SIMON AND LILLIE COLLINS

Simon Peter Collins Jr., born 18 April 1863, Cedar County, Missouri, sixth child of Simon and Elizabeth (Boston) Collins, married Lillie Hunter Sears 9 October 1884 at the bride's home near Kader, Missouri. Lillie, born 8 May 1864, Monroe County, Indiana, daughter of George Hostetter and Nancy Miriam (Alexander) Sears, came to Cedar County at age twelve. Ten of thirteen children born to Simon and Lillie (all in Cedar County) lived to maturity:

George Washington: born 7 September 1885; married Bessie Slough 28 February 1909, Westboro, Missouri; son, Harry. Married, second, Grayce Slough, Bessie's half-sister, 1928, College Springs, Iowa; son, Donald. George ranched near Thermopolis, Wyoming, where he died in July, 1959. Burial: Monument Hill Cemetery, Thermopolis.

Mary Lillie Myrtle: born 6 June 1887; married A. J. Sherron June 1904, Cedar County; one son. Married, second, David Fife; daughter, Emily. Myrtle died 5 March 1922. Burial: Cedarville Cemetery, Dade County, Missouri.

Elizabeth Miriam: born 28 May 1889; married Lawrence Thronburg 5 June 1912, Cedar County; issue: Ona, Mildred, Evelyn, Irene and Leona. Married, second, John Allen, Wyoming; son, John E. Married, third, Wilfred Short, Wyoming; no issue. Miriam died 16 September 1996 in Basin, Wyoming. Burial: Monument Hill Cemetery, Thermopolis.

Lucy Ila: married Elmer Bridgewater. See story elsewhere.

Willie: married Myrtle Wolf. See story elsewhere

Walter Leroy: born 16 March 1896; married Vernie Miller 28 March 1916, Cedar County; issue: Noel, Larry and Dean. They lived/ranched near Thermopolis. Walter died 28 March 1974. Burial: Monument Hill Cemetery, Thermopolis.

Dora Pearl: born 6 March 1898; married Benjamin Whitley 24 December 1919, Cedar County; unnamed son, daughter Marjorie. Dora died 19 June 1996 in Lodi, California.

Edwin Miller (Edd): married Glacie Cox. See story elsewhere.

Roy Everett: born 1 August 1902; married Olevia Thronburg, 20 November 1927, Thermopolis; issue: Russell, Leland, Keith, Reba, Lillie and Polly. They lived/ranched near Thermopolis.

Clara Jeanette: born 30 March 1907; married Lawrence Foster 11 August 1923, Cedar County; issue: Harold and Virginia. They lived in Cedar and Vernon Counties.

Twins Euel Lee and Eunice Lena and an unnamed son died in infancy. Burial: Anna Edna Cemetery, Cedar County.

Simon was a farmer/stockman, Percheron horse breeder and livestock trader. Neighbors envied his watermelon patch. He bought mule colts, broke them to work when about two years old, then sold them. For several years he purchased the turkey crop of surrounding farmers (one to two thousand according to his children), dressed them and sold the dressed fowl in Nevada. Turkey butchering was something of a social event. Neighbors came to help -- mainly to pluck feathers at five cents for each turkey plucked. Mr. Collins was a member of Woodmen of the World and I.O.O.F. Lodges.

Lillie was jovial and friendly; visitors were always welcome and she insisted they stay and share a home cooked dinner. She quilted and crocheted. She raised geese for feathers to make feather beds for her family. She plucked the geese herself -- children were too rough on the geese! Lillie was an avid reader -- her Bible, magazines and books.

Simon and Lillie spent their entire married life in Cedar County -- most of it on a farm east of Jerico Springs. Both were members of the Jerico Missionary Baptist Church. They retired to Jerico Springs where they died. Simon died 3 November 1946. Lillie died 29 December 1950. Both interred in Anna Edna Cemetery, Cedar County.

I was Born May 8th 1864 in Bloomington Ind in sight of the university my Father had joined Shermans army in January before and did not see me until I was 13 months old

I come with my Fathers Family to Cedar County Mo when I was 12 years old in a covered wagon camping out on the way cooking on a fire by the side of the road there were very few places that we could buy bread so we cooked it in a iron oven with coals from the fire under it and on top of a iron lid

mother, little sister and I slept in the wagon while Father and the Boys slept under the wagon on a bed of hay when they could get the hay the roads then were not like they are now so after you had been jolting over them all day you

Through the valley of the shadow I must go
And the cold waves of Jordan roll
But the promise of my Savior will I know
Be the rod and ^{the} staff to my soul
E'en down the valley as I glide
I can hear my Savior say "Follow me"
And with him I'm not afraid to cross the tide
There's a light in the valley for me

There's a light in the valley ~~for me~~
There's a light in the valley ~~for me~~
and no evil will I fear while my Savior is so near
There's a light in the valley for me

61st WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

On October 9, 1884 Simon P. Collins and Lillie H. Sears were united in marriage at the brides home in Linn township, Cedar county, Missouri, by Rev. Tommie Allen. To this union were born thirteen children of which nine are living. The couple have spent their entire married life in Cedar county. They both united with the Baptist church many years ago and have lived faithful religious lives. Their lives have been that of farming and stock raising.

On Sunday, October 8, 1944 many friends and relatives gathered at the home of this couple in honor of their 60th wedding anniversary. Again on October 7th, 1945, their 61st Anniversary was celebrated by relatives, neighbors and friends gathering at their home in Jerico Springs where they have lived the past two years.

At noon a bounteous table was set in the front yard with lovely anniversary cakes as well as smaller cakes and other delicious dishes including an antelope roast brought from Wyoming.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were presented by relatives and friends.

There are nine living children 32 grand children and 34 greatgrand children. Of this number all nine of the children, 15 grand children and 8 great grand children were present. H. H. Collins, brother of S. P. Collins and Mrs Mamie Chrisman, sister of Mrs Collins, who were present at the wedding were also present at this celebration.

Other relatives present were the nine children: Mr. and Mrs. George Collins of Thermopolis, Wyo.; Mrs. Mrs. Miriam Short and husband of Thermopolis, Wyo., Mrs Lucy Bridgewater of Shannadoah, Iowa; Mr. and Bill Collins of Estella, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Collins and son Dean of Thermopolis, Wyo., Mr. and Mrs Ben Whitley of Sacramento, Calif., Mr. and Mrs Roy Collins and children, Russell Reba, Leland, Lillie, Keith and Polly Ann of Thermopolis, Wyoming, Mr. and Mrs Lawrence Foster and son Harold of Jerico Springs and their daughter Virginia of Springfield, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Collins and family; Mr. and Mrs Chester Collins and family; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Collins and family; Mr. and Mrs Glenn Minson and Ray Collins all of Estella, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs Merle Bridgewater of Joplin, Missouri. Several other relatives and host of neighbors and friends,

The following poem was composed by George Collins.

It is 61 years since their vows were spoken
And never a time have they ever been broken.
The world can all take a lesson from them,
And we'd have better women and men.

They have had their luck, both up and down;
And they've taken them both without a frown
I would that the lessons we could remember
That was started back there in that month of December

It made no difference if it was early or late,
I have yet to see a man turned from their gate.
Tho it was not always the best that they had to share
But they gave it always without a care.

And many's the night I have slept on the floor
To give up my bed to some wind Jamm'ing bore.
But we will all have to wait to collect our pay Until we meet in a brighter day.

Of the 13 children the raised but ten
Five were women and five were men;
But from this number one has passed
It is forty long years since I saw her last.

We are all getting well along on life's way,
The youngest of us is getting gray.
I hope that we all can improve our ways
And live for God the rest of our days.

Memorials

The finest in art, music, literature, architecture, and sculpture portrays the heart throbs of a thousand generations as they sought to memorialize their heroes and loved ones. The Pyramids, Taj Mahal, Rheims, Saint Peter's and Westminster in the Old World; the Washington and Lincoln Memorials, the Bok Singing Tower, memorial highways, stadiums and monuments in the New World, all enrich life and remind us that we are the heirs of a great past.

Not only do we believe in God, and a future life of peace, happiness and beauty surpassing human conception; but we also feel that in remembering these worthy ones we are able to attain new heights and to challenge posterity to even greater accomplishments.

Let us remember, therefore, that while we gather to pay our parting tribute and to bring solace and comfort to the sorrowing, we have also come to consecrate ourselves anew to the great unfinished task of creating a better world.

Here in the sanctity of love and memory let us seek to sustain the relatives and close friends by the evidencing of faith and hope; to draw a little closer in friendship and understanding; to inspire the bereaved with greater courage for the days ahead; and to paint a memory picture that shall ever remain a source of comfort and strength.

THE SINGING TOWER, Lake Wales, Florida, was conceived and built by Edward Bok, whose body now lies entombed within this dream of marble. A carillon of sixty-one bells sends forth every evening at sunset, in marvelous tones of sweet melody, hymns of hope and good cheer. It is often called the Taj Mahal of America.

Dear Edd and Glacie

We were glad to hear from you and that you are well

Pa suffered so last night that he wanted the Dr called at 3 o'clock Mrs Banister was doing just what the Dr had said for her to do the tube he had put in her heart so had he thought Dr should remove it.

which he did and then put another one in as his bladder was not drained enough.

The Dr had told Mrs Banister to let it stay in as long as it was draining so she was doing what the Dr said the

Dr. was feared and left it up to Mrs. Bannister when he should be called again
the two trips was $22.

I wrote him a check that Telara had signed to pay him. I don't know just what we may need so am sending checks for you to sign then I will make them out for what I may need.

As our pension was not raised for our last draw Telara wrote a check for $35 to finish paying for our keep for March. I think we will get more next time but don't expect to get $80.

Edd, mother & I talked it over & have decided it would be best for you to just transfer $100. to Edd Collins & Clara Foster so I can sign the checks for mother here. Don't you think that that would be better than to send the money to mother, you will please send the check to the bank.

I signed a check for mother to have in case she needs a dr again or something else.

Mother & dad are ~~now~~ moved they are tired but alright.

Febr. Adj. TERM, 194 51

In the Probate Court of said County, on the 12th day of May, 194 51 the following, among other proceedings, were had, viz.:

In the Matter of the Estate of Lillie H. Collins, Deceased.

Now on this day, the Court does take up for hearing the matter of the appointment of an appraiser in the above estate to appraise and fix the clear market value of any property, estate, interest therein, or income therefrom, transfer of which is subject to the payment of an inheritance tax under the provisions of the Transfer and Inheritance Tax Laws of the State of Missouri.

The evidence having been heard, and the inventory and appraisement in said estate, and all papers and records in the office of the Court pertaining to such matter having been examined, and it further appearing that the decedent made no transfer of any property, by deed, grant, bargain, sale, gift, or in any other manner, in contemplation of death or intended to take effect in possession or enjoyment at or after the death of said decedent, the Court finds that the clear market value of all the property of said estate, transfer of which is subject to the tax imposed by the Transfer and Inheritance Tax Laws of the State of Missouri, aggregates $ none personally and $ 1000.00 real estate; total, 1000.00

That the decedent died in testate on the 29th day of November, 194 51 that the persons entitled to the distribution of said estate are:

Name and Address of Beneficiary.	Relation-ship	Value of Interest of Each in Property Transferred.			Total Value Interest of Each.	Amount Legal Ex-emption of Each.

That after deducting the costs of administration and debts probated against said estate, there does not remain net assets of said estate to be distributed to said beneficiaries more than the sum to which said beneficiaries are entitled as exemptions.

Therefore, the Court, in view of the premises, finds that there is no tax due the State of Missouri under the Transfer and Inheritance Tax Laws of the State of Missouri by reason of the transfer of any property, estate, interest therein, or income therefrom, in said estate, and that there is no necessity of appointing an appraiser to appraise and fix the value of any property of said estate, and it is ordered no such appraiser be appointed.

It is further ordered and adjudged that there be taxed against said estate the sum of three and 15/100 Dollars, to be paid out of the assets of said estate, which sum A. C. Swisher, Administrator or Executor of said estate, is ordered to pay out of any money on hand.

It is further ordered and adjudged that a certified copy of this order and judgment be sent to the Director of Revenue of the State of Missouri, and to A. C. Swisher, Administrator or Executor of said estate.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me; Thy rod and
Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of
righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the
shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me; Thy rod and
Thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Crossing the Bar

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar
When I put out to sea.

But such a tide as moving seems asleep,
Too full for sound and foam,
When that which drew from out the boundless deep Turns again home.

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell
When I embark;

For though from out are bourne of time and place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

5- Gladys Myrtle Thronburg- Born in Cedar County Mo. Nov.13-1900 Still living at Lamar Mo. in 1986-Married Jesse Sherron-Had Four sons.

Jim Thronburg was a kindly man and a very hard worker. He was a very superstitious man and was always afraid of the unknown and afraid some thing bad could happen to him or his family. When his children were out of his sight for very long he would run to look about them fearing some catastrophe had happened to them.

His wife Eliza was struck by cancer and during the last years of her life James waited on her very tenderly and carefully as there was no hospital near. She got very nervous and demanding but he was always the same. After her death, he with his youngest children(Tom and Gladys) moved about quite a bit from farm to farm just renting. He may never owned any land but he loved mother earth and could hardly wait untill spring till he could work the dirt as he called the soil. He was a great grower of Garden Vegetables, with large melons and some peanuts in Mo.

He mowed and tended the St. James Cemetery for several years, but when he worked in this graveyard some one had to be there with him as he would not stay there alone.

When his son Thomas married Ethel Butler James continued to with them for the rest of his life. He came to Wyoming with them, helping in the garden as long as he was able and watched over his grandchildren. He had been in Wyo. about 25 years when he died.

Eliza had a brother William Wooldridge who married Mary(Mollie) Nease and they had one son named Clarence who was a first cousin of Les Thronburg.

Eliza had another brother named Samuel McMukery Wooldrodge some seven years older than her who married Rose Isenhower. She was the daughter of Moses Isenhower and sister of Mary (Isenhower) Dresslaer. Samuel and Rose had two daughters Laura and Ollie who were also first cousins of Les Thronburg.

Elbert Leslie Thronburg

Elbert Leslie Thronburg always known as Les was the son of James and Eliza Thronburg was born June 2-1884 and died Oct.21-1947. Buried at Roundtop Graveyard at Thermopolis.

On Oct.28-1908 he married Mary (Mollie) Ready. She was born Oct.4-1887 and died on Dec. 22-1965.also buried at Thermopolis.

The first year they were married they farmed the (Jap) Robinson place. No relation of Luke or Levi Robinson. This was good bottom land. Uncle Jap complained to neighbors that Les was plowing the ground too deep, but one neighbor told him to leave that young man alone and he would raise him a good crop. And he did raise good corn crops.

Les was down about one year with rheumatism- hardly able to work at all. After that he rented a farm out on the prairie in Barton County. While they lived there they recieved letters from his brothers in laws the Ready boys. They were in Wyoming and had homesteaded 160 acres apiece. In the summer of 1913 Andy Ready came back to Missouri from Wyoming where he had homesteaded but had never proved up on it. Les gave Andy a team of mules, harness and wagon to relinquish the papers to him. In Nov. 1913 Les, Mollie and three children got off the train at Thermopolis. They were Olevia, Mabel and James, the last child Raymond was born in Wyo. They went to there homestead which was at the very eastern end of (Missouri Flats). It had small cabin on it. But as this land did not appear to be good for farming Les went to work for his brother-in- law Hiram Ready, clearing sagebrush from his land in preparation to farming it. Then Hiram made a deal with Les where Les could have all the crop the next year for clearing off the brush. Les moved his family to another cabin close to this place in order to farm it. Then Hiram found a farm he liked better so he sold this first farm to Les and Mollie in 1916 for $4000. It is known as the Thronburg place today with son James still living on it.

This land is sandy loam- some of the best soil in Wyoming. It will grow anything the seasons permit. The slope of this land is a little steep to be called No. one land. Les had several water wells drilled, but good drinking water could not be found.

Les and Mollie raised their family here through drouth years and good years. With a few cattle, sheep and good gardens they lived happy. Les bought the land just south of the ranch for grazing purposes, there were several hundred acres of it. In later years Les bought an eighty acre farm just below his.

Then about 1945 Les began to fail in health. He was having some light strokes. Then turning the farms over to sons James and Raymond, Mollie and him bought a small house in Thermopolis. After that he just steadily got worse till he was helpless. He got so thin and another stroke caused him to lose his speech. Mollie lifted him into chairs and bed, waiting on him for his every need till he passed away. Mollie moved into another house and continued to live alone. But at times she kept older woman and some young children. She was always faithfull to her church, The First Baptist Church in Thermopolis. She was a very great person to her children and grandchildren. She continually to help the less fortunate.

The children born to Les and Mollie include--

- 1- Olevia-Born Aug 19-1909-Married Roy Collins- Died Nov. 1985
- 2- Mabel -Born Feb. 22-1911- Married Jess Robinson
- 3- James Hiram - Born Oct 30-1912- Married Betty Adams

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of
righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for Thou art with me; Thy rod and
Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

God looked around his garden and he found an empty space.
He then looked down upon the earth
and saw your tired face.

He only takes the best.

He knew that you were suffering and he knew you were in pain.

He knew that you might never get well on earth again.

He saw the road was getting rough and the hills too hard to climb
So he closed your weary eyelids and whispered,

"Peace Be Thine."

It broke our hearts to lose you,

God looked around His garden and found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth
and saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest

God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.

He knew that you would never
get well on earth again.
So He closed eyelids.
And whispered, "Peace be thine."

He then took you up to heaven with hands gentle and so kind.
It broke my heart to lose you.
But you did not go alone.
For part of me went with you.
The day God called you home.

Collins Is Popular 4-H Leader

George Collins of Thermopolis, one of Hot Springs County's most able 4-H leaders, was born on a Missouri farm in 1885, but soon felt the call of the high plains of the West. "We had no 4-H clubs back in my youth, but I learned how to care for stock when I was a boy, on my Dad's farm. Back in those days, our schools were much different, of course. We had about forty pupils under one teacher, and she taught all the grades—first through eighth."

Mr. Collins became interested in 4-H leader work when his younger son, Donald, began to make a name for himself in county judging contests. In 1939, a Hot Springs county 4-H livestock club called on him to act as their leader and he accepted. "I have not encouraged them to start with expensive projects, but start with what they have and make something of it"—also the motto of a very great American, George Washington Carver, the southern educator."

Recognizing the great importance of bookkeeping in these days of high labor costs and often slim margins on crops and livestock, Mr. Collins has stressed good record keeping in his 4-H club. The best 4-H'ers often come from families with parents who are wholeheartedly interested in their children's projects, and Mr. Collins is convinced that cooperation, encouragement and participation by parents is a very important factor in improving 4-H clubs and projects.

His record of participation in Hot Springs county 4-H work includes 10 years as a leader, chairman of Rural Life Sunday, camp chairman, and in district and state fair judging contests. He won a Burlington award in 1948, presented at the University of Wyoming's Ranch, Farm, and Home week.

Mr. Collins' interest in 4-H work goes back a long way—to 1911, when it was known as 3-H. That year he won first prize for his corn at the Paige County Fair back in Iowa. There he met a girl who won her 3-H pin for the tasty bread she exhibited at the fair.

Not long after that Iowa meeting, the girl, Grace Slough, became Mrs. George Collins.

Young son Donald is a long-time member of 4-H and is well known over the state for his Corriedale sheep. "The Collins family is one of our best examples of working together and with neighbors to make the best better, through 4-H," says the Hot Springs County Agent Don H. Tippetts. — Wyoming Stockman-Farmer.

There was quite a misprint in this column last week. I don't know who made the mistake but Mr. and Mrs. Ray Davis' baby boy weighed 7 (seven) lbs. and 5 oz. instead of 1 lb. and 5 oz. as was printed.

George Collins visited over night Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Collins at Meeteetse.

Most of us in the Flat attended the grade school Christmas program in town either Tuesday p.m. or at night. It was truly the best Christmas program we have seen put on in the schools.

Safely Home

I am home in Heaven, dear ones:
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is a perfect joy and beauty
In his everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over.
Every restless tossing passed:
I am now at peace forever.
Safely home in Heaven at last Did you wonder I so calmly
Trode the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.
And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread:
And with Jesus arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?
Then you must not grieve so sorely
For I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our father's Will.
There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand:
Do it now, while life remaineth—
You shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed
He will gently call you Home,
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!

HIGHWAY PATROLMAN DAVE MORRIS takes a look at the overturned Toyota, which was driven by Maureen Long, 15, last night along the Missouri Valley Road. The Long girl apparently over corrected, sending the car into a deep ditch, injuring her and her cousin, Jody Collins of Alaska.

Two Girls Were Hurt In One-Car Rollover

A fourteen-year-old Alaska girl visiting relatives in Riverton was taken to Natrona County Memorial Hospital in Casper by Fremont County Ambulance with head and abdominal injuries she received in a one-car accident last evening.

Jody Collins, of Alaska, is listed in critical condition today in the Intensive Care Unit of the Casper Hospital. Miss Collins was a passenger in a 1969 Toyota driven by her cousin, Maureen Long, age 15.

Maureen Long is listed in fair condition today at Memorial Hospital in Riverton.

The accident was apparently caused by over-correction on the part of Miss Long. The investigating Highway Patrolman reported that the Toyota was travelling east on the Missouri Valley Road when it left the highway, travelling 142 feet off the road. Re-entering the roadway, the vehicle travelled for another 211 feet before flying 25 feet and landing in a ditch. The vehicle landed nose down in the ditch and came to rest on left side.

Apparently Maureen Long was able to pull her cousin out of the foot high water, keeping her head out of the water. Long then attempted to go for help. The girl made it approximately 400 feet from the wreck into an alfalfa field where she was spotted by a passing motorist as she yelled for help. The passerby picked the girl up and took her to the Ernest Pingetzer home and the first ambulance was summoned. A second ambulance was called for the Collins girl.

The Collins girl was found beside the wrecked vehicle in the ditch, lying chest high in water.

Taken to Memorial Hospital in Riverton the Collins girl was given emergency treatment and transferred by ambulance to the Casper Hospital at 8:54 p.m.

Miss Long, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Long of Riverton was admitted to Memorial Hospital in Riverton.

The 1969 Toyota, driven by Miss Long, belonged to Lynn Duncan of Riverton. The vehicle was totalled in the accident.

Chester Friday of the Wind River Indian Reservation escaped serious injury in a similar accident outside Lander Sunday night.

Tradition bucked in I-80 truck stop wedding

By Rodd Aubrey
Independent Staff Writer

HAMPTON — Traditional weddings took a back seat to creativity Friday when two truckers were married along Interstate 80 here.

Lacy Collins of Riverton, Wyo., and Lyman Williams of Hampton exchanged vows in front of a reverend, relatives and three semi-trailers across the street from a truck stop.

The ceremony was based on one the groom saw in a magazine.

"They all seem to think it's pretty neat," Williams said.

"It's terrific," said co-worker Meta Ober. "What else would a truck driver do?"

Company mechanic Leo Alexander agreed. "There's nothing really strange about it, if this is the way they want it," he said.

At first, the wedding seemed to have all the gears oiled for tradition.

The nervous bride was dressed in white, posing for pictures as the bouquet of flowers shook slightly in her hands.

Friends and family doted over her, making sure the dress looked just right while reassuring her that the groom would eventually arrive. (He later blamed road construction, not last-minute jitters, for the 20-minute delay.)

Grandparents proudly pointed out four generations of family attending the ceremony, while they celebrated their own anniversaries. Meanwhile, children nagged parents for music, food or attention.

But as the ceremony progressed, tradition shifted into neutral.

The couple stood in front of two semi-trailer trucks, the rear-view mirrors and exhaust stacks draped with green and white streamers. They own a grey cab. The white one symbolized the rig he drove when they met.

Another truck — one that wasn't in the ceremony — drowned out a guitar player's song as wind blew out ceremonial candles.

The Rev. Bob Call took the opportunity to discuss travelling down the road of life. He even cracked a joke about the groom's tardiness. "We're more than del man made it," he said. "The bride quipped.

Collins and Williams cember when his cousin them in Sidney. Since M been driving a truck together the country, from Illinois nia.

They returned Sunday Chicago to prepare for the And if they get another job back on the road Monday.

But don't worry — a honeymoon could be on the map next year as they take road to a happy life.

Pray to trust our father's Will.
There is work still waiting for you.
So you must not idly stand:
Do it now, while life remaineth—
You shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed
He will gently call you Home.
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!

But Only One Mother-

things in life come by twos and threes, by dozens and hundreds. Plenty of roses, stars, sunsets, rainbows, brothers and sisters, aunts and cousins, but only one mother in the whole world.*

*God saw she was getting tired, and a cure was not to be. So,
He put His arms around her and whispered, "Come be with me."
With tearful eyes we watched her sigh and saw her fade away.
Although we loved her dearly, we could not make her stay. A golden heart stopped beating. Hard working hands to rest. God broke our hearts to prove to us, He only takes the best.*

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the
paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; Thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head

The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the
paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the
shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me

in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me and all your family. Words are inadequate to express our sorrow. We looked forward to visiting with Aunt Clara on each of our trips to Missouri. There will be a void the next time we make that trip. All her stories about her childhood and that of her siblings were enjoyed by both of us. Sorry we are not able to attend her services, but our thoughts and prayers are with each of you. Love, Ruth

From Esther Obermeier,

Dear Virginia & your extended family,
I sent my sympathy to each of you with the loss of your mother. What a blessing to have her for so many years & such beautiful memories you have to cherish. And what a wonderful daughter you were to travel so far every month to see your mother, she really appreciated your visits. I'm her grand-neice. My mother was Emily (Fyfe) Bender & Mom's mother was Aunt Clara's sister, Myrtle (Collins) Fyfe.
When I took Mom the last time to see Aunt Clara she had fixed dinner for us & they had a good visit.
I stopped to see Aunt Clara 2 or 3 times after that & wrote some, she would answer promptly & if I didn't write back soon enough she would write, again. Enjoyed the visits with her & she always knew who I was, even tho' she didn't know I was coming down that way.
Asked her a couple questions about Mom's mother & said she must have been a very determined person, & she replied that would be a nice way of putting it...thought that was so cute.
Mom still called she Aunt Clara even tho' there was only seven yrs. difference in their ages. And then asked Aunt Clara if that was ok.
Will miss visiting with her. May God Bless each of your families.
My Love,
Esther Obermeier

ASSASSINATED!

OSCAR HARWELL, OF GOOD SPRINGS, SHOT DOWN

CALLED TO FRONT DOOR MONDAY NIGHT AND MURDERED WITHOUT WARNING

One of the most cruel, cold blooded and dastardly murders in the history of Giles County occurred at Good Springs Monday night when Oscar Harwell was called to his front door and shot down without warning.

Mr. Harwell was one of the best citizens of the county. Genial and frank in his dealings and manners, he had prospered in business and made friends at the same time. He was selling goods and conducting a large farm. Born in 1861, he was in the prime of life. His oldest daughter, Miss Pearl, married Henry Foster about two years ago. Mrs. Harwell, after a lingering illness with a cancer, died last fall. So Oscar Harwell was living with his three younger children, the oldest a girl about fifteen years old, the next a boy of ten and the youngest a girl about eight.

Monday evening Mr. Harwell closed the store about sundown, as usual, and went home. After supper with his little family, all retired and were soon asleep.

About 9:30 o'clock Mr. Harwell was aroused by someone calling from the front yard. He asked who it was, but the person outside instead of giving a name called to Mr. Harwell to come out to the store and telephone for a doctor, saying his wife was sick. Three times Harwell asked who it was, but the only information was the request to come to the telephone and call a doctor. So without putting on his clothes or lighting a lamp, Mr. Harwell started to open his front door, when instantly there was a flash and he received in the side just below the left arm the full charge from both barrels of a double barrel shot gun. The assassin was so close that not a shot went wild. There were two holes as large as a man's thumb with about half an inch of unbroken skin between them. A few shots had scattered, some striking perhaps as far as two or three inches from the frightful holes where the main charge entered. But a man's hand would cover the wound. Some of the shot entered the body cavity and penetrated the upper part of the left lung as was shown by spitting blood, but the main charge passed around the ribs just under the left arm, cutting the large artery there and lodging against the shoulder blade.

When Harwell was shot he staggered back from the front hall door and into his own room at the right of the hall, screaming with pain and fright. His outcries aroused the children; the oldest girl ran into her father's room and lighted the lamp when a horrible scene was presented. Her father was standing near the door in a dazed condition, the blood pouring from his breast. The little girl ran screaming for help to the nearest neighbors.

The first man to arrive was H.T. Mitchell. When he reached the house Mr. Harwell was sitting against the door opening from the hall into his room and when Mr. Mitchell pushed the door open Harwell seemed to think it was his assailant following up the attack. But after a few minutes he became sufficiently composed to recognize his friends, several of whom had come and in a little while became entirely conscious and remained so most of the time till his death which occurred about midnight.

Esq. George P. Meadows was called by telephone and he and John Holt, Superintendent of the Work House, which is now camped on Meadow's lot, hurried to the scene of the tragedy. Dr. W. E. Wilson and Sheriff Flourney English were both called from Pulaski.

When the Doctor arrived both he and Harwell recognized that nothing could be done but to relieve to some extent the intense pain.

The Sheriff called for T. U. Dops, of Sumac to bring his blood hounds. They struck a trail in Harwell's yard, passed out by the garden and up a little ravine toward Anthonys' Hill where they lost the trail in Harwell's pasture not far from the road. The dogs would circle about, strike the trail, follow up to the same place and lose it again.

Miss Gosale Madry, a school girl, living just below Harwell's store, was sitting up studying her lessons when the shooting occurred. She heard the report of the gun; heard Mr. Harwell screaming and about two minutes later heard someone ride past the house going at a brisk trot. This circumstance suggested that the person who did the killing may have left a horse about the house, and Tuesday morning Dr. Wilson and others who did not know where the dogs lost the trail went up the road toward Anthonys' Hill. At the pasture gap which had not been used by Mr. Harwell since the rain there were tracks showing that a horse had been taken into and out of the pasture. These tracks led to a small hickory bush about fifteen steps from the fence where the horse had evidently been hitched for a little while, and then passed back through the gap to the road. But the fence had been put up and the tracks would never have been noticed if the party had not been looking for them.

When the neighbors came in all of course wanted to know how it happened and who did it. Mr. Harwell stated without hesitation that he was shot by Henry Foster, his son-in-law, but did not claim to have recognized him. Indeed there was no opportunity to recognize anyone. Harwell was a little suspicious about being called in by a man who did not give his name. So debating in his own mind whether it might be some one bent on robbery and desiring to get into the store or some one really wanting a doctor and excited, he picked up his gun and walked to the door. Just as the door was drawn back a little, with perhaps not more than half of Harwell's body exposed the shots were fired, supposedly from the corner of the house at the southwest end of the front porch. Mr. Harwell could remember nothing else till he regained consciousness after friends came in. It is supposed he said Foster shot him mainly because bad blood had existed between them ever since Foster's marriage and he could think of no other enemy to suspect.

Harwell was opposed to the marriage of his daughter and Foster, but the young people ran away and married without his consent. Then after a few months Foster left his young wife and went to Texas. She returned to her father's and lived there till Foster's return from Texas last summer. Then she went to live with him again. But Harwell would not permit him to enter the Harwell home.

On the strengths of Harwell's dying accusation Foster was arrested and placed in jail. But he and his wife positively assert that he had not been away from home Monday night.

J.R. Holt and W.J. Shields made the necessary affidavit and Esq. George P. Meadows empaneled a Coroner's jury and held an inquest. The jury after hearing all the evidence, and comparing Foster's shoes with tracks supposed to have been made by the murderer, returned the following verdict:

CORONER'S VERDICT

State of Tennessee, Giles County, May 19, 1903

An inquisition held at Good Springs in the County of Giles and State of Tennessee on the 19th day of May, 1903, before George P. Meadows, a Justice of the Peace of said county, upon the body of Oscar Harwell there lying dead, by the jurors whose names are hereto ascribed who upon their oath do say that the dead body is that of Oscar Harwell, who lived at Good Springs prior to his death. That he was about 43 years old, a white man. We find that he had been shot with two barrels or loads from a shot gun with about No. 5 shot, in the upper part of the left breast, near where the body lay. The evidence disclosed that he was called to his front door by someone who claimed they wanted him to telephone for a doctor. He opened the front door and was shot at close range, the wads from a No. 12 shell going into his body. The evidence further discloses that the deceased stated that one Henry Foster shot him and further that a pair of shoes found in said Foster's house at the time of his arrest were wet on the bottoms and sides and said shoes fit tracks leading to and from said Oscar Harwell's house where he was killed, through a cotton patch to a point where a horse was hitched with fresh tracks and the measurement of said tracks fit pretty well the shoes worn by a horse the said Henry Foster claims to plow. And in view of these facts in connection with other evidences disclosed leads as to conclude that the said Oscar Harwell came to his death at his own home on the night of May 18th, 1903, by the hands of one Henry Foster, that it was done willfully, maliciously, premeditatedly and with malice aforethought upon the part of the said Henry Foster. In testimony whereof the said Jurors have hereunto set their hands, this day and date above.

The funeral was preached yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock, at Cedar Grove, Rev. J.S. Rice conducted the services. The funeral was immediately followed by burial at the Fogg graveyard.
