January 1764), Harried, Amanda, & Sophia.

Notes: SPOUSE-CHILDREN-GRANDCHILDREN-DEATH: Lois (Harrison) McQuerry, great granddaughter of William Henry Williams; personal communication; NOTE: From verbal history passed down to her, Lois believed William Henry Williams was born and lived in Pennsylvania, married Emma Carson, had six children and drowned in the Ohio River near Wheeling, West Virginia. She remembered the names of only four of the children of William Henry and Emma (Carson) Williams: her grandfather, John, George Washington who she called Uncle Wash, Jeremiah who she called Uncle Jerry, and Elizabeth who married a McNabb. She did not know dates and specific places in Pennsylvania except for her mother and grandfather Williams. CHILDREN: Bettye (Williams) Williams, Humeston, Iowa, personal communication;; letters to Mrs. Wayne McQuerry dated 28 Sept. 1980 and 9 December 1980; NOTE: Mrs. Williams wrote in letter dated 9 Dec 1980 "I found the paper where Grandpa Wash listed the children (of William Henry Williams) as William C. who died in 1864, John who died, Mary who died in infancy, George Washington, Elizabeth, Catharine who died, and Jeremiah E." Paper undated. From other papers and known activities, it appears this list was probably prepared during the mid-1890s. PARENTS-CHILDREN-GRANDCHILDREN-DEATH: Papers collected by George Washington Williams, a son, during the 1890s supporting litigation against Trinity Church by descendants of Anneke Jans Bogardus. Child 3	James WILLIAMS	RIN 3666
Notes: DAUGHTER-GRANDSON-RESIDENCE: Bettye Williams, Humeston, Iowa, personal correspondence;; Letter to Ruth McQuerry dated 25 October 1980; Bettye noted she found, in the files of George Washington Williams, a letter dated 1987 stating that James G. Metz of Adams County, Ohio, married Margaret Williams, a daughter of Uncle James Williams, that she (currently) lives in Adams County, Ohio, that she was 87 years, and that she had a son named James Metz.
Child 4	Rachel WILLIAMS	RIN 3667
Notes: SPOUSE: Bettye (Williams) Williams, personal communication;; letter dated 25 October 1980 to Mrs. Wayne McQuerry; NOTES: (1) Source Cited: Letter(s) found in files of George Washington Williams. (2) Spelling of spouse's surname may not be correct. FAMILY: Bettye (Williams) Williams, personal communication;; letter dated 25 October 1980 to Mrs. Wayne McQuerry; NOTES: (1) Source Cited: Letter(s) found in files of George Washington Williams. SPOUSE-CHILDREN-RESIDENCE: Betty Williams, Humeston, Iowa, personal communication;; letter dated 25 October, 1980, to Mrs Wayne McQuerry; NOTES:

- (1) Betty's information from letter, or letters, written in 1893. They (the Camerons) were in Adams Co., Ohio.
- (2) Apparently, about 66 years ago (about 1827) they moved from (Pennsylvania?) to Gallia County, Ohio. Later they went on to Kansas City, Missouri, joined a wagon train and went to California.
- (3) Two sons identified, James and Moses. Discussions with Betty in June, 1981, indicated Betty believed they a third son, Hugh Jr. Another paper in files seemed to confirm this and indicated Hugh Jr. had 2 children.

W. Williams; NOTES:

- (1) Occupation: farmer and stockman.
- (2) Politics: Democrat
- (3) Served as President of the local School Board.
- (4) Wife, Henrietta, was a member of the Methodist Eposcopal Church.
- (5) Parents identified as William and Anna (Corson) Williams. [Lois (Harrison) McQuerry and Emma (Harrison) Link were adamant that his mother, the wife of William Henry Williams, was Emma (Carson) Williams.]
- (6) Identified as being one of the first settlers of Jefferson Township (Ringgold County, Iowa). Moved to Lincoln Township in 1878.
- (7) Occupation: Farming and raising live stock.

SPOUSE-CHILD-RESIDENCES-OCCUPATION: Author unknown, DIAGONAL, IOWA, CENTENNIAL BOOK; 1888-1898; biographical sketch, William Carson Williams, page 485; published by Diagonal Centennial Committee in 1998; photocopies of selected pages received from Esmond Ferris, Palm Springs, CA, in Jan., 2002; NOTES:

- (1) Residences: Moved via wagon train from Pennsylvania to Ringgold County, Iowa, with wife's parents 1855/1856; first settled in Goshen, Iowa; later moved to farm near Knowlton, Iowa.
- (2) Occupation: Farmer.
- (3) Diagonal, Iowa, became a town in 1888 where two railroads crossed at a small angle (diagonal), hence the name "Diagonal." Goshen, a few miles west of Diagonal, soon closed and moved to Diagonal. Knowlton, north of Diagonal, remained a riural town for several years but, by 1988, it too had disappeared.

CENSUS-BIRTH-RESIDENCES-CHILDREN: U. S. Census Records, Ringgold County, Iowa, 1860, 1870, 1880, and 1900;; viewed, hand copied at the Federal Archives, Laguna Niguel, California; NOTES:

- (1) Given names of Martha L. Williams (1860 census) may have been Martha Louise. 1870 census shows a Louise in household.
- (2) 1900 census shows wife, Henrietta, was mother of nine children, six still living.
- (3) It is believed son Francis A. and daughter Mary died in infancy or very young.

GRANDDAUGHTER-BOGARDUS: Alice "Allie" (Williams) Carlin, Oelwein, Iowa, letter dated 26 July 1965 to Emma (Harrison) Link, Mt Ayr, Iowa;; viewed at home of Andy and Virginia (Link) Milano, Sun City, Arizona; letter included the following statements:

- (1) I lived with Grandpa and Grandma Washington Williams when the heirs sent Grandpa to New York State and City to get data and he spent two months there.
- (2) When he (Grandpa Williams) died, my Uncle John took the little black sachel that Grandpa kept all the papers (pertaining to the Anneke Jans Bogardus estate) in. My Uncle John died and his widow and three daughters moved to Oregon and I've lost track of them.
- (3) Anneke Jans Bogardus was my Grandfather Washington Williams' great grandmother...I have a copy of his genealogy. [NOTE: Papers found in George Washington Williams' records, showed Anneke Jans Bogardus as his 5th great grandmother.]

NIECE-COUSIN-BOGARDUS: Bettye (Williams) Williams, personal communication;; letter dated 25 October 1980 to Mrs. Wayne McQuerry; NOTES:

- (1) Source Cited: Letter(s) found in files of George Washington Williams.
- (2) George Washington Williams stayed with his niece, Martha (McNabb) Andrews in New York when the heirs sent him there to gather information pertaining to the Anneke Jans Bogardus estate.
- (3) Cousin John Satterfield of Adams County, Ohio, bequeathed some money to George Washington Williams if any money was collected from the (Anneke Jans Bogardus) estate.

PARENTS-BIRTH-MARRIAGE-DEATH: Bettye Williams, Humeston, Iowa, personal communication;; Letter to Ruth McQuerry dated December, 2001 with descendants charts enclosed;

Child 5 Elizabeth B. WILLIAMS

RIN 1818

Notes:

PARENTS-SIBLINGS-SPOUSE-CHILDREN-RESIDENCE: Lois (Harrison) McQuerry, personal communications;; verbal and letters from about 1970 to 1980; NOTE: Lois (Harrison) McQuerry knew the surname of Elizabeth's spouse was McNabb but was not sure of given name, that they had several children but wasn't sure of their names, and that Elizabeth and husband lived in Pennsylvania.

BIRTH-SPOUSE-CHILDREN-RESIDENCE: U. S. Census records, 1860 through 1900, Armstrong County, Pennsylvania;; viewed at the LDS Family History Library, Anaheim, California, and the Federal Archives, Laguna Niguel, California; NOTES:

- (1) Given names, birth dates, and birth places of Elizabeth's husband and children based on these census records.
- (2) Elizabeth was a widow and living with son John B. McNabb and wife, Maggie L. McNabb in 1900. Record shows she was mother of 12 children and that 9 were living at time of enumeration.
- (3) Occupation of Elizabeth's husband, John McNabb, listed as "carpenter" in 1860, 1870 and 1880.
- (4) Occupation of son John B. McNabb listed as "stone mason" in 1900. He was unemployed six months.
- (5) Occupation of son James E. McNabb listed as "day laborer" in 1900. He was unemployed one month.
- (6) 1900 census showed Maggie L. McNabb, wife of John B., was mother of seven children, five still living.
- (7) 1900 census showed May B. McNabb, wife of James E., was mother of four children, all still living.
- (8) 1860 and 1880 records show surname as "McNab." 1870 and 1900 records show it as "McNabb."

Child 7 Jeremiah "Jerry" WILLIAMS

Notes:

PARENTS-SIBLINGS: Lois(Harrison) McQuerry, deceased, private communication;; Letter dated 30 Sept. 1972 plus verbal information; NOTE: Lois McQuerry knew/remembered very little about "Uncle Jerry" as she called him. She once had a picture of Uncle Jerry, Uncle Wash (George Washington Williams), and Aunt Elizabeth (Williams) McNabb but gave it to a cousin researching the family.

BIRTH PLACE: George W. Wanamaker, HISTORY OF HARRISON COUNTY, MISSOURI; abt 1850-1920; Historical Publishing Company, Topeka, Kansas & Indianapolis, Indiana; pages 494-496; Bethany Public Library, Bethany, Missouri; NOTE: Typed transcript and photocopy (received from Wilma and Don Witman in Feb., 1992) in possession of preparers of this document. Wanamaker says (page 494) Gertrude Leslie Williams was born in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania. The T. J. Harrison Family Bible record shows she was born in Armstrong Co., Penn.

SPOUSE-DEATH: Obituary of Gertrude Harrison, newspaper and date not identified; 1893;; photocopy in possession of the preparers of this document; NOTE: This newspaper clipping found in the Willard and Emma (Harrison) Link Family Bible. Virginia (Link) Milano made copies and sent one to us. It is believed this obituary was published in one of the Bethany, Missouri, newspapers shortly after 27 Nov. 1893.

BIRTH-DEATH-BURIAL: HARRISON COUNTY MISSOURI CEMETERY RECORDS by the Harrison County Genealogical Society, Bethany, MO; mid 1800s-1985; Copyright 1985, Harrison County Genealogical Society, Printed by Anundsen Pub. RIN 1044

Notes:

PARENTS-SIBLINGS: Lois (Harrison) McQuerry, persoal communication; NOTE: Wildred Hortense died young but Lois did not know age at death or whether Wildred Hortense had moved from Ohio before death. Wildred Hortense did not come to Missouri.

PARENTS-BIRTH-SIBLINGS-RESIDENCE-CENSUS:1860 U.S. Census, Madison Tp, Jackson Co, Ohio; 1860; household of John Williams; page 109, dwelling 799; viewed, hand copied at LDS Family History Library, Anaheim, California, in February, 1983; NOTE: Those in household included Wildred H. Williams, age 4, born in Pennsylvania. Other records indicate Wildred Hortense born in Ohio -- e.g., see below.

PARENTS-BIRTH-SIBLINGS-RESIDENCE-CENSUS:1870 U.S. Census, Jefferson Tp, Jackson Co, Ohio; 1870; household of John Williams; page 68, dwelling 486, family 499; viewed, hand copied, at LDS Family History Library, Anaheim, California, in September, 1975; NOTE: Those in household included Wildred H. Williams, age 14, born in Ohio, in household.

MARRIAGE: Marriage Records, Jackson County, Ohio; 1872-1873; LDS film 301045; viewed at LDS Family History Library, Anaheim California.

PROBATE-DEATH: Probate Court, Jackson County, Ohio, probate record for John Williams, deceased;; photocopy obtained from Jackson County, Ohio, Common Pleas Court, Probate Division, in October, 1980; NOTE: No list of heirs included but two filings with the Court pertaining to debt owed by the deceased, one dated 21 May 1885, the other dated 14 July 1885, list as defendants the widow, all children of John Williams except Francis T. Williams, William Asbury Williams, and Wildred Hortense, and the four children of William Asbury Williams. Thus Wildred Hortense Williams died before 1885 and left no surviving issue.

CENSUS-DEATH: 1880 U.S. Census; viewed/searched LDS 1880 U.S. Census on CDs; NOTES:

(1) No Wildred Hortense Cremens, including varients of surname and given name(s) listed in index. Thus it is believed she died before 1880.

(2) No Harming or Harmon Cremens found in index. Searching for Cremens surname only, with variants, born anywhere between 1839 to 1858, and living anywhere in the U.S. in 1880 resulted in 95 hits. None of these identified as possible spouse of Wildred Hortense Williams. Thus he was either: (1) dead by 1880, (2) going by a different given name, (3) recorded on 1880 census with a surname that did not begin with "Cr" or "Kr," (4) missed in the 1880 census, or (5) ????. Varients of surname "Cremens" listed on search results include Cremin, Cremeens, Craman, Crimons, Kramen, and Kreman. Only four of the 95 spelled "Cremens" -- a John, a William, a Daniel D., and a James A.

Williams died before 1885 and left no surviving issue.

CENSUS-DEATH: 1880 U.S. Census; viewed/searched LDS 1880 U.S. Census on CDs; NOTES:

(1) No Wildred Hortense Cremens, including variants of surname and given name(s) listed in index. Thus it is believed she died before 1880.

(2) No Harming or Harmon Cremens found in index. Searching for Cremens surname only, with variants, born anywhere between 1839 to 1858, and living anywhere in the U.S. in 1880 resulted in 95 hits. None of these identified as possible spouse of Wildred Hortense Williams. Thus he was either: (1) dead by 1880, (2) going by a different given name, (3) recorded on 1880 census with a surname that did not begin with "Cr" or "Kr," (4) missed in the 1880 census, or (5) ????. Variants of surname "Cremens" listed on search results include Cremin, Cremeens, Craman, Crimons, Kramen, and Kreman. Only four of the 95 spelled "Cremens" -- a John, a William, a Daniel D., and a James A.

Notes:

PARENTS-BIRTH-MARRIAGE-CHILDREN-RESIDENCES-OCCUPATION: Author/compiler unknown, BIOGRAPHICAL AND HISTORICAL RECORD OF RINGOLD (sic) AND DECATUR COUNTIES, IOWA;; originally published in 1877; reprinted by Genealogical Research Library, Waterloo, Iowa, in 1977; biographical sketch of G. W. Williams; NOTES:

- (1) Occupation: farmer and stockman.
- (2) Politics: Democrat
- (3) Served as President of the local School Board.
- (4) Wife, Henrietta, was a member of the Methodist Eposcopal Church.
- (5) Parents identified as William and Anna (Corson) Williams. [Lois (Harrison) McQuerry and Emma (Harrison) Link were adamant that his mother, the wife of William Henry Williams, was Emma (Carson) Williams.]
- (6) Identified as being one of the first settlers of Jefferson Township (Ringgold County, Iowa). Moved to Lincoln Township in 1878.
- (7) Occupation: Farming and raising live stock.

SPOUSE-CHILD-RESIDENCES-OCCUPATION: Author unknown, DIAGONAL, IOWA, CENTENNIAL BOOK; 1888-1898; biographical sketch, William Carson Williams, page 485; published by Diagonal Centennial Committee in 1998; photocopies of selected pages received from Esmond Ferris, Palm Springs, CA, in Jan., 2002; NOTES:

- (1) Residences: Moved via wagon train from Pennsylvania to Ringgold County, Iowa, with wife's parents 1855/1856; first settled in Goshen, Iowa; later moved to farm near Knowlton, Iowa.
- (2) Occupation: Farmer.
- (3) Diagonal, Iowa, became a town in 1888 where two railroads crossed at a small angle (diagonal), hence the name "Diagonal." Goshen, a few miles west of Diagonal, soon closed and moved to Diagonal. Knowlton, north of Diagonal, remained a riural town for several years but, by 1988, it too had disappeared.

CENSUS-BIRTH-RESIDENCES-CHILDREN: U. S. Census Records, Ringgold County, Iowa, 1860, 1870, 1880, and 1900;; viewed, hand copied at the Federal Archives, Laguna Niguel, California; NOTES:

- (1) Given names of Martha L. Williams (1860 census) may have been Martha Louise. 1870 census shows a Louise in household.
- (2) 1900 census shows wife, Henrietta, was mother of nine children, six still living.
- (3) It is believed son Francis A. and daughter Mary died in infancy or very young.

GRANDDAUGHTER-BOGARDUS: Alice "Allie" (Williams) Carlin, Oelwein, Iowa, letter dated 26 July 1965 to Emma (Harrison) Link, Mt Ayr, Iowa;; viewed at home of Andy and Virginia (Link) Milano, Sun City, Arizona; letter included the following statements:

- (1) I lived with Grandpa and Grandma Washington Williams when the heirs sent Grandpa to New York State and City to get data and he spent two months there.
- (2) When he (Grandpa Williams) died, my Uncle John took the little black sachel that Grandpa kept all the papers (pertaining to the Anneke Jans Bogardus estate) in. My Uncle John died and his widow and three daughters moved to Oregon and I've lost track of them.
- (3) Anneke Jans Bogardus was my Grandfather Washington Williams' great grandmother...I have a copy of his genealogy. [NOTE: Papers found in George Washington Williams' records, showed Anneke Jans Bogardus as his 5th great grandmother.]

NIECE-COUSIN-BOGARDUS: Bettye (Williams) Williams, personal communication;; letter dated 25 October 1980 to Mrs. Wayne McQuerry; NOTES:

- (1) Source Cited: Letter(s) found in files of George Washington Williams.
- (2) George Washington Williams stayed with his niece, Martha (McNabb) Andrews in New York when the heirs sent him there to gather information pertaining to the Anneke Jans Bogardus estate.
- (3) Cousin John Satterfield of Adams County, Ohio, bequeathed some money to George Washington Williams if any money was collected from the (Anneke Jans Bogardus) estate.

PARENTS-BIRTH-MARRIAGE-DEATH: Bettye Williams, Humeston, Iowa, personal communication;; Letter to Ruth McQuerry dated December, 2001 with descendants charts enclosed;

Family first settled in Goshen, Iowa; later moved to farm near Knowlton, Iowa. Went to Topeka, Kansas, where he met and married Annie Lewis, then, in 1883, returned to Ringgold County and eventually settled on farm one mile north of Diagonal and near village of Knowlton. (2) Occupations: Carpenter (went to Topeka, Kansas, because of plentiful jobs for carpenters), taught school, and farmed. (3) Diagonal, Iowa, became a town in 1888 where two railroads crossed at a small angle (diagonal), hence the name "Diagonal." Goshen, a few miles west of Diagonal, soon closed and moved to Diagonal. Knowlton, north of Diagonal, remained a rural town for several years but, by 1988, it too had disappeared.

PARENTS-BIRTH-MARRIAGE-CHILDREN-DEATH: Bettye Williams, Humeston, Iowa, personal communication;; Letters to Ruth McQuerry dated September, 1980, with pedigree chart enclosed and December, 2001, with descendants charts enclosed; NOTE: Letter dated Sept., 1980, included the following statements:

- (1) I was a Williams who married a Williams...
- (2) I just recently got two boxes of...letters and genealogy from my dad's brother's home.
- (3) You will note the name Carson has carried down through several generations. My Dad had four girls so when I had a boy, I named him David Carson.

PARENTS-BIRTH-MARRIAGES-CHILDREN-RESIDENCE-DIVORCE-OCCUPATION-DEATH-BURIAL: Author unknown, DIAGONAL, IOWA, CENTENNIAL BOOK; 1888-1898; biographical sketch, Carson Washington Williams, page 484; published by Diagonal Centennial Committee in 1998; photocopies of selected pages received from Esmond Ferris, Palm Springs, CA, in Jan., 2002; NOTES:

- (1) Residences: Farm near Diagonal, Iowa, Diagonal and Mt. Ayr, Iowa.
- (2) Occupation: As a young man, he rode trains to and from Kansas City, Missouri, selling newspapers, magazines, and sandwiches to other passengers. After saving enough money, he bought one of the first automobiles in the area which he used as a taxi. Later he began selling automobiles. After marriage, he sold insurance, operated a grocery store, owned a Chevrolet Sales and Service Agency, edited a newspaper in Diagonal and Lenox, Iowa, started and ran the newspaper, "The Diagonal Reporter" about 1918 and, in the 1920s, became a banker. Bank failed during the great depression and he became cashier at Security State Bank, Mt. Ayr, Iowa.
- (3) Carson Washington and Lola Mable (Grant) Williams divorced about 1934.

Husband	John E. WILLIAMS	RIN 3730
Notes: PARENTS-BIRTH-SPOUSE-CHILDREN-RESIDENCE-OCCUPATION-STEPSON-DEATH: Bettye Williams, Humeston, Iowa, personal communication;; verbal, June 1981 and letter dated Dec., 2001, with Descendants Charts enclosed; NOTES: (1) John had a stepson. Moved to Kansas after parents died. Bought farm with coal mine on it. Worked mine, a considerable distance from his home, during the winter. Would spend a week at the mine and then return home. One time he did not return. "They" went to the mine to see what was wrong. Found him dead -- had been shot. Officially listed as suicide but family unsure whether it was an accident, suicide, or murder. (2) Marriage date to Mary Huffman listed as 5 Feb. 1921 which is in conflict with 1900 Census. Marriage date believed to be 5 Feb. 1900. PARENTS-BIRTH: NOTE: BIOGRAPHICAL RECORD OF RINGOLD AND DECATUR COUNTIES (see notes for father) shows birth date as 18 Feb. 1863. 1900 U.S. Census, Ringold County, Lincoln Township, dwelling 92, shows birth as Sept., 1862. Ages listed on both 1900 and 1880 census support the Feb., 1863 date. PARENTS-BIRTH-MARRIAGE-STEPSON 1900 U.S. Census, :Lincoln Township, Ringgold County, Iowa; 1900; household of George W. Williams; dwelling 92, District 106, page 71; viewed at National Archives, Laguan Niguel, California, in August 1976; NOTE: Occupants included son John E. Williams, daughter-in-law Mary Williams and grandson Alva Caffey. Marital status of John E. and Mary listed as "married, zero years." Mary shown as mother of one living child. Since John had a stepson per Bettye Williams (see above), Alva Caffee is believed to be this stepson. CHILDREN-WIDOW: Alice "Allie" (Williams) Carlin, Oelwein, Iowa, letter dated 26 July 1965 to Emma (Harrison) Link, Mt Ayr, Iowa;; viewed at home of Andy and Virginia (Link) Milano, Sun City, Arizona; letter included the following statement: When he (Grandpa Williams) died, my Uncle John took the little black sachel that Grandpa kept all the papers in. (Papers pertaining to the Anneke Jans Bogardus estate.) My Uncle John died and his widow and three daughters moved to Oregon and I've lost track of them.

Husband	Asbury Harvey WILLIAMS	RIN 3731
Notes:	PARENTS-BIRTH-MARRIAGES-CHILDREN-RESIDENCE-OCCUPATION-DEATH: Bettye Williams, personal communication;; Verbal, June 1981 and letter to Mrs. Wayne McQuerry, dated Dec., 2001, with Descendants Charts enclosed; NOTE: Asbury was a carpenter. A shoe-store owner hired him to build a "fancy" house in Kansas City, Missouri. The shoe-store owner liked him and his work so well that he put Asbury in the shoe business in Kansas City. One night, on his way home from the store with the day's receipts, he was was robbed. The robber or robbers, hit him on the head. Asbury "was never quite right" afterwards. He couldn't work or do much of anything -- eventually committed suicide.

Notes:

SPOUSE-CHILDREN-RESIDENCE: Betty Williams, Humeston, Iowa, personal communication;; letter dated 25 October, 1980, to Mrs Wayne McQuerry; NOTES:

- (1) Betty's information from letter, or letters, written in 1893. They (the Camerons) were in Adams Co., Ohio.
- (2) Apparently, about 66 years ago (about 1827) they moved from (Pennsylvania?) to Gallia County, Ohio. Later they went on to Kansas City, Missouri, joined a wagon train and went to California.
- (3) Two sons identified, James and Moses. Discussions with Betty in June, 1981, indicated Betty believed they a third son, Hugh Jr. Another paper in files seemed to confirm this and indicated Hugh Jr. had 2 children.
