YOU KNOW YOUR A GENEALOGIST WHEN:

Your kids think picnics in cemeteries are "normal" or everybody does it!
You're the only person in your card club who knows what a Soundex is.
"It is only a few miles down the road" means at least 50!
Some of your best friends live over 200 miles away.
You have more pictures of tombstones than of the kids!

"I need to spend just a little more time at the courthouse" means forget the cleaning, washing, dinner, and chores, the day is shot!

The mailman can't believe that you got this much mail from someone you don't even know!

You explain to mother why you can't go 25 miles for Sunday dinner, but can go 100 miles to check out another cemetery.

"As soon as I check out this census record, I'll fix dinner" means call the local pizza parlor.

Your neighbors think you are crazy, your friends wonder and YOU know you are!

You can't drive past a cemetery without wondering if your ancestors are buried there!

You have to watch the credits of a movie to see if any of the surnames re ones you are researching!

You ask all the people you meet, what their grandparents surnames are.

You move to a new town and the first thing you look for is a historical or genealogical society in the area.

Youthful fantasies of traveling to exotic places are replaced with plans to get to those little towns with graveyards, or larger towns with Archives!

Your fear of snakes and spiders is overshadowed by the need to get through those brambles to that old graveyard.

Old friends who knew you before you were into genealogy begin sending clippings about dead or live people with your surnames (and you know you have been talking about genealogy too mu;much!!)

You worry about the roofs leaking only if the drips threaten your genealogy papers and notebooks!

When you can recite all the counties of a State you've researched but not in the State you live.

When you find your ancestor's execution by hanging or burning at the stake far more interesting than the mass-murder that just took place next door!

You're invited to family functions because your relatives are tired to filling out those family Group Sheets!

OCCGS REFERENCE ONLY

When you read the New Testament in Sunday School and find yourself comparing the pedigrees in Matthew and Luke!

You go on vacation and beg your hubby to please drive 80 miles out of the way, so that you can try to find your granddaddy's grave in 100 degree heat.

You can't "settle in" the motel on vacation until you check the local phone book for surnames in your family!

Thanks to Donna Perkins Edwards and Patricia Owens from the Roots Web, Perkins List for sharing this. How true it is! Note: The editor added the last one!

DROWNED....JOHNNY ANDERSON

4th of July, 1875.....Drowned in Quincy, Illinois, on July 4th, Johnny Anderson, second son of John S. and Melvina Anderson, of Brown County.

Most of our readers (Brown county Democrat newspaper) remember that Mr. Anderson and family came from near Hunstville, Schuyler county, to make their home amongst us sometime last August.

Little Johnny, their second son, a bright-eyed, intelligent boy, 13 years of age, was an exception among boys; unlike most, he was never seen in the streets except on business, he always liked to be employed at something, never having an idle moment, and nothing delighted him more than to be able to be a regular attendant at church. He attended the public school here last winter, and his amiable disposition will be long remembered by his schoolmates. At the close of the school he preferred the industry of the farm to the idle mischievous life that is led by some of our city boys, in consequence of which he went to Clayton to spend the summer with his brother-in-law, Mr. Thomas Clark, where he was making his home at the time of his death.

On Saturday, he went to Quincy to visit with his relatives, and spend the fourth. Sunday morning he started, in company with two cousins, to walk about the city. After they had left the house of his aunt, they went to the bay and procured a skiff. After rowing awhile they tied the skiff and he and the older one of his cousins, divested themselves of their clothing and went into the water to bathe. Johnny was a good swimmer, but he got into a strong current, and it is thought took the cramp. His cousin tried to help him, but he was so heavy that the current carried him away from him, and Johnny went down under the raft. It being Sunday, no one was near, and it was sometime before the boys could obtain the assistance of any men.

The work of moving the raft was commenced on Tuesday, and the body was found the same evening, about 6 o'clock. It was about 700 feet below where he went under and had lodged between two cribs of the raft. The body was sent to Mt. Sterling Wednesday morning, and the funeral took place at 1 o'clock of the same day from the home.

Our entire community deeply sympathizes with the family in their bereavement, and can only point them to Him, who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me." may He make their yoke easy and their burden light.

Note: John J. Anderson, age 13 yrs, 2 mos & 13 days is buried in the Mt. Sterling City Cemetery.
