This spelling is reflected in the 1920 U.S. Census of Hot Springs County, Wyoming, household headed by Miriam THORNBURG, the tombstone inscription for Ona Ray THORNBURG, and various documents referenced in notes for children of Lawrence Thronburg and Elizabeth Miriam Collins.

Lawrence Thronburg

Lawrence McMukery Thronburg was born to James and Eliza Thronburg on Oct.22-1889 in Cedar County Missouri. He died Oct.15-1918 and is buried at Round top cemetery at Thermopolis Wyoming. He came to Wyo. about 1915 as his brother Les. was already there He married Miriam Collins in Mo.

Lawrence fell a victim of the Spanish Influenza. He was but 29 years old and left his wife and five small children to mourn his loss. He had lived with his family on Owl Creek the past years and he had worked as a black smith at the Padlock Ranch some. Just recently had moved to the W.B. Garrett place just North of Thermopolis Wyo.

He was a man whom all respected for his industry and many excellent qualities and the sympathy of the whole community went out to his family in their bereavement. The children were--

1- Ona Thronburg--He married Margaret Gates. He built his home a log house on Second and Fremont in Thermopolis. Here he had a small block plant where he made building blocks from the mineral deposits from the Hot Springs. They had three children- James Thronburg who married and divorced then left here and has not been heard from in years Number two child was Frances. She lives back east somewhere but comes back to visit. The last child was George Thronburg who is married and lives in Riverton Wyo.

2-Millie- who lives in Calif. and is a widow.

3- Eveyln-Married Rudy Kolock a coal miner- They live in Grand Junction Colo.

4- Irene- A widow lives in Calif.

5- Leona-- Married and lives back east in Indiana

Lawrence was named McMukery after his grandmothers maiden name on the Wooldridge side. His uncle on his mothers side was Samuel McMukery Wooldridge.

Samuel married Rose Isenhower who was a sister to my grandmother Dresslaer so Ollie and Laura the children of Sam and Rose was first cousins of my mother and also first cousins of Lawrence Thronburg, but on different sides of the family.

I m F r e e

*Don't grieve for me for now I'm free;
I'm following the path God laid, you see.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that peace at the close of day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
O yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I've wished you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.*

*My journey to Heaven, the path so steep
But I find my strength in faith and belief.
Lift up your heart and peace to thee,
God wanted me now - He set me free.*

Passing of Eddie Hoff Inbox X

Rusty Kelly to Roberta, Gary, Reba, Pat show details 10:22 AM (1 hour ago) Reply

Dearest Cousins:

I wish to let all of you know that our cousin by marriage, Eddie Hoff, passed away yesterday, April 18, 2011. He was just about to enter rehab after being hospitalized for two months after surgery brought about by cancer of the lung. He fought a valiant and long fight and it looked as if he just might be winning when he had an aneurism which brought about his demise. His services will be in the town where they live, Vernal, Utah. There is not much more that I know just now. But thought that all of you would like to know.

All my love, Joyce Kelly

The baby at the Montana Dept. of D&H was mine brought to case me to let me know that I would have to get a court order to obtain his original birth certificate & wanted to know if I wanted the certificate for his adoption. His place was called I & would have thought this to be original.

Joyce Spangole Kelly

My sister, Rylene, told me that his last name was Rennie Shale Swenson.

Info re Leona Weaver
7-29-95 p1

Dear Ruth

This info I got from Lee shortly before she died. She wasn't ^{very} checked with her written records where possible.

I'm not real sure she was married 5 times but I found five wedding rings together in a box.

I remember the funeral of her first husband Bill Lambert. He was killed in a car accident & buried at Powell Wyoming leaving Lee with three small children.

Second; Carl Crapo Lee told me died & that was about all she said.

Third James Albert King - father of Mark Edward King, ^{near} ^{Dayton} ^{OH} may still be alive.

Fourth I know nothing of who died Lee tell me. Perhaps Frank Weaver was her fourth & last.

GRAVESIDE SERVICE
LEONA F. WEAVER

LEONA F. WEAVER, 75, OF 2920 YALE PLACE, OWENSBORO, KENTUCKY, DIED FRIDA, JANUARY 14, 1994, AT HILLCREST HEALTH CARE CENTER. SHE WAS BORN IN THERMOPOLIS, WYOMING, THE DAUGHTER OF THE LATE LAWRENCE AND MIRIAM ELIZABETH COLLINS THRONBURG.

SHE WAS A RETIRED CIVILIAN WORKER FROM WRIGHT-PATTERSON AIR FORCE BASE. "LEE" AS SHE WAS KNOWN BY MANY, WAS VERY PROUD OF HAVING WORKED AT WIRGHT-PATTERSON. SHE WAS A MEMBER OF THE EPISCOPALIAN FAITH.

SHE WAS PRECEDED IN DEATH BY HER PARENTS, TWO SISTERS, EVELYN KOWLOK AND IRENE LACEY AND ONE BROTHER, 'ONIE' THRONBURG. SURVIVORS INCLUDE THREE SONS, WILLIAM W. KING OF OWENSBORO, KENTUCKY, TERRENCE E. LAMBERT OF HUEER HEIGHTS, OHIO AND MARK KIND OF VANDALIA, OHIO; ONE DAUGHTER, JANET LEE LAMBERT JENSEN, OF OGDEN, UTAH; FIVE GRANDCHILDREN; FOUR GREAT-GRANDCHILDREN; AND ONE SISTER, MILDRED ELIZABETH MORGANDO OF BAKERSFIELD, CALIFORNIA...

SONG?? SCOTT MENDEZ

I NEVER HAD THE PLEASURE OF KNOWING MRS. WEAVER, BUT AM TOLD THAT SHE WAS VERY FAMILY ORIENTED AND THAT WHEN HE HUSBAND DIED WHEN THE CHILDREN

GRAVESIDE SERVICE

LEONA F. WEAVER

WERE YOUNG, SHE RAISED THE THREE OF THEM BY HERSELF, FOR SOME TIME BEFORE SHE REMARRIED. ONE CHILD WAS BORN TO THIS UNION.

SHE HAD A FAVORITE COLOR AND A FAVORITE BIRD....PINK,
AND MEADOW LARKS.... SHE LOVED TO KNIT AND CROCHET, AND WAS VERY SKILLED AT BOTH.

LEONA WENT TO BOTH ELEMENTARY AND HIGH SCHOOL HERE IN THERMOPOLIS.

SHE WAS A VERY PETITE PERSON IN PHYSICAL SIZE, AS I GUESS I WOULD PICTURE SOMEONE WHOSE FAVORITE COLOR WAS PINK AND WHOSE FAVORITE BIRD WAS THE MEADOW LARK.

IF SHE COULD SPEAK TO US TODAY, I BELIEVE SHE MIGHT SAY SOMETHING LIKE THIS:::DO NOT STAND AT MY GRAVE AND WEEP. I AM NOT THERE; I DO NOT SLEEP.

I AM A THOUSAND WINDS THAT BLOW.

I AM A DIAMOND GLINT ON SNOW.

I AM THE SUNLIGHT ON RIPENED GRAIN.

I AM THE GENTLE AUTUMN RAIN.

WHEN YOU WAKE IN THE MORNING HUSH;

I AM THE SWIFT UPLIFTING RUSH

OF QUIET BIRDS IN CIRCLING FLIGHT.

I AM THE SOFT STARLIGHT AT NIGHT.

GRAVESIDE SERVICE

LEONA F. WEAVER

DO NOT STANDE AT MY GRAVE AND WEEP.

I AM NOT THERE; I DO NOT SLEEP..... ALSO

FOR COMFORT IN TIMES LIKE THIS, WE TURN TO THE SCRIP-TURES. THERE ARE MANY IN THE BIBLE, AND ONE OF THE FAVORITES IS THE TWENTY THIRD PSALM....

THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I SHAL NOT WANT.

HE MAKETH ME TO LIE DOWN IN GREEN PASTURES;

HE LEADETH ME BESIDE THE STILL WATERS.

HE RESTORETH MY SOUL; HE LEADETH ME IN THE PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS FOR HIS NAME'S SAKE.

YEA, THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY OF THE SHADOW
O F DEATH, I WILL FEAR NO EVEIL, FOR THOU ART WITH ME; THY ROD AND THY STAFF THE COMFORT ME.

THOU PREPAREST A TABLE BEFORE ME IN THE PRESCENCE OF MINE ENEMIES. THOU ANNOINTEST MY HEAD WITH OIL, MY CUP RUNNETH OVER.

SURELY GOODNESS AND MERCY SHALL FOLLOW ME ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE; AND I SHALL DWELL IN THE HOUSE OF
THE LORD FOREVER.

GRAVESIDE SERVICE
LEONA F. WEAVER....

WE ARE ALSO REMINDED IN THE BOOK OF JOHN THAT CHRIST IS QUOTED AS SAYING, "IN MY FATHERS HOUSE ARE MANY DWELLING PLACES, AND IF IT WERE NOT SO, I WOULD HAVE TOLD YOU. I GO AND PREPARE A PLACE FOR YOU THAT WHERE I AM, THERE YE MAY BE ALSO...THEN HE ADDS, I AM THE WAY, THE TRUTH AND THE LIFE...NO MAN COMES TO THE FATHER BUT BY ME!" THERE IS GREAT COMFORT IN CHRIST'S WORDS FOR THE CHRISTIAN....

HAVING BEEN BORN AND RAISED IN WYOMING, AND NOW BEING RETURNED FOR HER FINAL RESTING PLACE HERE, I BELIEVE THAT THE FOLLOWING WORDS, WOULD EXPRESS HER FINAL FEELINGS...."WHEN THE WARMING WINDS OF SPRING ARRIVE, AS IN THE YEARS BEFORE; AND ASPENS WAKE AND COME ALIVE, TO BUD THEIR LEAVES ONCE MORE.....WHEN THE TETONS YIELD BENEATH THE SUN, TO SHARE THEIR LOFTY CROWN; AND WHIRLING SNAKE IS SWELLED TO RUN, AS SNOW COMES MELTING DOWN.....WHEN WYOMING LIFTS THE WINTER VEIL, AND NEW LIFE FILLS HER BREAST; MY SOUL BRINGS FORTH A SUDDEN WAIL, AND TURNS ME TO THE WEST...OH GRANT ME HERE ONE LAST REQUEST, AND CAUSE MY GRAVE TO BE. WHERE I SHALL EVER HAVE IN REST.
WYOMING OVER ME.....

GRAVESIDE SERVICE
LEONA F. WEAVER

AND SO WE LAY THIS DEAR ONE TO REST AS WE CLAIM
THE PROMISE OF I CORINTHIANS 1: 2-5..."GRACE TO
YOU AND PEACE FROM GOD OUR FATHER AND THE LORD JESUS CHRIST. BLESSED BE THE GOD AND FATHER OF OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, THE FATHER OF MERCIES AND GOD OF ALL COMFORT, WHO COMFORTS US IN ALL OUR AFFLICTIONS SO THE
WE MAY BE ABLE TO COMFORT THOSE WHO ARE IN ANY AFFLICTION WITH THE COMFORT WITH WHICH WE OURSELVES ARE COMFORTED
BY GOD. FOR JUST AS THE SUFFERINGS OF CHRIST ARE OURS
IN ABUNDANCE, SO ALSO OUR COMFORT IS ABUNDANT THROUGH CHRIST."

Dear Mrs. Lambert:

It pains me greatly that the necessity of writing this letter has arrived, as this is one of the hardest tasks I have ever been called upon to perform.

This letter is late by some months, however I have spent quite a good bit of time in the hospital and have been unable to write at an earlier date.

You have, of course, been informed of the death of your brother, John E. Allen, Jr. on or about 30 Dec. 1944. John was a member of my platoon at that time. My platoon, and of course, my self, had been ordered to lead an assault upon, an enemy occupied town. We suffered heavy casualties in the first phase of this battle and the true spirit & character of your brother once again came to light.

At a time when
under heavy enemy
fire, my platoon
became disorganized,
John was of invaluable
assistance to me.
A Combat-wise soldier,
he moved every where, cheering up men who were new
to the war, doing all within his power to keep the platoon working as a Unit. When my Thompson submachine gun was shot from my hands,

John secured for me
an enemy weapon,
which he put into operation for me. He was a definite guiding influence on the men in my platoon,
and performed duties
and services there,
that I would ask
from no man.

To say he died for his Country is a small way of putting it. John gave his life so that I and the other men
of my platoon might live, he gave his life so that you &

his friends and his country men might live & that we, as a people, might never allow this to happen
again.

I have commanded many men in my
five years of service,
but never before has
it been my privilege to command as fine
and heroic a soldier as your brother. I may not live to return to my home, but whether

I do or not, I will say that I will never meet a finer man,
a better soldier, or a more heroic figure than John E. Allen, Jr.

In closing, let me offer my service
to you in any way
that I may in order
to lighten the burden
on your heart at the present time

Sincerely yours

Harry J. Dear

had beaten in the past better units than those appeared to be, even with limited means, so there was but one thing to do and that was to close with the enemy as rapidly as possible and destroy him by any means possible. But the seizure of the bridge was imperative.

Initial contact was made at the western exit of Cheneux by a patrol which had been sent from Rahier by the first battalion of the 504th. They fired on a German motorcyclist who was accompanied by a small patrol. Contact was first made on the ridge one-half mile west of Cheneux. This small patrol was followed by approximately a company of Germans moving along the ridge. They were engaged at once and a heavy fight took place, lasting all day long. This German force, we know now, was the advance guard of a reinforcement battalion of the first SS Panzer Division. The 1st battalion of the 504th drove them back into Cheneux, the battalion commander setting up his command post in a building in the western limits of Cheneux on the main road during the hours of darkness of the first night. During the day firing could be heard and some vehicular movement could be observed in the direction of LeGleize.

I went to the 505th Parachute Infantry where I found that they had contacted some engineers who remained in Trois-Ponts. They had occasionally been under fire but no major German force had moved through the town. All civilians in these northern regimental areas reported that many Germans and much armor had passed through. The situation south of the 505th in the direction of Vielsalm was vague. Reconnaissance was pushed in that direction.

On the afternoon of December 20 at about 1600 hours I was called to Headquarters XVIII Corps (Airborne) to receive orders for an advance to the Vielsalm-Hobronval line. In the meantime contact had been established with a German SS force later identified as the 1st SS Panzer Division at Cheneux. First contacts indicated that they were well equipped and reasonably trained troops who would give us a good fight. It was with some difficulty that our first prisoners were taken. At about 1630, prior to leaving the division advance CP, which was now established at Hablont, I had all unit commanders assembled, including the battalion commanders of the 508th. It was felt that speed was vital and if we were to move to Vielsalm with the mission to be assigned us by XVIII Corps (Airborne), we had to move without delay, regardless of conditions of light or darkness.

At Corps Headquarters I received information that they were advancing to the southeast and establishing an active defense along the line Vielsalm-Hobronval-Leroche; that this division, 82d Airborne, would establish a defensive line from contact with the 30th Division, in the vicinity of LeGleize, to Cheneux-Trois-Ponts-Grand Halleux-Vielsalm-Salmchateau-Hobronval. Contact was to be immediately established with units reportedly cut off in the area of Vielsalm-St. Vith. The Third Armored Division was on our right and was to hold the sector from Hobronval west.

Orders to accomplish this were issued at the division CP at Hablont shortly before dark, December 20. Units moved promptly and by daylight were on their objectives, well organized and prepared to defend. Regiments were in the line in the order, left to right: 504, 505, 508, 325. One battalion of the 325 was held in division reserve in the vicinity of LeVeux. The division forward CP was established in the town of Liernaux at the railroad crossing on the northern edge of the town.

In Vielsalm contact was made with General Hasbrouck who had established the CP of the 7th Armored Division in the town. The division was then fighting around St. Vith. West of Vielsalm, General Jones had established the CP of the 106th Division at Rencoveaux. From a visit to both of these officers I learned that the 7th Armored Division, except for battle losses, was intact and fighting with unit integrity. The 106th Division appeared to be rather badly chewed up and had but one regiment, the 424th Infantry, remaining, with some division artillery and divisional units. There were also present a regiment of the 28th Division, the 112th Infantry, in addition to a number of Corps and larger units such as medium artillery.

On the left of the division very heavy fighting was taking place in the vicinity of Cheneux where the German 1st SS Panzer Division was making a desperate and all-out effort to drive out the first battalion of the 504th. Further south at Trois-Ponts, and extending down to Grand Halleux, determined, apparently well planned and executed attacks were being made with increasing strength against the very thinly held front of the 505th. On the south, the 508th and the 325 had no contact with the enemy. The Division Reconnaissance Platoon was pushed south.

Information available indicated that the Germans were moving in great strength to the west, having passed Houffalize, and were moving towards the Meuse River. The Third Armored Division, which was supposed to be on the division's right, could not be contacted. I believe that on this date a reconnaissance party may have established contact.

On December 21 I visited the OP's of the 7th Armored and 106th Divisions with the Corps Commander of XVIII Corps (Airborne), General Ridgway. The situation in the vicinity of St. Vith appeared to be critical. The town was being overwhelmingly attacked in several directions and there appeared to be little prospect of preventing its being cut off. The Corps Commander informed me that his original plan was for the 30th Division to attack south from Stevalot to relieve the situation at St. Vith and for the Third Armored to attack on the right of the 82d so as to drive in the Germans moving to the west. On this date, December 21, however, only the narrow neck of land from Vielsalm to Salmchateau, held by the 82d Airborne Division, connected the St. Vith forces with remaining forces of the First Army. Its retention would be decisive.

The fighting at Chenoux was increasing in bitterness. On this date the first battalion of the 504th, assisted by a company of the third battalion of that regiment, made a final, all-out assault on the Germans in that town and in close hand-to-hand fighting, many of the parachute troops jumping aboard the German half-tracks and knifing the Germans at their posts, the Germans were driven back across the Ambleve River and our troops seized the bridge. In this attack we destroyed a considerable amount of armor and killed and captured many Germans from the 1st SS Panzer Division.

Further to the south and east, the 505th Parachute Infantry was having very hard fighting with the remainder of the 1st SS Panzer Division. The 505th had initially sent a covering force east of the Salm River in the vicinity of Trois-Ponts. Through sheer weight of numbers this small force was finally driven to the river line where it held. Being very much overextended, the regiment managed to hold by diagnosing or estimating the point of German main effort from time to time and then marshalling all available infantry as quickly as possible and beating off the attack at that point. This process was repeated, where necessary, day and night until finally the German attacks waned in their intensity about December 23.

The 508th Parachute Infantry on the Vielsalm-Salmchateau front was without enemy contact except for patrols. The 525th Glider Infantry, aided by the Division Reconnaissance Platoon, had established contact with enemy forces several miles south of their front lines.

On December 21 I was instructed by the Corps Commander to make a reconnaissance of the divisional area with a view to withdrawing after the extrication of the St. Vith forces to a suitable defensive position that would tie in with the divisions on my right and left. To date no firm contact had been established with the Third Armored Division. The merits of the present defensive position were discussed and it was agreed that the Thier-du-Mont line offered splendid defensive possibilities provided it could be continued on our right. As well as I could determine, however, there were no friendly troops except light reconnaissance elements west of Hebronval.

I objected to the withdrawal but the Corps Commander explained that regardless of my wishes in the matter it might be necessary to require the division to withdraw. It was quite evident at this time that if a major German attack developed from the south, threatening the right of the division, its continued occupation of the salient extending out to Vielsalm would be costly in life and to no advantage after the extrication of the St. Vith forces. It was emphasized by the Corps Commander that it was absolutely necessary to secure properly the withdrawal of the St. Vith forces by holding and defending our present positions.

A reconnaissance was undertaken and at its completion it was quite clear that there was but one reasonably good defensive position and that there was but one reasonably good defensive position and that was the Trois-Ponts--Bossé-Bodoux--Bra-Manhey line. At the direction of the Corps Commander a reconnaissance was also made of a position farther to the rear, generally along the Chenoux-Rohier-Chevron-Vorbomont line. On December 22 I went to Manhey where I met General Ross, commanding the Third Armored Division. He stated that he was covering a concentration of other forces and that his front was so extended that he could not occupy and hold in strength the terrain west of Hebronval.

NARRATIVE

17 DECEMBER 1944

The Division, engaged in normal training activities near RHEIMS, FRANCE, was alerted at 1900 hours to move into combat the following day. At 2100 hours a movement order was received directing the Division to move by motor at 180900 from base camps and to concentrate in the vicinity of BASTOGNE, BELGIUM, where further instructions would be forthcoming. From general information available then, there appeared to be a serious GERMAN penetration in the VIII Corps sector.

18 DECEMBER 1944

The Division's leading serials left the base camps at SISSONNE and SUIPPES, FRANCE, at 0900 hours. Combat team component march units met at SEDAN and proceeded toward BASTOGNE. At SPIRIMONT, BELGIUM, the head of the Division column was directed to proceed to WERBOMONT. Higher Headquarters had then decided that the Division would hold the North flank of the penetration and the 101st Airborne Division, the South flank at BASTOGNE. Roads were clogged with vehicles and refugees. The location of the German advance break-through elements were uncertain. A screening force from the 119th Infantry was deployed in the vicinity of WARBELMONT to cover the assembly of the Division. The leading serial arrived at WERBOMONT at 1730 hours. Defensive positions were organized without delay by each unit upon its arrival. Security and reconnaissance measures were established at once.

19 DECEMBER 1944

The Division closed in the WERBOMONT area by 1000 hours. Defensive positions were improved progressively.

325th Glider Infantry - The 3d Battalion established road blocks in the vicinity of BARVAUX. "F" Company occupied GRAND-MENIL and HANLEY.

504th Parachute Infantry - Occupied RAHIER and relieved elements of the 119th Infantry in its sector.

505th Parachute Infantry - Occupied BASSE BODEUX and relieved elements of the 11th Infantry in its sector.

508th Parachute Infantry - "H" Company occupied crossroad just north of FLORET.

20 DECEMBER 1944

325th Glider Infantry - The 1st Battalion occupied a defensive position in the vicinity of BRU. The 3rd Battalion was relieved in the BARVAUX area by elements of the 3rd Armored Division. The 2nd Battalion, less "F" Company, in Division Reserve. "F" Company continued to occupy GRAND-MENIL and HANLEY.

504th Parachute Infantry - The 1st Battalion (less "A" Company) attacked CREPEUX at 1400. A heavy engagement ensued with a battalion of the 1st SS Panzer Division supported by tanks, flak wagons, and artillery. "A" Company took positions in the vicinity of BRU.

505th Parachute Infantry - Pushed out to the SALLM River along the line TROIS PONTS - COURMAYMONT, South of GRAND HILLEUX and relieved elements of the 51st Combat Engineers at TROIS PONTS. One Company held the bridge at HOUFF. One platoon crossed the river near TROIS PONTS. Another platoon crossed at LA TOUR.

508th Parachute Infantry - Began moving by foot and by motor to the vicinity of GORONNE.

21 DECEMBER 1944

Division completely occupied line TROIS PONTS - SAILMCHATEAU - HEBRONVAL and made contact with 7th Armored Division, 106th Infantry Division, 28th Infantry Division (112th Infantry), and CCB, 9th Armored Division.

The 1st Battalion, plus "G" Company, consolidated positions in CHENEUX and then with the 3rd Battalion attacked and drove the enemy across the L'AMBLEVE River and established positions on the South bank of the River.

Two enemy infantry attempts to form up for attack were both stopped by 155mm fire. OTTRE was a mass of smoldering ruins.

504th Parachute Infantry - The 2d Battalion relieved the 1st Battalion. Contact with 119th Infantry was established.

505th Parachute Infantry - 2nd Battalion bridgehead across the SALLI River at TROIS PONTS was attacked by a Battalion of the 1st SS Panzer Division, supported by armor and artillery. 2nd Battalion forces were withdrawn and the bridge was blown. Two enemy squads infiltrated into TROIS PONTS but were driven back across the SALLI River. 3rd Battalion repulsed an enemy platoon attempt to cross the SALLI River at LA TOUR and another two platoon effort in the "G" Company sector. 1st and 3rd Battalion bridgeheads at GRAND MILLEUX and LA NEUVILLE were established.

508th Parachute Infantry - Organized defensive positions from VIELSALM to SALMONATEMU to GRAND SART. The 1st Battalion was placed in Division Reserve. Patrols reported German columns moving in a steady stream through PETITE LANGLIR towards OTTRE.

307th Airborne Engineer Battalion - Blew the bridge at ROCHELEVAL. An officer patrol dispatched to PETITE LANGLIR blew a vital bridge over the RONCE stream which was being used by the enemy.

23 DECEMBER 1944

Troops and vehicles of the 7th Armored Division, the 106th Infantry Division, the 28th Infantry Division, and CCB of the 9th Armored Division continued to withdraw through Division lines.

325th Glider Infantry - The 2d Battalion drove back several enemy probing attacks. A composite force consisting of "F" Company, 325th Glider Infantry, and tanks of the 3d Armored Division was attacked by a strong enemy force at the main crossroad Southeast of LANHAY. Two platoons of the 509th Parachute Infantry Battalion joined the composite force. At 1630 hours, after a very effective mortar and artillery preparation, an estimated infantry battalion with tanks of the 2d

Thermopolis' 'Quilt Lady'

Milek Photo

Mrs. Miriam Short—no idle hours for her

By DOROTHY MILEK
Gazette Correspondent

THERMOPOLIS, Wyo.—It is said that the busiest people always find the time to do the most for other people and in the case of the "quilt lady" of Thermopolis this is true.

Mrs. Miriam Short is a senior citizen who finds no idle hours in her days. She belongs to nine organizations. In Rebekahs, which she joined in 1920, she has been treasurer 30 years.

ALSO an officer of many of the other groups, she organized the second Horizons Club while resident of Thermopolis Soroptimists and has been secretary and treasurer of the Odd Fellow building since it was dedicated in 1949. She is a charter member Business and Professional Women, and has also served in many capacities in the Community Church.

But, with all of these jobs, she still finds time for the personal touch. During her less active moments, she can be found in her favorite arm chair tating, or contentedly sewing at her machine.

Under her skilled fingers, bright pieces of scrap material, some dyed by her, go into place on squares of old sheeting. These are sewn to a bright flannel backing, tied with yarn, and a useful, colorful quilt has been created.

QUILT-MAKING has come naturally to Mrs. Short. Three of her most prized possessions are two quilts made of tiny scraps of cloth and a handmade bedspread, all done by her mother.

Each of Mrs. Short's grandchildren and great grandchildren has received a quilt and she insists that they be used. "They're just fine for watching television on or spreading in the yard for a picnic," she says.

But, it isn't just her family who enjoys the creations. Working with material donated by the American Legion Auxiliary and the War Mothers, Mrs. Short made four quilted laprobes for each of them to donate to hospitals. Then she went on to make many more on her own.

SOLDIERS at the Veterans' Hospital in Sheridan, Wyo., and patients at Hot Springs County Memorial Hospital at Thermopolis find their confinement brightened and warmed by Mrs. Short's robes. As one patient said to a visitor, "I don't know who did this, but whoever it was she was sure nice."

Mrs. Short figures she has made close to 60 laprobes and quilts. They go fast for her. It takes about half a day to piece one on her machine and she can tie one in about 90 minutes.

"Of course," she says with a smile, "I snatch once in awhile and put in a whole block, instead of piecing it."

Being busy is nothing new for Mrs. Short. It's a lifelong habit. Coming to Thermopolis in 1916 at the age of 27, she went to work at the Menger variety store, where she helped sell everything from harnesses to ready to wear.

A BIG ITEM was millinery and she vividly remembers one woman who came in to make a purchase. She was large, quite course and had been working in the fields all summer and had a deep tan. She wanted a hat. Mrs. Short sat her down in front of the mirror and she started trying them on, one after another, until she'd topped her head with every one in the store.

Finally the woman gave up. There was nothing available that would make her look like the lady she wanted to be.

This was a forerunner of the role Mrs. Short was to play in Thermopolis for many years to come. Following her job with the Mengers, she went to work for Forrest Larson in the Golden Rule Store and after 15 years with the firm, bought her own shop on Broadway in 1943.

NOT ONLY did she have a busy professional career, but in 1918, her husband, Lawrence Thornburg, was Thermopolis' first victim of the rampaging flue epidemic. He left his wife with five children to care for. In 1935 she married Wilfred Short and together they raised the large combined family of nine children. Two of the boys were killed in action in World War II. Mr. Short died in 1966.

With her typical good humor, Mrs. Short recalls that for many years she had her bluff-in with her youngsters because they thought she had some kind of magical powers of observation.

They, along with a group of friends, had stolen some watermelons and concealed them in a draw above their home on the edge of Thermopolis.

ONE NIGHT they "went for a hike" up the draw. Mrs. Short, who was hanging out clothes, began to hear voices, carried on the breeze directly from where the youngsters were having their watermelon bash. She could hear every word that was said.

Mrs. Miriam Short is Diana Award winner

Mrs. Miriam Short

At a reception held Sunday, Feb. 28 Mrs. Miriam Short was named winner of the ESA Sorority DIANA Award. She was presented with a corsage and a certificate from ESA World Headquarters.

Mrs. Short has been a resident of Thermopolis since 1916. For many years she owned and managed the Fashion in downtown Thermopolis and during this time gave of herself and monies in many generous and unselfish ways. For many years, the girl chosen to go to Girls' state was given a dress or suit of her choice, to take with her, regardless of cost. Often Mrs. Short made a special price for things a family needed which she knew they could not afford.

Mrs. Short is a member of Rebekah Lodge, Does, War Mothers, Soroptimist, Business and Professional Women's Club, American Legion, Second Horizon Club, D.A.R. and Farm Bureau.

At age 81, Mrs. Short is still very active and an asset to our community.

Approximately 65 people attended the tea which was held at the Technical College of the Rockies, and offered their congratulations to the winner, as well as to the other nominees.

Former members meet with Toastmistress

The local Toastmistress Club held their regular meeting on Feb. 15 at the R.E.A. Hospitality room. In the absence of president Martha Schroeder, Dr. Ruth Conrad opened the meeting followed by the Pledge to the flag. Louise Weeks gave the inspiration for the evening.

Special guests of the evening were Neanie Galyan and Irene Lewis former Toastmistress members.

Funny stories were the topic subjects, and the lesson was given by Neanie Galyan on interesting features found in the dictionary and use of the dictionary.

Miriam Short

Miriam Short, 97, who owned a dress shop in Thermopolis for 25 years, died Tuesday, Sept. 16, 1986, at the Wyoming Retirement Center in Basin.

While president of the Soroptomists, she started a Senior Citizens Club which met once a month at the Odd Fellows Hall for several years. She sponsored the first party for couples married 50 years or longer.

She made many lap robes and quilts for grandchildren and great-grandchildren, friends, residents and patients at the Pioneer Home, hospital and Canyon Hills Manor.

An open house was held for her 90th birthday party in 1979, and approximately 500 relatives and friends attended.

She is survived by one brother, Roy Collins, Thermopolis; three sisters, Lucy Bridgewater, Shenandoah, Ia., Dora Whitley, Lodi, Cal., and Clara Foster, Sheldon, Mo.; four daughters, Mildred Morgando, Bakersfield, Cal., Evelyn Kowlock, Grand Junction, Colo., Irene Lacy, Orcutt, Cal., and Leona Weaver, Dayton, Ohio; and several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.
