GEORGE AND NANCY SEARS

George Hostetter and Nancy Miriam (Alexander) Sears traveled by covered wagon to Cedar County, Missouri, in the fall of 1876. Their six children and one son-in-law accompanied them on the long trek from Bloomington, Monroe County, Indiana. The family camped at night along the roadside. They baked bread in an iron oven using coals from the campfire placed under and on top of it. Nancy and the two young daughters slept in the wagon; the men and boys slept under the wagon on a bed of hay whenever they could find it. The family settled on a farm near Kader.

George, eldest son of Daniel and Sarah (Sappenfield) Sears, was born in November, 1832, Harrison County, Indiana. George enlisted for three years in the Union Army in August, 1862, as an artificer. He received a disability discharge five months later; measles caused lung disease, partial deafness, rheumatism and other problems. His Discharge described him as "5 feet 8 inches high, florin (sic) complexion, black eyes and black hair". Nancy, born 19 January 1834, Bloomington, Monroe County, Indiana, was the fifth child of Robert and Jane (Dunn) Alexander. George and Nancy were married 14 September 1865, Monroe County, Indiana. They had six children, all born in Monroe County:

Sarah Jane: born 22 August 1857; married Asa Peterson 15 April 1874; Monroe County. They came to Missouri with her parents but soon returned to Indiana. They had six children: Wilburn, Walter, Gamel, George, Albert and Montra, all born in Indiana. Sarah died 26 December 1899, buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, Bloomington, Monroe County.

John Obediah: born 19 January 1858; married Mary Wiley of Kader in Stockton 7 October 1888. Issue: Susan, Luke, Newton, Callie, twins Hazel and Mabel. The first four were born in Cedar County; the twins were born in Atchison County, Missouri. John died 12 October 1909, Atchison County, buried in Prairie Hill Cemetery, Atchison County.

Lillie Hunter: born 8 May 1864; married Simon Peter Collins Jr. in Cedar County 9 October 1884. See story elsewhere.

"The 54th REGIMENT was raised at Indianapolis on the 10th of June, 1862, for three months' service under Col. D.G. Rose. The succeeding two months saw it in charge of the prisoners at Camp Morton, and in August it was pushed forward to aid ~~the~~ in the defense of Kentucky against the Confederate General, Kirby Smith. The remainder of its short term of service was given to the cause. On the muster out of the three months' service regiment it was reorganized for one year's service and gained some distinction after which it was mustered out in 1863 at New Orleans.

BATTERIES OF LIGHT ARTILLERY

"The TWENTIETH BATTERY, organized under Capt. Frank A. Rose, left the State capital on the 17th of December, 1862, for the front and reported immediately at Henderson, Kentucky. Subsequently, Captain Rose resigned, and, in 1863, under Capt. Osborn, turned over its guns to the 11th Indiana Battery, and was assigned to the charge of siege guns at Nashville. Gov. Morton had the battery supplied with new field pieces, and by the 5th of October, 1863, it was again in the field, where it won many honors under Sherman, and continued to exercise a great influence until its return on the 23rd of June, 1865.

Found Dead in Wagon.

Coroner A. McMichael was called to Tarkio Tuesday morning to view the body of John O. Sears, which had been found that morning in a farm wagon, near Tarkio, to which place Mr. Sears had started from his home, on the F. W. Stafford farm, about nine miles northeast of Tarkio, at about eight o'clock. From the testimony of various persons who had seen and passed Mr. Sears on his way to town, it seems that he must have met death about ten o'clock.

Attention was first directed to the wagon and horses when they were noticed approaching town near the grade above the plow factory. The absence of a driver was noted and an inspection of the wagon made resulting in the finding of the lifeless body of the driver in the bottom of the wagon-box. The body was taken to Tarkio, where it was inspected by Dr. J. A. Postlewait and held for the arrival of the coroner.

Dr. McMichael, upon arrival at Tarkio, empaneled a jury consisting of the following gentlemen: T. Emmert, W. L. Salmon, J. E. Travis, Jens Christensen, A. A. Curfman and J. D. Rankin, who, after hearing the testimony, brought in a verdict that "deceased came to his death by reason of physical ailment which, from the evidence introduced, we believe to have been cerebral hemorrhage. We further find that there were no marks, wounds or contusions on the body of deceased, and no signs or trace of anything leading us to believe that the deceased either committed suicide or that he was injured, assaulted or killed by any other person."

Mr. Sears was about fifty-one years old and is survived by his wife and several children. Interment took place yesterday afternoon at Prairie Hill cemetery. He carried a life insurance policy of $2,000 in the Modern Woodmen of America.

COMFORT

Oh, deem not they are blest alone
Whose lives a peaceful tenor keep;
The Power who pities man has shown
A blessing for the eyes that weep.

The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears;
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happier years.

For God has marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear,
And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all his children suffer here.

COMFORT

Oh, deem not they are blest alone
Whose lives a peaceful tenor keep;
The Power who pities man has shown
A blessing for the eyes that weep.

The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears;
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happier years.

For God has marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear,
And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all his children suffer here.

Obituary.

This community was surprised and saddened when the news was sent out Sunday morning, Oct. 28, of the death of our neighbor and friend Edward Long.

Ed had been in ill health for some years but seemed to be on the road to recovery since he had the flu. He complained of a headache Wednesday which grew worse and resulted in his death Saturday night.

George Edward Long was born March 15th 1887, died Oct. 27, 1923, age 26 years 7 months 12 days

He was united in marriage to Miss Lula Christman about six years ago who survives him, their one child died in infancy. The next to miss him most will be his mother with whom he had lived since the death of his father a few years ago. Other near relatives are two brothers John and Jim, five sisters living three of whom were at

QUILT PIECES AND

LOTS OF 'EM

Speaking of quilts I have a quilt of the Flower Garden pattern that has 380 blocks and there are 19 pieces in a block after they are sewed together they are the size of a dime, they are joined with white blocks the same size as those in the block. So 380 times 19 equals 7220 and as many white pieces as colored ones makes 14,440 pieces in the quilt. This isn't some of Ripley's believe it or not. You may say "I'm from Missouri you will have to show me". Well I am from Missouri too, and can show you the quilt.

I will be remembered around Stockton as Miss Lulu Chisman, daughter of Mr and Mrs N. L. Chisman living west of town.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever.

Amen.

He Cares for You

Whatever life shall bring your way
Through each and every fleeting day,
Throughout the months and long years, too,
God in His Heaven shall care for you;
So, with this knowledge, may you go
Serenely and content to know
Whatever comes your whole life through,
God in His Heaven shall care for you.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; Thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.*

CHAPMAN PUSHER IN TOWN OF CARPENTER ENTERPRISE

In writing up the enterprise whereby the new town of "Carpenter" is to be placed on the map of Vermillion county, the name of one of the chief promoters was inadvertently left out by the Clintonian writer, or through a typographical error. Any one who has driven as many miles in an automobile, and done as much other work in getting the proposition in shape as has Geo. R. Chapman is certainly a part of the group. Mr. Chapman with the others, whose names were mentioned in the first write-up, make a group of twelve men, whose posterity, presumably, will point with pride as fathers of the to-be-city where Blanford's crossing has long held peaceful sway.

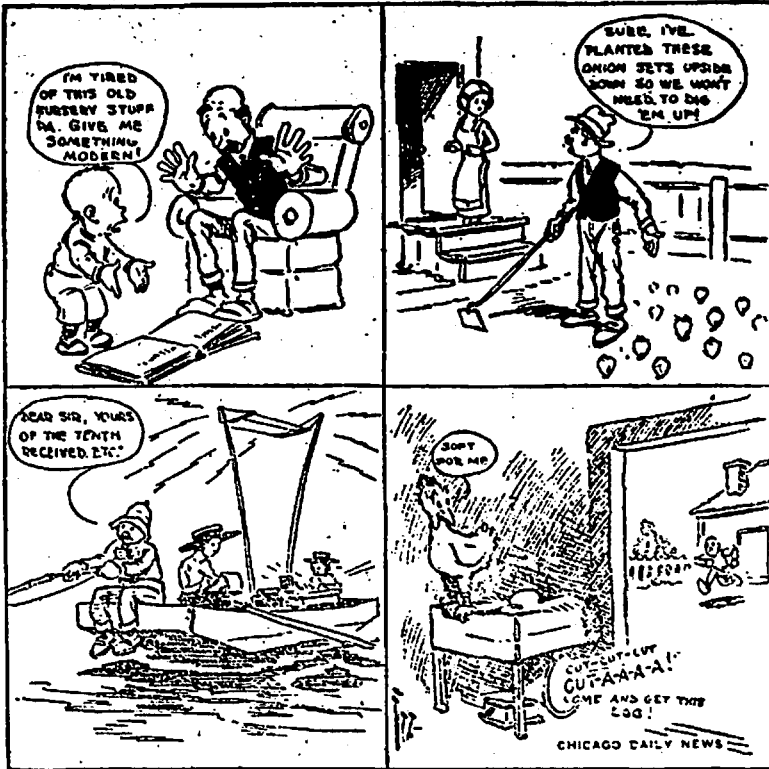

ATTORNEY MILLER SPEAKS

Attorney Frank R. Miller and wife drove in the Miller car to Newport, yesterday, where they were joined by County Clerk and Mrs. M. C. Jones. From the county seat the party drove to Gessie, in the north end of the county, to attend the memorial services of the I. O. O. F. lodge of the little hamlet, at which Attorney Miller was the orator. The Odd Fellows have a big lodge at Gessie, and the memorial services are always one of the big annual events.

MRS. HUTCHINSON'S DEATH VERY SAD

One of the saddest deaths of the year in Clinton was that of Mrs. Harry Hutchinson, 25 years old, who expired suddenly, about 5:30 o'clock, Saturday afternoon, following an acute illness, of about ten minutes. Mrs. Hutchinson is survived by a babe five days old, when she expired, and by her husband, who is a clerk at the store of L. Friedman & Co. Her sister, Mrs. M. J. Slater, has been

BUNSEN FUSSES AILED IN COURT—NO FINES PAID

The rhetoric classes down at Bunsen gave a recital in Justice Billy Keese's court, Saturday night, and the last participant made an exit and skedaddled for home, before the prosecutor and other court dignitaries had realized a profit. The overture was Friemo Karanovic, who was charged with drawing a deadly weapon with an intention of working on the anatomy of Helen Hanule. Early in the overture, it developed that Helen's eye-sight was faulty and that it was an old pipe, which she had mistaken for a revolver. This little bad-sightedness resulted in the dismissal of the case. Then Mrs. Micha Karanovic was charged with tossing a job lot of soiled rhetoric at the same Helen Hanule with the faulty orb. But Helen's auditory appendages appear not to have been in working order, and this case also failed for lack of proof. Then Meloe Karanovic was charged with provoke on Helen Hanule, and here the state won but the fine of $1 and costs was stayed. There was a charge awaiting Bettie Frank, for provoke, but Bettie, who was one of the principal elocutionists in the exhibition down at Bunsen, did not fully understand the importance of her presence, so she just anchored her hat with one of those long pins, adjusted her hobble skirt and while the officials were busy, strolled out of the court room and scooted for home. She will have to be again corralled by the constables and brought back, before the performance and the partition fence literary contest down at the hilarious mining camp is completed as court history.

MRS. SEARS' DEATH IS SHOCK TO FAMILY

Mrs. Rosa Sears, wife of Jackson Sears, died suddenly at her home on West Blackman street, Sunday night. Mrs. Sears has been indisposed for several weeks, but it was believed she was improving, and the members of the family were hopeful for her recovery. She ate heartily at dinner Sunday and was in unusually good spirits until night-fall, when she suffered a stroke of paralysis and died in a short time, soon after her son reached the bedside.

The funeral will be held at the Methodist church at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. The services will be conducted jointly by Rev. Martin, of that church and Rev. Ruth, of the Christian congregation. Burial at Clinton cemetery.

Mrs. Sears, with her husband, has lived in the city for many years, and she was among the highly respected of the older residents. For the past two years, she with her husband have been interested with their son, Pearl, in the picture show business, and Mrs. Sears' pleasant face has been at the door. She was a woman who attended strictly to her own affairs, was kind to all who knew her and was well liked. Surviving her, besides her husband and Pearl, the only son, is Mrs. Billings, the fortune-teller, who lived in this city for a number of years.

On account of the death, both the Jem and the Wonderland theatres will be closed tonight and tomorrow night.

CLINTON BALL TEAMS GET SHORT END ON SUNDAY

The managers of the Clinton ball clubs have been provokingly reluctant about calling up the editorial room of the Clintonian and giving in results of the Sunday games, when they lose, and before the score had been seen, the office boy predicted that the proud swatters had received drubbings for the ventures out of town on the Holy Sabbath day.

EIGHT-YEAR-OLD LAD GOES IN BY HIMSELF, WHILE MOTHER IS SHOPPING IN CITY

POND BOTTOM STEEP, LEADING TO DEPTHS

Six-Year-old Half Brother Runs and Reports, Ballinger Abner "Hiding" Under the Water

Ballinger Abner, aged 8 years, step-son of Mr. and Mrs. James Jones, living about three miles west of the city, was drowned while playing about a pond, Saturday afternoon. Ray Jones, 6 years old, a half-brother, was the only witness, and the victim sank without any effort being made to rescue him. The boy had been living with the grandfather, at Brownsville, Ky., and the lad had only joined his mother at the country home a short time ago. The body will be shipped to the grandfather, at Brownsville, for burial.

The Joneses live on the Morris Wright farm, and on the place are several ponds, about which the children were wont to venture for play. Mrs. Wright had warned several of them of the danger, as the ponds were deep. Mr. and Mrs. Jones came to the city to do some trading, Saturday, and left the children at home and at play. They romped about the premises for a time, but finally ventured to one of the ponds. The little fellows who went to the pond were Ballinger Abner, his six-year-old half-brother, Ray Jones, and another lad, whose name was not learned. The Abner boy was more venturesome and waded 'out' into the water. The pond is bowl-shaped with a rapid incline to the depth. The lad had gone but a short distance when, it is presumed, he lost his footing and before he could even make a struggle, was beyond his depth. When his little brother had disappeared beneath the water, Ray Jones ran to the home of his aunt, Mrs. Emma Smith, and told her that "Bal" was hiding down under the water in the pond and wanted her to "come and make him come out."

The child-like request told the terrible story, and Mrs. Smith, who was, at the time, in charge of the children, became almost frantic. She gave the alarm and Freeman Wright, William Hedges, Alex Ummel, Simon Ummel, Cletus Wright, Forest Hice and Zimri Fennis and one or two others hurried to the pond.

Arriving, there was nothing in sight save the silent water, beneath which the lad had sunk. The water was about eight feet deep and it was necessary to partially drain the pond, before searching for the body with any assurance of success. After the pond had been somewhat lowered, the body was found by Cletus Wright. It was gotten out and carried to the Jones home. Word was telephoned to this city, and after considerable searching, Mrs. Jones was found in a South Main street store. When told of the terrible affair, she was frantic, and it was some moments before she could regain composure for action. Mr. Jones was hunted up and informed of the WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4.—The Austrian surrender terms as announced today include: Demobilization of Austrian army; deliverance to the allies of half of Austria's artillery and equipment; the opening of the Adriatic and the Danube to the allies; allied occupation of the Danube and Pola naval bases; the evacuation of all occupied territory that did not belong to Austria-Hungary; use of all roads, railroads and waterways in Austro-Hungary; the surrendering of a number of submarines and other war vessels to the allies, with allied officers in charge of the others not surrendered.

YANKS GET STERNAY GAP

LONDON, Nov. 4.—Sternay Gap, through which the Germans intended to pass south of Ardennes, has been rendered untenable by the new American advance, it was officially announced. The American troops progressed satisfactorily between Sternay and Beaumont, practically cutting the German army in two at that point.

GHEENT TAKEN?

LONDON, Nov. 4.—The British troops made a new attack on a 35-mile front between Valenciennes and Guise, Field-Marshal Haig announced today. Satisfactory progress was reported. The allies have reached the Aunell river, ten miles from Prony. Unconfirmed reports say Ghent has been taken.

French Fourth and U. S. First Armies Make Sweeping Gains West of Meuse.

ALL OBJECTIVES ARE PASSED

Aviators Report All Roads Running Northward Packed With Troops, Artillery and Trucks—Prisoners and Captured Guns Greatly Increased.

London, Nov. 4.—The American First and French Fourth armies advanced between seven and eight miles, according to the latest word from the front west of the Meuse.

Retreat East of Meuse. With the American Forces North-west of Verdun, Nov. 4.—American aviators reported the Germans east of the Meuse appeared in full retreat.

The aviators' messages said all roads running northward were packed with troops, artillery and trucks.

(The above dispatch indicates that the rout of the Germans by the Americans west of the Meuse has spread to the German lines east of the river. The newly formed Second American army, under General Bullard, is attacking in this sector.)

Pass All Objectives.

General Pershing's forces continued to make satisfactory progress during the night and this morning, and, with isolated opposition, they were there.

Virtually every American plane had not only reached the Meuse but was far ahead of them. Prisoners captured guns and material are reported to be increasing in number and quantity.

THREE BALLOTS IN TOMORROW'S SELECTION

Each Voter to Help Select State, County and Township Officers; Democratic, Republican and Socialist Candidates; Mines to Work But Four Hours; All But Miners, However, Urged to Vote in Morning

When the voters go into the polls tomorrow, in the twenty-six precincts of Vermillion county, they will be given three ballots—one for the township, one for the county and one for the state.

To vote a straight ticket, one will mark at the top of the ballot of his choice, one cross in the top circle and no more. Democratic, republican and socialist, in the order named, from left to right, are the tickets offered.

Those who want to vote mixed tickets can, of course, do this on one or two ballots and vote a straight ticket on the other one or two, if they prefer.

The names of the national congressional candidates, as usual, appear at the head of the county ballots. Names that are not county officers are not county officers.

The names of the candidates for state representative also appear, together down, on the county ballots. All mine and the miners' trains should get the miners home by 12. All other people are urged to vote in the morning, clearing the way for the miners.

The names of the inspectors, judges and clerks and the place of voting for each of the seven city precincts are given below. The ban against public meetings will make it

BABE FALLS IN HOT WATER; DIES FROM HIS BURNS

Robert VanTura, son of Mr. and Mrs. William VanTura, died Sunday, at the age of 3 years 6 months, in Union hospital, from burns received from falling into a boiler of hot water.

The family lives on the hill west of old Maple Valley mine. The tragedy occurred Saturday.

The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon.

REPORTED MISSING; WRITES TO PARENTS

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Willis, living on route 3 out of Clinton, have received a letter from their son, Manson Willis, who was reported missing in action about a month ago.

The letter was written nearly three weeks after he was reported missing and so relieved the parents, who were very much worried over the fate of their son. Young Willis reports he is all right and it is doubtful if he even knew he had been "missing."

C. G. Harrey of Cayuga was in the city Sunday.

everywhere, a fact that will tell heavily in favor of the party at the polls next Tuesday.

"If we succeed in voting our full registered strength, and I am confident that the republican organization will do this very thing, the state will go republican by a plurality of from 40,000 to 60,000. We will hold all the congressional districts that we now control and, in advance of the official figures, I will not concede a single congressional district in the state to our opposition."

General Pershing's forces continued to make satisfactory progress during the night and this morning, and met with isolated opposition here and there.

Virtually every American prisoner had not only reached the objective, but was far ahead of them. Prisoners captured guns and material are reported to be increasing in number and quantity.

YANKS WIN GREAT AIR BATTLE

Seven Americans Shoot Down Eleven German Planes Near Argonne Forest.

With the American Army North of Verdun, Nov. 4.—One of the most successful air fights that Americans have taken part in took place near the Argonne forest when seven Yankee airmen accounted for 11 German planes of the Fokker type. The victorious Americans are Lieuts. James F. Manning, Jr., and P. W. Graham of Chicago; James R. McKay of Wheaton, Ill., formerly of Evanston; Z. P. Shonky of Plainfield, N. J.; Ora R. McMurry of Madison, Wis.; L. C. Plush and C. A. Rinney of Pomona, Cal.

KAISER HIDES IN THE ARMY

German Emperor Refuses to Abdicate and Takes Refuge at Army Headquarters.

Paris, Nov. 4.—The German emperor persists in his refusal to abdicate and took refuge in German army headquarters after the meeting of the new war cabinet council at which his abdication was discussed.

Paris, Nov. 2.—The abdication of the German emperor may now be considered a fact, according to a Geneva dispatch to The Temps. Official publication of the abdication has been prepared and awaits only an opportune moment for announcement, the dispatch adds.

FLIGHT IS NOW STABILIZED

United States Plane Flies Twenty Miles in France Entirely Uncontrolled.

An American Aerodrome in France, Nov. 4.—An experiment recently conducted by an air pilot revealed how thoroughly mere flight has been stabilized. In midair the pilot released his hand and foot controls entirely and touched nothing for 20 miles leaving his machine to fly itself until just before landing. "You couldn't do that with an automobile," he laughed after describing the performance to fellow flyers.

"Anzacs Live as They Fight."

Melbourne, Australia, Nov. 4.—A contingent of returned Australian soldiers arrived here. Three hundred of them were accompanied by their English brides and received a cordial welcome.

Austrians Evacuate Odessa.

Paris, Nov. 4.—The Austrians are evacuating Odessa, according to a dispatch to the Matin from Moscow by way of Zurich.

The names of the national congressional candidates, as usual, appeared at the head of the county ballots. The names of the candidates for state representative also appear, whether down on the county ballots. All minds in the field will work four hours and the miners' trains should get the miners home by 12. All other people are urged to vote in the morning, clearing the way for the miners.

The names of the inspectors, judges and clerks and the place of voting for each of the seven city precincts are given below. The ban against public meetings will make it impracticable for a merging of headquarters and getting a wire service to attract a large crowd. It is known the local headquarters for democrats, for tomorrow night's returns, will be mainly at W. A. Satterlee's office, and for republicans at Everett Davison's office.

Members of the election boards in all precincts are urged to telephone results, as soon as gotten, to those offices, telephone 42 or 389, and to The Clintonian, 41 or 117. Each will exchange news with the others. There will, of course, be small groups at other places, as big groups are strictly against the "anti-flu" orders, but no other places for learning returns are known well enough to announce them in advance.

Mr. Sears had been ill since last Tuesday, when he was brought from his watchman's shanty at the railroad crossing on North Ninth street, after being attacked with a chill.

Mr. Sears was afflicted with blood poisoning about twelve years ago and his illness and death are said to have been the result of that attack.

Jackson Sears had been a resident of this city for about thirty years and was one of the well-known old timers of Clinton. He was born and raised in Newport, coming to this city when about 40 years old.

He is survived by the son, Pearl, and a granddaughter, Jennie Ferguson. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made, but the services probably will be held tomorrow afternoon.

BOY THIEVES IN POLICE NET

The police yesterday broke up, temporarily at least, a band of youthful robbers, when they arrested Joe, John and Andrew Vovak; Pete and Joe Massinik, John Frank, Andrew Tribulak and Pete Marinkoski, charged with getting into White's pharmacy No. 1 and taking a number of articles.

The police found the stolen stuff "cached" near the creek, the articles including nineteen dozen pencils, three flashlights, a box of powder and five boxes of paints.

The boys are all in their early teens or younger and will be taken to Newport Wednesday morning for a disposal of their cases.

CHARGED WITH REFUSING TO PAY FOR LOAD OF CORN

John Lonrattis was arrested last night by Patrolman Harrison, for having bought a load of corn from Warren Harrison and refusing to pay for it. He entered a plea of not guilty and was released on $50 bond, furnished by D. C. Johnson.

Miss Gretchen Neese, who has been seriously ill, is reported to be noticeably better.

George H. Sears' Will.

I George H. Sears of Vermillion County and State of Indiana, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament hereby revoking all other wills by me at any time heretofore made, for the purpose of disposing of any and all my worldly property, after my death, knowing as I do the uncertainty of life.

It is my wish that all my just debts and funeral expenses shall be fully paid as soon after my death as possible, and leaving as I think I do ample means to pay and discharge the same. I do not wish that there shall be any unnecessary or unreasonable delay in so doing.

Item, I further give and bequeath to my said beloved wife Harriet all my real estate situate in the town of Newport Vermillion County Indiana, the same being Lot No. as numbered and designated on the recorded plat of said town, together with all the improvements thereon in fee simple.

above mentioned shall go and belong to my three children Robert Sean, Jacob G. Sean and George H. Sean, share and share alike in fee-simple.

Item, I hereby nominate and appoint my beloved wife Harriet Sean sole Executrix of this my last will and testament, and desire that she shall not be required to give any bonds for the faithful discharge of her duties under said will, my reason for which desire is that I owe very few debts of any amount and none of large amount, my funeral expenses, I feel assured she will fully and promptly pay without trouble to others, all the balance of my property both real and personal during her natural life is hers and under her control for her benefit, and I think it unnecessary to require her to enter into bonds for the faithful application of her own means to her own uses, I have full confidence in the prudence and ability of my wife to manage and control her own affairs, and it is my desire to give her as little trouble as may be.

I desire that my children shall be as well provided for as possible, and educated, therefore I confidently recommend them to the care of their mother, without any fears or misgivings and the confident belief which I have that she will discharge her whole duty towards them is one reason why I have bequeathed to her part of my real estate in fee-simple the balance and the rents and profits thereof during her life, and all my personal property, without making any special reservations or bequests except to pay debts and funeral expenses.

Witness my hand and seal this 24th day of July 1856.

Viewed, photocopied, at LDS Family History Center, Orange, CA, April 1995 via Microfilm 482431, Probate Records, Oldham County, Kentucky, Will Book 2, 1836-1844.

NOTE: This typed transcript was made from photocopy noted above. Unreadable words and parts of words are identified as "unreadable" in italics and enclosed in parenthesis -- i.e. (unreadable). Words requiring significant "deciphering/interpretation" are typed in italics. Punctuation (e.g. capitalization, commas, periods, etc.) has been added in some places for clarity. Also this transcript is divided into paragraphs. The entire document, as written in the Will Book, consists of one paragraph with no sentence identification or separation in many places. This transcript is essentially the same as that in NOTES ON THE SEARS FAMILY, by Ben F. Dixon except for two items as follows:

1. This transcript lists, by name, all 6 of Christian Sears' children; Dixon names only 4.
2. An addition, covering "erasures and interlineations", signed by Christian Sears on 22 July 1843 is included in this transcript; Dixon omitted this addition.
